T A B L E
OF Feasts and Fasts.

HOLYDAYS ON WHICH THERE IS A STRICT OBLIGATION TO HEAR MASS, AND REFRAIN FROM SERVILE WORK.

All Sundays in the year.

The Feast of the Circumcision of our

The Epiphany, Jan. 6.*

The Annunciation of the Blessed

Ascension of our Lord.

Corpus Christi, or the Feast of the Blessed Sacrament.*

Assumption of the Blessed Virgin
Mary, August 15.

* In the dioceses of New Orleans, St. Louis, Mobile, Vincennes, Dubuque, Little Rock, and Chicago, the Circumcision, Epiphany, Annunciation, and Corpus Christi, are not festivals of obligation.

Feast of All Saints, November 1.

Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Dec. 8.

Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ, Dec. 25.

FASTING-DAYS ON ONE MEAL.

All days in Lent, except Sundays.

The eve of Whitsuntide.

The Quarter-Tenses, or Ember-days, which occur in the four seasons of the year, viz. : the Wednesdays, Fridays, and Saturdays—1. Immediately after the first Sunday in Lent; 2. In Whitsun-week; 3. Immediately after the 14th of September; 4. Immediately after the third Sunday of Advent.

The Vigil of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the Vigil of All Saints.

Every Friday in Advent, and Christmas-Eve.

N. B.—When a fasting-day falls upon Sunday, the fast is observed on the Saturday preceding that Sunday.

DAYS OF ABSTINENCE FROM FLESH-MEAT.

All the Sundays in Lent, except when the use of meat is allowed by the Archbishop or Bishop of the Diocese.

All Fridays and Saturdays throughout the year.*

If Christmas-day falls upon a Friday or Saturday, neither fast nor abstinence is observed.

* The abstinence on Saturdays is dispensed with, for the faithful throughout the United States, for the space of twenty years from 1860, except when a fast falls on Saturday. Hence, the Saturdays of Lent, and Quarter-Tenses, and Vigils falling on Saturday, are still days of abstinence from flesh-meat.

Morning Prayer.

MORNING Prayer is a duty which God requires as the first-fruits of the day: most religiously then should it be consecrated to him. The success of our actions for the rest of the day, depends in a great measure upon this first duty. To begin the day without imploring God's grace, and thanking him sincerely for the repose of the night, is certainly to expose ourselves to infinite danger.

But, before your prayer, recollect yourself a moment : think what you yourself are, and what that God is, to whom you are going to speak. You will thus conceive the importance of the action, and the sentiments of humility, of regret for your faults, of attention, respect, fervor, love, and confidence, with which you should address him.

At waking in the morning, say :

MY God, my only good, the author of my being, and my last end, I give thee my heart. Praise, honor, and glory be to thee forever and ever. Amen.

At rising up, say :

✠ IN the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

I will raise myself up from this bed of sleep, to adore my God, and to labor for the salvation of my soul. O may I rise on the last day, to life everlasting !

While clothing yourself, say :

O MY God, clothe my soul with the nuptial robe of charity, and grant that I may wear it pure and undefiled before thy judgment-seat.

When clothed, kneel down, and say :

IN the name of the Father, &c. Amen. Blessed be the holy and undivided Trinity, now and for evermore. Amen. Come, O Holy Ghost, replenish my heart, and enkindle in it the fire of thy divine love. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer.

QUR Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name; Thy Kingdom come; thy Will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. Amen.

The Angelical Salutation.

HAIL, Mary, full of grace; the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou amongst women; and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.—Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now, and at the hour of our death. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed.

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and Earth ; and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord ; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost ; born of the Virgin Mary ; suffered under Pontius Pilate ; was crucified, dead and buried ; he descended into Hell ; the third day he rose again from the dead ; he ascended into Heaven ; and sitteth at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty : from thence he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost ; the Holy Catholic Church ; the Communion of Saints ; the Forgiveness of Sins ; the Resurrection of the Body : and life everlasting. Amen.

THE CONFITEOR ; OR GENERAL CONFESSION.

I CONFESS to Almighty God, to the blessed Mary ever Virgin, to blessed Michael the Archangel, to blessed John the Baptist, to the holy apostles Peter and Paul, and to all the Saints, that I have sinned exceedingly, in thought, word, and deed, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault. Therefore I beseech the blessed Mary ever Virgin, blessed Michael the Archangel, blessed John the Baptist, the holy apostles Peter and Paul, and all the Saints, to pray to the Lord our God for me.

May Almighty God have mercy on me, forgive me my sins, and bring me to everlasting life. Amen.

ALMIGHTY GOD! who though dwelling in the highest heaven, yet vouchsafest to regard the lowest creature upon earth, I humbly adore thy sacred Majesty, and with all the force and powers of my soul exalt and praise thy holy name for the infinite blessings thou hast so freely bestowed on me, for electing me in thy love, and creating me to thy own image; for redeeming me by thy Son, and sanctifying me with thy Holy Spirit; for preserving me in all the chances and encounters of this life, and raising up my thoughts to the hope of a better ; and particularly for thy gracious protection from the dangers of the past night, and for bringing me safely to the beginning of this day. Continue, O Lord, thy mercy to me, and as thou hast awakened my body from sleep, so raise my soul from sin, that I may walk soberly and chaste-ly as in the day, in all holy obedience, before thy face.

Deliver me, O merciful God, from the evils of this day, and guide my feet in the ways of peace. Strengthen my resolutions to embrace with gladness all opportunities of doing good, and carefully to avoid all occasions of sin, especially those which I have found by experience to be most dangerous to my soul ; and when, through frailty, I forget thee, do thou in thy mercy remember me ; that as I often fall by the evil inclination of my nature, I may instantly rise again by the assistance of thy grace. Make me diligent in the duties of my calling and state of life, and not too solicitous for the success of my affairs ; but in all the miscarriages and crosses of this world, absolutely submit to thy divine pleasure, and wholly rely on thy merciful providence. Let thy blessing be upon my actions, and thy grace direct my intentions ; that the whole course of my life, and the principal design of my heart, may always tend to the advancement of thy glory, the good of others, and the eternal salvation of my own soul, through Jesus Christ our Lord and only Saviour, who, with thee and the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth, one God, world without end. Amen.

Give me grace, O Lord, to do what thou commandest, and command what thou pleasest.

Give me grace to suffer what thou permittest, and permit what thou pleasest.

The blessing of God Almighty, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, descend upon me, and dwell in my heart forever. Amen.

ACTS OF CONTRITION, FAITH, HOPE, AND CHARITY.A Prayer before the Acts.

Q ALMIGHTY and eternal God, grant unto us an increase of faith, hope, and charity. And that we may obtain what thou hast promised, make us love what thou commandest, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An Act of Contrition.

O MY God, I am heartily sorry for having offended thee, and I detest my sins most sincerely, because they displease thee, my God, who art so deserving of all my love, for thy infinite goodness and most amiable perfections ; and I firmly purpose, by thy holy grace, never more to offend thee.

An Act of Faith.

O MY God, I firmly believe that thou art one only God, the Creator and sovereign Lord of heaven and earth, infinitely great and infinitely good. I firmly believe that in thee, one only God, there are three divine persons, really distinct and equal in all things, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost : I firmly believe that Jesus Christ, God the Son, became man ; that he was conceived by the Holy Ghost, and was born of the Virgin Mary, that he suffered and died on a cross to redeem and save us, that he arose the third day from the dead; that he ascended into heaven; that he will come at the end of the world to judge mankind; and that he will reward the good with eternal happiness, and condemn the wicked to the everlasting pains of hell. I believe these and all other articles, which the holy Roman Catholic Church proposes to our belief, because thou, my God, the infallible truth, hast revealed them; and thou hast commanded us to hear the Church, which is the pillar and the ground of truth; in this faith I am firmly resolved, by thy holy grace, to live and die. Matt. xviii. 17, and 1 Tim. iii. 15.

An Act of Hope.

O MY God, who hast graciously promised every blessing, even heaven itself, through Jesus Christ, to those who keep thy commandments—relying on thy infinite power, goodness, and mercy, and on thy sacred promises, to which thou art always faithful; I confidently hope to obtain pardon of all my sins; grace to serve thee faithfully in this life, by doing the good works thou hast commanded, and which, with thy assistance, I now purpose to perform; and eternal happiness in the next, through my Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

An Act of Charity, or an Act of the Love of God and of our Neighbor.

O MY God, 'I love thee with my whole heart and soul, and above all things; because thou art infinitely good and perfect, and most worthy of all my love; and for thy sake, I love my neighbor as myself. Mercifully grant, O my God, that having loved thee on earth, I may love and enjoy thee forever in heaven. Amen.

A Devout Recommendation, which may be used every Morning, or any other Time.

ADORE and glorify thee, O blessed Trinity, God Almighty, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. I offer myself to thy divine Majesty, humbly beseeching thee to take from me, and from all thy faithful, whatever displeases thee, and to give us that which is grateful in thy sight; grant that we may here do what thou commandest, and hereafter receive what thou promisest.

To thee, O Lord, I commend my soul and body (my wife and children, my father and mother, my brothers and sisters), my kinsfolk, benefactors, and friends, all my nearest and dearest relatives, and all those for whom I am any ways bound to offer up my prayers. To thee I commend the Holy Catholic Church. To thee I commend these United States, and our President.

Grant, O Lord, that all may know thee, all may honor and reverence thee, all may love thee, and be loved by thee. Reduce those that err, and bring them again into the way of truth: abolish heresies, and convert all to the true faith, who as yet do not know thee. Grant us, O Lord, thy grace, and preserve us in thy peace; may thy holy will be done, and not ours. Comfort all those that lead their lives in sorrow, misery, or temptation, and mercifully relieve them in their afflictions, whether spiritual or corporal. Lastly, I commend all universally to thy holy protection, beseeching thee that thou wouldst vouchsafe to grant to the living forgiveness of their sins, and to the souls departed everlasting rest. Amen.

A Prayer for Perseverance in Goodness.

GRANT, O my Lord Jesus Christ, that I may persevere in good purposes, and in thy holy service, to my death; and that I may this day perfectly begin, for all I have hitherto done is nothing. Amen.

Here, if you have leisure, add, out of the devout prayers, that which is adapted to your state in life.

A Prayer to your Angel Guardian.

ANGEL of God, to whose care I am committed by the supreme clemency, illuminate, defend, and govern me this day in all my thoughts, words, and actions. Amen.

Bless us, O Lord, and preserve us from all evil, and bring us to eternal life; and may the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

When at Morning, Noon, or Evening, the Sign of the Salutation is given, say,

THE Angel of the Lord declared to Mary,* and she conceived by the Holy Ghost. Hail Mary, &c. Behold the handmaid of the Lord :* be it done unto me according to thy word. Hail Mary,

&c. And the Word was made flesh,* and dwelt amongst us. Hail Mary,
&c.

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

The Prayer.

POUR forth, we beseech thee, O
Lord, thy grace into our hearts, that we, to whom the incarnation of Christ thy Son was made known by the message of an angel, may, by his passion and cross, be brought to the glory of his resurrection, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

By thy glory,

Deliver us, O Jesus!

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins
of the world, Spare us, O Jesus

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, Hear us, O Jesus !

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins
of the world, Have mercy on us, O Jesus !

Jesus, hear us.

Jesus, graciously hear us.

Let us pray.

O LORD Jesus Christ, who hast said, Ask and you shall receive ; seek and you shall find ; knock and it shall be opened unto you ; mercifully attend to our supplication, and grant us the gift of thy divine charity, that we may ever love thee with our whole heart, and never desist from thy praise.

O JESUS ! grant us a perpetual fear and love of thy holy name, as thou never ceasest to direct and govern by thy providence those whom thou dost instruct in the solidity of thy love.

Salve Regina.

HAIL! holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our Life, our Sweetness, and our Hope; to thee do we cry, poor banished sons of Eve; to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears: turn then, most gracious advocate, thy eyes of mercy towards us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O most clement, most pious, and most sweet Virgin Mary.

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

The Blessing.

THE peace of our Lord Jesus Christ;—virtue of his sacred passion:—the sign of the holy cross;—the purity and humility of the Blessed Virgin Mary;—the protection of the angels;—and the intercession of all the saints and elect of God, be with me, and defend me now, and at the hour of my death, sweet Jesus. Amen.

At going forth out of your House, say,

SHOW me, O Lord, thy ways, and teach me thy paths. Direct my steps according to thy words, that no injustice may rule over me. Make perfect my walking in thy paths, that my steps may not be moved.

Grace before Meat.

BLESS us, O Lord, and these thy gifts, which of thy bounty we are about to receive, through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Grace after Meat.

WE give thee thanks, Almighty God, for all thy benefits, who livest and reignest world without end. R. Amen.

Vouchsafe, O Lord, for thy name's sake, to render to our benefactors life everlasting. R. Amen.

V. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. R. Amen.

Devotions for every Day in the Week.

A holy and ancient practice amongst the faithful has consecrated every day in the week to some particular devotion. It is with this spirit that a prayer is here set down for each of these days.

SUNDAY.

A Prayer to the most Holy Trinity.

GLORY be to the Father, who, by his power, hath brought us forth from nothing, and created us to his own likeness. Glory be to the Son, who by his wisdom hath delivered us from Hell, and opened Heaven for us. Glory be to the Holy Ghost, who, by his mercy, hath sanctified us in baptism, and still continues to sanctify us by the graces which we every day receive from him. Glory, honor, and praise be to the three persons of the most holy and undivided Trinity, now and forever. We adore thee, O Holy Trinity ! we worship thee ; we most humbly give thee thanks for having revealed to us this glorious, this incomprehensible mystery ; and for granting to those who shall persevere until death in the faithful profession of it, the reward of beholding and enjoying in Heaven, what we now believe and adore upon Earth—One God in Three Persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. Amen.

MONDAY.

A Prayer to the Holy Ghost.

SANCTIFIER of our souls !
thou Spirit of love and truth ! We adore thee as the principle of our eternal happiness ; we thank thee as the dispenser of all heavenly favours ; and we invoke thee as the source of that light and strength, by which alone we can know what is good, and be enabled to practise it. Enlighten our understandings, fortify our wills, purify our hearts, regulate our movements, and make us attentive to all thy inspirations. Pardon us, thou Spirit of Grace and Mercy! pardon us our constant infidelities, and the shameful insensibility with which we have so often resisted the most touching impulses of grace. We are at length resolved to be no longer rebellious to it: but to obey it with such docility, that we may taste those fruits, and enjoy those beatitudes, which thy sacred gifts can produce in our souls.

TUESDAY.

A Prayer to our Guardian Angel.

HOLY Angel, to whose care God in his mercy hath committed me, I return thee now my most sincere and humble thanks ; I conjure thee, O amiable Guide, to continue still thy care ; to defend me against my enemies ; to remove from me the occasions of sin ; to obtain for me a constant docility to divine inspirations ; to protect me, in particular, at the hour of my death ; and then to conduct me to the mansions of eternal repose, where, in thy blessed society, I may praise our Creator forever. Amen.

DEVOTIONS FOR
WEDNESDAY.A Prayer to St. Joseph.

FAITHFUL servant, whom God had charged with the care of his family; thou whom he had established the guardian and protector of the life of Jesus, the consoler and support of his Mother, and his own faithful Associate in the great affair of our Redemption; thou who hadst the happiness to live with Jesus and Mary, and to expire in their arms: Chaste Spouse of the Mother of God! thou model of pure, humble, and interior souls! be touched with the confidence we have in thee; and graciously accept these testimonies of our devotion. We return God thanks for the favors he hath bestowed on thee; and we beg, through thy intercession, that we may imitate thy virtues. Pray for us, then, O glorious Saint; and by that love thou always hadst for Jesus and for Mary, and which Jesus and Mary had also for thee, obtain always for us the incomparable advantage of living faithful to Jesus, and of dying in his love. Amen.

THURSDAY.

A Prayer before the Blessed Sacrament.

W O SWEET and adorable Jesus, who, in the excess of thy love, art pleased to dwell with us in the Sacrament of the Altar; I here acknowledge that thou art my Sovereign and my God: I adore thee with the most profound humility; I thank thee with all my heart, for the tenderness thou here showest me, in spite of the treatment thou receivest. Pierced with the sincerest grief, at the sight of my ingratitude, I come, O God of Majesty, to make thee some poor amends, for all the sacrileges and the impiety which were ever committed or ever shall be committed against this adorable Sacrament. Why cannot I, O God, sufficiently testify my own regret, for having so often appeared before thee with indifference, and for having approached thee with so little fervor, and so little love? Forget, O Lord, my iniquities, that thou mayest remember only thy own infinite mercies. Deign to accept the desire I have of honoring thee in the adorable Sacrament. Yes, I wish with all my heart to love thee, to bless, to praise, and adore thee here, as fervently as the saints and angels adore thee: and I conjure thee, by this sacred Body, and by this most precious Blood, that I may henceforth honor thee so fervently, and receive thee so worthily, that after this life, I may praise thee forever with thy Saints in Heaven. Amen.

FRIDAY.

A Prayer to Jesus suffering.

SPOTLESS Lamb ! O Innocent Victim ! who by thy Death and Blood hast effaced the sins of mankind, blot out my iniquities, and do not permit that thy sufferings should become useless to me.

O Jesus, humbled, sorrowful, desolate, and resigned to death ! help me to receive, with a resignation like thine, whatever afflictions thou shalt please to send me. O Jesus, torn with stripes, pierced with thorns, weltering in blood for my sake, teach me to endure, for love of thee, the anguish and inconvenience of ill health, misery, or afflictions. O Jesus, abandoned to executioners, shamefully condemned to a cross, enable me to fly all vain-glory, and patiently to endure the most humbling contradictions. O Jesus, sinking under the weight of thy cross, I unite myself to thee, and my crosses also to thine—grant me grace to bear them with patience and resignation. O Jesus, raised up on thy cross, draw me now powerfully to thee : thou art expiring for my sake, O let me never live but for thine ; that being henceforth crucified with thee, my whole occupation may be to love and to adore thee incessantly. Amen.

SATURDAY.

A Prayer to the Blessed Virgin.

WO BLESSED Virgin, Mother of God ! and by this august quality, worthy of all respect from men and angels, I come to offer thee my most humble homage, and to implore the aid of thy prayers and protection. Thy intercession is most powerful, and thy goodness for mankind on earth, is equal to thy influence in Heaven. Thou knowest, O blessed Virgin! that I look up to thee as my Mother, my Patroness, my Advocate: I acknowledge with humble gratitude that thy virtues singled thee out for the mother of my Redeemer. I will henceforth honor and serve thee assiduously. Accept, O blessed Virgin, my protestations of fidelity; look favorably on the confidence I have in thee; obtain for me of thy dear Son, a lively faith, a firm hope, a tender, generous, and constant love. Obtain for me a cautious purity, a sincere humility, a placid resignation to the will of God, and so faithful an imitation of thy virtues through life, that I may exult in thy patronage at the hour of my death. Amen.

Prayers at Night.

IN the name of the Father,
&c. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, I believe in God.

Blessed be the holy and undivided Trinity, now, and forever. Amen.

O ETERNAL, infinite, and Almighty God! whose glory the heaven of heavens cannot contain, look down on thy unworthy servant, prostrate at the feet of thy mercy, and humbly confessing to thee, in the sight of all thy holy angels and blessed saints, the sinfulness and vanity of my life, but especially the transgressions of this day, by which I have so grievously wounded my own soul.

I confess to Almighty God, to blessed Mary, ever Virgin, to blessed Michael the Archangel, to blessed John the Baptist, to the holy apostles Peter and Paul, and to all the saints, that I have grievously sinned in thought, word, and deed, through my fault, through my fault, through my exceeding great fault.

Here examine diligently what sins you may have fallen into this day, by thought, word, deed, or omission, and humbly confessing them, proceed thus :

O F these, and all my other sins, I most sincerely repent, and am heartily sorry for every thought, word, and deed, by which I have displeased the eyes of thy glory, and provoked thy wrath and indignation against me: especially for my disobedience to so holy a law, and extreme ingratitude to so gracious and bountiful a God. I acknowledge, O Lord, that I have not merited the least of thy mercies, but rather deserve the greatest of thy judgments: but as thou hast revealed thyself to be a God of pity and compassion, forgiving the iniquities of such as truly repent, and absolving all those that voluntarily condemn themselves, wherefore with a penitent and contrite heart, I freely confess the guiltiness of my own conscience, and humbly offer these prayers, &c. to thee, for my penance.

Say some Prayers, or do some other pious Act, for your Penance, then proceed thus:

BUT since my unworthiness and many imperfections most justly discourage me from presuming on my own performances, and the richness of thy mercy has provided for us a multitude of acceptable intercessors; therefore I beseech the blessed Mary, ever Virgin, the blessed Michael the Archangel, the blessed John Baptist, the holy apostles Peter and Paul, and all the saints, to pray to the Lord our God for me.

May Almighty God have mercy on me, and forgiving me my sins, bring me to everlasting life. Amen.

May the Almighty and merciful Lord grant me pardon, absolution, and remission of all my sins. Amen.

And now, O most gracious and liberal Benefactor, I praise and magnify thy holy name for thy great and innumerable benefits, proceeding purely from thy bounty, and intended wholly for my good; particularly for preserving me this day in the midst of so many dangers incident to my condition, and delivering me from so many calamities and miseries as are due to my sins.

Thou art my Creator, O my God, and kind Protector; thou art the ultimate end of my being, and supreme perfection of my nature. Under the shadow of thy wings is perpetual repose, and from the light of thy countenance flow eternal joy and felicity. To thee be glory and honor, to thee adoration and obedience, from all thy creatures forever. Amen.

And since thou hast ordained the day to labor, and the night to take our rest, as I praise thee for the blessings of this day past, so I implore thy protection this night to come. Let the eyes of thy providence watch over me, and thy holy angels pitch their tents about me; that being safely delivered from all dangers, and comfortably refreshed with moderate sleep, I may the better be enabled to perform the employments of my calling and state of life, and faithfully persevere in the discharge of the duties of thy service; and so daily advance to new victories over my passions, and to a more perfect observance of thy commandments; till having passed my days in thy fear, I may end them in thy favor, and rejoice with thee forever in thy heavenly kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord and only Saviour, who with thee and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth, one God, world without end. Amen.

An Act of Contrition.

DREAD Lord, and most indulgent Father of mercies ! I a wretched worm have sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy servant, much less to be accounted thy child, having repaid so much bounty with contempt, and so many benefits with ingratitude. Where shall I find punishment enough to be revenged on me for my sins, or tears enough to wash out my iniquities ? Alas ! I grieve not at those pains which I have deserved for my rebellion ; it only pierces my very heart that I have offended a God who ought to be beloved and honored above all things. What shall I say, dear Lord, in detestation of the crimes I have committed? What shall I do to prevent my future relapses? Father, from henceforth the face of sin shall be more hideous to me than hell, and the least temptation to it more frightful than death. Forgive, O Almighty Lord, forgive, and have not the sins of my past life in remembrance. Why should the mighty Lord of heaven and earth be incensed against so poor, so contemptible an object? Behold me, O God, not in thy anger, but according to the tender bowels of thy infinite mercy: for thou art our Father, and we are thy children; thou art our Maker, and we are as clay in thy hands; thou canst, with those waters drawn from the fountain of our blessed Saviour, cleanse our pollutions; and with the mixture of one drop of his most precious blood, mould us again into vessels of honor. Of thee only, O merciful Father, I beg and hope for pardon, upon thee only do I call and depend for assistance; that I may hereafter constantly serve thee with a true and faithful obedience, and inseparably adhere to thee with a pure and perfect love forever.

A Prayer for the Dead.

GOD, the Creator and Redeemer of all the faithful, give to the souls of thy servants departed full remission of all their offences, that through the help of pious supplications, they may obtain the pardon of which they have been always desirous; who livest and reignest, world without end. Amen.

V. Give them, O Lord, eternal rest.

R. And let perpetual light shine upon them.

V. May they rest in peace.

R. Amen.

The Hymn. Te lucis ante terminum.

BEFORE the closing of the day,
Creator, we thee humbly pray,
That for thy wonted mercy's sake,
Thou us into protection take.
May nothing in our minds excite
Vain dreams and phantoms of the night:
Keep off our enemy, that so
Our bodies no uncleanness know.
To Jesus from a Virgin sprung,
Be glory given and praises sung;
The like to God the Father be,
And Holy Ghost eternally. Amen.

Antiphon.

SAVE us, O Lord, waking, and keep us, sleeping, that we may watch with Christ, and rest in peace.
Amen.

Preserve us as the apple of thine eye, and protect us under the shadow of thy wings. Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this night without sin.

Have mercy on us, O Lord, have mercy on us.

May thy mercy be upon us, O Lord,
as we have put our trust in thee.

O Lord, hear my prayer, and let my supplication come unto thee.

The Prayer.

VISIT, we beseech thee, O Lord, this habitation, and repel from it all snares of the enemy. Let thy holy angels dwell therein to preserve us in peace, and may thy blessing be upon us forever, through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

mother of God ; despise not our petitions in our necessities, but deliver us from all dangers, O ever glorious and blessed Virgin.

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of
the promises of Christ.

Let us Pray.

POUR forth, we beseech thee, O Lord! thy grace into our hearts, that we, to whom the incarnation of Christ thy Son was made known by the message of an angel, may, by his passion and cross, be brought to the glory of his resurrection: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

V. May the divine assistance always remain with us.

R. Amen.

V. And may the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

R. Amen.

To the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Q GLORIOUS Virgin Mary, I commit my soul and body to thy blessed trust this night and forever, but more especially at the hour of my death. I recommend to thy merciful charity all my hopes, my consolation, my distress, and misery; my life, and the end thereof: that through thy most holy intercession, all my works may be directed according to the will of thy blessed Son. Amen.

A Prayer to your Guardian Angel.

Q ANGEL of God, to whose holy care I am committed by the supreme clemency, enlighten, defend, and protect me this night from all sin and danger. Amen.

The Blessing.

O GOD the Father bless me ; Jesus Christ defend and keep me ; the virtue of the Holy Ghost enlighten and sanctify me this night and forever. Amen.

Into thy hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit. Lord Jesus, receive my soul.

When you go to Bed, say,

IN the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, crucified, I lay me down to rest! bless me, O Lord, defend and govern me, and after this short and miserable pilgrimage, bring me to everlasting happiness. Amen.

A Prayer before going to Sleep.

O LORD Jesus Christ, whose unwearyed eye neither slumbers nor sleeps, but continually watches in defence of thy servants, take me and mine, I beseech thee, into thy protection, and grant, that whilst my body is asleep, my soul may be awake to thee, and that I may hereafter behold thee in that blessed and heavenly country, where thou, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, art eternally governor, and where all the Angels, with the blessed saints, are citizens forever. Amen.

N. B. When you are in bed, and cannot sleep, employ your thoughts in some spiritual exercise, or in saying the beads, or some other prayers ; or in meditating on some passage of our Saviour's life and passion ; particularly how he spent that night wherein he was taken in the garden ; or else you may think on the painful state of the souls in hell or purgatory.

If you chance to awaken in the dead of the night, forthwith imagine with yourself that you are present among the choirs of saints and angels, and with sudden acclamation cry out with them in the words of the hymn, which they incessantly sing, both day and night, saying,

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Sabaoth, heaven and earth are full of the majesty of thy glory.

Or, Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.

Live, Jesus, live, and let it be,
My life to die for love of thee.

The Seven Penitential Psalms.

Anth. Remember not, O Lord, our offences, nor those of our parents; neither take thou vengeance of our sins.

Psalm vi.

LORD, rebuke me not in thy indignation, nor chastise me in thy wrath.

Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I am weak : heal me, O Lord, for my bones are troubled.

And my soul is troubled exceedingly ; but thou, O Lord, how long ?

Turn to me, O Lord, and deliver my soul : O save me for thy mercy's sake.

For there is no one in death that is mindful of thee : and who shall confess to thee in hell ?

I have labored in my groanings ; every night will I wash my bed : I will water my couch with my tears.

My eye is troubled through indignation : I have grown old amongst all my enemies.

Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity, for the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping.

The Lord hath heard my supplication ; the Lord hath received my prayer.

Let all my enemies be ashamed, and be very much troubled; let them be turned back and be ashamed very speedily.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

Psalm xxxi.

BLESSED are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

Blessed is the man to whom the Lord hath not imputed sin, and in whose spirit there is no guile.

Because I was silent my bones grew old; whilst I cried out all the day long.

For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me; I am turned in my anguish, whilst the thorn is fastened.

I have acknowledged my sins to thee, and my injustice I have not concealed.

I said I will confess against myself my injustice to the Lord; and that thou hast forgiven the wickedness of my sin.

For this shall every one that is holy pray to thee, in a seasonable time.

And yet in a flood of many waters,
they shall not come nigh unto him.

Thou art my refuge from the trouble which hath encompassed me: my joy, deliver me from them that surround me.

I will give thee understanding, and I will instruct thee in the way in which thou shalt go: I will fix my eyes upon thee.

Do not become like the horse and the mule, who have no understanding.

With bit and bridle bind fast their jaws, who come not near unto thee.

Many are the scourges of the sinner, but mercy shall encompass him that hopeth in the Lord.

Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice, ye just: and glory, all ye right of heart.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

Psalm xxxvii.

REBUKE me not, O Lord, in thy indignation, nor chastise me in thy wrath.

For thy arrows are fastened in me, and thy hand hath been strong upon me.

There is no health in my flesh, because of thy wrath : there is no peace for my bones, because of my sins.

For my iniquities are gone over my head ; and, as a heavy burden, are become heavy upon me.

My sores are putrified and corrupted, because of my foolishness.

I am become miserable, and am bowed down even to the end : I walked sorrowful all day long.

For my loins are filled with illusions : and there is no health in my flesh.

I am afflicted and humbled exceedingly ; I roared with the groaning of my heart.

Lord, all my desire is before thee, and my groaning is not hid from thee.

My heart is troubled, my strength hath left me, and the light of my eyes itself is not with me.

My friends and my neighbors have drawn near and stood against me.

And they that were near me stood afar off: and they that sought my soul used violence.

And they that sought evils to me spoke vain things, and studied deceits all the day long.

But I, as a deaf man, heard not: and was as a dumb man not opening his mouth.

And I became as a man that heareth not: and that hath no reproofs in his mouth.

For in thee, O Lord, have I hoped: thou wilt hear me, O Lord my God.

For I said, lest at any time my enemies rejoice over me, and whilst my feet are moved, they speak great things against me.

For I am ready for scourges, and my sorrow is continually before me.

For I will declare my iniquity: and I will think for my sin.

But my enemies live, and are stronger than I: and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied.

They that render evil for good, have detracted me, because I followed goodness.

Forsake me not, O Lord my God : do not thou depart from me.

Attend unto my help, O Lord, the God of my salvation.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

Psalm li.

HAVE mercy on me, O God, according to thy great mercy.

And according to the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my iniquity.

Wash me yet more from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

For I know my iniquity, and my sin is always before me.

To thee only have I sinned, and have done evil before thee : that thou mayest be justified in thy words, and mayest overcome when thou art judged.

For behold I was conceived in iniquities : and in sins did my mother conceive me.

For behold thou hast loved truth : the uncertain and hidden things of thy wisdom thou hast made manifest to me.

Thou shalt sprinkle me with hyssop, and I shall be cleansed: thou shalt wash me, and I shall be made whiter than snow.

To my hearing thou shalt give joy and gladness; and the bones that have been humbled shall rejoice.

Turn away thy face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities.

Create a clean heart in me, O God: and renew a right spirit within my bowels.

Cast me not away from thy face: and take not thy holy Spirit from me.

Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation, and strengthen me with a perfect spirit.

I will teach the unjust thy ways: and the wicked shall be converted to thee.

Deliver me from blood, O God, thou God of my salvation: and my tongue shall extol thy justice.

O Lord, thou wilt open my lips: and my mouth shall declare thy praise.

For if thou hadst desired sacrifice, I would indeed have given it: with burnt-offerings thou wilt not be delighted.

A sacrifice to God is an afflicted spirit: a contrite and humbled heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

Deal favorably, O Lord, in thy good will with Sion: that the walls of Jerusalem may be built up.

Then shalt thou accept the sacrifice of justice, oblations and whole burnt-offerings; then shall they lay calves upon thy altars.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

Psalm ci.

HEAR, O Lord, my prayer, and let my cry come to thee.

Turn not away thy face from me: in the day when I am in trouble, incline thy ear to me.

In what day soever I shall call upon thee, hear me speedily.

For my days are vanished like smoke; and my bones are grown dry, like fuel for the fire.

I am smitten as grass, and my heart is withered: because I forgot to eat my bread.

Through the voice of my groaning, my bone hath cleaved to my flesh.

I am become like to a pelican of the wilderness: I am like a night-raven in the house.

I have watched, and am become as a sparrow, all alone on the house-top.

All the day long my enemies reproached me: and they that praised me did swear against me.

For I did eat ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping.

Because of thy anger and indignation: for having lifted me up, thou hast thrown me down.

My days have declined like a shadow,
and I am withered like grass.

But thou, O Lord, endurest forever:
and thy memorial to all generations.

Thou shalt arise and have mercy on Sion, for it is time to have mercy on it, for the time is come.

For the stones thereof have pleased thy servants: and they shall have pity on the earth thereof.

And the Gentiles shall fear thy name,

O Lord: and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

For the Lord hath built up Sion: and he shall be seen in his glory.

He hath had regard to the prayer of the humble: and he hath not despised their petition.

Let these things be written unto another generation; and the people that shall be created shall praise the Lord.

Because he hath looked forth from his high sanctuary: from heaven the Lord hath looked upon the earth.

That he might hear the groans of them that are in fetters: that he might release the children of the slain.

That they may declare the name of the Lord in Sion; and his praise in Jerusalem.

When the people assembled together, and kings to serve the Lord.

He answered him in the way of his strength: declare unto me the fewness of my days.

Call me not away in the midst of my days; thy years are unto generation and generation.

In the beginning, O Lord, thou foundedst the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

They shall perish, but thou remainest: and all of them shall grow old, like a garment.

And as a vesture thou shalt change them, and they shall be changed: but thou art always the self-same, and thy years shall not fail.

The children of thy servants shall continue; and their seed shall be directed forever.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

Psalm cxxix.

QUT of the depths I have cried to thee, O Lord : Lord, hear my voice.

Let thy ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication.

If thou, O Lord, wilt mark iniquities, Lord, who shall stand it ?

For with thee there is merciful forgiveness : and by reason of thy law, I have waited for thee, O Lord.

My soul hath relied on his word : my soul hath hoped in the Lord.

From the morning watch, even until night, let Israel hope in the Lord.

Because with the Lord there is mercy, and with him plentiful redemption.

And he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

Psalm cxlii.

HEAR, O Lord, my prayer: give ear to my supplication in thy truth: hear me in thy justice.

And enter not into judgment with thy servant: for in thy sight no man living shall be justified.

For the enemy hath persecuted my soul: he hath brought down my life to the earth.

He hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been dead of old: and my spirit is in anguish within me: my heart within me is troubled.

I remembered the days of old: I meditated on all thy works: I mused upon the works of thy hands.

I stretched forth my hands to thee :
my soul is as earth without water unto thee.

Hear me speedily, O Lord : my spirit hath fainted away.

Turn not away thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

Cause me to hear thy mercy in the morning, for in thee have I hoped.

Make thy way known to me wherein I should walk : for I have lifted up my soul to thee.

Deliver me from my enemies, O Lord, to thee have I fled : teach me to do thy will, for thou art my God.

Thy good Spirit shall lead me into the right land ; for thy name's sake, O Lord, thou wilt quicken me in thy justice.

Thou wilt bring my soul out of trouble : and in thy mercy thou wilt destroy my enemies.

And thou wilt cut off all them that afflict my soul : for I am thy servant.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

O GOD, come to my assistance: O Lord, make haste to help me.

Let them be confounded and ashamed that seek my soul.

Let them be turned backward, and blush for shame, that desire evils to me.

Let them presently be turned away, blushing for shame that say to me, 'Tis well, 'tis well.

Let all that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee; and let such as love thy salvation say always, The Lord be magnified.

But I am needy and poor: O God, help me.

Thou art my helper and deliverer: O Lord, make no delay.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

V. Save thy servants. R. Trusting in thee, O my God. V. Be unto us, O Lord, a tower of strength. R. From the face of the enemy. V. Let not the enemy prevail against us. R. Nor the son of iniquity have power to hurt us.

V. O Lord, deal not with us according to our sins. R. Nor reward us according to our iniquities.

V. Let us pray for our chief Bishop N.

R. May the Lord preserve him, and prolong his life, and make him blessed on earth: and deliver him not to the will of his enemies.

V. Let us pray for our benefactors.

R. O Lord, for thy name's sake, vouchsafe to render eternal life to all those by whom we have received good.

V. Let us pray for the faithful departed.

R. Eternal rest give to them, O Lord ; and let perpetual light shine unto them.

V. May they rest in peace. R. Amen.

V. For our absent brethren. R. O my God, save thy servants trusting in thee.

V. Send them help, O Lord, from thy holy place.

R. And from Sion protect them.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my supplication come to thee.

Let us pray.

GOD, whose property it is always to have mercy, and to spare, receive our petitions, that we and all thy servants, who are bound by the chain of sin, may, by the compassion of thy goodness, mercifully be absolved.

HEAR, we beseech thee, O Lord, the prayer of thy suppliants, and pardon the sins of them that confess to thee, that, of thy bounty, thou mayest grant us pardon and peace.

OUT of thy clemency, O Lord, show thy unspeakable mercy to us, that so thou mayest both acquit us of our sins, and deliver us from the punishment we deserve for them.

O GOD, who by sin art offended, and by penance pacified, mercifully regard the prayers of thy people, who make supplication to thee, and turn away the scourges of thy anger, which we deserve for our sins.

O ALMIGHTY and eternal God, have mercy on thy servant N., our chief bishop, and direct him, according to thy clemency, in the way of everlasting salvation; that by thy grace he may desire such things as are agreeable to thy will, and perform them with all his strength.

O GOD, from whom are all holy desires, righteous counsels, and just works; give to thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that our hearts being disposed to keep thy commandments, and the fear of enemies taken away, the times, through thy protection, may be peaceable.

INFLAME, O Lord, our reins and hearts with the fire of thy Holy Spirit; that we may serve thee with a chaste body, and please thee with a clean heart.

O GOD, the Creator and Redeemer of all the faithful, give to the souls of thy servants departed the remission of all their sins; that through the help of pious supplications they may obtain that pardon which they have always desired.

PROMPT, we beseech thee, O Lord, our actions, by thy holy inspirations, and carry them on by the gracious assistance, that every prayer and work of ours may always begin from thee, and by thee be happily ended.

O ALMIGHTY and eternal God, who hast dominion over the living and the dead, and art merciful to all those whom thou foreknowest shall be thine by faith and good works: we humbly beseech thee, that they for whom we have purposed to offer our prayers, whether this present world still retains them in the flesh, or the next hath already received them divested of their bodies, may, by the intercession of thy saints, and the clemency of thy goodness, obtain pardon and full remission of all their sins: through, &c.

R. Amen.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my supplication come unto thee.

V. May the Almighty and most merciful Lord graciously hear us.

R. Amen.

V. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

R. Amen.

Devout Prayers,

WHICH MAY BE SAID AFTER THE LITANIES,
ACCORDING TO THE DIVERSITY OF TIMES AND OCCASIONS.

A Prayer for God's holy Church.

TO ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hast revealed thy glory to all nations in Christ, preserve the works of thy mercy, that thy Church, spread throughout the world, may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of thy name: through, &c.

For the Chief Bishop.

QUOD, the Pastor and Governor of all the faithful, mercifully regard thy servant N., whom thou hast placed as chief Pastor over thy Church; grant, we beseech thee, that both by word and example he may edify all those who are under his charge, that, together with the flock committed to his care, he may arrive at life everlasting: through our Lord, &c.

For all degrees of the Church.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, by whose spirit the whole body of the Church is sanctified and governed: hear, we beseech thee, our humble supplications for all degrees thereof; that by the assistance of thy grace, they may faithfully serve thee: through, &c.

A Prayer in any Necessity.

O GOD, our refuge and strength, the fountain of all goodness, mercifully hear the fervent prayers of thy Church, and grant that what we ask with faith, we may effectually obtain: through, &c.

Against the Persecutors of the Church.

RECEIVE, we beseech thee, O Lord, the prayers of thy Church, and mercifully appease thy wrath against us; that all adversities and errors being removed, we may serve thee in secure liberty: through, &c.

A Prayer for the President of the United States.

WE pray thee, O God of might, wisdom, and justice, through whom authority is rightly administered, laws are enacted, and judgment decreed, assist, with thy Holy Spirit of counsel and fortitude, the President of these United States ; that his administration may be conducted in righteousness, and be eminently useful to thy people over whom he presides ; by encouraging due respect for virtue and religion ; by a faithful execution of the laws in justice and mercy ; and by restraining vice and immorality.

A Prayer for the Afflicted.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, the Comforter of the sorrowful, and the support of those who are afflicted ; give ear to the prayers of such as call on thee in their tribulation ; that finding thy mercy present with them in their necessities, their mourning may be turned into joy : through, &c.

For Heretics and Schismatics.

O ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who savest all, and wouldst not that any should perish : favorably look down upon those souls which are seduced by the deceit of Satan ; that all heretical impiety being removed, the hearts of such as err may repent, and return to the unity of thy truth : through, &c.

For the unfaithful Jews.

O ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who repellst not from thy mercy even the perfidious Jews : hear the prayer, which we offer for the blindness of that people ; that the light of thy truth, Christ our Lord, being known to them, they may be delivered from their darkness : through, &c.

For Pagans.

O ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who desirest not the death, but the life of sinners: mercifully accept our prayers, and delivering pagans from the worship of idols, unite them to thy Church, to the praise and honor of thy glorious name: through, &c.

In time of War.

O GOD, who puttest an end to wars, and, by the power of thy protection, vanquishest the opposers of such as trust in thee, help thy servants, who earnestly crave thy mercy; that the evil designs of our enemies being defeated, we may praise thee with incessant gratitude: through, &c.

In time of Famine and Pestilence.

GRANT us, we beseech thee, O Lord, the effect of our prayer, and mercifully turn away from thy servants all pestilence and famine;

that the hearts of men may know that such scourges proceed from thy indignation, and cease by thy mercy : through, &c.

A Prayer for Rain.

O GOD, in whom we live, and move, and have our being, grant us, we beseech thee, competent rain; that partaking of thy temporal blessings, we may the more confidently desire those which are eternal : through, &c.

For Fair Weather.

HEAR our supplications, O Lord, and vouchsafe to thy servants the blessing of fair weather; that we, who are justly afflicted for our sins, may find relief in thy clemency : through, &c.

In any Tribulation.

O ALMIGHTY God, despise not thy people who call upon thee in their afflictions ; but for the glory of thy name forgive them their sins, and deliver them from all sorrow: through, &c.

For Remission of Sins.

O GOD, who rejectest none, but art pacified by penance even towards the greatest offenders, mercifully regard the prayers of thy servants, that through thy mercy we may obtain the pardon of our sins, and be enabled to fulfil thy commandments: through, &c.

Against Temptations.

O GOD, who justifiest the wicked that repent, and desirest not the death of a sinner; we humbly beseech thy majesty to defend thy servants with thy heavenly grace, who trust in thy mercy, and preserve them by thy continual protection, that they may persevere in thy service, and by no temptations be ever separated from thee: through, &c.

For such as are on a Journey.

HEARKEN to our supplications, O Lord, and render the way of thy servants prosperous and safe: grant that amidst all the varieties of this journey and their whole life, they may always be protected by thy assistance: through, &c.

A Prayer for the Sick.

O ALMIGHTY and eternal God, the perpetual salvation of them that believe, hear us for thy sick servants, for whom we humbly crave the help of thy mercy, that their health being restored to them, they may render thanks to thee in thy Church: through, &c.

A Prayer for the Living.

EXTEND unto thy faithful, O Lord, the right hand of thy heavenly succor, that they may seek thee with all their hearts, and obtain of thy mercy whatever is necessary to their condition: through, &c.

A Prayer for our Friends.

O GOD, who hast poured the gift of charity, by the grace of the Holy Ghost, into the hearts of the faithful: grant to thy servants (here name those you pray for), for whom we implore thy mercy, health of mind and body; that loving thee with all their strength, they may accomplish those things which are pleasing to thee: through, &c.

Prayers to beg the Grace of the Holy Ghost.

The HYMN, Veni, Sancte Spiritus.

COME, Holy Ghost, send down those beams
Which sweetly flow in silent streams,
From thy bright throne
above:

O come, thou Father of the poor, Thou bounteous source of all our store,

Come, fire our hearts with love.
Come, thou of comforters the best,
Come, thou the soul's delicious guest,
The pilgrim's sweet relief;

Thou art our rest, in toil and sweat,
Refreshment in excessive heat,
And comfort in our grief.
O sacred Light, shoot home thy darts,
O pierce the centre of those hearts
Whose faith aspires to thee :
Without thy Godhead, nothing can Have any worth, or price in man,
Nothing can harmless be.
Lord, wash our sinful stains away,
Water from heaven our barren clay,
Our wounds and bruises heal :
To thy sweet yoke our stiff necks bow,
Warm with thy fire our hearts of snow,
Our wandering feet repel.
O grant thy faithful, dearest Lord,
Whose only hope is thy sure word,
The seven gifts of thy Spirit :
Grant us in life t'obey thy grace ;
Grant us in death to see thy face,
And endless joys inherit. Amen.
V. Send forth thy Spirit, and they shall be created.
R. And thou shalt renew the face of the earth.
V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my supplication come to thee

Let us pray.

O GOD, who, by the light of the Holy Ghost, hast instructed the hearts of the faithful: grant that by the same Spirit, we may have a right understanding in all things, and evermore rejoice in his holy consolation: through, &c. Amen.

O GOD, to whom every heart is open, every will declares itself, and from whom no secret lies concealed, purify, by the inspiration of the Holy Ghost, the thoughts of our hearts; that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily praise thee: through, &c.

For our Enemies.

O GOD, the lover of peace and preserver of charity, give peace and true charity to all our enemies; grant them remission of their sins, and deliver us from their deceits: through, &c.

Against wicked Thoughts.

O ALMIGHTY and most gracious God, mercifully regard our prayers, and deliver our hearts from the temptations of evil thoughts; that our souls may be made worthy habitations for the Holy Ghost: through, &c.

For Charity.

O GOD, who makest all things beneficial to them that love thee, infuse into our hearts an inviolable love of thy charity: that such desires as we conceive by thy holy inspiration may by no temptation be ever changed: through, &c.

For Patience.

O GOD, who by the humility of thy only-begotten Son hast confounded the pride of the old enemy: grant, we beseech thee, that we may often call to mind what he meekly suffered for us, and by his example patiently endure all adversities: through, &c.

For the holy Catholic Church.

DEFEND, O Lord, thy servants, we humbly beseech thee, from all dangers of body and soul: and by the prayers of the glorious Virgin Mary, of the holy apostles Peter and Paul, of blessed N. and all thy saints, grant us the mercies of peace and safety, that all adversities and errors being removed, thy Church may serve thee in secure liberty: through, &c.

A Prayer for Special Friends.

PRESERVE, O Lord, thy servants, N. N., for whose health, happiness, and prosperity we humbly offer up these our petitions to thy sacred Majesty; beseeching thee to grant them a persevering constancy in the Catholic faith, a safe passage through this life's dangerous pilgrimage; that no worldly, carnal, or diabolical temptation may have the power to separate them from thee, their prime and only good. Give them grace to correspond to that state and condition of life wherein thou hast placed them ; direct them in all their ways, defend them against all their enemies, and grant them finally a happy death and departure out of this world, and a speedy passage after death to the fruition of thy eternal felicity.

For a Friend in Tribulation.

VOUCHSAFE, O merciful Creator ! to afford the sweetness of thy comforts to thy afflicted servant N., and to remove, according to thy accustomed mercy, the heavy burden of his calamities. Give him, we humbly beseech thee, patience in his sufferings, resignation to thy good pleasure, perseverance in thy service, and a happy translation from this afflicting life to thy eternal felicity.

A Prayer for all those who are engaged in the Employment or Service of Others.

TO thee, O God, I offer myself, with all my labors of this day, and most humbly beg thy blessing to accompany me in all my undertakings, that whatever I do or suffer, may be with the patience of an humble, penitent, and sincere desire of faithfully discharging my duty to thee, whom I desire to serve, in every thing belonging to my charge, without loss of time, neglect, omission, or waste of what is committed to me.

I beseech thee likewise to grant me the spirit of obedience, humility, and meekness, that I may cheerfully comply with all lawful commands, without gain-saying, murmuring, or disrespect. May I never offend in word or action, or connive with others in what is evil : may I never give bad example, nor yield to others in whatever is injurious to my superiors, or displeasing to thee : may I live in peace with every one, give no provoking language, make no parties, carry no false or exaggerated stories ; and if provocations are offered, may I suppress all passion, be moderate in my answers, and return good for evil.

In these and all my other duties assist me, O God, and help me to overcome all my usual weakness. May I ever continue under thy protection, and zealously walk in the paths of thy commandments, by avoiding evil, and doing good. To thee I consecrate all my labors, and beg thy blessing to attend me in all I shall do this day and evermore.

For the Master and Mistress of a Family.

O MERCIFUL God, I implore thy grace for my direction and help, in the execution of every thing thou hast committed to my charge. Grant me discretion, that I may discover in all things what is best to be done, that I may manage them according to the obligations thou hast laid upon me. Make me faithful in taking care of what, under thee, I have in charge, that nothing may suffer through my neglect, idleness, prodigality, or ill management. Let not passion have any influence on my words or actions, that I may reprove without anger, command without imperiousness, require service without cruelty, have compassion on such failings as proceed rather from weakness than neglect, and show a tenderness towards all under my charge, as knowing that both they and I serve one master in heaven, who, without respect to persons, will call us all to an equal account.

O Lord, let me never want thy grace to suppress every inclination that leads me from my duty. Let no kind of extravagance, excess, or disorder find encouragement in my house. Make me a zealous observer of good discipline, and watchful against all undue liberties. Suffer me not to be unjust to any one, nor connive at what ought to be reprov'd. Take from me all immoderate solicitude, and let no excess of worldly care withdraw my heart from the important concern of eternity. May my chief solicitude be, how to regulate all my concerns to thy honor and glory. I crave thy blessing this day and forever, on all I am to do or suffer, and humbly offer myself, and all I possess, to thy glory. Help me, O my God, according to my necessities, now and forever. Amen.

For Parents.

ASSIST me, O heavenly Father, in discharging my duty to my children. Endue me with true Christian wisdom, to discern what to grant, and what to deny. Let neither passion, ill-humor, nor fondness make me yield to them in any thing that may be prejudicial to either soul or body. Enable me always to give them good example ; to preserve them from bad company, or from hearing or doing what may induce them to commit evil ; and whenever they do amiss, prompt me to give them timely correction, more out of love than from passion. Deliver me from all manner of prodigality—intemperance—idleness—vanity—neglect, or ill management, that may prevent me from providing for their comfortable subsistence in this life, as also from preparing them for happiness hereafter, by being oversolicitous to make them great in this world.

Direct me, O God, in every particular that can contribute to their Christian education, and enable me to remove from them whatever may do them hurt. Deliver me from all indiscreet partialities—from discouraging them—or showing any unreasonable uneasiness, which may force them upon rash methods for the remedy of the trouble they find at home. Be thou a father to them, and supply, by thy goodness, whatever is wanting in me. Preserve them from the corruption of the world, from sin, and all evil, and excite them to all good. Deliver them from the effects of a vain and inconstant mind, and make them thy faithful servants here, that they may come at length to that happiness which Christ has purchased for them. Amen.

For Children under Parents' Care.

O HEAVENLY Father, who commandest us to love, obey, respect, and honor our parents, grant that I may always comply with this thy command, by being ever faithful in the performance of all it enjoins, and in never doing any thing contrary thereunto.

May I ever deny myself, in all lawful things, to please my parents; and obey them in whatever they can justly require or expect from me. Let me never contradict them, nor so dispute against their proposals as to make them uneasy. May I always consult them in all that concerns them or myself. May I ever be deaf to those who suggest the despising or neglecting of my parents' advice. May I never afflict them by following bad counsel, wicked company, or any evil ways. May I always study to be their comfort, in recompense for all the care, trouble, and love they have had for me. May I never show impatience at their infirmities, much less mock at any weakness to which they are subject.

Direct me, O my God, in every thing relating to my duty, and suffer no change of circumstances to withdraw me from it. May I in no lawful concern whatever offend my parents on earth, or displease thee, my Father, who art in heaven.

A Prayer for Scholars before Study.

O INCOMPREHENSIBLE Creator, the true fountain of light, and only author of all knowledge ; who, out of the treasure of thy wisdom, hast, with wonderful harmony, disposed and ordered all the parts of the universe: vouchsafe, I beseech thee, to enlighten my understanding with the rays of thy wisdom, and to expel from it all darkness of sin and ignorance. Thou who makest eloquent the tongues of those that want utterance, instruct my tongue, and pour on my lips the grace of thy blessing. Give me a diligent and obedient spirit, quickness of apprehending, capacity of retaining, and the continual assistance of thy holy grace, that I may apply all my studies to thy honor, and the everlasting salvation of my own soul, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer which may be daily said by a Woman with Child.

LORD God, Almighty Creator of heaven and earth, who hast made us all out of nothing, and redeemed us by the precious blood of thy only Son : look down upon thy poor handmaid here prostrate before thee, humbly imploring thy mercy, and begging thy blessing for herself and her child, which thou hast given her to conceive. Preserve, I beseech thee, the work of thy hands, and defend both me and the tender fruit of my womb from all perils and all evils ; grant me in due time a happy delivery, and bring my child safe to the font of baptism, that it may be there happily dedicated to thee, to love and serve thee faithfully forever. But, O my God, I have too much reason to fear lest my great and manifold sins should hinder thee from hearing my prayers, and draw down thy judgment on me and mine, instead of thy mercies, which I sue for. And therefore I am sensible the first thing I ought to do is, to repent from the bottom of my heart for all my offences, humbly confessing them, and continually to cry to thee for mercy. I detest then all my sins with my whole heart, and desire to lay them down here at thy feet, to be effaced and destroyed forever. I renounce and abhor them with my whole soul, because they are infinitely odious to thee, and wish I could expiate them with tears of blood: I humbly beg thy pardon for them all, and wish with all my heart I had never committed them: I here offer myself to make what satisfaction for them I am able ; and most willingly accept of whatever I may have to suffer in child-bearing, and offer it up now beforehand to thee for my sins, firmly resolving by thy grace, never wilfully to offend thee more. Behold here my poor heart, O Lord, and if it is not, at least I desire it should be, that contrite and humble heart which thou never despisest. In this disposition of soul, and with a lively confidence in thy mercies, and in the merits of the death and passion of Jesus Christ thy Son, I renew the petition I made before, and once more beg, for myself, thy grace, protection, and a happy delivery ; and for my child, that thou wouldst be pleased to preserve it for baptism, sanctify it for thyself, and make it thine forever : through, &c. Amen.

For a Husband or Wife.

GOD, who hast ordained the holy state of matrimony, wherein I am engaged, grant me grace to comply with all its obligations, and to perform them in such a manner as is becoming a Christian, not an unbeliever.

Preserve my love undefiled, according to thy divine command, and let the duty of love help to conduct me with comfort through all the obligations and difficulties of my state. Grant me discretion to manage all circumstances for the best, a true love for peace, and such a discreet compliance as to resign my own thoughts and inclinations for preserving it. Inspire me with true humility and patience, that I may submit to and bear with all crosses in the manner thy apostle requires. Furnish me with all other helps, that whatever difficulties may occur, I may persevere with cheerfulness in discharging the duties of my state, and never yield so far to any weakness, ill-humor, or impatience, as to weaken, much less to break the bond which thou hast sanctified, and which cannot be dissolved but by death. May I always be faithful and indefatigable in the discharge of the duties of my state, doing and suffering whatever falls to my lot, with such absolute submission to thy will, that both in peace and trouble, in prosperity and adversity, I may ever remember to resign myself cheerfully, O God, to thy pleasure or permission ; and under all difficulties, still labor to work out my salvation.

For Widows.

O GOD, the disposer of all things, who hast been pleased to bring me into this state, grant me the grace to bear all its troubles with patience, and to make use of all its advantages with Christian prudence; to be a widow indeed; to despise all earthly comforts; to place my whole trust in thee, and to improve the opportunity offered for securing to myself a happy eternity.

Teach me, O Lord, to make the best use of the liberty thou hast given me, and as long as I shall abide here in this pilgrimage, give me grace to employ my time in such exercises of piety, charity, and solid devotion, as may secure thy mercy to me, and effectually conduct me to the possession of that happiness which I desire.

May I ever despise the vanities of the world, and make some recompense for my past sins, follies, and extravagances. May I now spend as many hours in prayer and good works as I have misspent in vanity, idleness, or dangerous entertainments. May I endeavor by charity to make amends for all that I have sinfully, idly, or prodigally misspent, and thus recover whatever prejudice my soul has suffered through my fault. May I ever study to improve my present circumstances in order to obtain eternal life. May my loss turn to my advantage, and under thy protection, O God, may I find greater comforts than what the world can afford. Assist me, O my God, and let thy grace support me under all my weaknesses.

For those who lead a Single Life.

Q BLESSED Redeemer, who both by thyself and thy apostle, hast recommended a single life as the most proper state to serve thee in, without distraction, assist me by thy holy grace, that I may duly consider the advantages of it and make a right use of them, so as to find the good effect in my soul, for which the apostle gives it the preference to other states.

May I always rejoice under thy blessings, and being at liberty from those engagements which are attended with endless solitudes, and enslave the minds of men to the earth, may I avail myself of this my privilege in seeking and serving thee with greater freedom of spirit, having thee now for my spouse.

May I not be like one of the foolish virgins, but with the wise wait in readiness for thy coming. May I leave all for thee. May I love thee with my whole heart, desire thee with all my soul, adore thee with all my mind, and serve thee with all my strength : that I may thus become holy both in body and spirit. Support me under all my weaknesses ; and defend me against all the snares, both of the devil, of the world, and of my own corruption. Take from me all affection for whatever flatters the senses, and let me admire nothing that is vain and empty. Inspire me with a dread of all that is dangerous, and let the great and prevailing object of my love, affections, and desires, centre in thee alone ; that, having finished my life here, in imitation of thee,

I may wait on thee forever, in the joys of thy kingdom. Amen.

For the Rich.

MOST bountiful Lord, I return thee thanks for whatever I possess, and beg thy grace to make good use of whatever plenty, through thy mercy, I enjoy. May I always so govern myself, as to spend nothing in favor of any vicious or sinful inclination. May I be deaf to all expensive demands of vanity, gaming, appetite, and idleness, and put a stop to all those ways by which I have hitherto misspent what thou hast intrusted me with, and thereby often most ungratefully offended thy divine goodness.

I confess my past ingratitude, injustice, and impiety, in the abuse of thy favors and gifts, and earnestly beg pardon of thee, O Lord, for the same, and grace henceforward to do all thou requirest. To feed the hungry, to clothe the naked, &c., with the overplus of the decent support of myself and of those under me ; to lay up for myself a treasure in heaven, lest, like the rich man in the gospel, I suffer eternally in hell, for having so much indulged my passions, and applied thy favors to the service of idleness, vanity, and sin.

It is through thy great mercy, O my God, that I yet live, when thou mightest have cast me into endless flames. Thou sparest me, that I may make some amends for all the abuses of the goods thou hast so liberally bestowed on me. May I neither hereafter hoard up riches unnecessarily, nor spend them unprofitably. May I only make use of them for promoting thy honor and glory here, the relief of the poor, and for providing such necessaries as thou allowest. May I pay no regard to what the world applauds or censures, but only endeavor to please thee in a just disposal of what thou hast committed to my care, as being not the master but the steward thereof, and accountable to thee, O my God, the giver of whatever

I possess. Assist me herein, O God, and let not riches, nor the evils that they lead to, but thyself alone, be the desire of my heart.

Prayers before Mass.

THE ACTS OF FAITH, HOPE, AND CHARITY AS IN

MERCIFUL Father, who didst so love the world as to give up for our redemption thy beloved Son; who in obedience to thee, and for us sinners, humbled himself even unto the death of the Cross, and continues to offer himself daily, by the ministry of his priests, for the living and the dead—we humbly beseech thee, that, penetrated with a lively faith, we may always assist with the utmost devotion and reverence, at the oblation of his most precious body and blood which is made at Mass: and thereby be made partakers of the sacrifice which he consummated on Calvary.

In union with thy holy Church and its minister, and invoking the blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, and all the angels and saints, we now offer the adorable sacrifice of the Mass to thy honor and glory, to acknowledge thy infinite perfections, thy supreme dominion over all thy creatures, our entire subjection to thee, and total dependence on thy gracious providence, and in thanksgiving for all thy benefits; and for the remission of our sins.

We offer it for the propagation of the Catholic faith, for our most holy Father the Pope, for our archbishop (or bishop), and for all the pastors and clergy of thy holy Church, that they may direct the faithful in the way of salvation, for the President, and all that are in high station, that we may lead quiet and holy lives—for peace and good-will among all states and people—for the necessities of mankind—and particularly for the congregation here present: to obtain all blessings we stand in need of in this life, everlasting happiness in the next—and eternal rest to the faithful departed.

And as Jesus Christ so ordained, when he instituted at his last supper this wonderful mystery of his power, wisdom, and goodness: we offer thee this Mass, in grateful remembrance of all he has done and suffered for the love of us, making special commemoration of his bitter passion and death, and of his glorious Resurrection and Ascension into Heaven. Vouchsafe, O Almighty and eternal God (for to thee alone so great a sacrifice is due), graciously to accept it, for these and all other purposes, agreeably to thy holy will. And to render it the more pleasing, we offer it to thee, through the same Jesus Christ, thy beloved Son, our Lord and Saviour, our high Priest and victim; and in the name of the most holy Trinity, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; to whom be honor, praise, and glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Prayers at Mass.

Making the sign of the Cross with the Priest, say,

IN the name of the Father,
and of the Son,
and of the Holy Ghost.
Amen.

I will draw near to thy altar, O my God, there to gain new strength and vigor to my soul; separate me from those unbelievers who have no trust in thee; assist me with thy grace, that grace which comforts me when the remembrance of my sins afflicts and casts me down; that grace which lets me know there is an everlasting refuge in thy goodness, and that thou art ready to forgive even our greatest sins upon a sincere repentance.

The Priest bowing down, says the Confiteor before he goes up to the altar : say it with him as follows :

I CONFESS to Almighty God, to the blessed Mary ever Virgin, to blessed Michael the Archangel, to blessed John the Baptist, the holy apostles Peter and Paul, to all the saints, and to you, Father, that I have very much sinned in thought, word and deed, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault. Therefore I beseech the blessed Mary ever Virgin, blessed Michael the archangel, blessed

John the Baptist, the holy apostles Peter and Paul, and all the saints, and you, Father, to pray to our Lord God for me.

As the Ps. Judica me, the Gloria in excelsis and Creed are omitted in Masses for the Dead, &c., you also may pass them over.

After the Confiteor, say,

O MY God, who hast commanded us to pray for one another, and in thy holy Church hast given, even to sinners, the power of absolving from sin, receive with equal bounty the prayers of thy people for the priest, and those of the priest for thy people.

We beseech thee, O Lord, by the merits of those saints whose relics are here, and of all the saints, that thou wouldst vouchsafe to forgive me all my sins. Amen.

When the Priest goes first to the Book, and says the part of the Mass called the Introit, say,

GRANT, O Lord, we may be truly prepared for the offering of this great sacrifice to thee this day; and because our sins alone can render us displeasing to thee, therefore we call aloud to thee for mercy.

At the Kyrie eleison, say,

HAVE mercy on me, O Lord, and forgive me all my sins.

Have mercy on me, O Lord,
have mercy on me.

At the Gloria in excelsis, say,

GLORY be to God on high, and peace on earth to men of good will. We praise thee;
we bless thee; we adore thee; we glorify thee; we give thee thanks for thy great glory, O Lord God, Heavenly King, God the Father Almighty, O Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son. O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy on us: who takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayers: who sittest at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For thou only art holy, thou only art the Lord, thou only, O Jesus Christ, together with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

When the Priest turns to the People, and says, Dominus vobiscum, say,

BE thou always with us, O my God, and let thy grace never depart from us.

Whilst he reads the Collects, say,

ALMIGHTY and eternal God, we humbly beseech thee mercifully to give ear to the prayers of thy servant, which he offers thee in the name of thy Church, and in behalf of us thy people: accept them to the honor of thy name, and good of our souls; and grant us all those blessings which may any ways contribute to our salvation. Through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

At the Epistle, say,

BE Thou, O Lord, eternally praised and blessed, for having communicated to the holy prophets and apostles thy Spirit, disclosing to them admirable secrets, redounding to thy glory and our great good. We firmly believe their word, because it is thine. Give us, we beseech thee, the happiness to understand from the Church, by their instructions, what is profitable, and grace to practise the same all our lives.

*When he reads the Gradual,
say,*

HOW wonderful, O Lord, is thy name through the whole earth! I will bless our Lord at all times: his praise shall be ever in my mouth. Be thou my God and my Protector: in thee alone will I put my trust, let me not be confounded forever.

At the Gospel, when the People rise up, say,

MAYEST thou be ever adored and praised, O Lord, who, not content to instruct and inform us by thy prophets and apostles, hast even vouchsafed to speak to us by thy only Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, commanding us by a voice from heaven to hear him; grant us, O merciful God, the grace to profit by his divine and heavenly doctrine. All that is written of thee, dread Jesus, in thy gospel, is truth itself: nothing but wisdom in thy actions; power and goodness in thy miracles; light and instruction in thy words. With thee, sacred Redeemer, are the words of eternal life: to whom shall we go, but to thee, eternal Fountain of Truth? Give me, O God, grace to practise what thou commandest, and command what thou pleasest.

*At the Credo, or Nicene Creed,
say,*

I BELIEVE, O Lord, all thou hast taught me by thy holy Church: in this faith, by the assistance of thy grace, I desire to live and die: by thy divine grace, I am convinced of the sincerity and wisdom of those who have delivered these sacred truths to me. Their miraculous success is a sufficient proof. Where shall I go, my Lord? Thou hast the words of eternal life. Of thy truth thus delivered, my reason and will shall never doubt, though my senses and vain imaginations should. I believe, O Lord, help my unbelief.

When, at the Offertory, he uncovers the Chalice, say,

A CCEPT, O holy Father, almighty and eternal God, this unspotted Host, which I, thy unworthy servant, offer thee, my living and true God, for my innumerable sins, offences, and negligences, and for all here present, and for all faithful Christians, living and dead, that it may avail me and them to life everlasting. Amen.

*At the Offering of the Chalice,
say,*

WE offer thee, O Lord, the Chalice of salvation, beseeching thy clemency, that it may ascend before thy divine Majesty, as a sweet perfume, for our salvation, and for that of the whole world.

Accept us, O Lord, in the spirit of humility and a contrite heart: and grant that the sacrifice which we offer this day in thy sight, may be pleasing to thee, O Lord God.

When he washes his Fingers at the Corner of the Altar, say,

THOU, Lord, who once vouchsafedst to wash thy disciples' feet before their invitation to thy holy table, wash us also, we beseech thee, O Lord, and wash us again: not only our feet and hands, but our hearts, our desires, our souls, that we may be wholly innocent and pure.

Go on, and pray.

RECEIVE, O holy Trinity, this oblation we make thee, in memory of the passion, resurrection, and ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ, and in honor of the ever-blessed Mary ever Virgin; of blessed John the Baptist; of the holy apostles Peter and Paul; of these, and of all the saints; that it may be available to their honor and our salvation. And may they vouchsafe to intercede for us in heaven, whose memory we celebrate on earth. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

At the Orate Fratres, say,

MAY our Lord receive this sacrifice from thy hands, to the praise and glory of his name, for our good, and the benefit of his whole Church.

Or whilst he reads the secret Prayers proper for the Day, in a low voice, say,

MERCIFULLY hear our prayers, O Lord, and graciously accept this oblation, which we thy servants are making to thee; that as we offer it to the honor of thy name, so it may be to us a means of obtaining thy grace here, and in the next life, everlasting happiness. Amen.

When the Priest says in a loud voice, Per omnia sæcula sæculorum, say,

IT is truly meet and just, right and available to salvation, that we always, and in all places, give thanks to thee, holy Lord, Father Almighty, eternal God, through Christ our Lord; by whom the angels praise thy Majesty, the dominations adore it, the powers tremble before it, the heavens and heavenly virtues, and blessed seraphim with common jubilee glorify it; together with whom we beseech thee, that we may be admitted to join our voices, saying in an humble manner,

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Sabaoth, heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

What follows is called the Canon of the Mass; say then,

MOST merciful Father, who hast given us thy only Son to be our daily sacrifice, incline thine ears to our prayers, and favor our desires; protect, unite, and govern thy whole Church throughout the world, pour forth thy blessing on his present Holiness, that Prelate who has a particular charge over us, and all true professors of the Catholic faith.

Whilst he makes his Memento, or Commemoration of the Living, make yours also, praying in particular for yourself and Friends, &c.

I OFFER thee, O eternal Father, with this thy minister at the altar, this oblation of the body and blood of thy only Son, to thy honor and glory: in remembrance of my Saviour's passion, in thanksgiving for all thy benefits, in satisfaction for all my sins, and for the obtaining of thy grace, whereby I may be enabled to live virtuously and die happily. I desire thee likewise to accept it, O God, for my parents [if alive], relatives, friends, and benefactors; grant them all blessings, spiritual and temporal. I offer it up also [name the particular intention you offer it up for: as for obtaining this virtue, overcoming that vice; for blessings, such as health, &c.] Likewise for all that are in misery ; for those I have any ways injured in word or deed ; for all my enemies : for the conversion of sinners, and enlightening all that sit in darkness. Pour forth thy blessings on all, according to their different necessities, through the merits of thy only Son our Lord.

Proceed and say,

GIVE ear, we beseech thee, to the prayers of thy servant, who is here appointed to make this oblation in our behalf, and grant it may be effectual for the obtaining of all those blessings which he asks for us.

Behold, O Lord, we all here present to thee in this bread and wine the symbols of our perfect union. Grant, O Lord, that they may be made for us the true body and blood of thy dear Son; that being consecrated to thee by this holy Victim, we may live in thy service, and depart this life in thy grace.

At the Elevation, or lifting up of the Sacred Host, in Memory of Christ being lifted up on the Cross, say,

 MOST adorable body, I adore thee with all the powers of my soul. Lord, who hast given thyself entire to us, grant we may become entirely thine. I believe, O Lord, help my unbelief.

Most merciful Saviour, be thou my protector; strengthen and defend me by thy heavenly grace, now, and especially at the hour of my death, sweet Jesus. Amen.

*At the Elevation of the Chalice,
say,*

MOST adorable blood, that washed away all our sins,
I adore thee: happy we, could we return our life and blood for thine, O blessed Victim.

O Jesus, do thou cleanse, sanctify, and preserve our souls to eternal life. Live, Jesus, in us, and may we live in thee. Amen.

After the Elevation, say,

IT is now, O Lord, with grateful hearts we call to mind the sacred mysteries of thy passion and death, of thy resurrection and ascension.
Here is thy body that was broken: here is thy blood that was shed for us, of which these exterior signs are but the figures, and yet in reality contain the substance. It is now we truly offer thee, O Lord, that pure and holy victim, which thou hast been pleased to give us; of which all the other sacrifices were but so many types and figures.

Whilst he makes his Memento, in silence, for the Dead, make yours also, thus,

I OFFER thee again, O Lord, this holy sacrifice of the body and blood of thy only Son, in behalf of the faithful departed, and in particular for the souls of [here name whom you chiefly propose to pray for] my parents

[if dead], relatives, benefactors, neighbors, &c. Likewise of such as I have any ways injured, or been the occasion of their sins; of such as have injured me, and been my enemies; of such as die in war, or have none to pray for them, &c. To these, O Lord, and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we beseech thee, a place of refreshment, light and peace: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

When he strikes his Breast and says aloud, Nobis quoque peccatoribus, say, VOUCHSAFE to grant the same to us, poor and miserable sinners: judge us not according to our demerits; but through the infinite multitude of thy mercies, in which we hope, liberally extend to us thy grace and pardon.

We ask it of thee, in the name of thy dear Son, who liveth and reigneth eternally with thee, and in that form of prayer which he himself hath taught us.

At the Pater Noster, say with him,

QUR Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven ; give us this day our daily bread ; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us ; and lead us not into temptation : but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Deliver us from those evils which we labor under at present ; from past evils, which can be nothing but our manifold sins ; and from all the evils to come, which will be the just chastisement of our offences, if our prayers, and those more powerful ones of thy saints, who intercede for us, intercept not thy justice, or excite not thy bounty.

At his breaking and putting a Particle of the Host into the Chalice, say,

THY body was broken, and thy blood shed for us ; grant that the commemoration of this holy Mystery may obtain for us peace : and that those who receive it may find everlasting rest.

At the Agnus Dei, say with the Priest,

LAMB of God, who takest
away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

*At the Prayer before Communion,
say,*

IN saying to thy Apostles, My peace I leave you, my peace I give you : thou hast promised, O Lord, to all thy Church, that peace which the world cannot give ; peace with thee, and peace with ourselves.

Let nothing, O Lord, ever interrupt this holy peace : let nothing separate us from thee, to whom we heartily desire to be united, through the blessed sacrament of peace and reconciliation. Let this food of angels strengthen us in every Christian duty, so as never more to yield under temptations, or fall into our common weaknesses.

*At the Domine non sum dignus, striking your Breast thrice, with Humility and Contrition,
say,*

LORD, I am not worthy thou shouldst enter under my roof; say only the word, and my soul shall be healed.

Such as are not prepared to communicate really, may communicate spiritually, by saying as follows :

MOST loving Jesus, I adore thee with a lively faith, who art present in this sacrament by virtue of thy infinite power, wisdom, and goodness. But, conscious of my infirmities and sins, I dare not now receive thee sacramentally. All my hope is in thee ! I love thee, O Lord, with all my heart, who hast so loved me : and therefore I desire to receive thee now spiritually. Come therefore, O Lord, to me in spirit, and heal my sinful soul. Feed me, for I am hungry ; strengthen me, for I am weak ; enliven and sanctify me with thy sacred body and blood : deliver me from all sin, and make me always obedient to thy commands ; and let me never be separated from thee, my Saviour ! who, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, livest and reignest one God, forever and ever. Amen.

During the Ablution and Wiping of the Chalice, say,

GIVE us, O Lord, a part in the fruits of thy death and passion; the sacred memory of which we have commemorated in our present sacrifice and communion. Happy those who sit at thy table to partake of the bread of life. O Jesus, my soul sighs after thee! I long with thy apostle to be dissolved, and to be with thee. My heart, and my whole body, with transports of joy, seek the living God.

My soul languishes with the ardent desire of entering into the house of our Lord. I love thee, O my God, with all my heart! O that I could always enjoy the presence of thy adorable body, which is the pledge of our eternal happiness. I adore thy goodness, and return thee infinite thanks, O gracious Lord, for thy inestimable favor and mercy, in admitting me to be present this day at the dread sacrifice, where thou art both Priest and Victim. Make me, O God, always sensible of this great blessing, and let not my unworthiness put a stop to the effect of thy mercy and goodness.

*Whilst he reads the Communion,
say,*

LET it be now, O Lord, the effect of thy mercy, that we, who have been present at this holy mystery, may find the benefit of it in our souls.

At the Post-Communion, say,

WE give thee thanks, O God, for thy mercy, in admitting us to have a part in offering this sacrifice to thy holy name: accept it now to thy glory, and be ever mindful of our weakness.

Proceed as follows :

MOST gracious God, Father of mercy, grant, I beseech thee, that this adorable sacrifice of the blessed body and blood of thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, may obtain for us at thy hands, mercy, and the remission of all our sins. Amen.

When he turns to the People and gives them his Blessing, make you also the sign of the Cross, and say,

* THE Blessing of God Almighty, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, descend upon us, and dwell in our hearts forever. Amen.

Whilst he concludes with the last Gospel, say,

 O ETERNAL Word, speak to my soul, which adores thee in profound silence; thou art the great Creator of all things; abandon not, I beseech thee, thy own creature; be thou my life, my light, and my all.

O Light eternal! enlighten me in this present life, and in the life to come.

Reign in me as in thine own inheritance: for thou, O Lord, hast made me: thou hast redeemed me! May I be ever thine.

I have sinned too much against heaven, and before thee, and am not worthy to be called thy son.

Thou God Incarnate, have pity on my frail and mortal flesh, and grant it may one day see what it here adores below. Amen.

I RENDER thee all possible praise and thanks, O Sovereign Creator, for the favor I have this day received from thy bounty, and of which many better deserving Christians are deprived. Receive, O Lord, my unworthy prayers, supply all my defects, pardon all my distractions and indevotions, and grant that, by the strength and virtue of these divine mysteries, I may go on cheerfully in the path of thy commandments, love and service, amidst all the temptations, troubles, and dangers of my life's pilgrimage, till I shall one day happily arrive at thy heavenly kingdom, where, with the blessed angels and saints, I shall more clearly contemplate thee, more perfectly enjoy thee, and more adequately celebrate thy infinite goodness and mercy, with uninterrupted canticles of eternal praise, admiration, and gratitude.

Happy are they who dwell in thy house, O Lord : forever and ever they will praise thee.

Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive honor, glory, and power.

Praise the Lord, for he is good, for his mercy is everlasting.

Who shall relate the wonders of the Lord ? who shall publish his praises ?

Devotions for Confession and Communion.

GOD, who wills not the death, but the repentance of a sinner, has, in the sacrament of penance, mercifully provided Christians with the means whereby they may obtain pardon of their sins, and be again restored to the favor of their heavenly Father, which they had forfeited by their offences. So that, whoever is conscious to himself of having provoked the anger of God by his sins, ought diligently to apply himself to seek a reconciliation with him in the manner himself has prescribed and commanded. But then it ought to be his principal care, sincerely to perform all that is exacted of him, with a seriousness proportioned to the greatness of the work he is engaged in; ever remembering, that as mercy and pardon are promised to those who perform it worthily, so nothing less than a dreadful curse is pronounced against all those that do it negligently.

A Prayer before the Examination of Conscience.

I AM perfectly sensible, O my God, that I have many ways offended thy divine Majesty, and provoked thy wrath by my sins; and that if I obtain not pardon, I shall be cast out of thy sight forever; I desire therefore at present to call myself to an account, and look into all the sins whereby I have displeased thee : but, O my God, how miserably shall I deceive myself, if thou assist me not in this work by thy heavenly light. Grant me therefore at present thy grace, whereby I may discover all my imperfections,—see all my failings,—and duly call to mind all my sins,—for I know that nothing is hidden from thy sight. But I confess myself in the dark as to my own failings : my passions blind me, self-love flatters me, presumption deludes me ; and though I have many sins which stare me in the face, and cannot be hidden, yet how many too are there quite concealed from me ! But discover even those to me, O Lord ; enlighten my darkness, cure my blindness, and remove every veil that hides my sins from me, that I may be no longer a secret to myself, nor a stranger to my own failings, nor even flatter myself with the thoughts of having repented, and at the same time nourish folly and vice within my breast. Come,

Holy Ghost, and by a beam of thy divine light illumine my understanding, that I may have a perfect view of all my sins and iniquities, and that, sincerely repenting of them, I may know thee, and be again received into thy favor.

A Method of Examination of Conscience, according to the threefold Duty we owe: 1. To God ; 2. To our Neighbor ; 3. To ourselves.

I. In relation to God.

HAVE you omitted morning or evening prayer, or neglected to make your daily examination of conscience? Have you prayed negligently, and with wilful distractions? 2. Have you spent your time, especially on Sundays and holydays, not in sluggishly lying a-bed, or in any sort of idle entertainment, but in reading, praying, or other pious exercises ; and taken care that those under your charge have done the like, and not wanted the instructions necessary for their condition, nor time for prayer, or to prepare for the sacraments? 3. Have you spoken irreverently of God and holy things? Have you taken his name in vain, or told untruths? 4. Have you omitted your duty through human respect, interest, compliance, &c.? 5. Have you been zealous for God's honor, for justice, virtue, and truth, and reproved such as act otherwise? 6. Have you resigned your will to God in troubles, necessities, sickness, &c.? Have you faithfully resisted thoughts of infidelity, distrust, presumption, impurity, &c.?

II. In relation to your Neighbor.

HAVE you disobeyed your superiors, murmured against their commands, or spoken of them contemptuously? 2. Have you been troubled, peevish, or impatient, when told of your faults, and not corrected them? Have you scorned the good advice of others, or censured their proceedings? 3. Have you offended any one by injurious threatening words or actions? 4. Or lessened their reputation by any sort of detraction, or in any matter of importance? 5. Or spread any report, true or false, that exposed your neighbor to contempt, or made him undervalued? 6. Have you, by carrying stories backward and forward, created discord and misunderstanding between neighbors? 7. Have you been froward or peevish towards any one in your carriage, speech, or conversation? 8. Or taken pleasure to vex, mortify, or provoke them to swear, curse, or any ways offend God? 9. Have you mocked or reproached them for their corporal or spiritual imperfections? 10. Have you been excessive in reprehending those under your care, or been wanting in giving them just reproof? 11. Have you borne with their oversights and imperfections, and given them good counsel? 12. Have you been solicitous for such as are under your charge; and provided for their souls and bodies?

III. In relation to yourself.

HAVE you been obstinate in following your own will, or in defending your own opinion in things either indifferent, dangerous, or scandalous? 2. Have you taken pleasure in hearing yourself praised, or yielded to thoughts of vanity? 3. Have you indulged yourself in overmuch ease, or any ways yielded to sensuality? 4. Has your conversation been edifying and moderate; or have you been froward, proud, or troublesome to others? 5. Have you spent overmuch time in play, or useless employments, and thereby omitted, or put off your devotions to unseasonable times?

If such as confess often, fall into any of the more grievous sins not here mentioned, their own memory will easily suggest them; since it is impossible for a tender soul to forget any mortal offence, which must of necessity afflict her, and therefore it may not be necessary for them to turn over the following table of sins, which is chiefly intended for general confessions.

An Examination for Confession.

The First Commandment is broken,

First, by Sins against Faith.

1. To be ignorant of the principal mysteries of Christianity; of the Creed, of the Commandments of God and his Church, or of the Sacraments. 2. Wilfully to doubt, or obstinately to err in any point of faith. 3. To have delayed embracing the true faith, out of human respect, interest, fear, &c. 4. To favor heretics, or wicked men, in supporting or approving their opinions or actions. 5. To endanger our faith by reading their books with pleasure. 6. To examine divine mysteries with curiosity, and secrets of Providence by pure human reason. 7. To condemn or deride holy things. 8. To abuse the words of the holy scripture, by perverting them to a wicked or profane sense, making them subservient to jests, or other ill purposes. 9. To desire to know things to come, which belong to God alone, or things past, or present, which are hid from us, and for this end to employ unlawful means, as fortune-tellers, or other superstitious inventions. 10. To give credit to dreams, or make superstitious observations; to employ prayers or sacred names to ill uses; to use charms, &c.

Secondly, by Sins against Hope.

BY distrusting the mercies of God, and despairing of the pardon of our sins. 2. By presuming on God's goodness, without the least concern of amendment. 3. By deferring our conversion or repentance till the end of life. 4. By exposing ourselves to the danger of offending God, either by company, reading, or otherwise, which is called tempting God. 5. By exposing ourselves without necessity to some corporal danger; as sickness, wounds, or death. 6. By neglecting the remedies which God has appointed in these dangers, as physic for the body, or prayer and the sacraments for the soul.

Thirdly, by Sins against Charity.

BY not loving God above all things, but rather choosing wilfully to offend him, than suffer any loss of honor, riches, &c. 2. By preferring the love of men before the love of God; or offending him through fear of being jeered or slighted. 3. By omitting our duty through shame, or human respect. 4. By thinking seldom of God, or being ashamed to speak of him; or by not hearkening to his inspirations, by forgetting his benefits, or neglecting to give him thanks.

Fourthly, by Sins against Religion.

BY not adoring God, or praying to him but seldom. 2. By praying without attention, and with wilful distractions. 3. By a want of respect to God in time of prayer ; or by talking, or being present in holy places, without a becoming modesty and gravity in our looks, words, and actions.

Fifthly, by Sins against the Care we ought to have of our Salvation.

BY a love of idleness. 2. By being too solicitous in temporal concerns, and neglecting the means of salvation. 3. By deferring amendment of life, or immediately desisting, after having begun it. 4. By neglecting the means of salvation ; as the sacraments, prayer, good works, or performing them without devotion.

The Second Commandment is broken,

BY taking the name of God in vain. 2. By swearing to what one knows or doubts to be false. 3. By swearing to what is unjust, or prejudicial to others. 4. By swearing without necessity, though the thing itself be true and just. 5. By blaspheming God or holy things. 6. By cursing one's self, or others, or taking pleasure in hearing others swear or curse; or by provoking them to it. 7. By not reprehending them when one could and ought. 8. By making a vow to do what is impossible to fulfil; or to do what is evil and displeasing to God; or to do what one never intends to perform. 9. By breaking lawful vows, or deferring to fulfil them without just cause.

The Third Commandment is broken,

BY doing servile works on Sunday, or causing others to do the like without necessity. 2. By employing a considerable part of Sundays or holydays in temporal affairs, as is often the case with merchants, advocates, solicitors, &c. 3. By omitting to hear Mass, or not hearing it with due attention and reverence. 4. By spending Sundays and holydays in idleness, gaming, dancing, feasting, and other recreations. 5. By not dedicating a considerable part of those days to reading and praying, and by not taking care that those under your charge do the like.

The Fourth Commandment is broken,

BY children not paying due respect to their parents, or by despising them, either in their hearts or actions. 2. By not loving them, but wishing their death, or some misfortune; or by forsaking them in their necessities. 3. By not cheerfully obeying them; or by obeying them in things unlawful. 4. By slighting their representations, and resisting their corrections. 5. By putting them into a passion, and not taking care to pacify them. 6. By not executing their last will and testament, or by delaying to do so.

II. By servants. 1. By disobeying their masters. 2. By a want of diligence in the trust that is required of them. 3. By neglecting the reasonable and just interests of their masters or employers. 4. By letting them sustain any kind of loss, through their sloth, neglect, &c. 5. By obeying them in things unlawful; as lying, swearing, stealing, &c.

III. By parents not discharging their duty towards their children. 1. In not loving them, and supplying their corporal necessities. 2. In not being careful of their salvation. 3. In not correcting them when it is necessary; in flattering their passions, or indulging their evil inclinations. 4. In treating them with too much severity. 5. In not setting them good example. 6. In forcing them in the choice of their state of life.

IV. By masters. 1. In not taking due care to regulate the life and conversation of their servants. 2. In not being watchful over them, to reprehend their faults; make them say their prayers; go to Mass on Sundays and holydays, and frequent the sacraments. 3. In commanding them to do something evil. 4. In treating them injuriously. 5. In not paying them their wages.

The Fifth Commandment is broken,

BY anger, quarrelling, or threatening; or by injurious or reproachful words or actions against our neighbors. 2. By revenge, or deliberate thoughts or desires of revenge. 3. By provoking, striking, challenging, wounding, or being the cause of another's death. 4. By bearing malice, refusing to salute or speak to any neighbor out of hatred or aversion, or refusing to be reconciled to him.

The Sixth Commandment is broken,

BY the hearing.—In willingly giving ear to immodest words, discourses, songs, &c.

II. By the sight.—1. In looking on immodest objects. 2. In reading or keeping immodest books; lending them to others; or neglecting to suppress them when we may.

III. By the tongue.—1. In speaking immodest words. 2. In relating improper stories or wicked actions of ourselves or others.

IV. By the touch.—In using indecent actions.

V. By thoughts.—By entertaining impure thoughts wilfully and with delight.

VI. By immodest actions.—1. In committing the sin of impurity ; and whether effected by soliciting, seducing with promises, or forcing ; whether it be fornication, adultery, or incest. 2. In sins against nature.

The Seventh Commandment is broken,

BY taking another's goods, and to what value. 2. By retaining what we know belongs to another. 3. By denying our debts, or wilfully delaying payment, to the prejudice of our neighbors. 4. By making unjust bargains or contracts, into which every trade or profession ought to make a strict inquiry. 5. By causing any damage to our neighbors. 6. By putting off false and counterfeit money. 7. By desiring another's property. 8. By not giving alms when necessity requires. 9. By not paying dues to your pastors, or by not contributing to the decent support of religious worship. 10. By simony.

The Eighth Commandment is broken,

BY witnessing what is false, or defending a false accusation, as in lawyers and solicitors; or condemning the innocent, or discharging the guilty, as judges and arbitrators. 2. By detraction, either in laying something false to another's charge, or reporting for truth what is merely doubtful; or in revealing something as yet secret and unknown, though true, to the prejudice of some third person; with a declaration, whether it be done out of levity and indiscretion, or out of malice or ill-will; whether in the presence of many, or in a matter of importance. 3. By lying, or speaking what we judge to be otherwise than we say: whether out of custom, or to the considerable prejudice of others. 4. By hypocrisy, which is a lie in action.

The Ninth and Tenth are broken,

BY all unlawful and wilful desires of impurity and theft: which have been already mentioned in the sixth and seventh commandments.

The Precepts of the Church.

TO keep certain appointed days holy, with the obligation of hearing Mass, and resting from servile works. II. To observe the days of abstinence and fasting. III. To confess our sins to our pastors at least once a year. IV. To receive the blessed sacrament at Easter, or thereabouts. V. To contribute to the support of our pastors.

The examination on these precepts being very easy, we therefore proceed to

THE SEVEN DEADLY SINS.

The Sin of Pride consists,

N entertaining too great an opinion of ourselves, or in valuing ourselves above our deserts. 2. In publishing what we think good in ourselves, that we may be esteemed by others. 3. In arrogance, by attributing to ourselves the good we have not. 4. In presumption and ambition, by confiding too much in our own strength, conceiting ourselves capable of accomplishing things above our abilities, and in rashly attempting them. 5. In contempt of others, on account of the good opinion we have of ourselves, and when this contempt is manifested by words or actions, or by being severe and exacting on inferiors. 6. In want of submission to our superiors, by disobeying them, blaming their conduct, or murmuring against them. 7. In not acknowledging our faults : or when, in confessing the facts, we maintain we have done well, or at least allege false excuses. 8. In contempt of admonitions and corrections. 9. In discord. 10. In hypocrisy. 11. In curiosity, which inclines us to know things prejudicial to our salvation. 12. By ingratitude for God's benefits.

The sins of covetousness, luxury, and sloth have been already examined in the first, sixth, and seventh commandments.

The Sin of Gluttony,

IN eating and drinking to excess, as far as they are prejudicial, either to our health or our reason, or any ways scandalous, or of ill example to others.

The Sin of Envy.

TROUBLE at the good success of our neighbor, or when we endeavor to do him an unkindness, or speak often against him or create an ill opinion of him in the mind of another.

2. When we rejoice at our neighbor's harm.

The Sin of Anger.

NOT to endure any thing contrary to our inclinations. 2. To suffer ourselves to be hurried away by the emotions of wrath against those that give us any trouble. 3. To proceed to quarrels, injurious language, oaths, curses, threats; to take revenge, or to desire and wish to be in a capacity of exercising it. 4. To refuse to pardon injuries, or to be reconciled to our enemies, or to such of our neighbors with whom we have had some misunderstanding, or falling out.

A Prayer for obtaining Contrition.

I HAVE now here before me, O Lord, a sad prospect of the manifold offences whereby I have displeased thy divine Majesty, and which I am assured will appear in judgment against me, if, by repentance and a hearty sorrow, my soul be not prepared to receive thy pardon. But this sorrow and this repentance, O Lord, must be the free gift of thy mercy, without which all my endeavors will be in vain, and I shall be forever miserable. Have pity therefore on me, O merciful Father, and pour forth into my heart thy grace, whereby I may sincerely repent of all my sins: grant me true contrition, that I may bewail my base ingratitude, and grieve from my heart for having offended so good a God. Permit me not to be deluded by a false sorrow, as I fear I have been too often, through my own weakness and neglect: but let it now be thy gift descending from thee, the Father of Lights, that so my repentance may be accompanied by an amendment and a change of life, that being thus acquitted from the guilt of my sins, I may once more be received into the number of thy servants. Amen.

Prayers before Confession.

HAVE pity on me, O God, and let me partake of the effects of thy great mercy. I here acknowledge, and am sensible of the multitude and enormity of my sins. It is thou,

O my God, perfidious creature as I am, whom I have offended; it is against thee that I have rebelled. To follow my pleasures, and indulge my passions, I have abandoned thee, and lost thy grace; I, whom thou hast created to thine own likeness, and redeemed by the blood of thy only Son, have, by my sins, made my soul resemble those monsters of ingratitude, the infernal spirits; like them, I have forfeited heaven, my blessed country, and deserved hell and damnation, which I shall never be able to escape without the assistance of thy boundless mercy. The injury I have offered thee, O Lord, is so great, that it caused thy Son Jesus Christ, my Saviour, to suffer death. How, then, O my God! how can I sufficiently deplore so great an evil! Who will give water to my head, and a fountain of tears to my eyes, that I may incessantly deplore my misery and malice, and do penance for my sin!

ALMIGHTY and eternal God, to whom are due all honor and glory:

behold, I (a miserable and unworthy sinner, who have hitherto lived in ingratitude and rebellion) come to thee, my Creator, my God, my Redeemer, my merciful Judge, and my Saviour, accusing myself, and laying before thee all the abominations by which I have blasphemed thy sacred name, transgressed thy precepts, contemned thy will, and defiled both my soul and body. O my God, when I behold my misery and consider how often I have abused thy gifts and blessings, despised thy goodness, neglected thy service, added daily sin to sin, and preferred myself, my passions, and other creatures, to my duty and thy commands, I cannot but consider myself as unworthy either to lift up my eyes to heaven, or appear in thy presence. But whither, O Lord my God, shall I flee from thy face? Where shall I conceal myself from thy anger? Who can restore me to thy favor? It is only from thy goodness that I can expect so great a blessing: for art not thou my Father, whose mercies are infinite, and whose compassion knows no bounds? And I, though unworthy of the name of thy child, acknowledge no other Father but thee. Wherefore I prostrate myself at the feet of thy mercy, and beseech thee, by thy almighty power, goodness, and wisdom, to pardon, purify, and acquit me from the guilt of all my sins. Receive me again into thy favor, O Lord, and confirm me in all good, that my soul, being entirely possessed by thee, may be prepared for glory. And that my petition may find acceptance, I appeal to thee, sweet Jesus, Son of the living God, the Advocate and Mediator betwixt us sinners and thy eternal Father, humbly beseeching thee, through that infinite charity which brought thee from heaven to the ignominy of the cross, and thy precious blood spilt thereon, that I may now partake of the benefit of thy sufferings, and be cleansed from all my offences: that by thy assistance I may sincerely repent and amend of all my failings: that dying to myself and the world, I may live only to thee, and never suffer either passion or pleasure to divide me from thee any more.

ALAS, my Father and my God, how comes it to pass that I should have so often offended thee! Thou seest, O Lord, neither goodness nor health in me; have mercy therefore on me, for I have sinned against thee. Heal my soul, O Lord, for thou only art my hope and strength. Alas, my God, how many and dangerous are my wounds! how great my weakness and misery, for the curing of which thou wast crucified and slain: and to whom shall I complain of all these my evils, if not to thee, O Lord, the Saviour and Redeemer of my soul? Be merciful, therefore, to me a sinner, sweet Jesus! for nothing is more pleasing to thee than to have compassion on those that are miserable. Restore me to thy favor; receive me again into thy friendship, and cast me not off on account of my offences; for what can I, miserable creature, do but offend? And what canst thou, O infinite Goodness, do, but have mercy and spare? Spare me, therefore, according to thine infinite goodness, and grant me now tears of sincere repentance, that I may mourn for the evils I have committed. Grant that I may sincerely grieve for having sinned against thee, my God, my Creator, and Redeemer. Soften my hardened breast, and inflame my frozen heart, that I may, with unfeigned sorrow, repent for not loving, nay, for despising and offending thee. What shall I, most miserable and wicked creature, do, O God, to serve thee? Whilst I behold myself, I see no hopes of amendment; all my confidence and hopes of mercy are in thee. Help me, therefore, O Lord, and be thou the strength of my soul, that I may from this moment detest and forsake all my past evils; that I may conquer my passions, reform all my bad habits, and by a true change of life and manners, be entirely united to thee, and with thee live forever. Amen.

TO thee, O merciful Jesus, in the bitterness of my soul I come, beseeching thee to have compassion on me, and deliver me from my sins: despise not, O God, the cries of thy lost sheep; reject not the sighs of thy prodigal child, who desires to return home to thee, and to be received again into the number of thy servants. I am sorry for all the sins I have committed, and detest them here in thy presence: because I love thee above all things, and honor thee as my gracious God, worthy of infinite love. And for this reason I now firmly purpose to suffer all evils, nay, even death itself, rather than willingly consent to sin. I resolve to make an exact confession of all my offences, faithfully to discharge whatever shall be enjoined for my punishment or amendment, and carefully to avoid all occasions of sin. And if any thing be wanting of true contrition to this my sorrow, may thy sacred passion, O blessed Jesus, thy precious blood and infinite merits, supply all the defects of my weakness: for it is in thy death I place all my trust: through thee I firmly hope to obtain pardon of all my sins, grace to overcome my vicious customs, and perseverance to the end in the good resolutions I have now made in thy presence. As, therefore, it is by thee I come to the knowledge of my misery, so it is by thee my good purpose and sorrow for my offences must be perfected. May the fire, therefore, of divine love now inflame my soul, and consume therein whatever is displeasing to thy infinite goodness. Sanctify my heart—purify my affections and desires—that, dying to myself, I may ever live to thee, and at length depart this life in thy grace and favor. Amen.

Such as go to confession over-night, or otherwise have leisure, may use the following Aspirations, either before or after confession, with benefit to their souls:

MY Lord and my God, I sincerely acknowledge myself a vile and wretched sinner, unworthy to appear in thy presence; but do thou have mercy on me and save me.

O God, my sovereign good, how far have I wandered from thee by sins! How long have I dwelt at a distance from thee in the region of misery, where I had quite lost myself.

Most loving Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am unworthy to be called thy child; make me as one of thy servants, and may I for the future be ever faithful to thee.

It truly grieves me, O my God, to have sinned, and so many times transgressed thy law: but wash me now from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

I detest my sins, O Lord: I abhor my wickedness: I confess my ingratitude, and seek refuge in thy mercy.

From this moment I purpose never more to offend thee: O let me suffer all kinds of pain and infamy, nay, even death itself, rather than return to my former course of life, and live thy enemy.

Loving Father, assist me by thy grace, that I may bring forth worthy fruits of penance, and not suffer my sins to go unpunished.

I have wandered like a sheep that is gone astray; but I hear thy sweet voice crying after me, in the most affectionate manner imaginable, "Come, dear soul, thou hast gone after many lovers, but return to me, and I will receive thee yet again." Jer. iii.

II. Now I begin, O Lord, now I begin to live, not trusting in my own strength, or in the resolutions I make, but in the multitude of thy mercies.

Perfect, O God, the work which thou hast now begun in me. Thou hast given me peace and understanding; but, wretched sinner that I am, how ungratefully have I abused all thy gifts! And yet now, with all the tenderness of a loving Father, thou recallest me from sin, and rescuest me from hell and everlasting damnation.

Alas! my soul is full of anguish and confusion at the recollection of the many sins whereby I have offended thee, my merciful Redeemer, made myself a slave to the devil, and provoked thy anger.

O that I had never transgressed thy commandments, nor fallen into such an abyss of misery and calamity! O that I had never sinned! Happy those souls who have preserved their innocence : O that I had been so happy !

But now I am resolved, with the help of thy grace, to be more watchful over myself, to amend my failings, and fulfil thy law. Look down on me with the eyes of mercy, O God, and blot out my sins.

Forgive me what is past, and, through the bowels of thy infinite goodness, secure me by thy most efficacious grace against all my wonted failings for the time to come.

Alas ! how slothful and careless have I hitherto been ! I have deferred my repentance, rejected thy helps, contemned thy visits, and been deaf to thy calls. Lord, what shall I do ? or what course shall I take ? It grieves me from my heart that I have ever offended thee ; but do thou vouchsafe to have mercy on me, O sovereign Lord of my life.

Behold, thou seest nothing good nor wholesome in my soul. I am blind and miserable, and without thee, O God, I can do nothing.

III. My sins surpass in number the sands of the sea, and I confess myself, O Lord, unworthy of thy mercy ; but thy goodness is above all my offences.

Thou hast declared, O Lord, that there is joy in heaven for the conversion of a sinner : grant me, then, the grace of true repentance, and let heaven rejoice at my amendment.

Thou wilt not the death of a sinner, but that he be converted and live : grant me then that spiritual life which I want ; for behold, O Lord, I sincerely desire to live to thee.

Thou didst come, O dear Redeemer, not to call the just, but sinners to repentance : behold a most miserable sinner here before thee. O draw him most powerfully to thee

Have mercy on me, O God, according to thy great mercy ; and according to the multitude of thy tender mercies, blot out my iniquities. Sprinkle me with thy precious blood, and I shall be whiter than snow. Create in me a clean heart and renew a right spirit within my bowels.

Dear Redeemer of my soul, how long turnest thou thy face from me, and bringest no relief to my sorrows !

Behold the prodigal child, nay worse than the prodigal : but do thou, O Father, vouchsafe to have compassion on me ! clothe me with the robes of thy grace, and receive me into the arms of thy mercy.

Let not thy precious blood, my dear Saviour, be shed for me in vain ; but may it now bring forth in me the fruit of sincere repentance, and open to me the way to life everlasting.

IV. How great is thy goodness, O Lord, in having so long spared such a worthless servant, and waited with so much patience for his amendment ! Ah, what return shall I make for thy infinite mercies ? O let this mercy be added to the rest, that I may never more offend thee : this single favor I earnestly beg of thee, O Lord, viz., that I may, for the future, renounce my own way to follow thine.

Come, Lord, take possession of my heart, and cast out thence whatever thou knowest profanes or defiles this thy temple ; destroy and eradicate all that displeaseth thee ; and lay therein the foundation of a new life.

I confess I have sinned ; but if thou wilt, thou canst make me whole. Heal, most loving Father, this my soul.

O that I were free from all vice ! that I could regulate my senses, govern my thoughts, and moderate my affections ! O that I were truly composed and orderly both within and without ! But when shall I be thus happy, when thus pure in thy sight ? Lord, I will labor and take pains to reform myself, and I beg thy assistance for this work : but if I find not that good effect I desire, I will still persevere in my duty, and wait with patience and humility till thou shalt please to give a blessing to my endeavors. Help me, O Lord my God, and have compassion on my sinful soul. Amen.

At Confession.

Here you should reflect upon the measures which you ought to take for an entire amendment of your life, considering well what have been the occasions of your sins? What circumstances are apt to prove dangerous to you? What precautions you ought to take against those dangers in future? What pious exercises you ought to practise daily? When, and how often, approach the Sacraments, &c. When you find yourself heartily sorry for having offended God, and fully determined for the time to come to amend your life, and avoid all mortal sins, and the immediate occasions of them, then humbly approach the tribunal of Penance, and kneeling by the Priest, make the sign of the Cross, and ask his blessing, saying, "Father, bless me, for I have sinned." After receiving the blessing, say the Confiteor to "mea maxima culpa, through my most grievous fault:" and then begin a plain, entire, and discreet confession of your sins, thus: "Since my last confession, which was a week, a fortnight, or a month ago, I have, or I have not complied with my penance, and I accuse myself that,—" avoiding superfluous accusations, or irrelevant matter, neither obscuring your offences by ambiguous expressions, nor concealing any mortal sin, or any circumstance which either aggravates its heinousness, or changes its nature; mention how often you have committed it, and fail not to state whether it be habitual. Having sincerely declared all you can remember, conclude thus: "for these and all my other sins and imperfections, which I cannot call to mind, I am heartily sorry, purpose amendment for the future, and humbly ask pardon of God, and penance and absolution of you, my ghostly Father." Then humbly bowing down, finish the Confiteor, saying, "Therefore, I beseech," &c.

This being concluded, you must listen attentively to the instructions of the Priest, accept with humility the penance he enjoins, and whilst he imparts absolution, renew your sorrow, making an act of contrition, or repeating the following prayer :

O MERCIFUL God, as, at the words of thy Angel, the chains fell from the feet of St. Peter, and he was immediately restored to liberty, so grant, that by the words of this holy Sacrament, pronounced by the Priest, the chains of my sins may be loosed, and all my offences pardoned. Amen.

O God, be merciful to me a sinner.

Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me.

Thou, who sufferedst for me, have mercy on me.

Prayers after Confession.

RETURN thee thanks, O loving Father, for having admitted me into this sacrament, wherein suffering thy mercy to take place of thy justice, thou hast cast all my sins out of thy sight. Grant me now thy grace, O Lord, that by sincere and perfect contrition, my repentance may be like that of David and Peter, that my offences being effectually remitted, I may hereafter continue faithful in thy service. But this I cannot do, unless with the aid of thy grace; for without it my soul will remain barren and dry, like earth without water. I am perfectly sensible of my own weakness and inability to do any thing that is good, or acceptable to thee. The only consolation and confidence I have is to raise up my eyes to my Jesus, to his tears and sufferings; that thy justice being appeased thereby, thou mayest open to me the gates of mercy, and receive me into thy favor. Look down, therefore, on me, with an eye of pity, and have compassion on my miseries. O meek and merciful Lord! strike this hard and obdurate heart of mine, that it may burst forth into a fountain of healing waters,—the waters of sincere contrition, wherewith my soul may be cleansed and purified. Perfect the work thou hast begun in me, for I am thy creature, and grant that the confession I have made may be acceptable in thy sight, and that whatever is wanting towards its perfection through my weakness, may be supplied by thy infinite goodness and mercy. Thy mercy therefore I implore, and through it beg pardon of all my sins; firmly purposing in thy presence to avoid every thing that may be displeasing to thee, and to apply myself with all diligence to the practice of virtue. I hope thou wilt not refuse me thy assistance, since thou, O Lord, hast promised never to forsake those that trust in thee. Permit my heart to be no longer hurried away by the follies of this life, nor to experience my own weakness in my wonted relapses. It is high time I should be converted from my evil ways, forsake my errors, and amend my failings; since hitherto, alas! so many days and years have elapsed in good purposes, but with very little improvement of my soul. Command, therefore, O sovereign Lord, my rebellious heart, and force it to a compliance with thy law. Break all my passions, rule my affections, direct my desires, strengthen my good endeavors, and give ear now to thy unworthy servant. Let not my wickedness make thee forget thy goodness; for though my sins cry aloud for justice, yet thou still hast mercy, whereby thou canst save, and once more receive me into thy favor, my God, my Lord, and all my hope, who livest and reignest forever and ever.

O GOD of mercy, having now, through thy gracious goodness, disburdened my conscience of the guilt wherewith it was oppressed, and, in the humblest manner I was able, discovered all the sins I could recollect, to thy minister, my ghostly father, I most humbly beseech thee to accept this confession, and forgive me all my trespasses, as well those I have forgot as those I have remembered. Grant me grace, O Lord, to live more carefully hereafter, and to abstain from my former vices, which I utterly detest, firmly purposing never to be guilty of them any more. But especially, O most merciful and bountiful Saviour, enable me to withstand those temptations with which I am most infested, and to avoid all occasions of offending thee for the future. If the just man fall seven times in the day, how much more reason have I to be jealous of myself, O Lord, and to fear that I shall not be steadfast in my resolutions, having, through my own frailty and vicious customs, increased the natural blindness and weakness in which I was born? Yet, O Lord, I firmly purpose, through thy merciful assistance, never to consent to any mortal sin, from which I humbly beseech thee to preserve me whilst I live : and, as to my venial sins and imperfections, I resolve to strive against them, and hope, through thy goodness, at length to amend them.

A Preparation for Communion.

An Act of Faith.

MY Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, I firmly believe that thou art really present in the blessed Sacrament: I believe it contains thy body and blood, thy soul and divinity. I acknowledge these truths; I believe these wonders; I adore thy power, which has wrought them; I praise thy infinite goodness, which has prepared them for me; and, with David, "I will praise thee, my God, with my whole heart, and will recount all thy admirable works; I will rejoice in thee, and bless thy holy name." In this faith, and with this acknowledgment, I presume to approach this adorable banquet, wherein thou bestowest on me the divine food of thy body and blood, to satiate my soul with thyself and thy Holy Spirit. Grant, O Jesus, that I may approach thee with such a profound sense of reverence and humility, as is due to thy infinite majesty. Who am I, O God, that thou shouldst work such wonders for my sake? Grant, O Lord, that I be not altogether unworthy of them, and that I may now receive thee with a pure heart, a clean conscience, and a sincere and lively faith. Pardon my sins, which have rendered me most unworthy to approach thee: I detest them from the bottom of my heart, because they are displeasing to thee, my God; I renounce them forever, and promise to be faithful to thee. Take courage, then, my soul, raise thyself up: go and receive thy God, and with him all the favors he has prepared for thee in this divine sacrament.

An Act of Hope.

IN thee, sweet Jesus, I place all my hope, because thou alone art my salvation, my strength, my refuge, and the foundation of all my happiness; and were it not for the confidence I place in thy merits, and in the precious blood wherewith thou didst redeem me, I would not presume to partake of this banquet. Encouraged therefore by thy goodness, behold I come to thee as a poor and infirm sheep to its shepherd ; as one sick to his physician ; as a condemned criminal to his powerful intercessor : that, as the true shepherd of my soul, thou mayest strengthen me : heal me, as my physician : and, as my merciful advocate, deliver me from the sentence of sin and death. I, who am an abyss of nothing, invoke thee, who art the abyss of all goodness : for though my sins are innumerable, and very grievous, yet they are but light and trivial, when compared to thy boundless mercy, and the infinite ransom of thy blood. It is in this mercy, then, O Lord, that I put all my trust ; and am pleased that I can find nothing in myself wherein to hope, that so I may put my whole trust in thee. Have pity, therefore, on me, my Jesus, and save me, for thou forsakest none that place their hopes in thee.

An Act of Charity.

HOW strong was the force of thy love, my dear Redeemer, when, being about to depart out of this world to thy eternal Father, thou providedst for us this divine banquet, enriched with all heavenly sweetness! Ah! it was through the wonderful effects of thy divine goodness, that thou didst humble thyself to such an excess for our redemption, as to take upon thee the infirmity of our nature. And is it not through an infinite excess of thy love, that thou hast left us thy body and blood for the food and nourishment of our souls: that, as thou didst unite thyself to our humanity, so we might here be made partakers of thy divinity! In return for this thy infinite love, I desire to love thee, my Jesus, who art my only comfort in this place of banishment, the only hope of my infirm soul, and happiness above all I can enjoy in this life. I love thee, my God, with my whole heart, with my whole soul, with all my mind, and all my strength ; and wish, that as every moment is an increase of my life, so it may be also of my love towards thee. I desire, with all the affections and powers of my soul, that as the utmost thanks are due, so they may be returned to thee, by all the faithful, for this divine food, which is our refreshment, support, strength, armor, and defence in all our miseries ; and that my love may never cease, inflame my heart with the fire of heaven, that it may continue burning, till nature and corruption being weakened and consumed, I may at length be transformed into thee. Come, O Lord ! hasten to release me once more from the bonds of sin, and prepare me for the blessing thou art now about to bestow on me.

An Act of Desire.

AS the wearied hart thirsts after the fountains of water, so doth my soul pant after thee, my Saviour ! my Lord ! and my Jesus ! It ardently longs to drink of those fountains, which thy love has opened for its comfort and relief. Tired, therefore, with my own evil ways, I now return hungry and thirsty, crying out aloud, Have mercy on me, O Son of God, and permit me to taste of thy banquet, that my soul may be refreshed. O that I had the affections of the heavenly spirits, that my soul might truly languish after thee, the fountain of life, of wisdom, and of eternal light; the impetuous torrent of celestial happiness! O that my soul did truly hunger after thee, the bread of angels, the food of blessed souls, and that all that is within me might be delighted with the taste of thy sweetness! I here despise all human consolations, that I may be comforted by thee, my only good, my God and Saviour, whom I love above all things, and desire to entertain within my breast, with as much devotion and affection as is conceived by thy chosen servants, who sit at thy table of celestial bliss. And however I may have been hitherto wanting in my duty, or unjust to thee, in misplacing my affections, I now forever renounce my folly and weakness, and from my heart request, that for the future, my joy, my relief, my treasure, and rest, may be entirely centred in thee. May I never desire any thing besides thee; and may all things seem contemptible and as nothing without thee, O my God!

An Act of Thanksgiving.

WHO am I, O God of infinite goodness, that thou shouldst permit me to partake of this bread of angels? How have I found such favor in thy sight, as to be the object of so unspeakable a mercy! Come, all ye angels and saints of God, and I will recount to you what great things our Lord has done for my soul. He has raised me out of the dust, and delivered me from the bonds of sin: he has told me not to be dejected, for that himself will be my support and my strength: and though I have most unworthily forsaken him by my repeated follies, yet behold he calls me back again, and invites me to partake of the bread of life, that, as he made me, so I may ever live by him. What thanks can I give thee, O merciful Jesus, Saviour of the world? What return shall I make thee for all thou hast done for my soul? Were I to give all I have in acknowledgment of thy love, it would still be as nothing; for thou, Lord, hast plentifully poured forth thyself upon me, and given me even all that thou art—thy body, thy blood, thy soul, thy divinity: and if, in thanksgiving for thy mercies, I were to lay before thee my body and soul, my life, liberty, and all I possess, what would they be, when compared to the blessing thou hast here bestowed on me; what to the debt I owe, which is in some kind equal to what I receive, Infinite as thyself? O God, how far is this above my means? I have, however, one request to make (for thou art good and merciful, and knowest my poverty), that thou wouldst vouchsafe to accept this little offering I present thee in the sincerity of my heart, saying, with the Spouse in the Canticles, My Beloved to me, and I to my Beloved. Thou hast mercifully given thyself to me, for the food of my soul; and now behold I offer thee all that I have, all that I am, all that I possess; to thee I make a full surrender of them all, that being wholly thine, I may now no longer have any part in myself.

An Act of Fear.

BEING now invited by thee, sweet Jesus, to come and partake of thy banquet, I could cheerfully obey thy call, and receive thee with all the love and affection of my soul, if the thought of so great a happiness did not make me tremble at the consciousness of my wickedness. My sins always upbraid me; and when the voice of St. Paul strikes my ear, He that eats and drinks unworthily, eats and drinks judgment to himself, must I not then tremble at the thoughts of approaching thy table? Alas! if I allow myself but the liberty to think, I am confounded, to consider, that having so often received this divine food, I should yet remain so frail and miserable, or that my heart should be so little fixed on thee as to be instantly wandering amongst vanity and folly, and seem more fond of the empty satisfaction of creatures than of thee, my only happiness. I have frequently resolved to amend, and as often pretended to make a new covenant, receiving thy precious body as a pledge of my engagements; and yet where I remain, but in the midst of sin and vice, with my senses disordered, my tongue ungoverned, my affections depraved, and yet, O God, how little pains do I take to recover from this misery, and return to thee, to whom I have so repeatedly promised to be faithful! These thoughts encompass me, O Lord, on every side, and cause me to fear, that what thou hast mercifully ordained for my salvation, I should now receive to my judgment and condemnation. What course then shall I steer in the midst of such difficulties? Shall I fly from before thy face, like despairing Cain? or with Adam hide myself, because, at the hearing of thy voice, I behold myself naked, and destitute of all that is good? No, my God, suffer me rather to fly to thee for succor and refuge, because I know thy mercy exceeds my misery, and thy goodness surpasses my wickedness; if I am defiled, infirm, and naked, thou canst cleanse me, cure, and clothe me. To thee, therefore, I run, O my God, with fear and trembling, to take shelter under the wings of thy clemency; still hoping, that, notwithstanding my unworthiness, thou wilt pardon my iniquities, heal my infirmities, and clothe me with thy grace. For this end, O Lord, disengage my heart from all that divides thee from me, or distracts me in my duty; for I own, that in all that tempts me, there is nothing but vanity and affliction of spirit. O may my soul no longer relish any other sweetness than that of thy presence: may it now no longer admire anything but the greatness of thy infinite love, or look for content in any other object, but in thee alone, the God of my heart.

An Act of Humility.

O IMMENSE, powerful, and incomprehensible God, who am I, that thou shouldst vouchsafe thus to come to be my food, and to take thy habitation within my soul? It is in this I conceive something of thy infinite goodness and mercy, and my own miserable baseness and ingratitude. Thou art the King of kings, and sovereign Lord of the universe, at whose presence the earth trembles. Thou art the fountain of holiness, in whose sight the angels themselves are not pure. Thou art the bright sun of eternal day, who dwellest in light inaccessible. But as to myself, what am I, but a poor worm of the earth, subject to innumerable miseries, distracted with passions; fond of vanity, defiled with sin; encompassed with darkness; busy about folly; and careless of eternity? How then dare I approach thee, who am thus miserable and unprepared? With what confidence can I appear before thee, most just Judge, in whose presence the very pillars of heaven tremble;—I, who by my sins have run astray from thee, though thou art present in every place; I, who have polluted my soul, espoused to thee in baptism, with filth and wickedness, abandoning thee, my Maker and Redeemer, for the love of vanity and deceitful pleasures? Thou hast created me from nothing, and, by thy grace plentifully furnished me with the means of obtaining eternal happiness; and how ill a return have I made for these blessings, by living in sin, and by not being solicitous to please thee, but rather to satisfy my own corrupt inclinations? Thou hast prepared for me a banquet of heavenly sweetness, and I have longed after the flesh-pots of Egypt. Yet still, O my God of infinite goodness, behold, I, who am nothing but dust and ashes, presume to speak to thee. Receive, then, thy unworthy servant into the compassionate arms of thy mercy, since with so much love and solicitude thou hast labored for my conversion. I am now sensible, O my God, that without thee I am nothing, nor can I do anything: and that without the aid of thy grace, there is neither life nor salvation for me. Cast, therefore, all my sins out of thy sight, and with the tenderness of a loving Father, extend thy arms to receive an unworthy child, who returns to thee; and let me effectually experience the truth of the prophet's words, A sacrifice to God is an afflicted spirit, and a contrite and humble heart thou wilt not despise.

A Prayer before Receiving.

T is with fear and trembling, O Jesus, that I approach thy banquet, having nothing to confide in but thy goodness and mercy, being of myself a sinner, destitute of all virtue. My soul and body are defiled with many crimes: my thoughts and tongue in disorder, and under no restraint. In this wretched condition I hasten to thee, most compassionate physician, the fountain of all goodness, that I may be healed. I fly under the wings of thy paternal protection, hoping thou wilt be my Saviour, though I dare not appear before thee as my judge. To thee I expose all my wounds, to thee I discover all my shame. My sins, I confess, are so innumerable and enormous, as to make me despair, if thou didst not encourage me to hope in thy mercies, which are infinite. Look, therefore, on me with the eyes of compassion, O Lord Jesus Christ, eternal King, God and Man, who wast crucified for the sins of men. Have mercy on me, thou inexhaustible fountain of goodness. Hail, saving Victim, offered on the cross for me and all mankind. Hail, generous and precious blood, flowing from thy wounds, O Jesus ! and washing away the sins of the world. Remember thy creature, O Lord, whom thou hast redeemed by thy death. I am truly sorry for my offences, of which I am resolved to amend.

Wash away, therefore, all my sins, and blot out my iniquities, that, purified in soul and body, I may worthily approach the Holy of Holies ; and grant that thy precious body and blood, which I now, though unworthy, am about to receive, may avail to a full discharge from the guilt of all my crimes, a victory over my evil thoughts, the beginning of a new life, the seed of good works, and a sure protection of soul and body against all the snares of my enemies.

INSTRUCTIONS BEFORE COMMUNION.

AT the time of communion, go up to the rail, and take up the towel and hold it before you. Whilst the clerk says the Confiteor, humbly confess your sins, and beg God's pardon for them. When the priest turns about to give the absolution, receive it with your head bowed down, as from the hand of the invisible High Priest, whom you are going to receive.

When the priest holds up a particle of the blessed sacrament, with these words, Ecce Agnus Dei, &c. : Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who taketh away the sins of the world, humbly beg, with a lively confidence in the merits of his death and passion, that he would take away your sins.

When the priest repeats three times, Domine, non sum dignus, &c. : Lord, I am not worthy thou shouldst enter under my roof ; speak only the word, and my soul shall be healed, say the same with him in your heart, and humble yourself exceedingly through the sense of your unworthiness and sins ; but let this be joined with a lively confidence in him, who can raise you up, and perfectly heal your soul by his only word.

When the priest gives you the blessed sacrament, saying, The body of our Lord Jesus Christ preserve thy soul to life everlasting, Amen ; receive it with a lively faith, a profound humility, and a heart inflamed with love. At the time of your receiving, let your head be erect, your mouth opened moderately wide, and your tongue a little advanced, so as to rest upon your under lip, that the priest may conveniently convey the blessed sacrament into your mouth; which being done, shut your mouth; let the sacred host moisten a little upon your tongue, and then swallow it down as soon as you can, and afterwards abstain a while from spitting. If the host should chance to stick to the roof of your mouth, be not disturbed; neither must you put your finger into your mouth to remove it, but gently and quietly remove it with your tongue, and so convey it down. And then return to your place, and endeavor to entertain, as well as you can, the guest whom you have received.

INSTRUCTIONS AFTER COMMUNION.

SPEND at least a quarter of an hour after communion, in devotion suitable to that occasion. It would be a great abuse to turn your back immediately upon your Saviour, by going away, as some do, and thinking no more of what you have been doing. Particularly, I recommend to you three things after communion. 1st. To cast yourself down in spirit at the feet of your Lord, whom you have received ; to adore him, praise him, and give him thanks for coming to so unworthy a sinner ; and to invite all heaven and earth to join with you in praising and magnifying his holy name. 2dly. To make an offering of your heart and soul, and of your whole being to him, that you may henceforward love him and serve him forever. 3dly. To present him all your petitions for all the graces that you stand in need of, and to make good use of this favorable opportunity to pray heartily for yourself and for your friends, and for the whole world.

PRAYERS AFTER COMMUNION.

RETURN thee thanks, O eternal Father, for having, out of thy pure mercy, without any desert of mine, been pleased to feed my soul with the body and blood of thine only Son; and beseech thee, that this holy communion may not be to my condemnation, but available to the effectual remission of all my sins. May it strengthen my faith ; encourage me in the practice of good works ; deliver me from my vicious customs ; remove from me all concupiscence ; perfect me in charity, patience, humility, obedience, and all other virtues. May it secure me against all the snares of my enemies, visible and invisible ; prudently moderate my inclinations, both carnal and spiritual ; closely unite me to thee, the only true God, and finally settle me in unchangeable bliss, by admitting me, though an unworthy sinner, to be a guest at that divine banquet, where thou, with the Son and the Holy Ghost, art the true light, eternal fulness, everlasting joy, and perfect happiness of all the saints, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

An Act of Praise and Adoration.

I PRAISE and glorify thy blessed name, O my God, for the many favors thou hast now bestowed on me, and for all the blessings wherewith thou hast enriched my soul, after the many miseries and wants I have suffered, when, by my pleasures and passions, I had departed from thee! Alas! was not I most miserably blind, to expect content and happiness, when, by my folly, neglect, and indevotion, I removed myself at a distance from thee? But such was thy goodness, as to withdraw me from the precipice whither I was running; enlightening me with thy ray, and, by the inspirations of thy grace, inviting me to return. Thou hast pardoned all my sins; and, to crown all these favors, thou hast now come to visit me, that thou mightest forever shine in me, and I in thee. O my God, be thou forever blessed for all these infinite mercies. Bless the Lord, my soul, and let all that is within me praise and magnify his holy name. Bless the Lord, and see thou forget not the favors he has done thee. He has pardoned thee all thy offences, and cured thy infirmities. He has preserved thee from death, and crowned thee with the effects of his bounty. He has satisfied thy hunger with good things, and replenished thee with all the blessings thou couldst desire. And oughtest not thou to resolve on a change of life, and, renewing thy forces, grow young like the eagle, in his service? Let thy grace, then, O Lord, be ever at hand to assist me, for the experience of my own weakness makes me fearful; and if thou support me not, I most certainly shall fall again. Be thou therefore my shield and defence. Grant me a firm and constant faith; and strengthen it not only with respect to this mystery, but all other Christian truths and principles of eternal life; that, by the help thereof, I may overcome all such difficulties as I may have to encounter in my journey to that state of bliss for which I was created; as it is by such a faith those who, for my example, are gone before me, have triumphed over their enemies, done justice, and obtained the promises.

An Act of Hope.

I ADORE thy infinite greatness, O divine majesty, who fillest both heaven and earth, and art adored by all the blessed spirits, angels, and saints, who, without ceasing, praise and cry out before thee, "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth." Is it possible thou shouldst condescend to visit the most unworthy of all thy servants, and desire to dwell within him? If the heavens, nay the heaven of heavens, cannot contain thee, how much less this habitation, which I have prepared for thy reception? But thy goodness, O great God, knows well how to humble itself, when it is for our good. Thou knowest how to conceal the dazzling splendor of thy glory, and condescend to our weak capacity, that so thou mayest communicate thyself to us the more freely. This thou didst not only at the time of thy adorable incarnation, when thou madest thyself like to us, the more forcibly to attract our love to thee, but also when thou didst institute this mystery, wherein thou gavest thyself to us for the food and nourishment of our souls, the more closely to unite us to thyself, and make us aspire to that celestial banquet thou hast prepared for the blessed in heaven. O God, grant me the grace, so eagerly to long after this eternal banquet, that the desire of hereafter enjoying it may make me despise all the goods and pleasures of this life, and labor incessantly to prepare myself, till I am happily admitted amongst thy guests. There is one resolution which I here make in thy presence, viz., to renounce all whatsoever my irregular and corrupt affections incline me to; for they often press me to forsake the way of thy commandments, and put me in danger of forfeiting my title to eternal happiness: but, behold,

I now desire to wean my heart from them entirely, that I may place my whole love and confidence in thee alone. For this end, I am firmly resolved to watch over all my actions, fly from sin, and avoid whatever may be displeasing to thee. I will labor to work out my salvation by observing thy precepts, and as I have resolved, so I hope to be faithful to thee; but this resolution I acknowledge myself unable to perform, without the help of thy grace, which I most humbly implore. O Jesus, save me: conduct me through the ways of thy commandments, in which I now begin to walk, with courage and perseverance. Incline my heart to love thy divine truths; divert my eyes from beholding vain objects; enliven and strengthen me in the paths of virtue and good works, and attract me so powerfully to thyself, that I may follow thee as far as heaven, where thou livest and reignest for all eternity.

An Act of Love.

O MY God, what return can I make for so signal a favor, or what shall I do to acknowledge it as much as it deserves? Is it possible I should not continually love thee after such manifest proofs of thy love? Thou hast loved me to such an excess as to lay down thy life for my sake, and shall I not make so small a return to such boundless love, as to live only for thee? Thou hast communicated thyself at present entirely to me, and shall not I from henceforth remain wholly thine? Permit me not, O God, to be ungrateful, or insensible of thy love and my own salvation: I protest, therefore, in thy presence, that I will for the future be faithful to thee, and never depart from thee by the least disobedience to thy law. I will never forget thy bounty, nor the favor thou hast done me, in admitting me to partake of thy mercy. I will love thee with my whole heart, for thou, O Lord, art my strength, my support, my refuge, and deliverer, nay, my God, and my all. What is there in heaven or in earth, I should love in preference to thee, the God of my heart, the inheritance and only happiness I pretend to ! Of thee I have made choice, and nothing shall prevail on me to make me change.

An Oblation.

WHAT pledge can I give, O my Saviour, as an earnest of the love which I have now engaged to thee ? I have nothing worthy of thee, and if I had, I have nothing but what is thine on several accounts ; but such is thy goodness, as to be content to accept from us what is already thine. Wherefore, behold, I here offer to thee my body and soul, which are both now sanctified by the honor of thy divine presence ; I consecrate them to thee forever, since thou hast chosen them for thy temple ; my body to be continually employed in thy service, and never more to become an instrument of sin ; my soul to know thee, to love thee, and be evermore faithful to thee. Bless, O Lord, the present I here make thee. "Bless, O Lord, this house." Permit not my body to be any more defiled with sensual delights, nor my soul by a will to commit any mortal sin : for as I am now resolved to serve thee with body and soul, I will take pains to correct their evil inclinations. I will declare war against myself, renounce my wonted pleasures, my delights, my passions, my concupiscence, my anger, my pride, my self-love, my own will, and lastly, whatever else may offend thee.

A Prayer for Perseverance.

PRESERVE, O Lord, forever in my soul, the holy resolutions wherewith thou hast now inspired me, and grant me grace faithfully to put them in execution. Without thy aid I can do nothing ; I therefore earnestly crave thy assistance, to conquer all the difficulties I may meet with in the way of my salvation. Regard me with the eyes of mercy ; have compassion on my weakness ; and strengthen me daily with thy grace. O glorious Virgin, unite with me in giving thanks to thy beloved Son, who has restored me to his grace, and refreshed my soul with the banquet of his most precious body. Offer him all the grateful service thou didst him in this life, to supply the defects of my devotion ; and obtain of him that he depart not from me without leaving a large benediction behind him for my soul. Holy angels ! ye ministering spirits of God, behold the only Son of the eternal Father, whom you adored at his entrance into the world. O become now petitioners in my behalf, that I may henceforth serve him with the same spirit and truth, as you did whilst he remained on earth, and with the same cheerfulness as you now do in his celestial kingdom. All ye men and women, saints of God, behold here within my breast your Lord, the origin and reward of all your virtuous actions, and let all your prayers accompany mine to the throne; that by his grace I may follow your steps in the exact performance of every duty, till abounding in good works, I may at length be admitted into your society, and possess my Jesus for all eternity.

Conclusion.

GRACIOUSLY hear all my prayers, O good Jesus; hide me within thy wounds, and there protect me from all my enemies. O let nothing ever separate me from thee. Call me to thee at the hour of my death, that, with thy saints, I may praise thee forever. And now, Lord Jesus, I go from thee for awhile, but I hope not without thee, who art my comfort and the ultimate happiness of my soul. To thy love and protection I recommend myself, as well as my brethren, my relatives, my country, my friends, and my enemies. Love us, O Lord, change our hearts, and transform us into thyself. May I be wholly employed in thee and for thee: and may thy love be the end of all my thoughts, words, and actions, who livest and reignest forever and ever. Amen.

The following ASPIRATIONS may not be unseasonable for such as have an Opportunity on the Day of Communion, if said with Recollection of Spirit and Attention.

ENLIGHTEN the eyes of my soul, O Lord, with the rays of divine faith and wisdom, that I may ever look on thee as the way, the rule, and example of all my thoughts, words, and actions.

What am I, Lord, or what claim can I have on thy bounty, that thou shouldst thus pursue me with thy blessings? Yes, thou hast created me for thyself, and mayest thou alone be the rest and centre of my soul.

Good Jesus, my hope and only happiness, I here return thee thanks for all thy sufferings; and beg that I may ever find a place of refuge in thy sacred wounds against the assaults of all my enemies: imprint the memory of them, I beseech thee, so deeply in my heart, that I may ever love thee; and in all my sufferings never forget what thou hast suffered for me.

Take from me all self-love, and grant me a perfect love of thee, that I may hereafter be more devoted to thy service ; and suffer nothing to prevent me from a faithful discharge of my duty.

O that I could ever remember thee ! ever think of thee ! and love thee only ! O that my senses were ever shut against vain and sinful objects, and my mind freed from all fruitless solicitude, that I might ever abide in thee ! Henceforth I will, with the utmost diligence, seek thee, my only good ; my desires shall be fixed on thee alone, and all my actions shall be directed to thy glory.

I resign myself into thy hands, O God, desiring that thy holy will may be done in and by me, both now and forever. Be thou my instructor, director, and helper on all occasions, that I may neither do, speak, think, nor desire anything but what is according to thy good will and pleasure.

II. Grant thy servant, O Lord, understanding, that he may learn the way of thy commandments, and lay aside all interest besides that of heaven.

O sweet Jesus, thou fountain of goodness, direct my steps in thy paths, and teach me to do thy will. Inspire me with courage to take up my cross and follow thee. Disengage my heart from all unprofitable cares and vain affections, and though I dwell among creatures, yet may I ever live in thee, and for thee. Grant me true fervor of spirit, and enkindle in my breast the fire of divine love, that I may find no rest but in thee.

How sweet, O Lord, is thy Spirit! how pleasant to my ear are the words of thy mouth! O that I could ever be attentive to them, and fulfil thy law! May I die to the world and all its concupiscences; and let the greatness of thy love make all that is earthly appear to me as nothing. Protect me against my enemies, and in all danger come to my defence; make haste to help me, O God, and say to my soul, I am thy health and salvation.

Remember thou art my Father, and have compassion on my distressed soul: clothe it with all virtues, and feed it with thy grace; for it belongs to a father to be careful of his child.

As it is in thee I live, sweet Jesus, so it is in thee I desire to die; and both living and dying I will ever profess that thou art good, and that thy mercy endureth forever.

III. O sweetness of my life, and life of my soul, withdraw my heart and thoughts from all creatures, that they may find no rest but in thee!

My God, how long dost thou permit me to wander from thee? When wilt thou consume in me all that is corrupt and contrary to thy will? Draw me after thee, I beseech thee, that I may walk cheerfully in the way of thy precepts. Make me according to thine own heart, and let my soul be now thy habitation forever.

My soul without thee is dry like earth without water; moisten it, I beseech thee, with the dew of heaven, and grant me thy blessing from the land of the living. Wound my heart with thy love, that it may relish no earthly objects, but entirely depend on thy will.

Hail, dear Redeemer, whom I now desire to adore with the spirit and affection of thy elect; to thy direction I commit all the motions of my soul.

Ah! when will the day of eternity appear, that, liberated from this prison of flesh, I may join with the saints in thy everlasting praise? O sweet light, inflame my heart with the fire of celestial charity, and let its divine flames consume my bowels.

IV. O that I could give thee, dear Lord, as much praise, glory, and honor, as is given thee by the angels and blessed spirits in heaven! But as this, in my present state of existence, is impossible, accept, at least, my desire and good will. Deliver me from every thing that is contrary to thy will, and dispose my soul for thy greater glory.

Into thy hands I surrender myself, O my Creator, and, laying aside all private wishes, desire to depend on thee, not only as to the whole state of my body and soul, but also as to all the accidents and events thou mayest please to appoint for me, asking nothing more but that thy name may be glorified forever.

If it be more for thy honor that I should suffer interior desolation, I accept it from thy hand, convinced that whatever I suffer in my soul, for love of thee, is for my good.

O my God, how little art thou known, how little loved! Come to me, dear Lord! and if thou nowhere else findest rest, infuse thyself wholly into my soul. May the fire of thy love, O God, ever burn in my heart, and increase to such a flame, as may consume not only the sacrifice, but the altar also.

Let nothing be my comfort but thou, my Lord Jesus, nor any thing afflict me but my sins, and whatever is displeasing to thy divine Majesty.

O blessed Jesus! Life eternal! by whom I live, and without whom I die; grant I may be united to thee: that in the embraces of thy holy love and divine will, I may rest forever.

When shall I behold thee, sweet Lord? When shall I appear before thy face? When shall I see thee in the land of the living? Till then I sigh and bewail my banishment, desiring to be dissolved, and be with thee.

The Rosary of the Blessed Name of Jesus.

IN the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Thou, O Lord, wilt open my lips.

And my tongue shall announce thy praise.

Incline unto my aid, O God.

O Lord, hasten to help me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

THE FIVE MYSTERIES OF THE FIRST PART.

I. Incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ.The Meditation.

HE Son of God assumes human flesh out of the pure blood of the blessed Mary ever Virgin, and is made man in her womb.

O Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on us. [Ten times.]

Glory be to the Father, &c.

II. Birth of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Meditation.

THE Saviour of the world is born for our redemption ; His Mother remaining a Virgin.

O Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on us. [Ten times.] Glory be to the Father, &c.

III. Circumcision of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Meditation.

YOUR Saviour being eight days old, begins to suffer for our sins, and his blood already flows for us. He is circumcised according to the law, as if he had been himself a sinner.

O Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on us. [Ten times.]

Glory be to the Father, &c.

IV. Our Lord Jesus Christ found in the Temple.

The Meditation.

YOUR Saviour being twelve years old, shows himself more than mortal by his knowledge and wisdom, teaching the teachers of the Jews.

O Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on us. [Ten times.]

Glory be to the Father, &c.

V. Baptism of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Meditation.

HE Saviour of the world is baptized by St. John. The eternal Father declares him to be his Son.

O Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on us. [Ten times.]

Glory be to the Father, &c.

The Prayer.

JESUS, whose name is above all names, that at the name of Jesus every knee may bend, of those that are in heaven, on earth, or in hell. Who, at the time appointed by the Eternal Wisdom, assumedst flesh in the womb of the blessed Mary ever Virgin, and thus becamest the Son of David. Whose birth gladdened men and angels. Who began so early to suffer for us, and to shed on our account that blood that washeth away the sins of the world. Whose immortal wisdom appeared at the age of twelve years. To whose baptism all heaven was attentive. Grant us to celebrate those mysteries to thy honor and our own salvation: Who, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, livest and reignest, one God, for all eternity. Amen.

THE FIVE MYSTERIES OF THE SECOND PART.

I. Our Saviour washes his Disciples' Feet.

The Meditation.

OUR Saviour, to show us an example of humility, and how much we ought to serve each other, descendeth so low as to wash the feet of his disciples, though he is the God whom heaven and earth adore.

O Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews, have mercy on us. [Ten times.]

Glory be to the Father, &c.

II. Prayer of our Lord in the Garden.

The Meditation.

YOUR Saviour, knowing his passion to be now at hand, is so affected with the thoughts of it, and so oppressed with the load of our sins, that he prays to his Almighty Father that the bitter chalice might pass away from him.

O Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews,
have mercy on us. [Ten times.]

Glory be to the Father, &c.

III. Our Saviour apprehended.

The Meditation.

OUR Saviour, as if he had been no more than man, yields to the power of men, and permits himself, for our redemption, to be apprehended as if he were a malefactor.

O Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews, have mercy on us.

[Ten times.]

Glory be to the Father, &c.

IV. Our Saviour carries his Cross.

The Meditation.

OUR Saviour, being torn with scourges and pierced with thorns to expiate our sins, is obliged to carry the Cross on which he is to die, and moves on, laboring with sorrow, towards the place of execution.

O Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews,
have mercy on us. [Ten times.]
Glory be to the Father, &c.

V. Descent of our Saviour into Hell.

The Meditation.

THE soul of our Saviour, being separated by death from the body, descends to that place where the Saints were expecting his redemption.

O Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews, have mercy on us. [Ten times.] Glory be to, &c.

The Prayer.

JESUS, whose name is above all names, that in the name of Jesus every knee may bend, of those that are in heaven, on earth, or in hell, whose mysterious humiliations and sorrows, appointed for thee on account of our sins, appeared in the washing of the feet of thy servants and creatures; in thy distress and prayer and bloody sweat; in thy being secured, and brought before courts as a criminal; in thy bearing the load of the cross; and in the separation of thy soul from thy body, and its descent into the regions below; grant to us to celebrate those mysteries to thy honor and our own salvation: who, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, livest and reignest one God, for all eternity. Amen.

THE FIVE MYSTERIES OF THE THIRD PART.

I. Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ.The Meditation.

THE soul of our Lord Jesus Christ, which had been separated from the body, is reunited to it by a miracle of the Almighty power, and that body which had been dead, rises to die no more.

O Jesus, Son of the living God, have mercy on us. [Ten times.]

Glory be to the Father, &c.

II. Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Meditation.

HE body of our Lord Jesus Christ ascends into the highest heaven, where the Saviour of mankind sits at the right hand of God, the Almighty Father.

O Jesus, Son of the living God, have mercy on us. [Ten times.]

Glory be to the Father, &c.

III. *Our Lord Jesus Christ sends down
the Holy Ghost.*

The Meditation.

YOUR Saviour, now seated on the right hand of God, his Almighty Father, sends down the Holy Ghost, to inspire and animate his disciples, that they may be qualified to publish to mankind his cross and his glory.

O Jesus, Son of the living God, have mercy on us. [Ten times.]

Glory be to the Father, &c.

IV. Our Lord Jesus Christ crowning the Blessed Virgin and Saints.

The Meditation.

40 OUR Saviour, having by his passion, resurrection, and ascension, opened the way for the sons of Adam to heaven, which they had lost by sin, bestows on his Mother and his saints crowns of immortal glory.

O Jesus, Son of the living God, have mercy on us. [Ten times.]

Glory be to the Father, &c.

V. Our Lord Jesus Christ coming to Judgment.

The Meditation.

OUR Saviour will come in power and majesty to judge the living and the dead, and to render to every one according to his works.

O Jesus, Son of the living God, have mercy on us. [Ten times.]

Glory be to the Father, &c.

The Prayer.

JESUS, whose name is above all names, that in the name of Jesus every knee may bend, of those that are in heaven, on earth, or in hell: whose murdered body consigned to the grave, the Almighty raised from death, glorious and immortal: who by thy ascension triumphedst over death, and leddest captivity captive: who according to thy promise didst send down the Spirit that proceedeth from the Father and Thee, the Comforter and Enlivener; who, stretching forth the bounty of thy Almighty hand, didst shed upon the chosen children of Adam that glory which neither eye hath seen, nor ear hath heard, nor hath it entered into the heart of man, and who will come forth, in power and majesty, to judge the living and the dead, before whose throne all mortals shall appear: Grant us to celebrate those mysteries to thy honor and our own salvation: who, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, livest and reignest one God, for all eternity.

Amen.

The repetition of the above Prayers for meditation is not absolutely necessary. Those who cannot meditate on the mysteries, may say the Creed beforehand, in this Rosary, and in that of the Blessed Virgin. The works belonging to them do not bind under any sin.

Those who are in the Society of the Rosary of the Names of Jesus, may have a plenary indulgence on New Year's day the same that is granted in the year of Jubilee. Also on every second Sunday in the month; at the time of being received into the society; at the article of death; and on each day of the fifteen mysteries.

Fifteen Meditations

ON THE PASSION OF OUR SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST.

WOOD and gracious Jesus ! who being most high in the glory of thy Father, and equal to his divine essence, didst vouchsafe of thy infinite charity to be made man, to be born in a stable, to be laid in a manger, to be circumcised, and to fly into Egypt ; afterwards to be baptized, to be tempted, to fast, to watch, to teach the ignorant, and to heal the diseased ; in thy whole life to suffer continual afflictions and persecutions ; and at length voluntarily suffer death upon the cross,—and all this for me, and such wretched creatures as myself.

O GOOD and gracious Jesus ! who having eaten the paschal lamb with thy dearly beloved disciples, didst arise from supper, gird thyself with a towel, pour water into a basin, and on bended knees didst humbly wash the feet of thy disciples, and wipe them with thy own hands

O GOOD and gracious Jesus ! who when the time of thy death approached, didst bequeath a most excellent legacy to thy children, leaving us thy most sacred body to be our meat, and thy most precious blood to be our drink : no wit can reach, nor understanding penetrate the bottomless depth of this thy charity.

O GOOD and gracious Lord ! who, entered into the garden of Olives, beganst to fear and to be heavy ; whereupon thou saidst to thy disciples, My soul is sorrowful even unto death, and then leaving them, kneeledst upon the ground, and falling flat on thy face, prayedst to thy Father, If it be possible, let this chalice pass from me. And yet, with perfect submission, wholly resignedst thyself to him, saying, Father, not my will but thine be done ; and at length, through most painful agony, thy afflicted and fainting body sweated drops of blood.

O GOOD and gracious Jesus ! who, inflamed with an ineffable desire to redeem me, didst go to meet thine enemies, and sufferedst Judas the traitor to kiss thee, and thyself to be taken and bound with cords, and as a malefactor disgracefully led by the basest of the people to Annas, where with admirable meekness thou receivedst a cruel stroke on thy face, most unjustly given thee by a vile wretch and slave.

O GOOD and gracious Jesus ! who wast led fast bound, like a notorious malefactor, from Annas to the house of Caiaphas, the High Priest, where the Jews most unjustly accused thee, and with barbarous insolence spat upon thy meek and amiable face, buffeting thy cheeks and blindfolding thine eyes, scornfully mocking, and maliciously affronting thee with injuries all that night.

O GOOD and gracious Jesus ! who in the morning wast brought to the presence of Pilate, and with a most sweet and humble countenance, casting thine eyes down, stoodst before him in the judgment-hall ; and when thou wast most falsely calumniated by the Jews, and many insults and provocations given thee, thou meekly heldst thy peace, and patiently sufferedst their unjust proceedings.

O GOOD and gracious Jesus, who wast sent from Pilate to Herod : he out of vain curiosity coveting to see some miracle at thy hand, demanded many things of thee, and the Jews continuing their perverseness against thee ; but to all these thy meekness replied not a word : wherefore Herod and all his court despised thee, and putting on thee a white garment in scorn and derision, sent thee thus back again to Pilate. O unspeakable humility and obedience to the will of thine enemies ! thou wentst forth and returnedst again, and wast led up and down from place to place without gainsaying, but suffering them to do whatever they would.

O GOOD and gracious Jesus ! who in the judgment-hall wast stripped naked, and without any compassion, most cruelly scourged. There was thy blessed virginal and tender flesh cut with whips and torn with stripes, altogether mangled and deformed, and made black and blue with wounds; so that the streams of thy most precious blood ran down on every side upon the earth.

O GOOD and gracious Jesus! after thy sharp and bloody scourging, to put thee to more shame and confusion, as also to increase thy torments, they clothed thee with an old purple garment, and plaiting a crown of thorns, pressed it on thy holy head, till the sharp points pierced thy temples, and thy most precious blood ran down and covered thy face and neck; they gave thee in derision a reed for thy sceptre, and kneeling down before thee in scorn, saluted thee, saying, Hail, King of the Jews! then took they the reed out of thy hand, and with it struck thy sacred head, and again spat upon thy sacred face.

O GOOD and gracious Jesus! who wast brought forth from Pilate to the Jews to be gazed on, wearing the crown of thorns and purple garment, Pilate showing thee to the people, and saying, Behold the man! but they cried out, with a loud voice and insatiable malice, Crucify him, crucify him!

O GOOD and gracious Jesus! thou wast delivered up to the will and pleasure of the Jews, who immediately led thee to be crucified, laying thy heavy cross upon thy sore and bloody shoulders; thus didst thou humbly bear thine own cross, whose weight pained thee excessively, and coming to the place all weary and breathless, thou refusedst not to taste wine mingled with gall and myrrh, which was the only relief there given thee.

O GOOD and gracious Jesus! being come to Mount Calvary, thou wast again stripped naked, when thy wounds were renewed by the violent pulling off of thy clothes. What bitter pains didst thou suffer, when thou wast fastened to the cross with rough nails, and the joints of thy limbs stretched as on a rack! O with what love and sweetness of charity didst thou suffer thy hands and feet to be bored through, whence, as from a fountain, thy precious blood gushed out.

O GOOD and gracious Jesus! who, hanging on the cross between two thieves, wast assailed with blasphemies, and after so long a continuance of thy tortures, prayedst to thy Father to forgive them, and even when their fury was at the highest, didst exercise the greatest bounty, promising Paradise to the repenting thief, and bequeathing thy dearly beloved mother (who pierced with sorrow stood by the cross) to thy beloved disciple John, and in him to us all, to be our mother; and after thou hadst suffered for three long hours intolerable pains and extreme thirst, they gave thee vinegar to drink, which when thou hadst tasted, bowing down thy venerable head, thou yieldedst up thy spirit.

O GOOD and gracious Jesus! O good shepherd! thus thou bestowedst thy life for thy sheep, and even after death still thou wouldst suffer for us, the sacred side of thy dead body being opened with a spear, out of which flowed water and blood. Thus at last ended all thy sufferings; and thy enemies having slaked their thirst for thy blood, and being gone away, thy disciples came and took thy immaculate body down from the cross, reposed
it on the knees of thy blessed Mother, and after all imaginable expressions of piety, reverence, and love, wrapped it up in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre.

The Prayer.

 MILD and innocent Lamb of God, thus heartily thou didst love me, these things thou didst for me, these pains most patiently and lovingly thou sufferedst for me. What shall I render unto thee? I adore and glorify thee, I praise thee and give thee

thanks, with all the powers of my soul. Jesus, Son of the living God, King of kings, and Lord of lords. Hail, most glorious Redeemer of our souls, whose death quickens and gives life to the world.

O blessed Saviour, have mercy on me, for thy goodness' sake; forgive me all my sins, destroy and mortify in me whatever displeaseth thee. Make me one according to thy heart, and grant that to the utmost of my power I may most diligently imitate thy holy life. O blessed Father of heaven! behold I offer the most holy incarnation, life, and passion of thy dearly-beloved Son Jesus Christ, in full satisfaction for all my sins, and perfect amendment of my life. Grant, most merciful Father, for the merits of thy only-begotten Son, to the living mercy and grace, and to the souls departed, rest and life everlasting. Amen.

Sacred Trinity, Three persons in one God,

Have mercy on us

Jesus, God and man in two natures and one divine person,

Jesus, our wonderful God, who for our sake vouchsafest to subject thy Almighty self to the power of man, by immediately descending upon our altar when the priest pronounces the words of consecration,

Jesus, our incomprehensible God, who though the heaven of heavens cannot contain thy immensity, yet vouchsafest personally to reside in our churches, and dwell amongst us in a small tabernacle,

Jesus, our Sovereign King, who, though thy throne above is continually surrounded by glorified ministering spirits, yet vouchsafest here, in our most solemn processions, to be accompanied by such mean attendants as ourselves,

Jesus, our heavenly physician, who descendest from thy palace of immortal bliss to our houses of clay, to visit us on our sick-beds, and give us thyself to comfort our sorrows,

Jesus, our glorious God, who sittest at the right hand of thy eternal Father, adored by innumerable angels, and encompassed with the splendor of inaccessible light,

Jesus, our gracious God, who, condescending to the weakness of our nature, coverest thy glory under the familiar forms of bread and wine, and permittest thyself to be seen, touched, and tasted by wretched sinners,

Jesus, our gracious God, who, concealing the awful brightness of thy Majesty under such low and humble veils, sweetly invitest us to approach thy person, lay open our miseries, and deliver our petitions into thy hands,

Jesus, our gracious God, who, to communicate thy divine nature to miserable sinners, humblest thyself to descend into our breasts, and, by an inconceivable union, become one with us,

Jesus, the bread of life, that came down from heaven, of which whoever eats shall live for ever,

Jesus, the heavenly manna, whose sweetness nourishes thy elect in the desert of this world,

Jesus, the food of angels, whose deliciousness replenishes our hearts with celestial joys,

Jesus, the lamb without spot, who art every day sacrificed, and yet always living : every day eaten, and still remainest entire,

Jesus, the good shepherd, who layest down thy life for thy sheep, and feedest them with thy own body,

Jesus, who, in this august and venerable mystery, art become thyself the priest and sacrifice,

Jesus, who, in the sacred memorial of thy death, hast abridged all thy wonders into one accumulative miracle,

Have mercy on us.

Jesus, who, in this admirable sacrament, hast contracted all thy blessings into one stupendous bounty,

Jesus, who, by this blessed fruit of the tree of life, restorest us again to immortality,

Jesus, who, by sanctifying the most familiar of thy creatures, dost inspire us with a pure desire of thee, and teachest us the right use of the rest,

Jesus, who, by becoming our daily food in this life, preparest us to feed on thee eternally in the next,

Jesus, who, in this divine banquet, givest us possession of thy grace here, and a secure pledge of our glory hereafter,

Have mercy on us.

The Prayer.

O GOD, who in this wonderful sacrament hast left us a perpetual memorial of thy passion, grant us, we beseech thee, so to reverence these sacred mysteries of thy body and blood, that we may continually perceive in our souls the fruits of thy redemption: who, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, livest and reignest, world without end. Amen.

Act of Consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

TO thee, O sacred heart of Jesus! to thee I devote and offer up my life, thoughts, words, actions, pains, and sufferings. May the least part of my being be no longer employed, save only in loving, serving, honoring, and glorifying thee. Wherefore, O most sacred heart! be thou the sole object of my love, the protector of my life, the pledge of my salvation, and my secure refuge at the hour of my death. Be thou, O most bountiful heart! my justification at the throne of God, and screen me from his anger, which I have so justly merited. In thee I place all my confidence, and, convinced as I am of my own weakness, I rely entirely on thy bounty. Annihilate in me all that is displeasing and offensive to thy pure eye. Imprint thyself like a divine seal on my heart, that I may ever remember my obligation never to be separated from thee. May my name also, I beseech thee by thy tender bounty, be written in the book of life; and may I ever be a victim consecrated to thy glory, ever burning with the flames of thy pure love, and entirely penetrated with it for eternity. In this I place all my happiness: this is all my desire, to live and die in no other condition than that of thy devoted servant. Amen.

V. O most sacred heart of Jesus, have mercy on us.

R. That we may worthily love thee with our whole hearts.

Let us Pray.

GOD, who, out of thy immense love, hast given to the faithful the most sacred heart of thy Son, our Lord, as the object of thy tender affection; grant, we beseech thee, that we may so love and honor this pledge of thy love on earth, as by it to merit the love both of thee and of thy gift, and be eternally loved by thee and this most blessed Heart in heaven: through the same Jesus Christ, &c. Amen.

Through thy sacred Heart, O Jesus! overflowing with all sweetness, we recommend to thee ourselves and all our concerns, our friends, benefactors, parents and relatives; our superiors and enemies; take under thy protection this house, city, and country; extend this thy care to all such as are under any affliction, and to those who labor in the agony and pangs of death; cast an eye of compassion on the obstinate sinner, and more particularly on the poor suffering souls in purgatory; as also on those who are engaged and united with us in the holy confederacy of honoring and worshipping thee. Bless these in particular, O bountiful Jesus! and bless them according to the extent of thy infinite goodness, mercy, and charity. Amen.

AN INVITATION; OR THE DEVOUT SOUL'S REPAIR TO THE SACRED HEART.

All the faithful adorers of Jesus are invited to repair, in spirit, every day, at nine o'clock in the morning and four in the evening, to his divine Heart, in order to make in common some of the following aspirations :—

MOST sacred Heart of Jesus !
have mercy on us.

O divine Heart, wounded for love of us ! let us ever be sensible of thy bounty, and let thy love ever plead in our favor.

O Heart of Jesus, burning with the love of us, inflame our hearts with the love of thee.

Blessed be the most adorable Heart of Jesus, my God, for ever and ever.

No love, no heart, equals thine, most loving Jesus.

O may thy adorable Heart be for ever praised, and all thanks, both in time and eternity, paid to it.

O adorable Heart of Jesus ! mayest thou be known, loved, and adored, throughout the whole world.

O divine fire, ever burning and never ceasing, raise my heart into a flame, that I may always love, and never cease from loving thee.

THE REPARATION OF HONOR TO THE SACRED HEART.

To be made on the Feast itself, or at any other time, in presence of the Blessed Sacrament.

W O MOST amiable and adorable Heart of Jesus; centre of all hearts, glowing with charity, and inflamed with zeal for the interest of thy Father, and the salvation of mankind! O Heart ever sensible of our misery, and ever in motion to redress our evils! the real victim of love in the holy Eucharist, and a propitiatory sacrifice for sin on the altar of the cross ! seeing that the generality of Christians make no other return for those thy mercies than contempt of thy favors, forgetfulness of their own obligations, and ingratitude to the best of benefactors ; is it not just that we, thy servants, penetrated with the deepest sense of the like indignities, should enter upon a due and satisfactory reparation of honor to thy most sacred Majesty ? Prostrate, therefore, in body, and humble in mind, before heaven and earth, we solemnly declare our utter detestation and abhorrence of such conduct. Inexpressible, we know, was the bitterness which the multitude of our sins brought on thy tender heart ; insufferable the weight of our iniquities, which pressed thy face to the earth in the garden of Olives ; and insurmountable thy anguish when expiring with love, grief, and agony, on Mount Calvary. In thy last breath thou wouldst reclaim sinners to their duty and repentance.

This we know, O dear Redeemer ! and would most willingly redress these thy sufferings by our own, or share with thee in thine.

O merciful Jesus ! ever present on our altars, and with a heart open to receive all who labor and are burdened ! O adorable Heart of Jesus, source of true contrition ! impart to our hearts the true spirit of penance, and to our eyes a fountain of tears, that we may bewail and wash off our sins and those of the world. Pardon, divine Jesus ! all the injuries, reproaches, and outrages done thee through the course of thy holy life and bitter passion. Pardon all the impieties, irreverences, and sacrileges which have been committed against thee in the sacrament of the Eucharist, from its first institution. Graciously receive the small tribute of our sincere repentance, as an agreeable offering in thy sight, and in requital for the benefits we daily receive from the altar, where thou art a living and a continual sacrifice, and in union with that bloody holocaust thou didst present to thy Eternal Father on Mount Calvary from the cross.

Sweet Jesus ! give thy blessing to the ardent desire we now entertain, and the holy resolution we have taken, of ever loving and adoring thee after a proper manner, in the sacrament of love, the Eucharist ; thus to repair, by a true conversion of heart and a becoming zeal for thy glory, our past negligence and infidelity. Be thou, O adorable Heart ! who knowest the clay of which we are formed, be thou our mediator with thy heavenly Father, whom we have so grievously offended ; strengthen our weakness, confirm our resolution, and with thy charity, humility, meekness, and patience, cover the multitude of our iniquities. Be thou our support, our refuge, and our strength ; that nothing henceforth, in life or death, may separate us from thee. Amen.

Indulgences.

AN indulgence is a releasing of temporal punishment, due to such sins as are already forgiven by the sacrament of penance.

An indulgence for the dead remits the pains in purgatory, not by way of absolution or jurisdiction, but only by way of prayer or suffrage accepted by God.

To gain an indulgence, the person must be in the state of grace, and perform the particulars required for the obtaining of the indulgence whilst actually in that state.

A plenary indulgence, duly obtained, is a full and entire remission of all the temporal punishment due to sin.

A particular indulgence is a remission of a part of the temporal punishment due to sin.

Though, by the sacrament of penance duly received, the contrite sinner is reinstated in the favor and friendship of God, and consequently the guilt of eternal damnation cancelled and blotted out, yet from hence it no way follows that all the punishment due for sins is always remitted. Faith teaches us the contrary : and the Church, under the direction of the Holy Ghost, ever imposes some temporal punishment, which we call satisfaction, on the person receiving this sacrament, even in time of its greatest indulgences and jubilees.

The primitive Church was more remarkable in the severity used on these occasions ; not that there was any doubt either of the true or sufficient dispositions of the penitent, or of the virtue or efficacy of the absolution, but a satisfaction, or penal austerity, sometimes even of seven, ten, or more years, often of ten, twenty, or forty days, was enjoined.

The Church, as an indulgent mother, ever compassionating the weakness of her children, and finding herself, in the superabundant merits of her spouse, Jesus Christ, possessed of an infinite treasure, dispenses these, her riches, by indulgences and jubilees to the faithful, in proportion to their wants and the solemnity of the occasion. She moreover points out to each one, by means of the particular injunctions prescribed in her grant of these blessings, how and in what manner we may apply these treasures to our own advantage, and by them pay the whole or part of the debt we have contracted by our transgressions. So that an indulgence of ten years, forty days, and the like, is, in our regard, by acquitting ourselves of what is mentioned and required by and in the grant [as the saying of so many Paters and Aves, giving such and such alms, &c.], equivalent and equal to the atonement and satisfaction we should or might make to the divine justice, by the performance of a ten years' austerity or a forty days' penance, etc., enjoined by the ancient canons, now mitigated in this manner.

OF A JUBILEE.

A Jubilee is a solemn plenary indulgence, accompanied with certain privileges, relating to censures and dispensations, granted to the inferior pastors of the Church by the superior pontiff, and specified in his bulls or orders, directed to them for that purpose. It is granted every twenty-fifth year, as also upon other extraordinary occasions, to such as, being truly penitent, shall worthily receive the blessed sacrament, and perform the other conditions of fasting, alms, and prayers usually prescribed at such times.

A Prayer for the whole State of Christ's Church upon Earth,

AND ALL THE INTENTIONS OF THE INDUL-GENCES.

W O ETERNAL Father of our Lord Jesus Christ; Creator of all things visible and invisible; Source of all good!
infinitely gracious, bountiful, and good to us; behold, I, thy poor servant, the work of thy hands, redeemed by the blood of thy only Son, come to present myself as an humble petitioner before the throne of thy mercy. I prostrate myself here before thee, and most humbly beseech thee to sanctify thy own most holy name, by sanctifying and exalting the holy Catholic Church throughout the whole world. O Eternal King ! who hast sent thy only Son down from thy throne above, into this earth of ours, to establish a kingdom here amongst us, from whence we might hereafter be translated to thy eternal kingdom ; look down, we beseech thee, upon this kingdom of thy Son, and propagate it through all nations and through all hearts ; sanctify it in all truth ; maintain it in peace, unity, and holiness. Give to it saints for its rulers its chief pastors, and all other prelates ; enlighten them all with heavenly wisdom, and make them all men according to thine own heart. Give thy grace and blessing to all thy clergy, and send amongst them that heavenly fire which thy Son came to cast on the earth, and which he so earnestly desired should be enkindled. Assist and protect all apostolical missionaries, that they may zealously and effectually promote thy glory and the salvation of souls redeemed by the blood of thy Son. Sanctify all religious men and women of all orders ; give them the grace to serve thee with all perfection according to the spirit of their institute, and to shine like lights to the rest of the faithful. Have mercy on all Christian princes ; grant them those lights and graces that are necessary for the perfect discharge of their duty to thee and to their subjects, that they may be true servants to thee, the King of kings, true fathers to their people, and nursing fathers to thy Church. Have mercy on all magistrates and men in power, that they may all fear thee, love thee, and serve thee, and ever remember that they are thy deputies, and ministers of thy justice. Have mercy on all thy people throughout the world ; and give thy blessing to thine inheritance ; remember thy congregation which thou hast possessed from the beginning ; and give that grace to all thy children here upon earth, that they may do thy holy will in all things, even as the blessed do in heaven.

Extend thy mercy also to all poor infidels who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death; to all those nations that know not thee, and that have not yet received the faith and law of thy Son our Saviour; to all Pagans, Mahomedans, and Jews. Remember, O Lord! that all these poor souls are made after thy own image and likeness, and redeemed by the blood of thy Son. O let not Satan any longer exercise his tyranny over these thy creatures, to the great dishonor of thy name. Let not the precious blood of thy Son be shed for them in vain. Send amongst them zealous preachers and apostolic laborers, endowed with the like graces and gifts as the apostles were, and bless them with the like success for the glory of thy name, that all these poor souls may be brought to know thee, love thee, and serve thee here in thy Church, and bless thee hereafter for all eternity.

Look down also with an eye of pity and compassion upon all those deluded souls, who, under the name of Christians, have gone astray from the paths of truth and unity, and from the one fold of the one Shepherd, thy only Son Jesus Christ, into the by-paths of error and schism. O bring them back to thee and to thy Church. Dispel their darkness by thy heavenly light; take off the veil from before their eyes, with which the common enemy has blindfolded them; let them see how they have been misled by misapprehensions and misrepresentations. Remove the prejudices of their education; take away from them the spirit of obstinacy, pride, and self-conceit. Give them an humble and docile heart. Give them a strong desire of finding out the truth, and a strong grace to enable them to embrace it, in spite of all the opposition of the world, the flesh, and the Devil. For why should these poor souls perish for which Christ died? Why should Satan any longer possess these souls which, by their baptism, were dedicated to thee to be thy eternal temple?

Father of Light, and God of all truth !

purge the whole world from all errors, abuses, corruptions, and vices. Beat down the standard of Satan, and set up everywhere the standard of Christ. Abolish the reign of sin, and establish the kingdom of grace in all hearts. Let humility triumph over pride and ambition; charity over hatred, envy, and malice; purity and temperance over lust and excess; meekness over passion; and disinterestedness and poverty of spirit over covetousness and the love of this perishable world. Let the gospel of Jesus Christ, both in its belief and practice, prevail throughout the whole universe.

Grant to us thy peace, O Lord! in the days of our mortality, even that peace which thy Son bequeathed as a legacy to his disciples—a perpetual peace with thee, a perpetual peace with one another, and a perpetual peace within ourselves. Grant that all Christian princes may love, cherish, and maintain an inviolable peace among themselves. Give them a right sense of the dreadful evils that attend on wars. Give them an everlasting horror of all that bloodshed, of the devastation and ruin of so many territories, of the innumerable sacrileges and the eternal loss of so many thousand souls, as are the dismal consequences of war. Turn their hearts to another kind of warfare; teach them to fight for a heavenly kingdom.

Remove, O Lord! thy wrath, which we have reason to apprehend is actually hanging over our heads for our sins. Deliver all Christian people from the dreadful evil of mortal sin; make all sinners sensible of their misery; give them the grace of a sincere conversion to thee, and a truly penitential spirit, and discharge them from all their bonds. Preserve all Christendom, and in particular this nation, from all the evils that threaten impenitent sinners; such as plagues, famines, earthquakes, fires, inundations, mortality of cattle, sudden and unprovided death, and thy many other judgments here, and eternal damnation hereafter. Comfort all that are under affliction, sickness, or violence of pain; support all that are under temptation; reconcile all that are at variance; deliver all that are in slavery or captivity; defend all that are in danger; grant relief to all in their respective necessities; give a happy passage to all that are in their agony. Grant thy blessing to our friends and benefactors; to all those for whom we are particularly bound to pray; and have mercy on all our enemies. Give eternal rest to all the faithful departed, and bring us all to everlasting life. Through Jesus Christ thy Son. Amen.

A Unibersal Prayer

FOR ALL THINGS NECESSARY TO SALVATION.

40 MY God, I believe in thee ;
do thou strengthen my faith.
All my hopes are in thee ;
do thou secure them. I love thee with my whole heart ; teach me to love thee daily more and more. I am sorry that I have offended thee ; do thou increase my sorrow.

I adore thee as my first beginning,
I aspire after thee as my last end. I give thee thanks as my constant benefactor. I call upon thee as my sovereign protector.

Vouchsafe, O my God, to conduct me by thy wisdom; to restrain me by thy justice; to comfort me by thy mercy; to defend me by thy power.

To thee I desire to consecrate all my thoughts, words, actions, and sufferings; that henceforward I may think only of thee, speak of thee, and willingly refer all my actions to thy greater glory; and suffer willingly whatever thou shalt appoint.

Lord, I desire that in all things thy will may be done, because it is thy will, and in the manner that thou willest.

I beg of thee to enlighten my understanding; to inflame my will; to purify my body, and to sanctify my soul.

Give me strength, O my God, to expiate my offences; to overcome my temptations; to subdue my passions; and to acquire the virtues proper for my state.

Fill my heart with tender affections for thy goodness; a hatred of my faults; a love of my neighbor; and a contempt of the world.

Let me always remember to be submissive to my superiors, condescending to my inferiors, faithful to my friends, and charitable to my enemies.

Assist me to overcome sensuality by mortification; avarice by alms-deeds; anger by meekness; and tepidity by devotion.

O my God, make me prudent in my undertakings; courageous in dangers; patient in affliction, and humble in prosperity.

Grant that I may be ever attentive at my prayers; temperate at my meals; diligent in my employments, and constant in my resolutions.

Let my conscience be ever upright and pure; my exterior modest; my conversation edifying, and my comportment regular.

Assist me, that I may continually labor to overcome nature; correspond with thy grace; keep thy commandments, and work out my salvation.

Discover to me, O my God, the nothingness of this world; the greatness of heaven ; the shortness of time, and the length of eternity.

Grant that I may prepare for death ; fear thy judgments ; escape hell ; and, in the end, obtain heaven : through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Instructions and Devotions for the Sick.

IF attacked by any serious illness, let it be your first care to send for your spiritual director, and settle the state of your soul; which is much better done at the beginning than afterwards, when the violence of the disorder, or the quality of the remedies, may render you incapable of performing so great a work. Sickness is frequently the punishment of sin, and therefore a sincere repentance and confession is often a more effectual means of recovery than any other.

2. If your Will be not already made, as in prudence it ought, let this also be done in the beginning of your sickness, that so having settled your temporal concerns, you may apply your soul without disturbance to your spiritual ones.

3. Engage your best friends to give you timely notice whether your distemper be dangerous, and not flatter you with the hopes of life, when there are little or no grounds for hope. Make the best use possible of that time, which perhaps is to be your last. Admit but of few visits, nor of any other discourse but such as may be for the profit of your soul.

4. Be careful also to discharge your debts, and all other obligations incumbent upon you, at the beginning of your sickness: forgive those who have any ways injured you, and ask pardon of those whom you have injured.

5. Receive your sickness as coming from the hands of God, with a perfect resignation to his holy will, and as a just punishment of your offences. Frequently offer yourself up to him, and beg that he would grant you patience, sanctify your sufferings, and accept of them in union with those of Jesus Christ your Saviour, in satisfaction of the punishment due to your sins.

6. Procure some friend to read to you such prayers as are most affecting and proper for your condition: such as the Penitential Psalms, the Litanies, Acts of the Love of God, of patience, resignation, &c.

7. Place a crucifix, or figure of Christ crucified, always before your eyes, in order to think often upon his passion: hide yourself in spirit in his wounds, and embrace his feet with the utmost affection of your soul.

8. Endeavor, as much as possible, to acquire a penitential spirit during your sickness; call often on God for mercy, and make frequent acts of contrition for your sins. St. Augustin used to say, that no Christian, however innocent his life might have been, ought to venture to die in any other state than that of a penitent.

A Daily Prayer in Time of Sickness.

ORD Jesus Christ, behold I receive this sickness, with which thou art pleased to visit me, as coming from thy fatherly hand. It is thy will it should be thus with me, and therefore I submit: thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. May this sickness be to the honor of thy holy name, and to the good of my soul. For this end, I here offer myself with an entire submission to thy appointments; to suffer whatever thou pleasest, as long, and in what manner thou pleasest. For I thy creature, O Lord, have most ungratefully offended thee, and as my sins have long since cried aloud to heaven for justice, how can I now complain of thy chastisements? No, my God, thou art just in all thy ways; I have truly deserved thy punishment, and therefore can have no reason to complain of thee, but rather of my own wickedness.

Rebuke me not, O Lord, in thy fury, nor chastise me in thy wrath; but have compassion on my weakness. Thou knowest my frailty, and that I am nothing but dust and ashes. Deal not with me, therefore, according to my sins, nor punish me according to my iniquities; but according to the multitude of thy tender mercies have compassion on me. May thy justice, O Lord, be tempered with mercy; and let thy heavenly grace come to my assistance, to support me under this illness. Enable me with strength from above to bear all the uneasiness, pains, and difficulties of my sickness with Christian patience, and to accept them with cheerfulness, in just punishment of my offences. Preserve me from all temptations, and be thou to me a tower of strength against the assaults of the enemy, that in this illness I may no ways offend thee. And should it be my last, I beg of thee so to direct me by thy grace, that I may neither neglect nor be deprived of those helps which thou hast, in thy mercy, ordained for the safe conduct of my soul in its passage to eternity; that being perfectly cleansed from all my sins, I may believe in thee, hope in thee, love thee above all things, and, through the merits of thy death and passion, be admitted into the company of the blessed, where I may praise thee forever. Amen.

be made in Time of Sickness.*

LORD, I accept this sickness from thy hands, and resign myself entirely to thy blessed will, whether it be for life or death. Not my will, but thine be done: thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

I offer up to thee, O Lord, all that I now suffer, or may hereafter suffer, to be united to the sufferings of my Redeemer, and sanctified by his passion.

I adore thee, O my God and my All, as my first beginning and last end; and bowing down all the powers of my soul in thy presence, desire to pay thee the best homage I am able.

I desire to praise thee, O Lord, without ceasing, in sickness as well as in health: and to join my heart and voice with the whole Church in heaven and on earth, in blessing thee forever.

I give thee thanks from the bottom of my heart for all the mercies and blessings bestowed upon me and thy whole Church, through Jesus Christ thy Son; and, above all, for his having loved me from all eternity, and redeemed me with his precious blood. O let not that blood be shed for me in vain!

Lord, I believe all those heavenly truths which thou hast revealed, and which thy holy Catholic Church believes and teaches: thou art the sovereign Truth, who neither canst deceive nor be deceived: and thou hast promised the Spirit of Truth to guide thy Church into all truth. I believe in God the Father Almighty, &c. In this faith I resolve, through thy grace, both to live and die: O Lord, strengthen and increase my faith.

O my God, all my hopes are centred in thee, from whom I hope for mercy, grace, and salvation, through the passion and death of my blessed Redeemer. In thee, O Lord, have I put my trust: O let me never be confounded.

O sweet Jesus, receive me into thy arms in this day of my distress: hide me within thy wounds, bathe my soul in thy precious blood.

I love thee, O my God, with my whole heart and soul, above all things: at least, I desire so to love thee. O! come now, and take full possession of my soul, and teach me to love thee forever.

I desire to be dissolved, and to be with Christ.

When, O Lord, will thy kingdom come? When wilt thou perfectly reign in all hearts? When shall sin be no more?

I desire to embrace every neighbor in the arms of perfect charity, for the love of thee. I forgive, from my heart, all that have any ways offended or injured me, and ask pardon of all whom I have any ways offended.

Have mercy on me, O God, according to thy great mercy; and according to the multitude of thy tender mercies, blot out my iniquities.

O! who will give water to my head, and fountains of tears to my eyes, that night and day I may bewail my sins!

O! that I had never offended so good a God! O that I had never sinned! Happy those souls that have preserved their baptismal innocence.

Lord, be merciful to me a sinner; sweet Jesus, Son of the living God, have mercy on me.

I recommend my soul to God my Creator, who made me out of nothing; to Jesus Christ my Saviour, who redeemed me with his precious blood; to the Holy Ghost, who sanctified me in baptism. Into thy hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit.

I renounce from this moment, and for all eternity, the devil and all his works; and abhor all his suggestions and temptations. Suffer not this mortal enemy of my soul, O Lord, to have any dominion over me, either now, or at my last hour. O let thy holy angels defend me from all the powers of darkness.

O holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for me a poor sinner, now, and at the hour of my death. O all ye blessed angels and saints of God, pray for me a poor sinner.

It may also be proper to read some part of the Meditations on the Passion of Christ, the Miserere, or other penitential psalms, devout acts of contrition, &c., but not too much at a time, lest it might fatigue the sick person.

A Daily Preparation for Death.

Y heart is ready, O God, my heart is ready: not my will, but thine be done. I resign myself entirely to thee, O Lord, to receive death at the time and in the manner it shall please thee to send it.

2. I most humbly ask pardon for all the sins I have committed against thy sovereign goodness, and repent of them all from the bottom of my heart.

3. I firmly believe whatsoever the holy Catholic Church believes and teaches; and by thy grace I will die in this belief.

4. I hope to possess eternal life through thy infinite mercy, and the merits of my Saviour Jesus Christ.

5. O my God, my sovereign good, I desire to love thee above all things, and to despise this miserable world. I desire to love my neighbor as myself, for the love of thee, and from my heart to forgive all injuries.

6. O my divine Jesus, how great is my desire to receive thy sacred body ! O ! come now into my soul, at least by a spiritual communion. O ! grant that I may worthily receive thee before my death ! I desire to unite my communion to all the worthy communions which shall be made in thy holy Church, even to the end of the world.

7. Grant me the grace, O my divine Saviour, perfectly to efface all the sins I have committed by any of my senses, by applying daily to my soul thy blessed merits, the holy unction of thy precious blood.

8. Holy Virgin, Mother of God, defend me from my enemies in my last hour, and present me to thy divine Son. Glorious St. Michael, prince of the heavenly host ; my angel guardian, and blessed patrons, intercede for me, and assist me in this my last and dreadful passage.

9. O my God, I renounce all temptations of the enemy, and in general whatsoever may displease thee. I adore and accept thy divine appointments with regard to my soul, and entirely abandon myself to them as most just and equitable.

10. O Jesus, my divine Redeemer, be to me a Saviour. Save me, O my God, hiding myself with an humble confidence in thy dear wounds. I deliver my soul into thy divine hands; receive it in the bosom of thy divine mercy. Amen.

Litany for a Happy Death.

LORD Jesus, God of goodness and Father of mercies, I approach to thee with a contrite and humble heart: to thee I recommend the last hour of my life, and the decision of my eternal doom.

When my feet, benumbed with death, shall admonish me that my mortal course is drawing to the end,

When my eyes, dim and troubled at the approach of death, shall fix

Merciful Jesus, have mercy upon me.

themselves on thee, my last and only support,

When my face, pale and livid, shall inspire the beholders with pity and dismay; when my hair, bathed in the sweat of death, and stiffening on my head, shall forebode my approaching end,

When my ears, soon to be forever shut to the discourse of men, shall be open to the irrevocable decree, which is to cut me off from the living,

When my imagination, agitated by dreadful spectres, shall be sunk in an abyss of anguish; when my soul, affrighted with the sight of my iniquities and the terrors of thy judgments, shall have to fight against the angel of darkness, who will endeavor to conceal thy mercies from my eyes, and to plunge me into despair,

When my poor heart, yielding to the pressure, and exhausted by its frequent struggles against the enemies of its salvation, shall feel the pangs of death,

When the last tear, the forerunner of my dissolution, shall drop from my eyes, receive it as a sacrifice of expiation for my sins; grant that I may expire the victim of penance, and in that dreadful moment,

When my friends and relations, encircling my bed, shall shed the tear of pity over me, and invoke thy clemency in my behalf,

When I shall have lost the use of my senses, when the world shall have vanished from my sight, when my agonizing soul shall feel the sorrows of death,

When my last sigh shall summon my soul to burst from the embraces of the body, and to spring to thee on the wings of impatience and desire,

When my soul, trembling on my lips, shall bid adieu to the world, and leave my body lifeless, pale,

Merciful Jesus, have mercy upon me.

and cold, receive this separation as a homage which I willingly pay to thy Divine Majesty, and in that last moment of my mortal life,

When at length my soul, admitted to thy presence, shall first behold the splendor of thy Majesty, reject me not, but receive me into thy bosom, where I may forever sing thy praises, and in that moment, when eternity shall begin to me,

Merciful Jesus, have mercy upon me.

Let us pray.

O GOD, who hast doomed all men to die, but hast concealed from all the hour of their death, grant that I may pass my days in the practice of holiness and justice, and that I may deserve to quit this world in the peace of a good conscience, and in the embraces of thy love, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Litany for the Sick, and Preparation for Death.

LORD, have mercy upon him
(her or me).

Christ, have mercy upon him, &c.

Lord, have mercy upon him,
&c.

O God the Father, Creator of the world, have mercy on him, &c.

O God the Son, Redeemer of the world, have mercy on him, &c.

O God the Holy Ghost, Perfecter of the Elect, have mercy on him, &c.

O Blessed Trinity, three Persons and one God, have mercy on him, &c.

Holy Mother of God,

All ye holy Angels and Archangels,

All ye blessed company of the Just,

All ye holy Patriarchs and Prophets,

All ye holy Apostles and Evangelists,

All ye holy Disciples of our Lord,

All ye holy Martyrs,

All ye holy Bishops and Confessors,

All ye holy Virgins and Widows,

Pray for him (her or me).

All ye holy Saints of God, Make intercession for him (her or me).

Have mercy, O Lord! and spare him, &c.

Have mercy, O Lord! and hear him, &c.

From all his sins and offences, and the punishment due to them,

From all temptations, and the snares of the Devil,

From all impatience, and repining
at thy just chastisements,

From dejection of spirit, and diffidence in thy mercies,

From all undue fears of death, and all immoderate desires of life.

From distraction of mind, and neglect of his preparation for eternity,

By thy Cross and Passion,

By thy Death and Burial,

By thy glorious Resurrection and Ascension,

By the grace of the Holy Ghost
the Comforter,

In the hour of death and in the day of judgment,

Deliver him (her or me), O Lord!

We sinners beseech thee to hear us.

That it would please thee to comfort him in his sorrows, and enable him to look beyond death, to the blessed state it leads to,

That it would please thee to remind him of all thy mercies, and by them encourage him to a sure confidence in thee,

That thou wouldst vouchsafe him the grace to order all his temporal affairs with prudence, justice, and charity; and with a free and quiet mind wholly to attend to dispose himself for heaven,

That thou wouldst sanctify this thy fatherly correction of him; that the sense of his weakness may add strength to his faith, and seriousness to his repentance,

That thou wouldst vouchsafe him the grace to confess sincerely; to repent of all his sins, and grant him perfect remission and forgiveness of them,

That thou wouldst vouchsafe

We beseech Thee to hear us!

him the grace heartily to forgive all those that have offended him; and to satisfy, to the utmost of his power, whoever hath suffered the least prejudice by him,

That being thus reconciled to thee, and to all the world, he may, with assured hope and steadfast faith, receive the sacrament of thy blessed body; and may the strength of that heavenly food cheer his fainting spirits, and carry him on with joy, in thy favor, to the end,

That a patient submission under the pains of his sickness may expiate the punishment due to his sins, diminish his love of this world, and increase his desire of the next,

That in whatever thy providence hath ordained concerning him, he may readily acquiesce, and both in life and death be always thine,

Son of God, We beseech Thee to hear us!

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, Spare us, O Lord!

We beseech Thee to hear us!

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, Hear us, O Lord!

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, Have mercy on us!

Lord, have mercy on us. Christ, have mercy on us. Lord, have mercy on us. Our Father, &c.

O Lord, hear my prayer. And let my cry come unto thee.

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY and eternal God, in whose hands are life and death; whose infinite wisdom disposes all things advantageously for them who love thee; behold thy servant, whom thou hast cast upon a bed of sickness; comfort, we beseech thee, his afflicted spirit; increase his faith, strengthen his hope, and perfect his charity: sanctify for him all his sufferings; and if thy mercy shall restore him to his health, may he carefully correct the errors of his past life. If it please thee to call him out of this world, grant that he may pass safely through the shades of death, transported by thy holy angels into the mansions of bliss, where no fear shall trouble him, no pain afflict him, nor grief disturb the quiet of his mind; but pure delight, unspeakable joys, and perfect security shall be forever confirmed to him, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer before receiving the Viaticum, or the Holy Communion.

DEAR Jesus, I adore thee with all my heart; I give thee thanks for that infinite love which thou showedst to poor sinners in dying for them on the cross, and for thy unspeakable goodness, displayed in this heavenly banquet. Hither thou art now pleased to invite me, but how can I approach—
—I who have so ungratefully offended thee, and who have lived so unworthy of my profession!

I acknowledge, O God, that I am a sinner, a poor miserable sinner. Thou alone art my hope, to thee I raise my eyes, who art rich in mercy; who art my Advocate, and most powerful Mediator. I commit my cause into thy hands. Help me now in my distress! let thy precious blood, the infinite treasure of thy merits, supply all my deficiencies, while I partake of this sacred food. Thou knowest my weakness, thou knowest my unworthiness; thou seest how unfit I am, through the multitude and enormity of my sins, to appear before thy judgment-seat: I tremble at that dreadful hour when my manifold transgressions shall be laid before me. What shall I do then, O Keeper of Men! What must become of me, if my iniquities are to decide my eternal destiny? O Jesus, let me not go alone into that place of terror: come thou into my soul, accompany it to the tribunal of God; there let all thy mercies plead for me! though I have nothing to trust to in myself, yet upon thy infinite goodness I have every reason to rely. Let us, then, my soul, confidently recur to the mercies of our Lord; there let us shelter ourselves in the virtue of his blessed wounds; there, though our sins cry aloud for justice, his precious blood still cries louder for mercy. It is on this mercy I depend; in this I hope; and in this hope I desire to die: come, dear Jesus, now into my soul, and possess it forever.

Thou art my Lord and my God; behold I am thy servant: give me understanding and strengthen me, that I may ever conform to thy holy will.

Thou art the Lamb of God, the spotless Lamb who takest away the sins of the world. Take from me all that is sinful, and give me that which is pleasing in thy sight.

Thou art my love and my joy, my God, and my all; thou art my portion and inheritance; it is thou who wilt restore my inheritance to me.

Let the powerful force of thy love affect all my faculties; let it entirely change my heart, that for love of thee I may die to the world, who for love of me wast pleased to die on the cross.

Into thy hands I commit and surrender my spirit and remainder of life, and my whole being, whilst I am in possession of it, and have the power of making the offer and sacrifice.

An Act of Thanksgiving, after having received the Holy Communion, or Viaticum.

GLORY and thanksgiving be to thee, O Lord, who in thy sweetness hast been pleased to visit and refresh my poor soul. Now let thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word.

Now thou art come to me, I will not let thee go; now I willingly bid farewell to the world; and with joy I go to thee, my God.

Nothing more, O dear Jesus, nothing more shall separate me from thee. Now

I am united to thee, in thee I will live, in thee I will die, and in thee I hope to abide forever.

Now life seems uneasy to me; I desire to be dissolved, and be with Christ; for Christ is my life, and to die will be my gain.

Now I will fear no evils, though I walk in the shadow of death, because thou art with me, O Lord: as the hart pants after the fountains of water, so does my soul after thee: my soul thirsts after the Fountain of Living Water: O when shall I come, and appear before the face of my God!

Give me thy blessing, O Jesus, and establish my soul in everlasting peace; such peace, as only thou canst give; such peace, as it may not be in the power of my enemy to destroy.

O that I were happily united to thee forever; that I were wholly swallowed up and buried in thee! O that my soul were at rest in thy happiness, and in the enjoyment of thee, my God, forever!

What have I more to do with the world? And in heaven what have I to desire but thee, my God?

Into thy hands I commend my spirit; receive me, sweet Jesus! In thee may I rest, and in thy happiness rejoice without end. Amen.

A Prayer before Extreme Unction.

LORD Jesus Christ, who, in thy great mercy, hast provided powerful resources for all our necessities; grant me grace to have recourse to them with such dispositions, that my soul may partake of all those great advantages and salutary effects, which thou hast appointed in their institution. Thou hast instituted the sacrament of Extreme Unction for the benefit of the sick, who in their extremity stand more particularly in need of grace and consolation. I now desire to receive this heavenly medicine, for the ends for which it has been instituted. Grant, I beseech thee, that this holy Unction may produce in me all its happy fruits;

by healing my soul, by fortifying me against all temptations, by supporting me in the hour of anguish and distress, and by preparing me for a happy passage, or for whatever may be thy holy will. If thou foreseest that my health will be conducive to thy greater glory, and expedient for my eternal salvation, let this be the means to restore it. I absolutely submit to thy will: I wish not so much to live as to serve thee. Dispose of me as thou knowest best; all I desire is the accomplishment of thy will; give me health or sickness, life or death; give me whatever thou pleasest; not my will but thine be done; it is a greater happiness to fulfil thy will than to enjoy ten thousand lives. How happy should I be, if the destruction of my body could repair the injuries I have offered to thy divine Majesty! My eyes, alas! have seen vanities; my ears have been open to detractions, to profane and unprofitable discourses; my tongue has many ways offended both in speaking and tasting, my hands have contributed to many follies; my feet have often gone astray in the paths of vanity and sin. By this holy anointing, and by the prayers of thy Church, pardon me, O Jesus, all the sins which I have committed by my senses. Let those avenues, through which sin has made its ways into my soul, be now shut to the world. Let my eyes be opened to thee alone. Let my ears be attentive to thy commandments. Let my tongue be solely employed in soliciting for mercy. Let my prayers ascend like incense in thy sight. Let my hands be lifted up to heaven for pardon. Let my feet walk in thy ways, and let my heart be the living temple of the Holy Ghost. Into thy hands, O dear Jesus, I commend my spirit. In thee I will live, in thee I will die, in thee I will abide, and in thee I hope to possess eternal rest forever and ever. Amen.

A Prayer after Extreme Unction.

O MY God, thou hast created, redeemed, and sanctified me; thou hast preserved me in many dangers, both of soul and body. Thou hast nourished me with the adorable sacrament of thy body and blood, and granted me to receive the rites of thy Church, preferably to so many others, who were carried off by a sudden death, without having been favored with those succors which thou hast bestowed upon me, a most ungrateful sinner. For these, and all other blessings, I offer thee innumerable thanks; to thee I resign my heart; receive it for a holocaust. I do not desire to be freed from my pains; thou knowest what is best for me; take from me all murmuring; give me patience to suffer whatever thou pleasest; if it be thy divine pleasure to inflict on my weak body greater punishments than I now suffer, my heart is ready, O Lord, my heart is ready to accept them, and to suffer in whatever manner and measure shall be most conformable to thy will. This one grace I most earnestly beg of thee, my God, that I may die the death of thy elect, and be admitted, after the sufferings and tribulations of this transitory life, into the kingdom of thy glory, there to see and enjoy thee, in the company of the blessed, for all eternity. Amen.

Litany for a Soul Departing.

LORD, have mercy on us.
 Christ, have mercy on us.
 Lord, have mercy on us.
 Holy Mary,
 All ye holy Angels and Archangels,
 Holy Abel,
 All ye choirs of the just,
 Holy Abraham,
 St. John the Baptist,
 St. Joseph,
 All ye patriarchs and prophets,

 St. Paul,
 St. Andrew,
 St. John,
 All ye holy apostles and evangelists,
 All ye holy disciples of the Lord,
 All ye holy innocents,
 St. Stephen,
 St. Laurence,
 All ye holy martyrs,
 St. Sylvester,
 St. Gregory,
 St. Augustin,

Pray for him (her).

All ye holy Bishops and Confes-
sors,
St. Benedict,
St. Francis,
All ye holy monks and hermits,
St. Mary Magdalen,
St. Lucy,
All ye holy virgins and widows,
All ye saints of God, make intercession for him (her).

Pray for him (her).

Be merciful, Spare him (her), O Lord.

Be merciful,
From thy anger,
From the danger of death,
From an unhappy death,
From the pains of hell,
From all evil,
From the power of the devil,
By thy nativity,
By thy cross and passion,
By thy death and burial,
By thy glorious resurrection,
By thy admirable ascension,
By the grace of the Holy Ghost,
the Comforter,
In the day of judgment,

Deliver him (her), O Lord.

We sinners, Beseech thee to hear us.
That thou spare him (her), We beseech thee to hear us.

Lord, have mercy on us !

Christ, have mercy on us !

Lord, have mercy on us !

Let us pray.

DEPART, Christian soul, out of this world, in the name of God the Father Almighty, who created thee : in the name of Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, who suffered for thee : in the name of the Holy Ghost, who sanctified thee : in the name of the angels, archangels, thrones, and dominations, cherubim and seraphim : in the name of the patriarchs and prophets, of the holy apostles and evangelists, of the holy martyrs and confessors, of the holy monks and hermits, of the holy virgins, and of all the saints of God, let thy place be this day in peace, and thy abode in holy Sion, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

God of mercy, God of goodness; O God, who according to the multitude of thy mercies forgivest the sins of such as repent, and graciously remittest the guilt of their past offences, mercifully regard this thy servant N., and grant him (her) a full discharge from all his (her) sins, who most earnestly begs it of thee. Remove, O merciful Father, whatever is corrupt in him (her) through human frailty, or by the snares of the enemy; make him (her) a true member of the Church, and let him (her) partake of the fruit of thy redemption. Have compassion, Lord, on his (her) tears, and admit him (her) to the reconciliation with thee, who has no hope but in thee, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

I recommend thee, dear brother (sister), to Almighty God, and leave thee to his mercy, whose creature thou art; that having paid the common debt, by surrendering thy soul, thou mayest return to thy Maker, who formed thee out of the earth. Let therefore the splendid company of angels meet thy soul at its departure; let the court of the apostles receive thee; let the triumphant army of glorious martyrs conduct thee; let the crowds of joyful confessors encompass thee; let the choir of blessed virgins go before thee; and let a happy rest be thy portion in the company of the patriarchs; let Christ Jesus appear to thee with a mild and cheerful countenance, and give thee place among those who are to be in his presence forever. Mayest thou be a stranger to all that which is punished with darkness, chastised with flames, and condemned to torments. Let the wicked enemy, with all his evil spirits, depart from thee: may he tremble at thy approach in the company of angels, and retire into the horrid confusion of eternal night. May thy God arise, and thy enemies be put to flight. May all who hate him, fly before his face. Let them vanish like smoke, and as wax before the fire, so let sinners perish in the sight of God:

but for the just, let them rejoice and be happy in his presence. May all the ministers of hell be filled with confusion and shame; and let no evil spirit dare to stop thee in thy way. Christ Jesus be thy deliverer, who was crucified for thee. Christ Jesus deliver thee from death, who vouchsafed to die for thee. Christ Jesus, Son of the living God, place thee in his garden of paradise, and may he, the true Shepherd, own thee for one of his flock. May he absolve thee from all thy sins, and place thee at his right hand in the inheritance of his elect. We pray it may be thy happy lot to behold thy Redeemer face to face, to be ever in his presence, and in the vision of that truth which is the joy of the blessed: And thus, placed among those happy spirits, mayest thou be ever filled with heavenly sweetness. Amen.

Receive thy servant, O Lord, into the place of salvation, which he (she) hopes from thy mercy.

R. Amen.

Deliver, O Lord, the soul of thy servant from all dangers of hell, from all pain and tribulation.

R. Amen.

Deliver, O Lord, the soul of thy servant, as thou deliveredst Enoch and Elias from the common death of the world.

R. Amen.

Deliver, O Lord, the soul of thy servant, as thou deliveredst Noah from the flood.

R. Amen.

Deliver, O Lord, the soul of thy servant, as thou deliveredst Abraham from the midst of the Chaldeans.

R. Amen.

Deliver, O Lord, the soul of thy servant, as thou deliveredst Job from all his afflictions.

R. Amen.

Deliver, O Lord, the soul of thy servant, as thou deliveredst Isaac from being sacrificed by his father.

R. Amen.

Deliver, O Lord, the soul of thy servant, as thou deliveredst Lot from Sodom, and the flames of fire.

R. Amen.

Deliver, O Lord, the soul of thy servant, as thou deliveredst Moses from the hands of Pharaoh, king of Egypt.

R. Amen.

Deliver, O Lord, the soul of thy servant, as thou deliveredst Daniel from the lion's den.

R. Amen.

Deliver, O Lord, the soul of thy servant, as thou deliveredst the three children from the fiery furnace, and from the hands of an unmerciful king.

R. Amen.

Deliver, O Lord, the soul of thy servant, as thou deliveredst Susanna from her false accusers.

R. Amen.

Deliver, O Lord, the soul of thy servant, as thou deliveredst David from the hands of Saul and Goliath.

R. Amen.

Deliver, O Lord, the soul of thy servant, as thou deliveredst Peter and Paul out of prison.

R. Amen.

And as thou deliveredst that blessed virgin and martyr, St. Thecla, from most cruel torments, so vouchsafe to deliver the soul of this thy servant, and bring it to the participation of thy heavenly joys.

R. Amen.

Let us pray.

WE commend to thee, O Lord, the soul of this thy servant, and beseech thee, Jesus Christ, Redeemer of the world, that as in mercy to him (her) thou becamest man, so now thou wouldst vouchsafe to admit him (her) into the number of the blessed. Remember, O Lord, he (she) is thy creature, not made by strange gods, but by thee, the only true and living God, for there is no other God but thee, none that can work thy wonders.—Let his (her) soul find comfort in thy sight, and remember not his (her) former sins, nor any of those excesses which he (she) has fallen into, through the violence of passion and corruption. For although he (she) has sinned, he (she) hath retained a true faith in thee, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; he (she) has had zeal for thy honor, and faithfully adored thee his (her) God, and Creator of all things.

Remember not, O Lord, we beseech thee, the sins and ignorances of his (her) youth; but, according to thy great mercy, be mindful of him (her) in thy eternal glory. Let the heavens be open to him (her) and the angels rejoice with him (her). Receive, O Lord, thy servant into thy kingdom. Let the archangel St. Michael, the chief of the heavenly host, conduct him (her). Let the holy angels of God meet him (her), and bring him (her) into the city of the heavenly Jerusalem. May blessed Peter, the Apostle, to whom were given the keys of the kingdom of heaven, receive him (her). May holy Paul, the Apostle, who was a vessel of election, help him

(her). May St. John, the beloved disciple, to whom God revealed the secrets of heaven, intercede for him (her). May all the holy apostles, to whom was given the power of binding and loosing, pray for him (her). May all the blessed and chosen servants of God, who in this world have suffered torments for the name of Christ, pray for him (her). That, being delivered from this body of corruption, he (she) may be admitted into the kingdom of heaven, through the assistance and merits of our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with the Father and the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

If the dying person be in his senses, the following Acts may be made.

An Act of Thanksgiving.

O MY God! you have created, redeemed, and sanctified me. You have preserved me in many dangers, both of soul and body. You have fed me with thy most blessed body and blood. You have shown immense patience in bearing with my repeated crimes, and often called me to repentance. For these and all other blessings bestowed upon me a most ungrateful sinner, I offer you innumerable thanks.

Act of Resignation.

O MY God, I cheerfully receive the certain summons of my death. It is a greater happiness to fulfil your will, than to enjoy ten thousand lives. O happy news of my departure ! I shall soon hear the choirs of angels sing your immortal praises. Let slow death hasten on, that dying I may no more offend you, but live with you, and love you eternally.

Act of Contrition.

I AM truly and heartily sorry for all my sins, not through the fear of hell, or hope of reward, but for the love of thee, my God and only God ; and were I beginning, as I am ending my life, I would not offend thee for a thousand worlds. O my God, do not despise a contrite and humble heart.

If the sick party still continue in distress of agony, it would be proper for the assistants to read again the foregoing Litany and Prayers as often as may be necessary.

The soul being now departed, the following Responsory is said.

R. Come to his (her) assistance, all ye saints of God; meet him (her), all ye angels of the Lord; *Receiving his (her) soul; *Presenting it in the sight of the Most High.

V. May Christ who called thee receive thee, and the angels conduct thee into the bosom of Abraham.

R. Receiving his (her) soul, and presenting it in the sight of the Most High.

V. Eternal rest grant him (her), O Lord.

R. And let perpetual light shine upon him (her).

Presenting it in the sight of the Most High.

V. Lord, have mercy on us.

R. Christ, have mercy on us.

V. Lord, have mercy on us.

Our Father, &c.

V. And lead us not into temptation.

R. But deliver us from evil.

V. Eternal rest grant him (her), O Lord.

R. And let perpetual light shine upon him (her).

V. From the gates of hell.

R. Deliver his (her) soul, O Lord.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my supplication come to thee.

Let us pray.

TO thee, O Lord, we commend the soul of thy servant N., that being dead to this world, he (she) may live to thee. And whatever sins he (she) has committed through human frailty, we beseech thee in thy goodness mercifully to pardon, through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

Then, for a conclusion, may be added the following Prayer for the assistants.

GRANT, O Lord, that while we here lament the departure of thy servant, we may ever remember, that we are most certainly to follow him (her). Give us grace to prepare for that last hour, by a good life, that we may not be surprised by a sudden death, but be ever watching when thou shalt call, that so with the spouse we may enter into eternal glory, through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

The Litany for the Dead.

ORD, have mercy on us.

Christ, have mercy on us.

Lord, have mercy on us.

Jesus, receive our prayers.

Lord Jesus, grant our petitions.

O God the Father, Creator of the world, have mercy on the souls of the faithful departed.

O God the Son, Redeemer of mankind, deliver the souls of the faithful departed.

O God the Holy Ghost, perfecter of the elect, accomplish the bliss of the faithful departed.

Blessed Virgin Mary, who, by the special privilege of grace, wast triumphantly assumed into the kingdom of thy Son, pray for the souls of the faithful departed.

Blessed angels, who, ordering aright the first act of your will, were fixed forthwith in unchangeable happiness,

Blessed patriarchs, who were filled with joy when the Desired of Nations put an end to your captivity,

Pray for the souls of the faithful departed.

Blessed prophets, who, after patiently awaiting the arrival of the Messiah, were at length consoled by a visit from him in person,

Blessed saints, who, at the glorious resurrection of our Saviour, were translated from Limbo to the visible presence of God,

Blessed apostles, who, at the last day, shall sit to judge the twelve tribes of Israel,

Blessed disciples of our Lord, who followed his steps in the narrow paths of perfection,

Blessed martyrs, who passed through the sea of your own blood, entering immediately into the land of promise,

Blessed confessors, who despised the vanity of the earth, and placed your affections on the joys of heaven,

Blessed virgins, who, with your lighted lamps, awaited the coming of the heavenly spouse,

O holy saints, who, being freed

Pray for the souls of the faithful departed.

from all irregular attachment to creatures, were perfectly fitted for an immediate union with your Creator, Pray for the souls of the faithful departed.

Be merciful, O Lord, and pardon their sins.

Be merciful, O Lord, and hear their prayers.

From the shades of death, where the light of thy countenance shineth not,

From the evils, to which immortification in this world must expose them in the other,

From thy displeasure, provoked by negligence and ingratitude,

From the pains of purgatory, so justly inflicted upon unexpiated sins,

From the torments incomparably greater than the bitterest anguish of this life,

By the multitude of thy mercies, ever compassionate to human frailties,

By the virtue of thy cross, where-

Deliver them, O Lord!

on thou reconciledst the world to thy Father,

By thy victorious descent into hell, to break the chains of death,

By thy glorious resurrection from the tomb, to open the kingdom of heaven,

By thy triumphant ascension into heaven, to lead captivity captive,

By thy dread coming to judge
the world,

Deliver them, O Lord!

We sinners beseech thee to hear us.

That it please thee to hasten the day when thy faithful shall be delivered from the mansions of sorrow,

That it please thee to shorten the time of their expiation, and to admit them speedily into thy heavenly sanctuary,

That it please thee, through the prayers and good works performed in thy Church, to receive them into thy eternal tabernacles,

That it please thee to accept, in

We beseech Thee to hear us!

atonement for their sins, the infinite value of thy unbloody sacrifice,

That the blessed view of Jesus may comfort them, and his unfading glory shine upon them,

That the whole triumphant Church may soon celebrate their deliverance; and the choirs of angels sing new hymns of joy on their never-ending happiness,

That we ourselves may share in their triumph, and unite with all the citizens of heaven in eternal alleluias,

Son of God,

Lamb of God, who shalt come with glory to judge the living and the dead, give rest to the souls of the faithful departed!

Lamb of God, at whose presence the heavens and the earth shall be moved, give rest to the souls of the faithful departed!

Lamb of God, in whose book of life the names of thy elect are inscribed,

We beseech Thee to hear us!

give rest to the souls of the faithful departed!

The Antiphon.

DELIVER us, O Lord, from eternal death, in that tremendous day when the heavens shall be moved and the earth: whilst thou shalt come to judge the world by fire. We tremble and are sore afraid at the discussion which will take place, and at thy future wrath, when the heavens shall be moved, and the earth; whilst thou shalt come to judge the world by fire.

That day is a day of wrath, of calamity, and of misery: a great and a most bitter day; whilst thou shalt come to judge the world by fire.

Give them, O Lord, eternal rest: and let perpetual light shine upon them. Amen.

Let us pray.

O GOD, the Creator and Redeemer of all the faithful, grant to the souls of thy servants departed the remission of all their sins, that, by means of pious supplications, they may obtain the pardon which they have ever earnestly desired ; who livest and reignest with the Father in the unity of the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

A Prayer upon the Day of a Person's Decease or Burial.

O GOD, to whom it peculiarly belongeth to have mercy always, and to spare, we humbly beseech thee in behalf of the soul of thy servant N., which thou hast this day called out of the world, that thou wouldst not deliver it into the hands of the enemy, nor be unmindful of it unto the end : but command it to be received by thy holy angels, and conducted to Paradise, its true country ; that as in thee it had faith and hope, it may not suffer the pains of hell, but be put in possession of never-ending felicity, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Another.

O LORD, we commend unto thy infinite clemency the souls of thy servants lately deceased; pardon them, we beseech thee, in the multitude of thy mercies, the sins which they have committed through human frailty, and grant them eternal life in thy kingdom of bliss. Amen.

The Thirty Days' Prayer to our Blessed Redeemer.

GLORY, honor, and praise be to our Lord Jesus Christ; may all the world adore thee: blessed be thy holy name, who for us sinners vouchsafedst to be born of an humble Virgin: and blessed be thine infinite goodness, who diedst upon the cross for our redemption.

O Jesus, Son of God, and Saviour of mankind, we beseech thee to have mercy on us, and so dispose our lives here by thy grace, that we may hereafter rejoice with thee forever in thy heavenly kingdom. Amen.

Thirty Days' Prayer to our Blessed Redeemer in honor of his bitter Passion.

DEAR Jesus, my blessed Saviour and Redeemer, the sweet comforter of all sad, desolate, and distressed souls: behold thy poor servant, humbly prostrate at the foot of thy holy cross, bewailing his misery, imploring thy mercy, and beseeching thee to take pity and compassion upon him in this his present and pressing affliction (infirmity, poverty, temptation, trouble, or whatsoever other spiritual or corporal necessity).

Hear my prayers, O assured refuge of all afflicted wretches ! behold my tears, consider my sorrows, and remedy my distresses ; for finding myself encompassed with very grievous calamities, by reason of my great crimes, I know not whither to fly for succor, or to whom I may make my moan, but to thee, my meek and merciful Saviour, with a full hope and confidence that thou, O my loving Redeemer, wilt vouchsafe to lend the ears of thy ordinary pity and accustomed clemency to the humble petition of thy poor child ; and by that sweetness which thy blessed soul perceived at the time of thy alliance with our human nature, when, resolving with the Father and the Holy Ghost to unite thy divine person to mortal flesh for man's salvation, thou didst send the angel to the Holy Virgin Mary with those happy tidings, and clothing thyself with our human nature, in her chaste womb, remainedst true God and true man, for the space of nine months, in her sacred womb.

By the anguish thou enduredst when, the time of thy designed passion drawing nigh, thou prayedst to thy eternal Father, that if it might stand with his most divine providence, thou desiredst that that bitter chalice might pass away from thee ! yet concluding with a most perfect act of resignation : Not my will, O heavenly Father, but thine be done.

By the outrageous injuries, shameful disgraces, cruel blows, contumelious blasphemies, forged witnesses, false accusations, and unjust judgments, which thou, innocent Lamb ! patiently enduredst ; by the shackles which fettered thy limbs, the tears which flowed from thine eyes, the blood which trickled from thy whole body ; by the fears, sorrows, and sadness of thy heart ; by the shame thou receivedst in being stripped of thy garments, to hang naked on the cross, in the sight of thy sorrowful Mother, and in the presence of all the people.

By thy royal head crowned with thorns, and smitten with a reed; by thy thirst quenched with vinegar and gall; by thy side opened with a spear, whence issued blood and water, to refresh our souls with that living fountain of thy love and mercy; by the sharp nails wherewith thy tender hands and feet were cruelly pierced and fastened to the cross; by the recommendation of thy departing soul to thy heavenly Father, saying, Into thy hands I commend my spirit; by thy praying for thy enemies, saying, O Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do; by thy giving up the ghost, when thou criedst out with a loud voice, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? and then, bowing down thy most blessed head to impart the kiss of peace, saidst, It is consummated.

By the great mercy thou showedst towards the penitent thief, saying, This day thou shalt be with me in Paradise; by thy descent into Limbus, and the joy thou communicatedst to the just souls therein detained; by the glory of thy triumphant resurrection, and the consoling apparition thou frequently didst make for forty days' space to thy sacred Virgin Mother, to thy Apostles, and thy other chosen friends and servants; by thy admirable ascension, when, in the sight of thy Mother and thy Apostles, thou wast elevated into heaven; by the miraculous coming down of the Holy Ghost in the form of fiery tongues, whereby thou replenishedst the hearts of thy Disciples with thy love, and gavest them strength and courage to plant thy faith in the whole world; by the dreadful day of general judgment, on which thou art to pass sentence on all mankind.

By all those sorrows, joys, passions, compassions, and whatsoever else is near and dear to thee in heaven and on earth, take pity on me, O compassionate Redeemer; hear my prayers; and grant me that for which I now most humbly and heartily petition thee.

[Mention here the thing you desire; or reflect mentally upon it.]

GIVE me, O gracious Saviour, speedy and efficacious feelings of thy divine succor and comfort, who, according to the accustomed sweetness of thy tender heart, art wont to grant the requests of them who really fear and love thee, even to their own soul's desire and satisfaction; bestow on me, also, O my blessed Lord Jesus, a constant faith, a confident hope, a perfect charity, a cordial contrition, a sincere confession, a competent satisfaction, a diligent custody of myself from future failings, a heroic contempt of the world, a complete conquest of my passions, a zealous imitation of thy exemplary life and conversation, an entire accomplishment of my vows, an absolute mortification of my self-will, a willing readiness to die for thy love and honor, a final perseverance in grace and good works, a happy departure of my soul out of this world, with my perfect senses about me, thy holy sacraments to strengthen me; thyself, O dear Jesus, to comfort me; thy sacred Virgin Mother, with the saints, my particular patrons, to pray for me, and my good angel to conduct me to eternal rest, eternal life, eternal happiness. Amen.

The Thirty Days' Prayer to the B. V. Mary,

IN HONOR OF THE SACRED PASSION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST ;

By the devout recital of which, for the above space of time, we may mercifully hope to obtain our lawful request. It is particularly recommend- ed as a proper devotion for every day in Lent, and all the Fridays throughout the year.

VER glorious and blessed Mary, Queen of Virgins, Mother of Mercy, hope and comfort of dejected and desolate souls, through that sword of sorrow which pierced thy tender heart whilst thine only Son, Christ Jesus our Lord, suffered death and ignominy on the cross; through that filial tenderness and pure love he had for thee, grieving in thy grief, whilst from his cross he recommended thee to the care and protection of his beloved disciple, St. John, take pity, I beseech thee, on my poverty and necessities; have compassion on my anxieties and cares; assist and comfort me in all my infirmities and miseries, of what kind soever. Thou art the Mother of Mercies, the sweet Consolatrix and only refuge of the needy and the orphan, of the desolate and the afflicted. Cast, therefore, an eye of pity on a miserable forlorn child of Eve, and hear my prayer; for since, in just punishment of my sins, I find myself encompassed by a multitude of evils, and oppressed with much anguish of spirit, whither can I fly for more secure shelter, O amiable Mother of my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, than under the wings of thy maternal protection? Attend, therefore, I beseech thee, with an ear of pity and compassion, to my humble and earnest request. I ask it, through the bowels of mercy of thy dear Son; through that love and condescension wherewith he embraced our nature, when, in compliance with the divine will, thou gavest thy consent, and whom, after the expiration of nine months, thou didst bring forth from the chaste enclosure of thy womb, to visit this world, and bless it with his presence. I ask it, through that anguish of mind wherewith thy beloved Son, our dear Saviour, was overwhelmed on Mount Olivet, when he besought his eternal Father to remove from him, if possible, the bitter chalice of his future passion. I ask it, through the threefold repetition of his prayers in the Garden, whence afterwards, with dolorous steps and mournful tears, thou didst accompany him to the doleful theatre of his death and sufferings. I ask it, through the welts and sores of his virginal flesh, occasioned by the cords and whips wherewith he was bound and scourged, when stripped of his seamless garment, for which his executioners afterwards cast lots. I ask it, through the scoffs and ignominies by which he was insulted; the false accusations and unjust sentence by which he was condemned to death, and which he bore with heavenly patience. I ask it, through his bitter tears and bloody sweat; his silence and resignation; his sadness and grief of heart. I ask it, through the blood which trickled from his royal and sacred head when struck with the sceptre of a reed, and pierced with his crown of thorns. I ask it, through the excruciating torments he suffered, when his hands and feet were fastened with gross nails to the tree of the cross. I ask it, through his vehement thirst, and bitter potion of vinegar and gall. I ask it, through his dereliction on the cross, when he exclaimed, "My God! my God! why hast thou forsaken me?" I ask it, through his mercy extended to the good thief, and through his recommending his precious soul and spirit into the hands of his eternal Father before he expired, saying, "All is consummated." I ask it, through the blood mixed with water, which issued from his sacred side when pierced with a lance, and whence a flood of grace and mercy has flowed to us. I ask it, through his immaculate life, bitter passion, and ignominious death on the cross, at which nature itself was thrown into convulsions, by the burstings of rocks, rending of the veil of the Temple, the earthquake, and darkness of the sun and moon. I ask it, through his descent into hell, where he comforted the Saints of the old Law with his presence, and led Captivity captive. I ask it, through his glorious victory over death, when he arose again to life on the third day, and through the joy which his appearance for forty days after gave thee his blessed Mother, his Apostles, and the rest of his Disciples; when in thine and their presence he miraculously ascended into heaven. I ask it, through the grace of the Holy Ghost, infused into the hearts of his Disciples, when he descended upon them in the form of fiery tongues, and by which they were inspired with zeal in the conversion of the world, when they went to preach the Gospel. I ask it, through the awful appearance of thy Son, at the last dreadful day, when he shall come to judge the living and the dead, and the world by fire. I ask it, through the compassion he bore thee, in this life, and the ineffable joy thou didst feel at thine Assumption into heaven, where thou art eternally absorbed in the sweet contemplation of his divine perfections. O glorious and ever-blessed Virgin ! comfort the heart of thy suppliant, by obtaining for me

[Here mention or reflect on your lawful request, under the reservation of its being agreeable to the will of God, who sees whether it will contribute towards your spiritual good].

And as I am persuaded my divine Saviour doth honor thee as his beloved Mother, to whom he can refuse nothing, so let me speedily experience the efficacy of thy powerful intercession, according to the tenderness of thy maternal affection, and his filial loving heart, who mercifully granteth the requests, and complieth with the desires of those that love and fear him. Wherefore, O most blessed Virgin, besides the object of my present petition, and whatever else I may stand in need of, obtain for me also of thy dear Son, our Lord and our God, a lively faith, firm hope, perfect charity, true contrition of heart, unfeigned tears of compunction, sincere confession, condign satisfaction, abstinence from sin, love of God and my neighbor, contempt of the world, patience to suffer affronts and ignominies, nay even, if necessary, an opprobrious death itself, for love of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Obtain likewise for me, O sacred Mother of God! perseverance in good works, performance of good resolutions, mortifications of self-will, a pious conversation through life, and, at my last moments, strong and sincere repentance, accompanied by such a lively and attentive presence of mind, as may enable me to receive the last Sacrament of the Church worthily, and die in thy friendship and favor. Lastly, obtain, I beseech thee, for the souls of my parents, brethren, relatives, and benefactors, both living and dead, life everlasting. Amen.

A Devout Act of Contrition.

 MY God! the God of my heart! my soul! my life! and all that is within me! whom I have so much offended, that neither the sands on the seashore, the stars in the heavens, the flowers of the fields, nor the leaves of the trees, can equal the infinite number and unspeakable variety of my sins; I have sinned, I have offended thee, and done evil before the face of heaven and earth! I have departed from thy law; turned my back on thy grace; adored what offended thee; made an idol of my guilt, and run on without fear or shame in the ways of deceit, vanity, and perdition. Ah! my God, how much am I grieved for having offended thee! I am more troubled at the greatness of my ingratitude for having offended thee, than at the greatness of the torments which I have deserved for my sins. I would have my sorrow for my sins to be as great as the sins themselves : I would have my regret for having displeased thee proportioned to the injuries committed against thee : I would have a grief equal to thy mercy : I would willingly bewail the enormity of my sins with tears of blood : more for the offence and insult offered thy divine Majesty, than for the injury and perdition they bring upon myself. But where shall I find so deep a sense of sorrow, save only in the fountain of thy grace ? Where shall I find such a grief, save only in the contemplation of thy immense goodness and infinite majesty ? Whence are those tears to flow, save only from the ocean of thy mercy ? Here I cast myself at thy feet : consider not in what manner, at what time, or how late : consider only that I come. But, ah ! Lord, in how miserable a condition ! how filthy ! how abominable ! clad with the deformity of my sins, covered with the filthiness of my offences, and defiled with the abominations of a vicious life ! But, in approaching thee, O my God, I come with the confidence of finding in thy mercy a secure haven ; in thy compassion, protection ; in thy clemency, a refuge ; and in thy goodness, a remedy. Wherefore, O Lord, under the dread of thy justice, I seek no other remedy, save that of thy mercy, nor fly to any other shelter, but that of thy clemency. In thee I place my trust, O my God : for though by sin I have lost the nature and privilege of a son, yet thou, O Lord, infinitely good, dost not lose the nature and condition thou hast of a father. Let then, O Lord, thy infinite grace complete that work in me which thy infinite mercy has begun. Let thy clemency come to the succor of thy miserable creature : take pity and compassion on my poor soul. I am firmly resolved, with the aid of thy grace, to amend my life, confess my sins, and persevere in thy service : to pardon injuries, avoid the occasions of evil, and abhor my vices : to make such restitution as I am able, and to observe, as in duty bound, all thy commandments. I trust, O Lord, in thy infinite goodness, that thou wilt pardon all my sins, through the death and passion of my Lord Jesus Christ: for though in his wounds there is justice to punish me, yet in the same wounds there is likewise mercy to forgive me. Mercy! mercy! dear Jesus, have mercy on me.

THE LITTLE OFFICE
OF THE
Immaculate Conception of the
B. V. Mary.

At Matins.

V. Now let my lips sing and display,
 R. The Blessed Virgin's praise this day,
 V. O Lady, to my help intend :
 R. Me strongly from my foes defend.
 Glory be to the Father, &c.

The Hymn.

HAIL, Lady of the world,
 Of Heaven bright Queen.
 Hail, Virgin of virgins,
 Star early seen.
 Hail, full of all grace,
 Clear light divine ;
 Lady, to succor us,
 With speed incline.
 God, from eternity,
 Before all other,
 Of the world thee ordain'd
 To be the Mother.
 By which he created
 The heavens, sea, land :
 His fair spouse he chose,
 Free from sin's band.

V. God hath elected and pre-elected her.

R. He hath made her dwell in his tabernacle.

Let us pray.

O HOLY Mary, Mother of our Lord Jesus Christ, Queen of Heaven, and Lady of the world, who neither forsakest nor despisest any, behold me mercifully with the eye of pity, and obtain for me, of thy beloved Son, pardon for all my sins: that I, who, with devout affection, do now celebrate thy holy conception, may hereafter enjoy the reward of eternal bliss; through the grace and mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ, whom thou, a virgin, didst bring forth; who, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, livest and reignest one God in perfect Trinity, forever and ever. Amen.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer:

R. And let my cry come unto thee.

V. Let us bless our Lord;

R. Thanks be to God.

V. And may the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

The Hymn.

HAIL, Virgin most prudent,
House for God placed,
With the sevenfold pillar
And table graced.

Saved from contagion

Of the frail earth :

In the womb of thy parent,

Saint before birth :

Mother of the living,

Gate of Saints' merits,

The new star of Jacob,

Queen of pure spirits :

To Zebulon fearful :
 Armies' array :
 Be thou of Christians
 Refuge and stay.

V. He hath created her in his Holy Spirit.

R. And hath poured her out, over all his works.

Let us pray.

The Hymn.

HAIL, ark of the covenant,
 King Solomon's throne,
 Bright rainbow of heaven,
 The bush of vision.

The fleece of Gideon,
 The flow'ring rod;
 Sweet honey of Samson,
 Closet of God.

'Twas meet Son so noble
 Should save from stain (Wherewith Eve's children Spotted remain)
 The maid whom for mother
 He had elected,
 That she might be never
 With sin infected.

V. I dwell in the highest;
 R. And my throne is the pillar of the clouds.

The Hymn.

HAIL, Mother and Virgin :
 Of the Trinity
 Temple ; joy of Angels,
 Seal of purity,
 Comfort of mourners,
 Garden of pleasure,
 Palm-tree of patience,
 Chastity's measure :
 Thou, land sacerdotal,
 Art blessed wholly,

From sin original Exempted solely.
 The city of the Highest,
 Gate of the East;
 Virgin's gem, in thee
 All graces rest.

V. As the lily among thorns;

R. So my beloved among the daughters of Adam.

Let us pray.

O HOLY Mary, Mother of our Lord,

The Hymn.

HAIL, city of refuge,
 King David's tower
 Fenced with bulwark,
 And armor's power.
 In thy conception
 Charity did flame ;
 The fierce dragon's pride
 Was brought to shame
 Judith invincible,
 Woman of arms,
 Fair Abisaig, Virgin,
 True David warms,
 Son of fair Rachel Did Egypt store ;
 Mary of the world
 The Saviour bore.

V. Thou art all fair, O my beloved.
R. And original spot was never in thee.

Let us pray.

O HOLY Mary, Mother of our Lord,
 &c., as before.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer :

R. And let my cry come unto thee.

V. Let us bless our Lord ;

departed, through the mercy of
God, rest in peace.

R. Amen.

At Even-Song.

V. O Lady, to my help intend :

R. Me strongly from my foes defend.

V. Glory be to the Father, &c.

The Hymn.

HAIL, dial, in which Turns retrograde,
The sun, ten degrees ;
The Word is flesh made,
That man from hell pit
To Heaven might rise,
Th' immense above angels,
In stable lies.
This Son did on Mary
Betimes appear,

Made her conception
 A morning clear.
 Fair lily among thorns,
 That serpent frights,
 Clear moon that in dark
 The wanderer lights.

V. In Heaven I made a never-failing light rise,
 R. And I covered all the world as a mist.

Let us pray.

O HOLY Mary, Mother of our Lord.
&c., as before.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer :
 R. And let my cry come unto thee.
 V. Let us bless our Lord ;
 R. Thanks be to God.
 V. And may the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
 R. Amen.

At Compline.

V. Let thy Son, Jesus Christ, O Lady, pacified by thy prayers, convert
us ;

R. And turn his anger from us.

V. O Lady, to my help intend :

R. Me strongly from my foes defend.

V. Glory be to the Father, &c.

The Hymn.

HAIL, flourishing Virgin,
Chastity's renown ;
Queen of clemency,
Whom stars do crown
Thou, pure above Angels,
Dost Son behold,
Sitt'st at his right hand,
Attired in gold.
Mother of grace, hope
To the dismay'd :
Bright star of the sea,
In shipwreck, aid :
Grant, Heaven-gate open,
That by thee blest,
We thy Son may see
In blissful rest.

V. Thy name, Mary, is oil poured out.

R. Thy servants have exceedingly loved thee.

Let us pray.

O HOLY Mary, Mother of our Lord Jesus Christ, Queen of Heaven, and Lady of the world, who neither forsakest nor despisest any, behold me mercifully with the eye of pity, and obtain for me, of thy beloved Son, pardon for all my sins: that I, who, with devout affection, do now celebrate thy holy conception, may hereafter enjoy the reward of eternal bliss; through the grace and mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ, whom thou, a virgin, didst bring forth; who, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, livest, &c.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer:

R. And let my cry come unto thee.

V. Let us bless our Lord;

R. Thanks be to God.

V. And may the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

R. Amen.

The Commendation.

TO thee, Virgin pious,
We humbly present
These hours canonical
With pure intent.
Guide pilgrims, until
With Christ we meet:
In our agony aid us,
O Virgin sweet. Amen.

This Anthem following, with the Prayer of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin, is approved of by Pope Paul V., who had granted a hundred days of indulgence to all faithful Christians that shall devoutly recite the same.

Anthem.

THIS is the branch, in which was neither knot of original, nor bark of actual sin found.

V. In thy conception, O Virgin, thou wast immaculate.

R. Pray unto the Father for us, whose Son thou didst bring forth.

Let us pray.

GOD, who, by the immaculate conception of the Blessed Virgin, didst prepare a fit habitation for thy Son, we beseech thee, that, as by the foreseen death of her same Son thou didst preserve her pure from all spot, so likewise grant, that we, by her intercession made free from sin, may attain unto thee; through our Lord Jesus Christ, thy Son, who, with thee and the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Jesus Psalter.

HERE is no other name under heaven given to men whereby we must be saved. —Acts iv. 12.

This Psalter consists of fifteen petitions, and the glorious Name of Jesus being repeated ten times before each of them, the repetition is made thrice fifty times. It may be said either all at once, or at thrice, according to a person's devotion and leisure, as this sacred Name is not to be repeated hastily over, but with great reverence and devotion.

PART I.

You must begin by a devout kneeling, or bowing, at the adorable name of Jesus, saying:—

IN the name of Jesus, let every knee bow, of things in heaven, of things on earth, and of things under the earth; and let every tongue confess, that our Lord Jesus Christ is in the glory of God the Father.—Phil. ii. 10.

The First petition.

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, }
 Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, } Have mercy on me.
 Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, }

JESUS, have mercy on me, O God of compassion, and forgive the many and great offences I have committed in thy sight.

Many have been the follies of my life, and great are the miseries I have deserved for my ingratitude.

Have mercy on me, dear Jesus, for I am weak; O Lord, heal me, who am unable to help myself.

Deliver me from setting my heart upon any of thy creatures, which may divert my eyes from a continual looking up to thee.

Grant me grace henceforth, for the love of thee, to hate sin; and out of a just esteem of thee, to despise all worldly vanities.

Have mercy on all sinners, Jesus, I beseech thee, turn their vices into virtues, and, making them true observers of thy law, and sincere lovers of thee, bring them to bliss in everlasting glory.

Have mercy also on the souls in purgatory, for thy bitter passion, I beseech thee, and for thy glorious name, Jesus.

O blessed Trinity, one eternal God, have mercy on me. Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c.

The Second petition.

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, }
 Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, } Help me.
 Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, }

JESUS, help me to overcome all temptations to sin, and the malice of my ghostly enemy.

Help me to spend my time in virtuous actions, and in such labors as are acceptable to thee.

To resist and repel the motions of my flesh to sloth, gluttony, and impurity.

To render my heart enamored of virtue, and inflamed with desire of thy glorious presence.

Help me to deserve and keep a good name, by a peaceful and pious living, to thy honor, O Jesus, to my own comfort, and the benefit of others.

Have mercy on all sinners, &c., as before. Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c.

The Third petition.

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, }
 Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, } Strengthen me.
 Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, }

JESUS, strengthen me in soul and body, to please thee in doing such works of virtue as may bring me to thy everlasting joy and felicity.

Grant me a firm purpose, most merciful Saviour, to amend my life, and to recompense for the years past:

Those years which I have misspent to thy displeasure in vain or wicked thoughts, words, deeds, and evil customs.

Make my heart obedient to thy will, and ready, for thy love, to perform all the works of mercy.

Grant me the gifts of the Holy Ghost, which, by a virtuous life, and devout frequenting of thy most holy sacraments, may at length bring me to thy heavenly kingdom.

Have mercy on all sinners, &c., as before. Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c.

The Fourth petition.

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, }
 Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, } Comfort me.
 Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, }

JESUS, comfort me, and give me grace to place my chief, my only joy and felicity in thee.

Send me heavenly meditations, spiritual sweetness, and fervent desires of thy glory; ravish my soul with the contemplation of heaven, where I shall everlastingly dwell with thee.

Bring often to my remembrance thy unspeakable goodness, thy gifts, and the great kindness thou hast shown me.

And when thou bringest to my mind the sad remembrance of my sins, whereby I have so unkindly offended thee ;

Comfort me with the assurance of obtaining thy grace, by the spirit of perfect repentance, which may purge away my guilt, and prepare me for thy kingdom.

Have mercy on all sinners, as before.
Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c.

The Fifth petition.

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,)
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, { Make me constant.
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,)

JESUS, make me constant in faith, hope, and charity, giving me perseverance in all virtues, and a resolution never to offend thee.

Let the memory of thy passion, and of those bitter pains thou sufferedst for me, strengthen my patience, and recreate me in all tribulation and adversity.

Let me always hold fast the doctrines of thy Catholic Church, and render me a diligent frequenter of all holy duties.

Let no false delight of this deceitful world blind me, no fleshly temptation, or fraud of the devil, shake my heart :

My heart, which has forever set up its rest in thee, and resolved to under-value all for thy eternal reward.

Have mercy on all sinners, Jesus, I beseech thee ; turn their vices into virtues, and making them true observers of thy law, and sincere lovers of thee, bring them to bliss in everlasting glory.

Have mercy also on the souls in purgatory, for thy bitter passion, I beseech thee, and for thy glorious name, Jesus.

O blessed Trinity, one eternal God, have mercy on me.

Our Lord Jesus Christ humbled himself, being made obedient unto death, even to the death of the cross.—Phil. ii. 8.

Hear these my petitions, O my most merciful Saviour, and grant me grace so frequently to repeat and consider them, that they may prove easy steps, whereby my soul may ascend to the knowledge, love, and performance of my duty to thee and my neighbor, through the whole course of my life. Amen.

*Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c.
I believe in God, &c.*

PART II.

*Begin as before, saying:—*In the name of Jesus, let every knee, &c.

The Sixth petition.

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, } Enlighten me with Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, } spiritual wisdom.
 Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, }

ESUS, enlighten me with spiritual wisdom to know thy goodness, and all those things which are most acceptable to thee.

Grant me a clear apprehension of my only good, and discretion to order my life according to it.

Grant that I may wisely proceed from virtue to virtue, till at length I arrive at the clear vision of thy glorious Majesty.

Permit me not, dear Lord, to return to those sins for which I have been sorry, and of which I have purged myself by repentance and confession.

Grant me grace to benefit the souls of others by my good example, and to reduce those by good counsel who misbehave towards me.

Have mercy on all sinners, &c., as at first. Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c.

The Seventh petition.

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, } Grant me grace
 Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, } to fear thee.
 Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, }

JESUS, grant me grace inwardly to fear thee, and to avoid all occasions of offending thee.

Let thy threats of the torments which are to fall on sinners, the fear of losing thy love and thy heavenly inheritance, always keep me in awe.

Let me not dare to remain in sin, but soon return to repentance, lest through thy anger the dreadful sentence of endless death and damnation fall upon me.

Let the powerful intercession of thy blessed Mother, and all thy saints ; but above all, thy own merits and mercy, O my Saviour, be ever between thy avenging justice and my poor soul.

Enable me, O my God, to work out my salvation with fear and trembling ; and let the apprehension of thy secret judgments render me a more humble and diligent suitor to the throne of thy grace.

Have mercy on all sinners, &c., as before. Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c.

The Eighth petition.

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,	{	Grant me grace to love thee.
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,

JESUS, grant me grace truly to love thee for thy infinite goodness, and those excessive bounties I have received, and hope forever to receive from thee.

Let the remembrance of thy kindness and patience conquer the malice and wretched inclinations of my perverse nature.

Let the consideration of my many deliverances, thy frequent calls, and continual assistance in the ways of life, make me ashamed of my ingratitude.

And what dost thou require of me for all thy mercies, or by them, but to love thee? And why dost thou require it, but because thou art my only good?

O my dear Lord, my whole life shall be nothing but a desire of thee: and because I indeed love thee, I will most diligently keep thy commandments.

Have mercy on all sinners, &c., as before. Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c.

The Ninth petition.

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,	{	Grant me grace to remember my death.
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,

JESUS, grant me grace always to remember my death, and the great account I am then to give; that so my soul, being always well disposed, may depart out of this world in thy grace.

Then, by the holy intercession of thy blessed Mother, and the assistance of the glorious St. Michael, deliver me from the enemy of my soul; and thou, my good angel, I beseech thee to help me at that most important hour.

Then, dear Jesus, remember thy mercy, and turn not thy most amiable face away from me, because of my offences.

Secure me against the terrors of that day, by causing me now to die daily to all earthly things, and so to have my conversation continually in heaven.

Let the remembrance of thy death teach me how to esteem my life; and the memory of thy resurrection encourage me to descend cheerfully into the grave.

Have mercy on all sinners, &c., as before. Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c.

The Tenth petition.

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,	{	Send me here my purgatory.
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,

JESUS, send me here my purgatory, and so prevent the torments of that cleansing fire which attends those souls in the next world that have not been sufficiently purged in this.

Vouchsafe to grant me those merciful crosses and afflictions, which thou seest necessary for the taking off my affections from all things here below.

Since none can see thee that loves any thing which is not for thy sake, suffer not my heart to find any rest here, but in sighing after thee.

Too bitter, alas! will be the anguish of a soul that is separated from thee, that desires, but cannot come to thee, being clogged with the heavy chains of sin.

Here then, O my Saviour, keep me continually mortified to this world; that, being purged thoroughly with the fire of thy love, I may immediately pass hence into thy everlasting possession.

Have mercy on all sinners, &c., as in the fifth petition. Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c. I believe in God, &c.

PART III.

*Begin as before, saying:—*In the name of Jesus, let every knee, &c.

The Eleventh petition.

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,	}	Grant me grace to avoid ill com- pany.
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,

ESUS, grant me grace to avoid ill company; or if I chance to come among such, I beseech thee, by the merits of thy uncorrupt conversation among sinners, preserve me from being overcome by any temptations to mortal sin.

Cause me, O blessed Jesus, to remember always with dread that thou art present, and hearest, who wilt take an account of all our words and actions, and wilt judge us according to them.

How dare I then converse with slanderers, liars, drunkards, or swearers; or with such whose discourse is either quarrelsome, dissolute, or vain?

Repress in me, dear Jesus, all inordinate affections to carnal pleasure, and to the delight of taste; grant me grace to avoid such company as would blow the fire of those unruly appetites.

Thy power defend, thy wisdom direct, thy fatherly pity chastise me, and make me live so here among men, that I may be fit for the conversation of angels hereafter.

Have mercy on all sinners, &c., as at first. Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c.

The Twelfth petition.

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,	}	Grant me grace
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,		to call on thee
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,		for help.

JESUS, grant me grace in all my necessities to call on thee for help, faithfully remembering thy death and resurrection for me.

Wilt thou be deaf to my cries, that wouldst lay down thy life for my ransom? or canst thou not save me, that couldst take it up again for my crown?

Whom have I in heaven but thee, O my Jesus, whose blessed mouth has pronounced, Call on me in the day of thy trouble, and I will deliver thee?

Thou art my sure rock of defence against all sorts of enemies; thou art my ready grace, able to strengthen me to every good work.

Therefore, in all my sufferings, weaknesses, and temptations, I will confidently call on thee; hear me, O my Jesus, and, when thou hearest, have mercy.

Have mercy on all sinners, &c., as before. Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c.

The Thirteenth petition.

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,	{	Make me perse-
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,

vere in virtue.

JESUS, make me persevere in virtue and a good life, and never give over thy service, till thou bringest me to my reward in thy kingdom.

In all pious customs and holy duties, in my honest and necessary employments, continue and strengthen, O Lord, my soul and body.

Is my life any thing but a pilgrimage on earth, towards the new Jerusalem, to which he that sits down, or turns out on the way, can never arrive?

O Jesus, make me always consider thy blessed example—through how much pain, and how little pleasure, thou didst press on to a bitter death; that being the way to a glorious resurrection.

Make me, O my Redeemer, seriously weigh those severe words of thine, He only that perseveres to the end shall be saved.

Have mercy on all sinners, &c., as before. Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c.

The Fourteenth petition.

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,	{	Grant me grace to
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,		fix my mind on
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,		thee.

JESUS, grant me grace to fix my mind on thee, especially in time of prayer, when I directly converse with thee.

Stop the motions of my wandering head, and the desires of my unstable heart; suppress the power of my spiritual enemies, who endeavor at that time to draw my mind from heavenly thoughts to many vain imaginations.

So shall I, with joy and gratitude, look on thee as my deliverer from all the evils I have escaped; and as my benefactor for all the good I have ever received, or can hope for.

I shall see that thou art my only good, and that all other things are but means ordained by thee, to make me fix my mind on thee, to make me love thee more and more, and by loving thee to be eternally happy.

O beloved of my soul, take up all my thoughts here, that my eyes, abstaining from all vain and hurtful sights, may become worthy to behold thee face to face in thy glory forever.

Have mercy on all sinners, &c., as before. Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c.

The Fifteenth petition.

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, } Give me grace to or- Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, } der my life towards Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, } my eternal welfare.

JESUS, give me grace to order my life towards my eternal welfare, heartily intending, and wisely designing, all the operations of my body and soul to obtain the reward of thy infinite bliss and eternal felicity.

For what else is this world but a school to breed up souls, and fit them for the other; and how are they fitted but by an eager desire of enjoying God, their only end?

Break my froward spirit, O Jesus; make it humble and obedient: grant me grace to depart hence with contempt of this world, and a heart filled with joy at my going to thee.

Let the memory of thy passion make me cheerfully undergo all temptations or sufferings here for thy love, whilst my soul breathes after that blissful life and immortal glory which thou hast prepared in heaven for thy servants.

O Jesus, let me frequently and attentively consider that whatever I gain, if I lose thee, all is lost: and whatever I lose, if I gain thee, all is gained.

Have mercy on all sinners, &c., as in the fifth petition. Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c. I believe in God, &c.

A PRAYER

To be daily said by those who carry about with them an Agnus Dei.

Q MY Lord Jesus Christ, the true Lamb that takest away the sins of the world! by thy mercy, which is infinite, pardon my iniquities; and by thy sacred passion preserve me this day from all sin and evil. I carry about me this holy Agnus Dei in thy honor, as a preservative against my own weakness, and as an incentive to the practice of meekness, humility, and innocence, which thou hast taught. I offer myself up to thee as an entire oblation, and in memory of that sacrifice of love thou offeredst for me on the Cross, and in satisfaction for my sins. Accept, O my God, the oblation I make, and may it be agreeable to thee in the odor of sweetness. Amen.

THE MEMORARE.

REMEMBER, Mary, tenderest-hearted Virgin, how from of old the ear hath never heard that he who ran to thee for refuge, implored thy help, and sought thy prayers, was forsaken of God. Virgin of virgins, Mother, emboldened by this confidence I fly to thee, to thee I come, and in thy presence I a weeping sinner stand. Mother of the Word Incarnate, O cast not away my prayer; but in thy pity hear and answer. Amen.

The Stations :

OR,

THE HOLY WAY OF THE CROSS.

The Antiphon.

E beseech thee, O Lord, to assist and direct our actions by thy powerful grace, that all our prayers and works may always begin and end with thee. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A preparatory Act of Contrition.

JESUS, treasure of my soul, infinitely good, infinitely merciful, behold me prostrate at thy sacred feet! Sinner as I am, I fly to the arms of thy mercy, and implore that grace which melts and converts—the grace of true compunction. I have offended thee, adorable Jesus! I repent; let the fervor of my love equal the baseness of my ingratitude. This Way of the Cross grant me to offer devoutly in memory of that painful journey thou hast travelled for our redemption, to the Cross of Calvary, with the holy design to reform my morals, amend my life, and gain those indulgences granted by thy vicars on earth. I apply one for my miserable soul, the rest in suffrage for the souls in purgatory, particularly N. N. [Here mention the souls for whom you intend to apply them.] I begin this devotion under thy sacred protection, and in imitation of thy dolorous Mother. Let then this holy exercise obtain for me mercy in this life, and glory in the next. Amen, Jesus.

THE FIRST STATION.

Christ is sentenced to Death by Pilate.

V. We adore thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, and bless thee.

R. Because by thy holy Cross thou hast redeemed the world.

The Mystery.A large, ornate initial letter 'O' in a decorative font. Inside the 'O' is a small figure of a person, possibly an angel or a saint, standing and looking upwards. The 'O' is surrounded by intricate floral and scrollwork patterns.

OUR gracious Redeemer, after suffering blows and blasphemies before Annas and Caiaphas, after the cruel scourging, insulting contempts and bloody crown of piercing thorns, is unjustly condemned to death. This iniquitous sentence your Jesus accepted with admirable humility. Innocence embraces condemnation, to free the guilty.

Reflect that your sins were the false witnesses that condemned him; your stubborn impenitence the tyrant that extorted from Pilate the bloody sentence. Propose now seriously an amendment of life, and while you reflect on the horrid injustice of Pilate, who condemns innocence lest he should not appear a friend of Cæsar, arraign yourself for your many sins of human respect; think how often you have offended God for fear of displeasing the eye of the world, and turning to your loving Jesus, address him rather with tears of the heart than with expressions of the tongue, in the following

Prayer.

 MANGLED victim of my sins ! O suffering Jesus ! I have deserved those bloody scourges, that cruel sentence of death ; and yet thou didst die for me, that I should live for thee. I am convinced that if I desire to please men, I cannot be thy servant. Let me then displease the world and its vain admirers. I resign myself into thy hands. Let love take possession of my heart ; let my eyes behold with contempt every thing that can alienate my affections from thee ; let my ears be ever attentive to thy Word ; let me through this painful journey accompany thee, sighing and demanding mercy. Mercy, Jesus ! Amen.

Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c.

Jesus Christ crucified, have mercy on us !

You pious Christians who do now draw near,
With relenting hearts now lend a tear;
Your Lord behold with great humility,
Sentenced to die on Mount Calvary.

THE SECOND STATION.

Christ takes the Cross on his shoulder.

V. We adore thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, and bless thee.

R. Because by thy holy Cross thou hast redeemed the world.

The Mystery.

HIS second Station represents the place where your most amiable Redeemer is clad in his usual attire, after his inhuman executioners had stripped him of the purple garment of derision with which he was clothed, when as a visionary king they crowned him with platted thorns. The heavy burden of the Cross is violently placed on his mangled shoulders.

Behold your gracious Saviour : though torn with wounds, covered with blood, a man of griefs, abandoned by all, with what silent patience he bears the taunts and injuries with which the Jews insult him ! He stretches out his bleeding arms, and tenderly embraces the Cross. Reflect with confusion on that sensitive pride which is fired with impatience at the very shadow of contempt,—on your discontented murmurs in your lightest afflictions,—and your obstinate resistance to the will of Heaven in the crosses of life, which are calculated to conduct you, not to a Calvary of Crucifixion, but to the joys of eternal glory, and from your heart unite in the following

Prayer.

EEK and humble Jesus! my iniquity and perverseness loaded thy shoulders with the heavy burden of the Cross. Yet I, a vile worm of the earth—O shameful ingratitude!—fly even the appearance of mortification, and every thing which could check the violence of my passions; and if I suffered, it was with a murmuring reluctance. I now, O Saviour of the world! detest my past life, and by thy grace am determined no more to offend thee mortally. Let me only glory in the Cross of my Lord, by whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. Lay then on my stubborn neck the cross of true penance; let me, for love of thee, bear the adversities of this life, and cleave inseparably to thee in the bonds of perpetual charity. Amen, Jesus.

Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c. Glory, &c.

Jesus Christ crucified, have mercy on us !

No pity for the Lamb was to be found ;
As a mock King my loving Lord they crown'd ;

He bears his cross in his usual attire,
To save my soul from everlasting fire.

THE THIRD STATION.

Jesus falls the first time under the Cross.

V. We adore thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, and bless thee.

R. Because by thy holy Cross thou hast redeemed the world.

The Mystery.

HIS third Station represents how our Lord Jesus Christ, overwhelmed by the weight of the Cross, fainting through loss of blood, falls to the ground the first time.

Contemplate the unwearied patience of the meek Lamb amidst the insulting blows and curses of his brutal executioners ; while you, impatient in adversity and infirmity, presume to complain, nay, to insult the Majesty of Heaven by your curses and blasphemies. Purpose here firmly to struggle against the impatient sallies of temper ; and beholding your amiable Jesus prostrate under the Cross, excite in yourself a just hatred for those sins which rendered insupportable that weight with which your Saviour, for love of you, was burdened, and thus address your afflicted Jesus :

Prayer.

LAS, my Jesus! the merciless violence of thy inhuman executioners, the excessive weight of the Cross, or rather the more oppressive load of my sins, bend thee to the earth. Panting for breath, exhausted as thou art, thou dost not refuse new tortures for me. Will I then refuse the light burden of thy commandments; will I refuse to do violence to my perverse passions and sinful attachments; will I relapse into those very crimes for which I have shed false and delusive tears? O Jesus! stretch thy holy hand to my assistance, that I may never more fall into mortal sin; that I may at the hour of death secure the important affair of my salvation. Amen, Jesus.

Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c. Glory, &c.

Jesus Christ crucified, have mercy on us!

For want of blood he fell unto the ground,
No comfort for my Lord was to be found ;
For after all they forced him up again,
And scourged him on,* for to augment his pain.

THE FOURTH STATION.

Jesus carrying the Cross, meets his most afflicted Mother.

V. We adore thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, and bless thee.

R. Because by thy holy Cross thou hast redeemed the world.

The Mystery.

THE fourth Station presents to your contemplation the meeting of the desolate Mother and her bleeding Jesus, staggering under the weight of the Cross.

Consider what pangs rent her soul, when she beheld her beloved Jesus covered with blood, dragged violently to the place of execution, reviled and blasphemed by an ungrateful, outrageous rabble. Meditate on her inward feelings, the looks of silent agony exchanged between the Mother and the Son; her anguish in not being permitted to approach, to embrace, and to accompany him to death. Filled with confusion at the thought that neither the Son's pains nor Mother's grief have softened the hardness of your heart, contritely join in the following

Prayer.

MARY! I am the cause of thy sufferings! O refuge of sinners! let me participate in those heart-felt pangs, which rent thy tender soul, when thou didst behold thy Son, trembling with cold, covered with wounds, fainting under the Cross, more dead than alive! Mournful Mother! fountain of love! let me feel the force of thy grief, that I may weep with thee, and mingle my tears with thine, and thy Son's blood. O suffering Jesus! by thy bitter passion, and the heart-breaking compassion of thy afflicted Mother, grant me the efficacious grace of perseverance! Mother of Jesus, intercede for me! Jesus, behold me with an eye of pity, and in the hour of my death receive me to the arms of thy mercy! Amen, Jesus!

Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c. Glory, &c.

Jesus Christ crucified, have mercy on us!

Behold your Lord, with perfect weakness he Goes staggering on in his great agony,
Till his afflicted Mother he did see,
Crying, Son, O Son! my heart does bleed for thee.

THE FIFTH STATION.

Christ assisted by Simon the Cyrenean to carry the Cross.

V. We adore thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, and bless thee.

R. Because by thy holy Cross thou hast redeemed the world.

The Mystery.

THE fifth Station represents Christ fainting, destitute of strength, unable to carry the Cross. His sacrilegious executioners compel Simon the Cyrenean to carry it, not through compassionate pity to Jesus, but lest he should expire in their hands, before they could glut their vengeance by nailing him to the Cross.

Consider here the repugnance of Simon to carry the Cross after Christ; and that you, with repugnance and by compulsion, carry the Cross which Providence has placed on your shoulders. Will you spurn the love of your Jesus, who invites you to take up your cross and follow him? Will you yet with shameless ingratitude refuse the Cross, sanctified by his suffering? Offer up devoutly the following

Prayer.

SUFFERING Jesus! to what excess did thy impious executioners' cruelty proceed! Beholding thee faint under the Cross, apprehensive of thy death before they could complete their bloody intentions, they compel Simon to carry the Cross, that thou mightest expire on it in the most exquisite torture. But why should I complain of the cruelty of the Jews, or the repugnance of Simon? Have I not again crucified thee by my crimes? Have I not suffered with fretful impatience the light afflictions with which thy mercy visited me? Inspire me now, my Jesus, to detest and deplore my sinful impatience, my ungrateful murmurs, and let me with all my heart cheerfully accompany thee to Mount Calvary: let me live in thee, and die in thee. Amen, Jesus.

*Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c.
Glory, &c.*

Jesus Christ crucified, have mercy on us !

The outrageous Jews, when fainting Jesus fell,
Simon to bear his cross they did compel :
Afflictions bear like Job most patiently,
And follow the Lamb with great humility.

THE SIXTH STATION.

Veronica presents a Handkerchief to Christ.

V. We adore thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, and bless thee.

R. Because by thy holy Cross thou hast redeemed the world.

The Mystery.

THE sixth Station represents the place where the pious Veronica, compassionating our agonizing Redeemer, beholding his sacred face livid with blows, and covered with blood and sweat, presents a handkerchief, with which Jesus wipes his face.

Consider the heroic piety of this devout woman, who is not intimidated by the presence of the executioners, or the clamors of the Jews, and the tender acknowledgment of Jesus. Reflect here, that though you cannot personally discharge the debt of humanity to your Saviour, you can discharge it to his suffering members, the poor. Though you cannot wipe away the blood and sweat from the face of Jesus, you can wipe away the tear of wretchedness from the eye of misery. Examine, then, what returns you have made for the singular graces and favors your bountiful Jesus bestowed on you ; and conscious of your ingratitude, address your injured Saviour in the following

Prayer.

JESUS, grant me tears to weep my ingratitude. How often have I, infatuated wretch, turned my eyes from thee and thy sufferings, to fix them on the world and its vanities ! Let me henceforth be thine without division. Stamp thy image on my soul, that it may never admit another love. Take possession of my heart on earth, that my soul may take eternal possession of thee in glory. Amen, Jesus.

Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c. Glory, &c.

Jesus Christ crucified, have mercy on us !

Veronica, who when our Lord did
see,
A handkerchief present to him did she :

My good Lord by looks that were divine,
Has left his countenance on the same behind.

THE SEVENTH STATION.

Jesus falls under the Cross the second time.

V. We adore thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, and bless thee.

R. Because by thy holy Cross thou hast redeemed the world.

The Mystery.

THE seventh Station represents the gate of Jerusalem, called the Gate of Judgment, at the entrance of which our Saviour, through anguish and weakness, falls to the ground. He is compelled by blows and blasphemies to rise.

Consider your Jesus prostrate on the earth, bruised by his fall, and ignominiously treated by an ungrateful rabble. Reflect that your self-love and pride of preference were the cause of this humiliation. Implore, then, grace to detest sincerely your haughty spirit and proud disposition. It was your reiterated sins which again pressed him to the ground. Will you then sin again, and add to the afflictions of your gracious Saviour?

Prayer.

 MOST Holy Redeemer! treated with the utmost contempt, deprived of fame and honor; led out to punishment; through excess of torments and the weakness of thy delicate and mangled body, thou didst fall a second time to the earth. What impious hand has prostrated thee? Alas, my Jesus, I am that impious, that sacrilegious offender: my ambitious pride, my haughty indignation, my contempt of others, humbled thee to the earth. Banish forever from my mind the unhappy spirit of pride. Teach my heart the doctrine of humility, so that, detesting pride, vain-glory, and human respect, I may forever be united with thee, my meek and humble Jesus. Amen.

Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c. Glory, &c.

Jesus Christ crucified, have mercy on us!

At Jerusalem's gate he fell once more ;
To save our souls he suffered sore ;
For his great mercy let us always call,
Since our vain pride has caused his great downfall.

THE EIGHTH STATION.

Christ consoles the Women of Jerusalem who wept over him.

V. We adore thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, and bless thee.

R. Because by thy holy Cross thou hast redeemed the world.

The Mystery.

HIS Station represents the place where several devout women meeting Jesus, and beholding him wounded, and bathed in his blood, shed tears of compassion over him.

Consider the excessive love of Jesus, who, though languishing and half dead through the multitude of his torments, is nevertheless attentive to console the women who wept over him. They merited that tender consolation from the mouth of Jesus, "Weep not over me, but over yourselves and your children." Weep for your sins, the sources of my affliction. Yes, O my soul! I will obey my suffering Lord, and pour out tears of compunction. Nothing more eloquent than the voice of those tears which flow from the horror of our sins. Address him in the following

Prayer.

QUEST JESUS, only-begotten Son of the Father! who will give water to my head, and a fountain of tears to my eyes, that I may day and night weep and lament my sins? I humbly beseech thee by those tears of blood thou didst shed for me, to soften my flinty bosom, that tears may plentifully flow from my eyes, and contrition rend my heart, this hardened heart, to cancel my crimes and render me secure in the day of wrath and examination, when thou wilt come to judge the living and the dead, and demand a rigorous account of thy blood. Amen, Jesus.

Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c. Glory, &c.

Jesus Christ crucified, have mercy on us!

With tears of love the women they did weep,
Compassionating our Redeemer sweet:

Weep for your sins which caused him here to be :
O Lamb of God, your mercy show to me.

THE NINTH STATION.

Jesus falls under the Cross the third time.

V. We adore thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, and bless thee.

R. Because by thy holy Cross thou hast redeemed the world.

The Mystery.

HIS Station represents the foot of Mount Calvary, where Jesus Christ, quite destitute of strength, falls a third time to the ground. The anguish of his wounds is renewed.

Consider here the many injuries and blasphemous derisions thrown out against Christ, to compel him to rise and hasten to the place of execution, that his inveterate enemies might enjoy the savage satisfaction of beholding him expire on the Cross. Consider that by your sins you daily hurry him to the place of execution. Approach him in thought to the foot of Mount Calvary, and cry out against the accursed weight of sin that prostrated Jesus, and had long since buried thee in the flames of hell, if his mercy and the merits of his passion had not preserved thee.

Prayer.

CLEMENT JESUS! I return thee infinite thanks, for not permitting me, ungrateful sinner, as thou hast permitted thousands less criminal, to die in their sins—I, who have added torments to thy torments, by heaping sin on sin. Kindle in my soul the fire of charity, fan it with thy continual grace into perseverance, until, delivered from the body of this death, I can enjoy the liberty of the children of God and thy co-heirs. Amen, Jesus.

Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c. Glory, &c.

Jesus Christ crucified, have mercy on us !

The third time he fell was at Mount Calvary ;
Black and bruised and sorely scourged was he :

O gracious Lord, you suffered all for
me,
To save my soul from endless misery.

THE TENTH STATION.

Jesus is stripped of his Garments, and offered Vinegar and Gall.

V. We adore thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, and bless thee.

R. Because by thy holy Cross thou hast redeemed the world.

The Mystery.

HIS Station represents how our Lord Jesus Christ ascended Mount Calvary, and was by his inhuman executioners stripped of his garments. The skin and congealed blood are torn off with them, and his wounds renewed.

Consider the confusion of the modest Lamb, exposed naked to the contempt and derision of an insulting rabble. They present him with vinegar and gall for a refreshment. Condemn here that delicacy of taste, that sensual indulgence, with which you flatter your sinful body. Pray here for the spirit of Christian mortification. Think how happy you would die, if, stripped of the world and its attachments, you could expire covered with the blood and agony of Jesus.

Prayer.

UFFERING JESUS! I behold thee stripped of thy garments, thy old wounds renewed, and new ones added to the old. I behold thee naked in the presence of thousands, exposed to the inclemency of the weather; cold, trembling from head to foot, insulted by the blasphemous derisions of the spectators. Strip, O mangled Lamb of God! my heart of the world and its deceitful affections. Divest my soul of its habits of sensual indulgence. Embitter the poisoned cup of pleasure, that I may dash it with contempt from my lips, and through Christian mortification arrive at thy never-fading glory. Amen, Jesus.

*Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c.
Glory, &c.*

Jesus Christ crucified, have mercy on us!

How cruel it was to view my Lord indeed !
I think the Queen of Angels' heart did bleed
To see her Son stripp'd naked to her view,
And exposed to that sad bloody crew.

THE ELEVENTH STATION.

Christ is nailed to the Cross.

V. We adore thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, and bless thee.

R. Because by thy holy Cross thou hast redeemed the world.

The Mystery.

HIS Station represents the place where Jesus Christ, in the presence of his afflicted Mother, is stretched on the Cross, and nailed to it. How insufferable the torture!—the nerves and sinews are rent by the nails.

Consider the exceeding desolation, the anguish of the tender Mother, eye-witness of this inhuman punishment of her beloved Jesus. Generously resolve then to crucify your criminal desires, and nail your sins to the wood of the cross. Contemplate the suffering resignation of the Son of God to the will of his Father, while you are impatient in trifling afflictions, in trivial disappointments. Purpose henceforth to embrace your cross with ready resignation to the will of God.

Prayer.

PATIENT JESUS! meek Lamb of God! who promised, "When I shall be exalted from earth I will draw all things to myself," attract my heart to thee, and nail it to the Cross. I now renounce and detest my past impatience. Let me crucify my flesh with its concupiscence and vices. Here burn, here cut, but spare me for eternity. I throw myself into the arms of thy mercy. Thy will be done in all things. Grant me resignation, grant me thy love, I desire no more. Amen, Jesus.

Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c. Glory, &c.

Jesus Christ crucified, have mercy on us!

You Christian dames, now join with Mary's grief;
Heaven and earth, I see, denies relief;

Her heart was pierced with grief to
see
Her loving Jesus nailed unto a tree.

THE TWELFTH STATION.

Christ is exalted on the Cross and dies.

V. We adore thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, and bless thee.

R. Because by thy holy Cross thou hast redeemed the world.

The Mystery.

HIS Station represents the place where Jesus Christ was publicly exalted on the Cross, between two robbers, who for their enormous crimes were executed with the innocent Lamb.

Consider here the confusion of your Saviour, exposed naked to the profane view of a blasphemous multitude. Imagine yourself at the foot of the Cross. Behold that sacred body streaming blood from every part. Contemplate the divine countenance pale and languid, the heart throbbing in the last pangs of agony, the soul on the point of separation: yet charity triumphs over his agony; his last prayers petition forgiveness for his enemies. "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." His clemency is equally extended to the penitent thief: "This day shalt thou be with me in Paradise." He recommends in his last moments his disconsolate Mother to his beloved St. John. He recommends his soul to his heavenly Father, and bowing down his submissive, obedient head, resigns his spirit. Turn your eyes on the naked bloody portrait of charity. Number his wounds. Wash them with tears of sympathizing love. Behold the arms extended to embrace you. Love of Jesus! you die to deliver us from eternal captivity.

Prayer.

 SUFFERING Son of God! I now behold thee in the last convulsive pangs of death,—thy veins opened, thy sinews torn, thy hands and feet, O Fountain of Paradise! distilling blood. I acknowledge, charitable Jesus, that my reiterated offences have been thy merciless executioners, the cause of thy bitter sufferings and death. Yet, God of mercy, look on my sinful soul, bathe it in thy precious blood! Let me die to the vanity of the world, and renounce its false pleasures. Thou didst pray, my Jesus, for thy enemies. I forgive mine. I embrace them in the bowels of thy charity. I bury my resentment in thy wounds. Shelter me in the day of wrath in the sanctuary of thy side. Let me live, let me die in my crucified Jesus. Amen.

Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c., Glory, &c.

Jesus Christ crucified, have mercy on us !

Behold the streams of blood from every part,
And the sharp lance that pierced his sacred heart ;
Exposed and naked he is stretched on high,
For our sins, on the Mount of Calvary.

THE THIRTEENTH STATION.

Christ is taken down from the Cross.

V. We adore thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, and bless thee.

R. Because by thy holy Cross thou hast redeemed the world.

The Mystery.

HIS Station represents the place where Christ's most sacred body was taken down from the Cross by Joseph and Nicodemus, and laid in the bosom of his weeping Mother.

Consider the sighs and tears of the Virgin Mother, with what pangs she embraced the bloody remains of her beloved Jesus. Here unite your tears with those of the disconsolate Mother. Reflect, that your Jesus would not descend from the Cross, until he consummated the work of redemption; and that at his departure from, as well as at his entrance into, the world, he would be placed in the bosom of his beloved Mother. Hence learn constancy in your pious resolutions! cleave to the standard of the Cross. Consider with what purity that soul should be adorned, which receives in the blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist Christ's most sacred body and blood.

Prayer.

T length, O blessed Virgin ! Mother of sorrow ! thou art permitted to embrace thy beloved Son. But alas ! the fruit of thy immaculate womb is all over mangled, in one continued wound. Yes, O Lord ! the infernal fury of the Jews has at length triumphed ; yet we renew their barbarity, crucifying thee by our sins, inflicting new wounds. Most afflicted Mother of my Redeemer, I conjure thee by the pains and torments thou sufferedst in the common cause of Salvation, to obtain for me, by thy powerful intercession, pardon of my sins, and grace to weep, with a sympathizing feeling, thine and thy Son's afflictions. As often as I appear at the holy Sacrifice of the Mass, let me embrace thee, my Jesus, in the bosom of my heart. May I worthily receive thee as the sacred pledge of my salvation. Amen, Jesus.

Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c. Glory, &c.

Jesus Christ crucified, have mercy on us !

When from the Cross they took the holy Lamb,
His Mother cries, My son, I am undone ;
My child is dead, you virgins join with
 me,
And to lament my love's sad destiny.

THE FOURTEENTH STATION.

Christ is laid in the Holy Sepulchre.

V. We adore thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, and bless thee.

R. Because by thy holy Cross thou hast redeemed the world.

The Mystery.

HIS Station represents Christ's Sepulchre, where his blessed body was laid with piety and devotion.

Consider the emotions of the Virgin—her eyes streaming with tears, her bosom heaving with sighs. What melancholy, what wistful looks she cast on that monument where the treasure of her soul, her Jesus, her all lay entombed! Here lament your want of contrition for your sins, and humbly adore your deceased Lord, who, poor even in death, is buried in another's tomb. Blush at your dependence on the world, and the eager solicitude with which you labor to grasp its perishable advantages. Despise henceforth the world, lest you perish with it.

Prayer.

GRACIOUS Jesus, for my salvation thou performedst the painful journey of the Cross. Let me press the footsteps marked by thee, gracious Redeemer—the paths which, through the thorns of life, conduct to the heavenly Jerusalem. Would that thou wert entombed in my heart, that being united to thee, I might rise to a new life of grace, and persevere to the end. Grant me in my last moments to receive thy precious Body as the pledge of immortal life. Let my last words be Jesus and Mary; my last breath be united to thy last breath on the Cross; that with a lively faith, a firm hope, and ardent love, I may die with thee and for thee; that I may reign with thee forever and ever. Amen, Jesus.

Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c. Glory, &c.

Jesus Christ crucified, have mercy on us!

You pious Christians, raise your voices, raise,
And join with me to sing your Saviour's
praise;

Who died for us, and spilt his blood
most free,
To save our souls from endless misery.

COMPASSIONATE Jesus ! behold with eyes of mercy this devotion I have endeavored to perform, in honor of thy bitter passion and death, in order to obtain remission of my sins, and the pains incurred by them. Accept of it for the salvation of the living and the eternal repose of the faithful departed, particularly for those for whom I directed it. Do not, my Jesus, suffer the ineffable price of thy blood to be fruitless, nor my miserable soul, ransomed by it, to perish. The voice of thy blood is louder for mercy than my crimes for vengeance. Have mercy, then, O Lord ! have mercy, and spare me for thy mer-cy's sake ! Amen, Jesus.

The Rosary of the Blessed Virgin.

THE JOYFUL MYSTERIES,

Assigned for Mondays and Thursdays throughout the Year, the Sundays of Advent, and after Epiphany till Lent.

IN the name of the Father,
and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

V. Hail, Mary, full of grace, our Lord is with thee.

R. Blessed art thou amongst women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

V. Thou, O Lord, wilt open my lips.

R. And my tongue shall announce thy praise.

V. Incline unto my aid, O God.

R. O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

Alleluia, or praise be to thee, O Lord!
King of eternal glory.

THE FIRST MYSTERY.

The Annunciation.

The Meditation.

LET us contemplate in this mystery, how the Angel Gabriel saluted our blessed Lady with the title Full of Grace, and declared unto her the incarnation of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Then say, Our Father, once, Hail Mary, ten times. Glory be to the Father, once.

The Prayer.

 HOLY Mary, Queen of Virgins, by the most high mystery of the incarnation of thy beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, by which our salvation was so happily begun; obtain for us, by thy intercession, light to know this so great benefit which he hath bestowed upon us, vouchsafing in it to make himself our brother, and thee, his own most beloved Mother, our Mother also. Amen.

THE SECOND MYSTERY.

The Visitation.

The Meditation.

LET us contemplate in this mystery, how the blessed Virgin Mary, understanding from the Angel that her cousin, St. Elizabeth, had conceived, went with haste into the mountains of Judea to visit her, and remained with her three months.

Our Father, &c., &c., as before.

The Prayer.

HOLY Virgin, most spotless mirror of humility, by that exceeding charity which moved thee to visit thy holy cousin, St. Elizabeth, obtain for us, by thy intercession, that our hearts may be so visited by thy most holy Son, that being free from all sin, we may praise him and give him thanks forever. Amen.

THE THIRD MYSTERY.

The Nativity.

The Meditation.

LET us contemplate in this mystery, how the blessed Virgin Mary, when the time of her delivery was come, brought forth our Redeemer Christ Jesus, at midnight, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for him in the inns at Bethlehem.

Our Father, &c., &c.

The Prayer.

 MOST pure Mother of God, by thy virginal and most joyful delivery, by which thou gavest unto the world thy Son our Saviour; we beseech thee, obtain for us, by thy intercession, grace to lead such pure and holy lives in this world, that we may worthily sing without ceasing, both by day and night, the mercies of thy Son, and his benefits to us by thee. Amen.

THE FOURTH MYSTERY.

The Presentation.

The Meditation.

LET us contemplate in this mystery, how the most blessed Virgin Mary, on the day of her purification, presented the child Jesus in the temple, where holy Simeon, giving thanks to God with great devotion, received him into his arms.

Our Father, &c., &c.

The Prayer.

 HOLY Virgin and admirable Mistress and Pattern of Obedience, who didst present in the temple the Lord of the temple ; obtain for us, of thy beloved Son, that with holy Simeon and devout Anne, we may praise and glorify him forever. Amen.

THE FIFTH MYSTERY.

The Finding in the Temple.

The Meditation.

LET us contemplate in this mystery, how the blessed Virgin Mary, having lost her beloved Son in Jerusalem, sought him for the space of three days, and at length found him the fourth day in the temple, in the midst of the doctors, disputing with them, being then but twelve years old.

Our Father, &c., &c.

The Prayer.

OST blessed Virgin, more than Martyr in thy sufferings, and yet the comfort of such as are afflicted; by that unspeakable joy, where-with thy soul was ravished in finding thy beloved Son in the temple, in the midst of the doctors, disputing with them; obtain of him for us so to seek him and to find him in the holy Catholic Church that we may never be separated from him. Amen.

Salve Regina.

AIL! holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our Life, our Sweetness, and our Hope; to thee do we cry, poor banished sons of Eve; to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears: turn then, most gracious advocate, thy eyes of mercy towards us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O most clement, most pious, and most sweet Virgin Mary.

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

HEAR, O merciful God, the prayers of thy servants, that we who meet together in the society of the most holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mother of God, may, through her intercession, be delivered by thee from the dangers that continually hang over us. Amen.

O GOD, whose only-begotten Son, by his life, death, and resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life; grant, we beseech thee, that meditating upon those mysteries, in the most holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain, and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord.

The Dolorous or Sorrowful Mysteries.

For Tuesdays and Fridays throughout the Year, and the Sundays in Lent.

THE FIRST MYSTERY.

The Prayer and Bloody sweat of our Blessed Saviour in the Garden.

The Meditation.

LET us contemplate in this mystery, how our Lord Jesus was so afflicted for us in the garden of Gethsemane, that his body was bathed in a bloody sweat, which ran trickling down in great drops to the ground.

Our Father, &c., once. Hail Mary, ten times. Glory be to the Father, &c., once.

The Prayer.

MOST holy Virgin, more than Martyr, by that ardent prayer which thy beloved Son poured forth unto his Father in the garden, vouchsafe to intercede for us, that our passions being reduced to the obedience of reason, we may always and in all things conform and subject ourselves to the will of God. Amen.

THE SECOND MYSTERY.

The Scourging of Jesus at the Pillar.

The Meditation.

LET us contemplate in this mystery, how our Lord Jesus Christ was most cruelly scourged in Pilate's house, the number of stripes they gave him being above five thousand, as it was revealed to St. Bridget.

Our Father, &c., &c.

The Prayer.

Q MOTHER of God, overflowing Fountain of patience, by those stripes thy only and most beloved Son vouchsafed to suffer for us, obtain of him for us grace, that we may know how to mortify our rebellious senses, and cut off all occasions of sinning with that sword of grief and compassion which pierced thy most tender soul. Amen.

THE THIRD MYSTERY.

The Crowning of Jesus with Thorns.

The Meditation.

LET us contemplate in this mystery, how those cruel ministers of Satan plaited a crown of sharp thorns, and most cruelly pressed it on the most sacred head of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Our Father, &c., &c.

The Prayer.

Q MOTHER of our eternal Prince and King of Glory, by those sharp thorns wherewith his most holy head was pierced, we beseech thee, that, by thy intercession, we may be delivered here from all motions of pride, and in the day of Judgment from that confusion which our sins deserve. Amen.

THE FOURTH MYSTERY.

Jesus Carrying his Cross.

The Meditation.

LET us contemplate in this mystery, how our Lord Jesus Christ (being sentenced to die) bore with great patience the Cross which was laid upon him for his greater torment and ignominy.

Our Father, &c., &c.

The Prayer.

HOLY Virgin, example of patience, by the most painful carrying of the Cross, on which thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ bore the heavy weight of our sins, obtain for us of him, by thy intercession, courage and strength to follow his steps, and bear our cross after him to the end of our lives. Amen.

THE FIFTH MYSTERY.

The Crucifixion.

The Meditation.

LET us contemplate in this mystery, how our Lord Jesus Christ being come to Mount Calvary, was stripped of his clothes, and his hands and feet most cruelly nailed to the Cross, in the presence of his most afflicted Mother.

Our Father, &c., &c.

The Prayer.

HOLY Mary, Mother of God, as the body of thy beloved Son was for us extended on the Cross, so may our desires be daily more and more stretched out in his service, and our hearts wounded with compassion of his most bitter passion; and thou, O most blessed Virgin, vouchsafe to negotiate for and with us the work of our salvation, by thy powerful intercession. Amen.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

Hail holy Queen, &c. With the verse and prayer as before.

THE GLORIOUS MYSTERIES.

For Wednesdays and Saturdays throughout the year ; and Sundays after Easter until Advent.

THE FIRST MYSTERY.

The Resurrection.

The Meditation.

ET us contemplate in this mystery, how our Lord Jesus Christ, triumphing gloriously over death, rose again the third day, immortal and impassible.

Our Father, &c., once. Hail Mary, ten times. Glory be to the Father, &c., once.

The Prayer.

LORIOUS Virgin Mary, by that unspeakable joy thou receivedst in the resurrection of thy only beloved Son, we beseech thee, obtain of him for us, that our hearts may never go astray after the false joys of this world, but may be ever and wholly employed in pursuit of the only true and solid joys of heaven. Amen.

THE SECOND MYSTERY.

The Ascension.

The Meditation.

LET us contemplate in this mystery, how our Lord Jesus Christ, forty days after his resurrection, ascended into heaven, attended by angels, in sight of his most holy Mother, and his Apostles and Disciples, to the great admiration of them all.

Our Father, &c., &c., as before.

The Prayer.

O MOTHER of God, comfort of the afflicted, as thy beloved Son, when he ascended into heaven, lifted up his hands, and blessed his Apostles, so vouchsafe, most holy Mother, to lift up thy pure hands to him for us, that we may enjoy the benefit of his blessing here on earth, and hereafter in heaven. Amen.

THE THIRD MYSTERY.

The Descent of the Holy Ghost.

The Meditation.

LET us contemplate in this mystery, how our Lord Jesus Christ, being seated on the right hand of God, sent (as he had promised) the Holy Ghost upon his Apostles, who after he ascended, returning to Jerusalem, continued in prayer and supplication with the blessed Virgin Mary, expecting the performance of his promise.

Our Father, &c., &c.

The Prayer.

SACRED Virgin, tabernacle of the Holy Ghost, we beseech thee, obtain by thy intercession, that this most sweet Comforter, whom thy beloved Son sent down upon his Apostles, filling them thereby with spiritual joy, may teach us in this world the true way of salvation, and make us walk in the paths of virtue and good works. Amen.

THE FOURTH MYSTERY.

The Assumption.

LET us contemplate in this mystery, how the glorious Virgin, twelve years after the resurrection of her Son, passed out of this world unto him, and was by him assumed into heaven, accompanied by the holy angels.

Our Father, &c., &c.

The Prayer.

MOST prudent Virgin, who entering into the heavenly palace didst fill the holy angels with joy, and man with hope ; vouchsafe to intercede for us in the hour of our death, that being free from the illusions and temptations of the devil, we may joyfully and securely pass out of this temporal state to enjoy the happiness of eternal life. Amen.

THE FIFTH MYSTERY.

The Crowning of the Blessed Virgin.

The Meditation.

LET us contemplate in this mystery, how the glorious Virgin Mary was, with great jubilee and exultation of the whole court of Heaven, and particular glory of all the Saints, crowned by her Son with the brightest diadem of glory.

Our Father, &c., &c.

The Prayer.

Q GLORIOUS Queen of all the heavenly citizens, we beseech thee, accept this Rosary, which (as a crown of roses) we offer at thy feet; and grant, most gracious Lady, that by thy intercession our souls may be inflamed with so ardent a desire of seeing thee so gloriously crowned, that it may never die in us, until it shall be changed into the happy fruition of thy blessed sight. Amen.

Hail, holy Queen, &c. With the verse and prayers as before.

The Prayers of St. Bridget.

To be said in honor of the sacred Wounds of our blessed Saviour.

 MOST sweet Lord Jesus Christ, eternal sweetness of those who love thee; and joy, desire, and firm hope of the hopeless; solace of the sorrowful, and most merciful lover of all penitent sinners; who hast said thy delight is to be with the sons of men; for the love of whom thou didst assume human nature in the fulness of time; remember, most sweet Lord Jesus, all those sharp sorrows which did pierce thy sacred soul, from the first instant of thy incarnation, until the time of thy sorrowful passion, preordained from all eternity: remember, O most amiable Saviour, all that bitter anguish thou didst suffer, when at thy last supper thou didst wash the feet of thy Disciples, didst feed them with the sacred banquet of thy precious body and blood, and most sweetly comforting them, didst foretell them thy ensuing passion; after which, going to Mount Olivet, thou saidst, My soul is sorrowful unto death. Remember, I beseech thee, O most sweet Saviour, that bitter grief and anguish which thy sacred soul did suffer when, praying three several times to thy heavenly Father, thou didst sweat water and blood, thou wast betrayed by thy own disciple, apprehended by thy chosen people, accused by false witnesses, unjustly arraigned before three judges, and in thy chosen city, in the Paschal solemnity, in the flourishing age of thy youth, wrongfully condemned, bound, beaten, spurned, spit upon, despoiled of thy garments, and clothed with others in scorn; wast blindfolded, buffeted, spit upon again, bound naked to a pillar, most cruelly scourged, crowned with thorns, struck with a reed, and afflicted with innumerable other torments, pains, and injuries. O my Lord Jesus, by the memory and merit of all that bitter pain and anguish before thou breathedst thy last upon the Cross, vouchsafe to grant me, before my death, true contrition, entire confession, a flowing fountain of tears, full satisfaction and plenary remission of all my sins. Amen.

O most gracious Lord Jesus, be propitious to me a sinner.

Our Father, &c. Hail Mary, &c.

O MOST sweet Lord Jesus, ever-flowing Fountain of heavenly delights, remember, I beseech thee, that grief and sorrow which thou didst suffer when thy cruel enemies, like fierce lions, with furious and dreadful looks, compassing thee round about, did tear off thy hair, spit upon thy sacred face, scratch, buffet thee, and with all manner of unheard-of injuries, outrages, and torments, did most cruelly and basely blaspheme, scorn, and affront thee. O most sweet Lord Jesus, by all those most barbarous and inhuman outrages which thou didst suffer, vouchsafe to deliver me from all my enemies, visible and invisible, that, protected under the shadow of thy wings, I may safely arrive at the port of eternal glory. Amen.

O most gracious Lord Jesus Christ, be propitious to me a sinner.

O MOST sweet Lord Jesus, omnipotent Creator and Fabricator of the world and Repairer of mankind, who containest both heaven and earth in thy hand, and whose immensity no bounds can limit: remember, I beseech thee, that bitter pain and anguish which thou didst endure, when the perfidious Jews pierced thy delicate and tender hands and feet with most rough and blunt nails, stretching them forth violently with cords to the holes which they had made in the Cross. Thus they heaped dolours upon dolours, most cruelly disjointing all thy bones, breaking all thy veins, and renewing all thy sacred wounds. O most sweet Jesus, by the memory of all these pains and torments on the Cross, vouchsafe to give me thy fear and love, with perfect charity towards my neighbor. Amen.

O most pious Lord Jesus, &c.

O MOST sweet Lord Jesus, heavenly Physician of human nature, and eternal King, remember, I beseech thee, all those bitter pains which thou didst endure in thy sacred members, who, being hoisted up upon the Cross with all thy precious body rent and torn, all thy bones being so disjointed that not one remained in its right place; not having from the crown of thy head unto the soles of thy feet any part left whole, so that no dolor could be compared to thine, at which time, being unmindful of thine own torments, thou didst mercifully pray to thy heavenly Father for thy cruel enemies, saying, Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do. O most meek and merciful Lord Jesus, by this thy admirable benignity, goodness, love, and mercy, and by all thy bitter pains and torments, grant that the memory of thy dolorous passion may be to me a most powerful protection of my soul and body against all the deceits, temptations, and molestations of the devils, my cruel enemies. Amen.

O most merciful Lord Jesus, &c.

O MOST sweet Lord Jesus Christ, Mirror of eternal brightness, and wisdom of the omnipotent Father, remember the bitter grief and sorrow thy sacred soul did feel, when beholding in the clear mirror of thy divine presence the predestination of the elect, who through the merits of thy most wholesome passion were to be saved, and the reprobation of the wicked, who for their ingratitude were to be damned, and the abyss of thy immense mercy, by which thou didst commiserate and shed tears for us miserable, lost, forlorn sinners : and chiefly by that mercy thou didst show to the thief upon the Cross, saying to him, This day thou shalt be with me in Paradise. I beseech thee, O most sweet Lord Jesus, my Lord and my God, to show the like mercy to me, now, and at the hour of my death. Amen.

O most sweet Lord Jesus, &c.

O MOST sweet Lord Jesus, omnipotent King and most amiable friend, remember the bitter grief and sorrow thy sacred soul did suffer, when being forsaken by all thy friends and acquaintance, thou didst hang naked, rent, and torn upon the Cross, not having any to comfort or compassionate thee, but only the blessed Virgin Mary, thy Mother, who standing under the Cross, in the bitterness of her soul, accompanied thee in all thy torments, unto whom thou didst commend thy beloved disciple St. John in thy place, saying unto her, Woman, behold thy son! and after to that disciple, Behold thy Mother! O most sweet Lord Jesus, by that sword which did then transpierce her sacred soul, and by the tender love and compassion wherewith thou didst behold the sad distress of thy sorrowful Mother, have pity and compassion on me, I beseech thee, my dearest Lord, and mercifully help, comfort, succor, and assist me in all my tribulations, adversities, necessities, sorrows, and sufferings, both spiritual and corporal. Amen.

O most blessed Lord Jesus, &c.

O MOST sweet and blessed Lord Jesus, crown of joy, treasure of felicity, sweet source of consolation, and unexhausted fountain of mercy; who, hanging on the Cross, out of the most inflamed desire thou hadst of the salvation of our souls, saidst, I thirst for the redemption of mankind. O dearest Lord, by this thy ardent charity, inflame our hearts with thy holy love, enkindle our desires to accomplish diligently all good works, and wholly extinguish in me the heat of all evil concupiscence, and worldly affections. Amen.

O most excellent Lord Jesus, &c.

O MOST sweet Lord Jesus, the true light of those that believe in thee, suavity of our hearts, and sovereign solace of all faithful souls, by that bitter gall and vinegar thou didst taste upon the Cross at the hour of thy death, grant us, miserable sinners, grace worthily to receive at all times (and particularly at the hour of our death) thy most precious body and blood, that by the virtue of this divine banquet, and all other salutary sacraments, we may be preserved from all evils, sins, and punishments, and, replenished with all joy, securely appear in thy divine presence. Amen.

O most sweet Lord Jesus, &c.

O MOST sweet Lord Jesus, King of Virtues, and source of all delights, remember, I beseech thee, that excessive pain and anguish thou didst endure for us sinners on the Cross, when through the bitterness of death, and the impious blasphemies, derisions, scorns, and reproaches of the Jews, with a loud voice and weeping eyes, thou didst cry to thy heavenly Father, with this sad complaint, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? O most sweet Lord Jesus, by this thy bitter torment, sorrow, grief, and anguish, vouchsafe, I beseech thee, to have pity on me, and succor me in all my sorrows, sufferances, and tribulations, and particularly at the hour of my death: O then, my dearest Lord and my God, vouchsafe to assist and succor me, and do not forsake me, I beseech thee. Amen.

O most gracious Lord Jesus, &c.

O MOST sacred Lord Jesus, Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end of all things, and mirror of all virtues, remember how, from the crown of thy head to thy feet, thou wert immersed in the deluge of thy dolorous passion, for the love of us vile sinners. O my most sweet Lord Jesus, by the length, breadth, greatness, and multitude of thy most sacred wounds, take from me the love of the world ; and teach me, by true and perfect charity, always to keep thy holy laws and commandments. Amen.

O most wise Lord Jesus, &c.

O MOST sweet Lord Jesus, sovereign goodness, eternal beatitude of thy Saints, and most profound abyss of mercy ! by the deep and dolorous wounds which did not only transpierce thy sacred flesh, but even thy bowels, and the marrow of thy bones, be merciful to me a sinner, who now am drowned in my sins and iniquities, and hide me in thy sacred wounds from the face of thy wrath, until thy indignation be past away and appeased. Amen.

O most potent Lord Jesus, &c.

O MOST sweet Lord Jesus, mirror of truth, pledge of union, and bond of charity ; remember the innumerable multitude of all those painful wounds wherewith thou wast covered from head to foot; all thy holy body most cruelly rent and torn by the impious, and dyed with thy most precious blood, all which most dreadful dolours thou didst endure for us vile sinners. O most glorious Lord, engrave these thy dolours deeply in my heart, and write them there with thy precious blood, that in them I may always read thy love and dolours, so that the memory of thy painful passion may daily be renewed in me, and my love increased towards thee, and I remain perpetually thankful to thy immense charity to the last period of my life, until I come to enjoy thee my only dear Lord, and most desired treasure, abounding with all joy and felicity; which through thy goodness be pleased to grant, O most sweet Lord Jesus. Amen.

O most noble Jesus, &c.

O MOST sweet Lord Jesus, most victorious Lion, and invincible, triumphant, and immortal King, remember, I beseech thee, all that bitter pain and anguish thou didst endure, when all the forces of thy soul and body failing, bowing down thy sacred head, thou saidst, It is consummated. O dearest Lord, by those thy deadly dolours, have mercy on me at my last passage, when my heart and soul shall be in anguish and anxiety. Amen.

O most noble Lord Jesus, &c.

O MOST sweet Lord Jesus, only-begotten Son of the eternal Father, figure of his substance, splendor of his glory, remember that most earnest recommendation wherewith thou didst commend thy sacred soul to thy omnipotent Father upon the cross, saying, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit; at which time thou didst hang naked upon the Cross, with thy most holy body all over wounded, rent, and torn, pouring forth streams of most precious blood, with thy face pale and wan, thy head crowned with thorns, thy arms extended, thy hands nailed, thy veins broken, thy bones disjoined, thy bowels of mercy opened, thine eyes weeping and obscured, thy voice failing, thy palate thirsting, and thy whole heart broken. O my most merciful Lord, unto all those cruel pains and torments didst thou deliver thy most sacred, innocent, tender, pure, and precious body, for the redemption of us most wretched, vile, and miserable sinners, and in this manner renderedst thy sweet soul to thy celestial Father, by which most precious and innocent death of thine, and by the virtue of the holy Cross, I beseech thee, O Father of mercy, and omnipotent King of Saints, to give me grace to resist the world, the flesh, and the devil, that being dead to all terrestrial things, I may live to thee alone, and have the happiness to be received by thee at my last passage, when this miserable exile shall be ended. Amen.

O most pious Lord Jesus, &c.

O MOST sweet Lord Jesus, most flourishing, true, and faithful vine, remember the superabundant effusion of thy precious blood, which thou didst pour forth so plenteously from all parts of thy holy body, like a cluster of pressed grapes, when thou thyself alone didst tread the wine-press on the Cross, and out of thy pierced side didst give us water and wine to drink, not leaving so much as one drop, being then like a bundle of pure and precious myrrh : thou wast hanged on high upon the Cross, at which time the marrow of thy bones dried up, and thy most delicate and tender body wholly fainted and failed. O most sweet Lord Jesus, by this most liberal effusion of thy precious blood, by all the sacred wounds of thy bitter passion, vouchsafe to wound my heart with that tender love wherewith the holy heart of thy most blessed Mother was wounded under the Cross, that tears of love and penance may be my bread day and night, and convert me wholly to thee, that my heart may be thy perpetual habitation, my conversation pleasing and acceptable to thy Divine Majesty, and the end of my life so precious in thy sight, that having finished this mortal pilgrimage, I may be admitted into immortal glory: to praise and glorify thee, my sovereign Lord, in the sweet society of the holy angels and saints to all eternity. Amen.

PIOUS VII. GRANTED A PLENARY INDULGENCE to all who shall say, with contrite heart, the following prayer, before a crucifix, after receiving Holy Communion, praying for the wants of the Church. (The crucifix on your Beads or on the altar will do.)

Prayer.

Look down upon me, good and gentle Jesus, while before Thy face I humbly kneel, and with burning soul pray and beseech Thee to fix deep in my heart lively sentiments of faith, hope, and charity, true contrition for my sins, and firm purpose of amendment; the while I contemplate with great love and tender pity Thy five wounds, pondering over them within me, whilst I call to mind the words which David, Thy prophet, said of Thee, my Jesus: "They pierced my hands and my feet; they numbered all my bones."

Say five Our Fathers and five Hail Marys for the wants of the Holy Church.

REATOR of the radiant light,
Fountain of bliss, essential sight,
Emitting splendor's orient beam,
The world's creation to proclaim.

Canticum B. Mariæ Virginis.

The Song of the Blessed Virgin Mary, called the Magnificat.

LUKE i.

MAGNIFICAT * anima mea
Dominum: Et exultavit spiritus meus * in Deo salutari meo.

Quia respexit humilita-tem ancillæ suæ; * ecce enim ex hoc beatam me dicent omnes generationes.

Quia fecit mihi magna, qui potens est: * et sanctum nomen ejus.

Et misericordia ejus a progenie in progenies * timentibus eum.

Fecit potentiam in brachio suo; *
dispersit superbos mente cordis sui.

Deposuit potentes de sede, * et exaltavit humiles.

Esurientes implevit bonis; * et divites dimisit inanes.

Suscepit Israel puerum suum, * re-cordatus misericordiæ suæ.

LUKE i.

Y soul doth magnify the Lord :

And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

Because he hath regarded the humility of his handmaid : for behold from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath done great things to me : and holy is his name.

And his mercy is from generation to generation, to them that fear him.

He hath showed might in his arm : he hath scattered the proud in the conceit of their heart :

He hath put down the mighty from their seat, and hath exalted the humble.

He hath filled the hungry with good things : and the rich he hath sent away empty.

He hath received Israel his servant, being mindful of his mercy.

Sicut locutus est ad patres nostros, *
Abraham et semini ejus in sæcula.

From Trinity Sunday until Advent.

HAIL, O Queen, O mother of mercy ; hail, our life, our comfort, and our hope ; we, the banished children of Eve, cry out unto thee. To thee we send up our sighs, groaning and weeping in this vale of tears. Come, then, our advocate, and look upon us with those thy pitying eyes. And after this our banishment, show us Jesus, the blessed fruit of thy womb ; O merciful, O pious, O sweet Virgin Mary !

P. Pray for us, O holy mother of God !

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

P. Let us pray.

rious ways :
How Christ, the world's great king, bestowed
His flesh concealed in human food,
And left mankind the blood that paid
The ransom for the souls he made.

Given from above, and born for man,
From Virgin's womb his life began ;
He lived on earth, and preached to sow
The seeds of heavenly truth below :
Then sealed his mission from above
With strange effects of power and love.
'Twas on that evening when the last,
And most mysterious supper past—
When Christ with his disciples sat,
To close the law with legal meat,
Then to the twelve himself bestowed
With his own hands to be their food.

Verbum caro, panem verum
Verbo carnem efficit :
Fitque sanguis Christi merum,
Et si sensus deficit ;
Ad firmandum cor sincerum
Sola fides sufficit.
Tantum ergo Sacramentum
Veneremur, cernui :
Et antiquum documentum
Novo cedat ritui :
Præstet fides supplementum
Sensuum defectui.
Genitori, Genitoque,
Laus et jubilatio,
Salus, honor, virtus quoque
Sit et benedictio :
Procedenti ab utroque
Compar sit laudatio. Amen.

P. Panem de cœlo præstitisti eis, Alleluia.

R. Omne delectamentum in se habentem. Alleluia.

P. Ora pro nobis, sancta Dei genitrix ;

The Word made flesh for love of man,
By his word turns bread to flesh again;
And wine to blood, unseen by sense,
By virtue of Omnipotence :
And here the faithful rest secure,
Whilst God can vouch, and faith insure.
To this mysterious table now
Our knees, our hearts, and sense we bow :

Let ancient rites resign their place
To nobler elements of grace,
And faith for all defects supply,
Whilst sense is lost in mystery.
To God the Father, born of none,
To Christ, his co-eternal Son,
And Holy Ghost, whose equal rays
From both proceed, one equal praise :
One honor, jubilee, and fame
Forever bless his glorious name. Amen.

P. Thou hast given them bread from heaven. Alleluia.

R. Replenished with all sweetness and delight. Alleluia.

P. Pray for us, O holy mother of God ;

R. Ut digni efficiamur promissionibus Christi.

P. Oremus.

Deus, qui nobis sub sacramento mirabili passionis tuæ memoriam reliquisti; tribue, quæsumus, ita nos corporis et sanguinis tui sacra mysteria venerari, ut redemptionis tuæ fructum in nobis jugiter sentiamus. Qui vivis, &c.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

The Prayer.

O God, who in this wonderful sacrament hast left us a memorial of thy passion; grant us so to reverence the sacred mysteries of thy sacred body and blood, that our souls may be always sensible of the fruit of thy redemption. Who livest, &c.

A PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL.

GLORIOUS St. Michael, prince of the heavenly host, who standest always ready to give assistance to the people of God; who didst fight with the dragon, the old serpent, and didst cast him out of heaven, and now valiantly defendest the Church of God, that the gates of hell may never prevail against her: I earnestly entreat thee to assist me also, in the painful and dangerous conflict which I have to sustain against the same formidable foe. Be with me, O mighty prince! that I may courageously fight, and happily vanquish that proud dragon, whom thou hast, by the divine power, so gloriously overcome, and whom our powerful king, Jesus Christ, has, in our nature, so completely overthrown; to the end that, having triumphed over the enemy of my salvation, I may, with thee, and the holy Angels, praise the clemency of God, who, having refused mercy to the revolted Angels after their fall, has granted repentance and forgiveness to fallen man.

Ejaculatory Prayers.

PROPER TO RAISE THE HEART TO GOD DURING THE DAY, AND TO BE SUGGESTED TO THE DYING TO HELP THEM TO DIE WELL.

1. O my God, I believe in Thee, I hope in Thee, and I love Thee with all my heart.

2. Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts, earth is full of Thy glory. Glory be to the Father, Glory be to the Son, Glory be to the Holy Ghost.

(100 days' Indulgence once a day.)

3. Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, I give you my heart and my soul, (100 days' Indulgence each time.)

4. Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, assist me in my last agony, (100 days' Indulgence each time.)

5. Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, let my soul send forth her last sigh in peace with you to aid me.

(100 days' Indulgence each time.)

6. O Sacrament most holy! O Sacrament divine ! All praise and all thanksgiving be every moment Thine.

(100 days' Indulgence once a day.)

7. Eternal Father ! I offer Thee the Precious Blood of Jesus, in satisfaction for my sins, and for the wants of Holy Church.

(100 days' Indulgence each time.)

8. My Jesus, mercy.

(100 days' Indulgence each time.)

9. May the most just, most high, most adorable will of God be in all things done, and praised, and forever magnified.

(100 days' Indulgence once a day.)

10. Blessed be the Holy and Immaculate Conception of the most Blessed Virgin Mary.

—100 days' Indulgence each time.

11. Sweet heart of Mary, be my salvation.—300 days' Indulgence each time.

12. My Queen ! my Mother ! remember I am thine own. Keep me, guard me, as thy property, thine own possession.—40 days' Indulgence each time it is said during temptation.

13. My sweetest Jesus, be not Thou my Judge but my Saviour.—50 days' Indulgence each time.

14. Incline unto my aid, O God: O Lord, make haste to help me.

15. Lord, save us, lest we perish.

16. My Jesus, would that I had never offended Thee.

17. O God, be merciful to me a sinner.

18. Have mercy on me, O Lord, according to thy great mercy.

19. O God of my salvation, permit not that for a moment of pleasure I should lose an eternity of happiness.

20. My God, my Saviour, remember that Thou art my Father, and forget not that I am thy child.

21. Jesus, meek and humble of heart, have mercy on us.

22. Lord, thou hast created us for Thyself, and we can never be happy without Thee.

23. O my God, grant that I may love Thee as much as Thou willest that I should love Thee.

The Prayer.

LORD JESUS CHRIST, Son of the living God, who,
when thy passion drew nigh,
didst for me, a wretched sinner, fear and grow sad; grant that I may ever direct all my sorrows unto thee, who art the God of my heart; and thou, O Lord, in union of thy passion and sorrow, assist me to bear them with patience, that, by the merits of thy sufferings, they may become profitable to my soul. Amen.

The Ordinary of the Mass.

At sprinkling the Holy Water, before Mass on Sundays, is sung the following Anthem :

PRINKLE me, O Lord, with hyssop, and I shall be cleansed: wash me, and I shall become whiter than snow.

Ps. Have mercy on me, O God, according to thy great mercy.

V. Glory be to, &c.

Anth. Sprinkle me.

The Priest, being returned to the Foot of the Altar, says,

V. Show us, O Lord, thy mercy.

R. And grant us thy salvation.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto thee.

V. May the Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

HEAR us, O holy Lord, Almighty Father, eternal God ! and vouchsafe to send thy holy angel from heaven, to guard, cherish, protect, visit, and defend all that are assembled in this place. through Christ our Lord. Amen.

From Easter to Whitsunday, inclusively, instead of the foregoing Anthem, the following is sung, and to the V. (Ostende nobis), and its R., Et salutare, are added Alleluias.

Anthem.

I SAW water flowing from the right side of the temple, Alleluia : and all to whom the water came, were saved, and they shall say, Alleluia.

Ps. Praise the Lord, because he is good ; because his mercy endureth forever.

Glory, &c.

Preparatory Prayer before Mass.

PROSTRATE in spirit at the foot of thy holy altar, I adore thee, Almighty God! and firmly believe that the Mass, at which I am going to assist, is the sacrifice of the body and blood of thy Son, Christ Jesus. O! grant I may assist thereat with the attention, respect, and awe due to such august mysteries; and that by the merits of the Victim there offered for me, I myself may become an agreeable sacrifice to thee, who livest and reignest with the same Son and Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Holy Mass.

The Priest, at the Foot of the Altar, beginning, saith,

 N the Name of the Father, and of the Son, &c. Amen.

Anth. I will go unto the altar of God.

R. To God, who rejoiceth my youth.

Psalm xlii.

JUDGE me, O God, and distinguish my cause from the nation that is not holy: from the unjust and deceitful man deliver me.

R. Since thou, O God, art my strength, why hast thou rejected me? and why do I go sorrowful whilst the enemy afflicteth me?

P. Send forth thy Light and thy Truth: they have conducted and brought me unto thy holy Mount, and into thy Tabernacle.

R. And I will go unto the altar of God: to God who rejoiceth my youth.

P. I will praise thee on the harp, O God, my God: why art thou sorrowful, O my soul? and why dost thou disturb me?

R. Hope in God, for him will I still praise: he is my God, and the Saviour I look for.

P. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, &c.

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

P. I will go unto the altar of God.

R. To God who rejoiceth my youth.

P. Our help is in the name of the Lord.

R. Who made heaven and earth.

P. I confess to Almighty God, &c.

R. May Almighty God be merciful to thee, and, forgiving thee thy sins, bring thee to everlasting life.

P. Amen.

R. I confess to Almighty God, to the blessed Mary, ever Virgin, blessed Michael the Archangel, blessed John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, to all the saints, and to you, Father, that I have sinned exceedingly in thought, word, and deed, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault. Therefore, I beseech the blessed Mary, ever Virgin, blessed Michael the Archangel, blessed John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, and all the saints, and you, O Father, to pray to the Lord our God for me.

P. May Almighty God be merciful unto you, and, forgiving you your sins, bring you to life everlasting.

R. Amen.

P. May the Almighty and merciful Lord grant us pardon, absolution, and remission of our sins.

R. Amen.

P. O God, thou being turned towards us, wilt enliven us.

R. And thy people will rejoice in thee.

P. Show us, O Lord, thy mercy.

R. And grant us thy salvation.

P. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto thee.

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

The Priest, going to the Altar, says,

TAKE away from us our iniquities, we beseech thee, O Lord, that we may be worthy to enter with pure minds into the Holy of Holies ; through,

&c. Amen.

When come up to the Altar, bowing down, he says,

WE beseech thee, O Lord, by the merits of thy saints, whose relics are here, and of all the saints, that thou wouldst vouchsafe to forgive me all my sins. Amen.

Whilst he reads the Introit, say,

LET the name of the Lord be blessed both now and forever. From the rising to the setting of the sun all praise is due to the name of the Lord.
Who is like the Lord our God, who dwells on high, and looks on all that is humble both in heaven and earth?
Glory be to the Father, &c.

Lord have mercy on us. [three times.]

Christ have mercy on us. [three times.]

 Amen.

Turning towards the people, the Priest salutes them, saying,

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Whilst he reads the Collects, the following may be said :

WE humbly beseech thee, O Almighty and eternal God, mercifully to give ear to the prayers of thy servant, which he offers to thee in the name of thy Church, and in behalf of us thy people: accept them to the honor of thy name, and the good of our souls, and grant us all those blessings which may any way contribute to our salvation: through, &c. Amen.

Whilst the Priest reads the Epistle, say,

BE thou, O Lord, eternally praised and blessed for having communicated thy spirit to the holy prophets and apostles, disclosing to them admirable secrets, redounding to thy glory and our great good. We firmly believe their word, because it is thine. Give us, we beseech thee, the happiness to understand from the Church, by their instructions, what is profitable, and grace to practise the same all our lives.

At the end of the Epistle, the Clerk answers, Thanks be to God.

During the Gradual, or Tract, may be said,

HOW wonderful, O Lord, is thy name through the whole earth! I will bless the Lord at all times: his praise shall be ever in my mouth. Be thou my God and protector; in thee alone I put my trust: O let me never be confounded.

Before the Gospel, say,

CLEANSE my heart and my lips, O Almighty God, who didst cleanse the lips of the prophet Isaiah with a burning coal: and vouchsafe, through thy gracious mercy, so to purify me, that I may worthily attend to thy holy gospel: through Christ our Lord. Amen.

May the Lord be in my heart, and on my lips, that I may worthily and in a becoming manner attend to his gospel. Amen.

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

P. The continuation (or the beginning) of the holy Gospel according to, &c.

R. Glory be to thee, O Lord.

During the Gospel, say,

 BE thou ever adored and praised, O Lord, who, not content to instruct and inform us by thy prophets and apostles, hast even vouchsafed to speak to us by thy only Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, commanding us by a voice from heaven to hear him; grant us, merciful God, the grace to profit by his divine and heavenly doctrine. All that is written of thee, dread Jesus, in thy Gospel, is truth itself; nothing but wisdom in thy actions: power and goodness in thy miracles: light and instruction in thy words. With thee, sacred Redeemer, are the words of eternal life: to whom shall we go but to thee, eternal Fountain of Truth? I firmly believe, O God, all thou teachest: give me only grace to practise what thou commandest, and command what thou pleasest.

At the end of the Gospel, answer,

R. Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Then add with the Priest, in a low voice,

MAY our sins be blotted out, by the words of the gospel.

P. The Lord be with you. R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

At the Offertory say,

O MY God, I sincerely offer myself and all I have to thee, to do and suffer whatever thou commandest or permittest. Receive my offering, and bear with my weakness, I most humbly beseech thee.

Oblation of the Host.

A CCEPT, O holy Father, Almighty and eternal God, this unspotted Host, which I thy unworthy servant offer unto thee, my living and true

God, for my innumerable sins, offences, and negligences, and for all here present; as also for all faithful Christians, both living and dead; that it may avail both me and them unto life everlasting. Amen.

When the Priest puts the Wine and Water into the Chalice.

O GOD, who in creating human nature, hast wonderfully dignified it, and still more wonderfully reformed it, grant that by the mystery of this Water and Wine, we may be made partakers of his divine nature, who vouchsafed to become partaker of our human nature, namely, Jesus Christ our Lord, thy Son, who with thee, in the unity of, &c. Amen.

Oblation of the Chalice.

WE offer unto thee, O Lord, the chalice of salvation, beseeching thy clemency, that it may ascend before thy divine Majesty as a sweet odor, for our salvation, and for that of the whole world. Amen.

When the Priest bows before the Altar.

ACCCEPT us, O Lord, in the spirit of humility, and contrition of heart, and grant that the sacrifice which we offer this day in thy sight, may be pleasing to thee, O Lord God.

When he blesses the Bread and Wine.

COME, O Almighty and eternal God the sanctifier, and bless this sacrifice, prepared for the glory of thy holy name.

Here he blesses the Incense, saying,

MAY the Lord, by the intercession of the blessed St. Michael, the Archangel standing at the right hand of the Altar of Incense, and of all his elect, vouchsafe to bless this incense, and receive it as an odor of sweetness. Through, &c.

Incensing the Bread and Wine, he says,

MAY this Incense, which thou hast blest, O Lord, ascend to thee, and may thy mercy descend upon us.

Incensing the Altar, he says, Ps. cxi.

LET my prayer, O Lord, ascend like incense in thy sight; and let the lifting up of my hands be as an evening sacrifice. Place, O Lord, a guard on my mouth, and a gate of prudence before my lips, that my heart may not wander after words of malice, to seek excuses in sin.

Giving the Censer to the Deacon, he says,

MAY the Lord enkindle within us the fire of his love, and the flame of everlasting charity. Amen.

Washing his Hands, he says, Ps. xxv. 6.

I WILL wash my hands amongst the innocent: and will encompass thy altar, O Lord.

That I may hear the voice of praise :
and publish all thy marvellous works.

Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house, and the place of the habitation of thy glory.

Destroy not my soul with the impious ; and my life with men of bloody minds.

In whose hands are iniquities : their right hand is filled with bribes.

But I have walked in my innocence :
redeem me, and have mercy on me.

My feet have stood in the right path :
in the assembly I will bless thee, O Lord.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

Bowing in the midst of the Altar, he says,

RECEIVE, O holy Trinity, this oblation which we make to thee, in memory of the Passion, Resurrection, and Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ, and in honor of the blessed Mary ever Virgin, the blessed John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, and of all the Saints; that it may be available to their honor and our salvation, and may they vouchsafe to intercede for us in heaven, whose memory we celebrate on earth. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Turning himself towards the People, he says,

BRETHREN, pray that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God the Father Almighty.

R. May the Lord receive the sacrifice from thy hands, to the praise and glory of his name, and to our benefit, and that of his entire holy Church.

At the Secret Prayer, or Prayers, say,

MERCIFULLY hear our prayers, O Lord, and graciously accept this oblation, which we thy servants are making to thee; that as we offer it to the honor of thy name, so it may be to us here the means of obtaining thy grace, and hereafter everlasting happiness. Through, &c.

P. World without end.

R. Amen.

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

P. Lift up your hearts.

R. We have lifted them up to the Lord.

P. Let us give thanks to our Lord God.

R. It is meet and just.

The common Preface on Days which have none proper, and in Masses for the Dead.

IT is truly meet and just, right, and available to salvation, that we should always, and in all places, give thanks to thee, O holy Lord, Father Almighty, eternal God.

* Through Christ our Lord: by whom the angels praise thy Majesty, the dominations adore it, the powers tremble before it, the heavens, the heavenly virtues, and blessed seraphim, with common jubilee glorify it. Together with whom, we beseech thee that we may be admitted to join our humble voices, saying:

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Sabaoth; Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he that comes in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest.

*On Trinity Sunday, and on all other Sundays that have no proper Preface, Vere dignum, &c., as in the preceding Preface, to

* WHO, together with thy only-begotten Son and the Holy Ghost, art one God and one Lord: not in singularity of one Person, but in Trinity of one substance. For what we believe of thy glory, as thou hast revealed, the same we believe of thy Son and of the Holy Ghost, without any difference or distinction. So that in the confession of the true and eternal Deity, we adore a distinction in the Persons, a Unity in the essence, and an Equality in the Majesty. Which the angels and archangels, the cherubim also and seraphim praise, who cease not daily to cry out, with one voice, saying, Holy, &c.

The Canon of the Mass.

WE humbly pray and beseech thee, therefore, most merciful Father, through Jesus Christ thy Son, our Lord, that thou wouldst vouchsafe to accept and bless these Gifts, these Presents, these holy, unspotted Sacrifices, which in the first place we offer thee for thy holy Catholic Church, to which vouchsafe to grant peace; as also to preserve, unite, and govern it throughout the world, together with thy servant N., our Pope,

N. our Bishop, and N., as also all orthodox professors of the Catholic and Apostolic Faith.

COMMEMORATION OF THE LIVING.

BE merciful, O Lord, of thy servants, men and women, N. and N.

He prays awhile in secret for such as he intends to pray for.

AND of all here present, whose faith and devotion is known unto thee, for whom we offer, or who offer up to thee this sacrifice of praise for themselves and friends, for the redemption of their souls, for the health and salvation they hope for, and for which they now pay their vows to thee, the eternal, living, and true God.

Communicating with, and honoring in the first place, the memory of the ever-glorious Virgin Mary, Mother of our Lord and God, Jesus Christ; as also of the blessed Apostles and Martyrs, Peter and Paul, Andrew, James, John,

Thomas, James, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Simon and Thadeus, Linus, Cletus, Clement, Xystus, Cornelius, Cyprian, Laurence, Chrysogonus, John and Paul, Cosmas and Damian, and of all thy Saints; by whose merits and prayers, grant that we may be always defended by the help of thy protection. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

*Spreading his hands over the Oblation,
he says,*

WE therefore beseech thee, O Lord, graciously to accept this oblation of our servitude, as also of thy whole family; dispose our days in thy peace, preserve us from eternal damnation, and rank us in the number of thine Elect, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Which oblation do thou, O God, vouchsafe in all respects to bless, approve, ratify, and accept; that it may be made for us the body and blood of thy most beloved Son Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Who the day before he suffered, took bread into his holy and venerable hands, and with his eyes lifted up towards heaven, giving thanks to thee, God, his Almighty Father; he blessed it, brake, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat ye all of this, FOR THIS IS MY BODY.

Here with the Priest, adore the Sacred Host, and say,

MOST adorable body, I adore thee with all the powers of my soul. O Lord, who hast given thyself entire to us, grant we may become entirely thine. I believe, O Lord, help my unbelief.

Most merciful Saviour, be thou my protector; strengthen and defend me by thy heavenly grace, now, and especially at the hour of my death, sweet Jesus. Amen.

In like manner, after he had supped, taking also this excellent chalice into his holy and venerable hands, giving thee also thanks, he blessed it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and drink ye all of this, for this is the chalice of my blood of the New and Eternal Testament: the Mystery of Faith: which shall be shed for you, and for many, to the remission of sins.

As often as ye do these things ye shall do them in remembrance of me.

Here, also, adore, when the Priest elevates the Chalice, and say,

OST adorable blood! that washeth away all our sins, I adore thee: happy we, could we return our life and blood for thine, O divine Victim! Cleanse, O Jesus! sanctify and preserve our souls to eternal life. Amen.

Wherefore, O Lord, we thy servants, as also thy whole people, calling to mind the blessed passion of the same Christ thy Son our Lord, his resurrection from the dead, and admirable ascension into heaven, offer unto thy most excellent Majesty, of thy gifts bestowed upon us, a pure Host, a holy Host, an unspotted Host, the holy bread of eternal life, and chalice of everlasting salvation.

Upon which vouchsafe to look, with a propitious and serene countenance, and to accept them, as thou wast graciously pleased to accept the gifts of thy just servant Abel, and the sacrifice of our Patriarch Abraham, and that which thy High Priest Melchisedech offered to thee, a holy Sacrifice and unspotted Victim.

We most humbly beseech thee, Almighty God, command these things to be carried by the hands of thy holy angels to thy altar on high, in the sight of thy divine Majesty, that as many as shall partake of the most sacred body and blood of thy Son at this altar, may be filled with every heavenly grace and blessing. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

COMMEMORATION OF THE DEAD.

BE mindful, also, O Lord, of thy servants N. and N., who are gone before us with the sign of faith, and rest in the sleep of peace.

Here particular mention is made of such of the Dead as are to be prayed for.

TO these, O Lord, and to all that sleep in Christ, grant, we beseech thee, a place of refreshment, light, and peace: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Here, striking his Breast, the Priest says,

ALSO to us sinners, thy servants, confiding in the multitude of thy mercies, vouchsafe to grant some part and fellowship with thy holy apostles and martyrs; with John, Stephen, Matthias, Barnabas, Ignatius, Alexander, Marcelline, Peter, Felicitas, Perpe-tua, Agatha, Lucy, Agnes, Cecily, Anastasia, and with all thy saints : into whose company we beseech thee to admit us, not in consideration of our merit, but of thy own gratuitous pardon. Through Christ our Lord.

By whom, O Lord, thou dost always create, sanctify, quicken, bless, and give us all these good things. By him, and with him, and in him is to thee, God the Father Almighty, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, all honor and glory.

P. Forever and ever.

R. Amen.

Let us pray.

BEING instructed by thy saving precepts, and following thy divine directions, we presume to say :

OUR Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name ; thy kingdom come ; thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven ; give us this day our daily bread ; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation.

R. But deliver us from evil.

P. Amen.

Deliver us, we beseech thee, O Lord, from all evils, past, present, and to come: and by the intercession of the blessed and ever-glorious Virgin Mary, Mother of God, and of the holy apostles Peter and Paul, and of Andrew, and of all the saints, mercifully grant peace in our days: that through the assistance of thy mercy we may be always free from sin, and secure from all disturbance. Through the same Jesus Christ, thy Son our Lord, who with thee and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth, God.

P. World without end.

R. Amen.

P. May the peace of the Lord be always with you.

R. And with thy spirit. [At his breaking and putting part of the Host into the Chalice, say], May this mixture and consecration of the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, be to us that receive it effectual to eternal life. Amen.

*Then bowing and striking his Breast,
he says,*

LAMB of God, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us !

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us !

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, give us peace !

*In Masses for the DEAD he says twice,
Give them rest ; and lastly, Eternal rest. The following Prayer is also omitted :*

LORD Jesus Christ, who saidst to thy apostles, I leave you peace, I give you my peace, regard not my sins, but the faith of thy Church ; and grant her that peace and unity which is agreeable to thy will : who livest, &c. Amen.

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, who, according to the will of thy Father, through the co-operation of the Holy Ghost, hast, by thy death, given life to the world; deliver me by this most sacred body and blood from all my iniquities, and from all evils; make me always adhere to thy commandments, and never suffer me to be separated from thee: who livest and reignest with God the Father in the unity of, &c. Amen.

Let not the participation of thy body, O Lord Jesus Christ, which I, though unworthy, presume to receive, turn to my judgment and condemnation; but through thy mercy may it be a safeguard and remedy, both of soul and body. Who with God the Father, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, livest and reignest God forever and ever. Amen.

Taking the Host in his Hands, he says,

I WILL take the bread of heaven, and call upon the name of the Lord.

Striking his Breast, he says thrice,

LORD, I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter under my roof; say but the word, and my soul shall be healed.

Receiving both parts of the Host, he says,

MAY the body of our Lord Jesus Christ preserve my soul to life everlasting. Amen.

Taking the Chalice in his Hand, he says,

WHAT return shall I make the Lord for all he has given to me? I will take the chalice of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord. Praising I will call upon the Lord, and shall be saved from my enemies.

Receiving the Blood of our Saviour, he says,

MAY the blood of our Lord Jesus Christ preserve my soul to everlasting life. Amen.

Taking the first Ablution, he says,

GRANT, O Lord, that what we have taken with our mouth, we may receive with a pure mind: that of a temporal gift it may become to us an eternal remedy.

Taking the second Ablution, he says,

MAY thy Body, O Lord, which I have received, and thy blood which I have drunk, cleave to my bowels: and grant, that no stain of sin may remain in me, who have been fed with this pure and holy sacrament. Who livest, &c. Amen.

When the Priest returns to the Book, and reads the Communion, say,

LET it be now, O Lord, the effect of thy mercy, that we who have been present at these holy mysteries may find the benefit of them in our soul.

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

At the Post Communion say as follows :

WE give thee thanks, O Lord, for thy mercy, in admitting us to have a part in offering this sacrifice to thy holy name ; accept it now to thy glory, and be ever mindful of our weakness, pardon all our defects, and grant our requests : through, &c.

After the Post Communion, is added the following Prayer for the President, &c.

DEFEND also, O Lord, from all adversity thy servant N. our Pope, N. our Bishop, the President of the United States, and all others in authority, together with the people and army committed to his care ; grant peace in our days, and banish all wickedness from thy Church : through, &c.

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

P. Go, you are dismissed, (or) Let us bless the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

In Masses for the Dead.

P. May they rest in peace.

R. Amen.

Bowing before the Altar, the Priest says,

LET the performance of my homage be pleasing to thee, O holy Trinity: and grant that the sacrifice which I, though unworthy, have offered up in the sight of thy Majesty, may be acceptable to thee, and through thy mercy be a propitiation for me, and all those for whom it has been offered. Through, &c.

Turning himself towards the People, he gives them his blessing, saying,

MAY Almighty God, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, bless you.
Amen.

P. Our Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

P. The beginning of the Gospel according to St. John.

R. Glory be to thee, O Lord.

The Gospel according to St. John.

IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. This Word was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him, and without him was made nothing that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men; and the light shineth in darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

He came for a testimony, to give testimony of the light, that all men might believe through him. He was not the light, but was to give testimony of the light. He was the true light, which enlightens every man that cometh into this world. He was in the world; and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. He came to his own, and his own received him not. But to as many as received him, he hath given a power to be made the sons of God, to them who believe in his name. Who are born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but who are born of God. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us. And we have seen his glory, the glory as it were of the only-begotten Son of the Father, full of grace and truth.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost, &c.

Prayers at Mass,

FOR THOSE ABOUT TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION.

Before Mass.

PRAYER TO DIRECT THE INTENTION.

MY God! I offer Thee the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and the Communion which I am about to receive, to obey the precept of our holy mother, the Church, to render Thee the adoration due to Thee; to consecrate my whole being to Thee, my first beginning and last end ; to beg Thee to come and reign in my heart, to apply to my soul the infinite merits of Thy passion and death, and forgive me all my sins. I offer Thee this Communion to obtain all graces necessary for the amendment of my life, to acquire the virtue of ———, and to resist the temptations to which I am most liable to yield. I offer it to Thee, to obtain of Thy mercy final perseverance, and life everlasting, which Thou hast promised to those who worthily receive Thee and nourish their souls with this divine bread. I wish to receive Thee, O my Saviour, for all the intentions in which Thou hast instituted it, uniting myself in spirit with Thy immaculate Virgin Mother, and with all Thy saints, that the ardor of their love, the depth of their devotion, their detachment from all that is not Thee, may atone for my want of all.

I offer this communion, also, O Lord, for our holy Father, the Pope, and for all Thy Church, for the conversion of all sinners and unbelievers, for the preservation of the just in grace, and the deliverance of the souls in purgatory. Let all, O Lord, experience the saving fruits of Thy precious blood, that we may all be united in Thee, and sing Thy praises for all eternity.

At the Confiteor.

ACT OF HUMILITY.

I have sinned, O Lord ; I have violated Thy commandments. What ought to have made me agreeable in Thy eyes, has been employed in making me culpable. My thoughts, my words, my actions, and all that I possess interiorly or exteriorly, ought to be directed to Thy glory. Thou gavest me a being only to love and obey Thee, but alas ! how seldom have I submitted to the duties of obedience, or been faithful to those of love. This I confess and acknowledge to my shame and confusion. I will not seek to justify myself before Thee. Yes, it is through my fault, through my grievous fault, that I have sinned ; this I cannot too often repeat, to pay homage to the truth, and to confound my pride. Thy inspirations, assistance, and grace, have never been wanting to me ; but, alas ! I have slighted them. Thou gavest me an upright heart, and didst engrave on my soul the principles of religion and justice ; but I have misapplied them. My faults have been frequent, multiplied, and even enormous, since they have been sufficiently so to displease Thee. How then, O my God ! shall I dare present myself at the banquet of the elect, and dare partake of the food of angels.

O holy Virgin ! temple of the Word made flesh ! holy John the Baptist, angel of the desert, who prepared the way for the Redeemer of the world ! faithful disciples, who listened to His instructions with so much docility, and who received Him with so lively a faith in this mysterious banquet ! blessed souls, who now possess Him in heaven, and enjoy, without shadow or darkness, all the treasures of His divinity, join me in petitioning for pardon and grace. He will graciously hear your prayers, His mercy itself will interpose and appease His anger.

O my God! that I could but receive Thee into a heart as pure as is that of Thy holy Mother; as penitent as that of David; as tractable as those of Thy disciples; and as fervent as those of the blessed whom Thou hast crowned with diadems of everlasting glory. I know that their affections and sentiments are beyond measure greater than mine; but as I cannot possibly possess them, may I be allowed at least to desire them. Amen.

At the Kyrie.

ACT OF CONTRITION AND AMENDMENT.

O my God! infinite Beauty, boundless Goodness, who shouldst captivate my heart! grant that the bitter regret which I feel for having so long unknown Thee, may blot out my iniquities.

Wretch that I am ! how long have I prized all but Thee. I have done nothing for Thy love, I have not dreaded Thy justice, I have despised Thy graces, I have closed my ears to Thy wounds pleading to me to think of my eternal welfare. My life has been one continued opposition to Thee. Thy Church now raises the angelic chant of joy, but how can I join my voice to hers ? O merciful Jesus ! O God of infinite goodness ! from the depths of my misery I implore Thee : Thou hast never despised a contrite and humble heart, accept mine, which grieves for having offended Thee, and despised Thy goodness.

I detest my sins, not only because they have exposed me to Thy justice, not only because they have deprived me of heaven, but still more because they show my monstrous ingratitude to Thee, my unwearied benefactor, and especially because I have displeased Thee, O infinite beauty, sanctity abhorring the slightest stain of sin, goodness so worthy of our love and all our affections. Accept my repentance, let it be no longer sterile : I now sincerely renounce sin, and resolve in Thy presence never more to relapse, to die rather than offend Thee again by mortal sin. The rest of my life shall be a penance for the past, and in a spirit of gratitude will I receive whatever crosses and tribulations Thou shalt send me. Forgive me, O Lord, that with Thy angels I may bless and glorify Thee here on earth, and forever in heaven.

During the Gospel.

ACT OF HOPE.

 GRACIOUS Lord, whose bounty is infinite, who never ceasest to call us to Thee by Thy Apostles and Thy holy Church which they have founded ; who hast given us the means of reconciliation with Thee, I come, full of hope in Thy gracious invitation, to receive Thee. I come with confidence, for Thou not only dost invite, but even command us to come to Thee, to receive Thee in my soul ; no, Thou wilt not drive me from Thy presence ; Thou wilt purify the temple which Thou hast chosen for Thy abode. If my unworthiness alarms me, Thy goodness reassures me ; if I cannot bathe Thy feet with my tears as Magdalen did, I take courage when I remember that Thy precious blood, shed for me, can blot out not only my sins, but all the iniquities of the world. I shall then receive a God who wishes only my salvation ; I shall publish His praises and exalt His divine charity, that all sinners may return to Him in sincerity of hearts.

O Almighty God, who givest the bread of heaven to those who live on earth, give me the fervor, the burning love of the blessed souls who reign with Thee in heaven, and especially some little of that more than seraphic love of Thy immaculate Mother.

At the Creed.

Make an act of Faith of the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

I not only believe, O Lord ! that Thou existest in three distinct persons, who, notwithstanding their distinction, are only one indivisible substance ; but I also believe that Thou, O Jesus, second person of the undivided Trinity, art here really present, to give Thyself to me. I believe that Thou renewest in this sacrament of Thy body and blood, the same mysteries that I read in Thy gospel ; I find in it again the mystery of Thy birth, in seeing Thee on the altar, as newly born, and wrapped up in swaddling clothes, unknown except by the heavenly spirits and the humble ; the mystery of Thy life, in seeing Thee deserted and forgotten ; the mystery of Thy death, in seeing Thee sacrificed every day upon this altar, as Thou wast upon the cross ; the mystery of Thy interment, in seeing Thee buried in the tabernacle as within a tomb ; and the mystery of Thy resurrection, in seeing Thee feed men with Thy glorious flesh, which is freed forever from the empire of death. I no longer, then, envy the happiness of those who saw Thee during the course of Thy mortal life ; I neither feel the concern nor the impatience of those kings and prophets who longed so much to behold Thee—faith here discloses to me all that the kings and prophets wished with so much eagerness to behold.

At the Offertory.

ACT OF OBLATION.

O my God ! it is to adore Thee as our God, to acknowledge Thee as our Sovereign Master, to praise Thee as our thrice holy Lord, and love Thee as the Incomprehensible Goodness, that we offer Thee this adorable Host, Thy Only Son. What joy do I not feel that I can offer Thee a God who sacrifices Himself for Thy glory, and who honors Thee as Thou deservest. But grant,

I implore Thee, that I may sincerely accompany this sacrifice, which is infinitely acceptable to Thee, by an oblation of myself, in order that I may derive the abundant fruits of salvation which it is destined to pour into our souls. With these elements of bread and wine, about to be changed into the adorable Body and Blood of Thy Son, I offer Thee my heart, my mind, my whole being, that, unmindful of its miseries, Thou mayest change and annihilate entirely the old man in me, and that I may henceforth be one with that divine Victim whom I hope to receive.

Accept, O Lord, all my thoughts, desires, affections, all my words and actions, that, purified in the sacred blood of Thy Son, they may be all pleasing in Thy sight. Let this change consist not, O Lord, in mere words of mine ; speak, for nothing can resist Thy all-powerful word. Say to my soul, I am thy salvation ; bring me back from my wanderings, Thou who art the way, the truth, and the life ; deliver me from my inconstancy; give me, in this communion to which Thou dost invite me, a relish for heavenly things, and grant, in Thy boundless mercy, that the happiness which I am about to enjoy, of a close union with Thee, may enkindle in my heart an ardent desire of frequently approaching Thy table, to partake of this divine manna.

At the Preface.

Join with the Saints and Angels in doing Homage to Jesus Christ.

WHAT do I hear?—It is the voice of Thy minister, who exhorts me to forget the earth, and to raise up my mind and heart to heaven. What is it that I there behold? O great God! the angels who adore Thee, the heavenly powers who abase themselves before Thee, the pure souls who contemplate, love, and admire Thee, and whose delight is to dwell with Thee. Ah! how profoundly ought I to humble myself in this sight! What!

shall I receive this same God who reigns in heaven with so much glory ! Ah, Lord ! though I am unworthy to unite my voice in the canticles of Thy saints, yet Thou hast given me permission to solicit their intercession to procure Thy help to my weak endeavors. Holy ! holy ! holy ! Lord God of Hosts ! the heavens resound with Thy praises, the universe is filled with Thy glory. Thou art going to descend on me, and to unite Thyself to me. Although my sins and ingratitude have rendered me unworthy of so great a favor, yet Thou art about to communicate to me the plenitude of Thy divine nature.

At the Canon.

ACT OF PETITION.

O my Jesus ! what may I not expect, now that I am about to receive Thee in my heart, who art the sovereign good, the source of grace, the antidote to sin, and pledge of immortality ? Full of confidence in Thy power and goodness,

I pray Thee to come and reign in my heart, to pardon me for the past, and preserve me in future, that I may at last enjoy that eternal life which Thou hast promised to those who receive Thee in this adorable Sacrament. Pour forth Thy graces on Thy Church, and on all Thy faithful, and vouchsafe to preserve them in faith and good works; convert all sinners, bring back such as have strayed from Thy fold, and look down in Thy mercy on the poor souls in purgatory. Shorten the term of their captivity, and let all feel the saving effects of Thy goodness. Especially I commend to Thy care those whom Thou hast made most dear to me, as well as my benefactors, friends, and enemies. Saviour of all, let us be all united in Thee.

ACT OF LOVE.

O my amiable Saviour! I love Thee above all things; O well-beloved of my heart! I love Thee, or, at least, I desire to love Thee, with all my heart: Thy infinite beauty, Thy countless benefits, and the favors which Thou art about to bestow upon me, all call for my love. I love Thee more than my life, more than myself; I love Thee solely for Thyself. Increase this love, O Lord, in my heart, that I may be dissolved in love, and forget all creatures in Thee. O Beauty, ever ancient and ever new, let me never cease to deplore the time when, absorbed in creatures, I was unmindful of Thee.

At the Elevation.

ACT OF ADORATION.

ADORE Thee, Jesus Christ, my Lord and my God, really present in this Host; I adore Thee, O Lamb of God, adorable Victim! that takest away the sins of the world. I adore Thee again, immolating Thyself on this altar for my sake. O Jesus! consume my heart in the fire of Thy love, that I may immolate myself on this altar with Thee. I adore Thee, O my Saviour! in this chalice of Thy blood, which Thou hast shed for us. I prostrate myself here before Thee, as before my Creator, my sovereign Master, and I annihilate myself before Thy throne; I adore Thee, O Divine Majesty! although veiled under these appearances of bread and wine, my faith discovers Thee under these sacred shades which surround Thee, and I enter into transports of joy when I think that I am soon to receive Thee, O infinite in power and goodness.

After the Elevation.

ACT OF DESIRE.

The moment has come at last, O my soul! Behold the King of kings comes to thee, full of mildness and peace. O Lord! I am but sin, and Thou art sanctity itself; Thou art God, and I am vileness and nothing. Yet come, divine Jesus, lay Thy adorable heart on mine, so full of wretchedness, and Thou wilt sanctify it.

Lo ! He approaches, the well-beloved of my soul ! O God, what love ! Thou art raised above the cherubim, and Thou descendest to me ; Thou forsakest the highest heavens to show me the eagerness of Thy love : oh, incomprehensible mercy ! Behold that God of majesty now upon this altar ; at a single word He has descended. Behold that God of love ; He comes to thee, my soul—run to Him ! Yes, Lord, I run to Thee, come to Thee. Come, my well-beloved, I desire Thee alone, love Thee alone : my heart is agitated, it burns to approach Thee more nearly : come and take possession of it, to fill its emptiness, and reign there alone, to be my only delight, my all ; to pour forth therein Thy manifold consolations, to satiate it, to make me forget my misfortunes and disquiets.

O compassionate Jesus ! be not averted by the aspect of a heart so unworthy of Thy favors. The house of my soul is not yet sufficiently adorned to receive Thee, but Thou wilt ever be all its ornament ; Thou perceivest stains that keep Thee aloof ; oh, cleanse it by Thy divine touch. Perhaps Thou perceivest enemies, but art Thou not the strong man armed ? Thy very presence will scatter them, and all will be in peace when Thou art in possession of my soul—come, then, O my good Master, establish this sweet peace in me ; do not delay, my soul is disfigured by a thousand wrinkles, but Thou dost renew its youth like the eagle's ! It is seared with the marks of its old iniquities, but Thy blood will efface them. Come, then, sweetest Jesus, and do not delay ; all blessings will come with Thee, all virtues that can render me pleasing in Thy sight. O Jesus ! be mine, and then no adversity, no prosperity shall ever separate me from Thee. I shall hold the sufferings of this life, its joys and honors, as naught after this foretaste of Thy glory. Come, then, O my benefactor ! my King ! come reign in a heart which implores Thee, with all earnestness : reign forever there, and give me the grace of a glorious immortality, in which I may enjoy Thee, and possess Thee for eternity.

At the Pater.

Say it with the priest, dwelling especially on the petition, "Give us this day our daily bread," and earnestly imploring the Eternal Father to grant you the living bread which came down from heaven and gave life to the world.

From the Pater to the Communion.

Repeat the prayers of St. Alphonsus Liguori before communion, or other pious aspirations : implore all the Angels and saints, and especially the Blessed Virgin Immaculate, and your Guardian Angel, to aid you to receive your divine guest, and say :

ADORABLE Jesus ! I am, it is true, wretched and unworthy, but hast Thou not denominated Thyself the Father of the poor ; and shall not that endearing title encourage me to recur to Thee, as to my Father, and the best of friends? Yes, my God, I will go to Thee, for Thou well knowest, that had I the heavens and the earth at my disposal, I would sacrifice all, rather than forego the happiness I am now going to enjoy. What have I in heaven, and besides Thee what do I desire upon earth? Thou art the God of my heart, and the God that is my portion forever.

O amiable Virgin! thou who art styled by excellence Blessed among women, show thyself now my tender mother and powerful advocate: obtain for me the grace to receive with faith, purity, fervor, and humility, the divine object of Thy ardent love.

Blessed spirits! you who unceasingly attend, love, and adore the Almighty Being I am about to receive, intercede for me at this awful moment, and supply by your ardent charity for the tender devotion with which I would wish to receive my Redeemer under my roof.

When the moment comes to approach the railing, excite in your heart a new act of contrition while the "Confiteor" is recited and the priest pronounces the absolution, in order to merit more and more the remission of your sins, and obtain a perfect purity to receive the spotless Lamb.

At the Agnus Dei, and Domine non sum dignus, pour forth your heart in sentiments of love, confusion, joy, respect, self-immolation, and tenderness. Say interiorly :

"Whence comes it, that this Lamb of God, that this God of purity and majesty, can vouchsafe to lower Himself to me, so unworthy of His presence ! Yes, Lord, I do not deserve that Thou shouldst come to me ; say but the word, and my soul shall be healed."

Communicate with these sentiments and the religious feeling which Faith inspires, and after receiving this sacred pledge of your salvation, retire with respectful and religious modesty, and remain some time in sweet and respectful silence, with eyes closed or cast down, to avoid distraction. During this time, every moment of which is precious, converse lovingly with Jesus, whom you have actually present in you ; let your heart speak, its language pleases him, as well as an outpouring of love and confidence. Adore him, thank him, devote yourself to him, represent to him your poverty and necessity ; ask all necessary aids and graces for yourself, and those for whom you are bound to pray ; ask earnestly, ask confidently. Jesus, who has given you himself, can refuse nothing that you ask for your salvation. If God speaks to you, listen humbly : if good thoughts come, entertain them sweetly, without seeking others.

ASPIRATIONS FROM HOLY SCRIPTURE.

“I have found him whom my heart seeketh ; I will hold him, and I will not let him go.”

“ My beloved to me, and I to him.”

“ Who shall separate me from the love of Jesus Christ ? ”

“ O God of my heart, and my portion forever.”

“ What shall I render to the Lord for all that he hath done to me ? ”

“ Lord, what wilt thou have me to do ? Speak ! thy servant heareth.”

“ Show me the way in which I must go ; teach me to do thy will, for thou art my God.”

A Mass of Thanksgiving after Communion.

At the commencement of Mass.

THE presence of Jesus Christ is within me. Why art thou still sorrowful, O my soul ; and why dost thou still disquiet me ? Alas ! I know it but too well ; it is the remembrance of thy sins that afflicts thee ; thou canst not rid thyself of it, this bitter remembrance ; it recurs to thy mind incessantly ; thy grief is most just. And yet, hope in the Lord, abandon thyself to the sweet thought of His mercies. What oughtest thou not to expect from a God who is come to visit thee, to console thee, and to strengthen thee ! O Jesus, obliterate the least traces of my past sins ; root out from my heart every affection, every inclination which could grieve Thy divine heart. O holy Virgin, who wast always faithful to the grace which preserved thee from the taint of sin ; O holy precursor of Jesus Christ, who didst preserve to the last moment of thy life the grace which had sanctified thee in thy mother's womb ; O beloved disciples, who were confirmed in all those sentiments of faith and piety with which your divine Master had inspired you ; and you, O blessed souls, who are exempted forever from all return to weakness and inconstancy, pray for me ; obtain for me that gift of perseverance, which so happily conducted you to the harbor of salvation.

At the Introit.

O divine Jesus, I love Thee with all my heart; may I ever be grateful to Thee for the blessings which Thou hast bestowed upon me this day. Again Thou art about to descend upon this altar, and to renew Thy sacrifice; come, then, O Lord Jesus; my weakness implores Thy tender compassion. O ye heavens, let fall your precious dew, that the clouds may bring forth the Just One, and I may have the happiness once more of beholding my Saviour.

At the Kyrie.

O merciful Father, adopt me forever into the number of Thy beloved children. O most loving Jesus, say to my soul: Fear not; I am Thy salvation. O sanctifying Spirit, give me a right understanding of all the truths of faith; breathe into my heart the spirit of piety; make me partaker of all the fruits of a fervent communion, and grant me grace to walk constantly in the path of virtue and good works.

At the Collects.

O Lord, vouchsafe favorably to hear the prayers which Thy priest offers to Thee for the Church and for me.

I earnestly beseech Thee to grant me those graces and virtues of which I have need, in order to deserve Thy love. Fill my heart with eternal gratitude for the blessing which Thou hast just conferred upon me, with a lively horror of sin, and with perfect charity towards my neighbor. Make my whole life worthy of one who is Thy child. I deserve not to be heard for my own sake, O my God; but I beseech Thy mercy through the merits of Thy divine Son, who lives within me.

At the Epistle.

“My dearly-beloved, humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in the time of visitation; casting all your care upon Him, for He hath care of you. Be sober and watch; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, goeth about seeking whom he may devour. Whom resist ye, strong in faith, knowing that the same affliction befalls your brethren who are in the world. But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto His eternal glory in Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a little, will Himself perfect you, and confirm you, and establish you. To him be glory and empire forever and ever. Amen."

At the Gradual.

If it were sufficient for a woman of Israel only to touch Thy garment to be healed, what ought not I to hope from Thee, O Jesus, to whom Thou hast but just given Thyself wholly in Communion!

Heal, O my Saviour, all the infirmities of my soul; enlighten its darkness, and teach me how sweet is Thy yoke, and how light Thy burden.

At the Gospel.

“ESUS said to the Jews: My flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, abideth in me, and I in him. As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father, so he that eateth me the same also shall live by me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead; he that eateth of this bread shall live forever.”

Make me meditate deeply on these words, O Jesus; may I show by my works that my strongest desire is to sit often at Thy table, in the midst of Thy beloved children.

At the Offertory.

I offer myself to Thee, O Lord, as Thou didst offer Thyself to Thy Father, when Thou wast fastened to the cross: and as Thou didst reserve nothing to Thyself which Thou didst not give up in sacrifice, so do I wish to keep nothing back, but to give up all to Thee. Receive, then, O Lord, the offering of all my thoughts, of all my affections, of my whole being. I cannot return Thee thanks proportioned to Thy benefits, and therefore I call to my aid the prayers and merits of all those who have the happiness of uniting themselves to Thee by fervent communions.

At the Lavabo.

O my Jesus, would that I could ask Thee to witness the holiness of my life and the innocence of my heart! But, with the prophet, I must cry out: It is in Thy mercy only that I place my hope: my consolation is in meditating on Thy promises to the penitent heart, and Thy faithfulness in performing them; confounded at all that I have committed to this day, and encouraged by the favors with which Thou hast just loaded me, I can but promise to correspond better with Thy graces than I have hitherto done. No, never, after the Communion which I have this day made, will I be found in the society of the wicked; I will purify myself more and more with tears of penitence; I will bless Thee as I do this day, and I will sing of the wonders of Thy power and of Thy mercy.

At the Preface.

Thou art within me, O Jesus; bless, adore, and give thanks to Thy heavenly Father. By Thee it is that the powers of heaven praise and adore the divine Majesty; in Thee that I am united with them to sing eternally. Blessed forever be thou, O Jesus, for having come down on earth to revive amongst us the glorious title of the children of God; blessed forever, for having come this day to visit my poor dwelling, and enabling me to offer to God thrice-holy, my Creator and Benefactor, that homage of adoration and praise, of love and thanksgiving, which is due unto Him from me and all His creatures.

At the Canon

I bow myself down before Thee, O Father of mercies, and pray Thee to pour down upon me Thy holy benediction and Thy sanctifying grace. Accept the sacrifice which I make to Thee of my soul and all its powers, my body and all its senses, in union with the sacrifice of Thy divine Son, which the priest now offers to Thee. I unite myself with the glorious Mary ever Virgin, and I beseech her to intercede for me with Thee, and to obtain for me the graces which I ask. I unite myself with Thy Apostles and Martyrs (especially N. and N.); vouchsafe to receive the offering of my heart and of my life, for the sake of the sacrifice which they made to Thee of themselves and of all that they possessed. There wants but one only word from Thee to work the greatest marvels. Speak the word, O my God, and again the body of Thy Son will be present under the species of bread, and his blood under the species of wine; speak the word, my body and my spirit and my heart shall be devoted and consecrated to Thee forever.

O Jesus, the sweet delight of my soul, let heaven and earth, with all their glory, veil themselves before Thee. All their beauty and grandeur come from Thee, and can never approach to a comparison with Thy adorable perfections.

At the Elevation.

Prostrate yourself before the Lord your God, and adore him, for he is the good Shepherd, who has brought back the sheep that had strayed from the fold, and who has nourished it with his own flesh and blood.

JESUS, whom we now discern through a thick veil, we beseech Thee to hear our most fervent petitions. We desire to behold Thee one day face to face, and to enjoy the blessedness of Thy elect. O sacred Host, who openest the gates of heaven, our enemies press on us from every side, do Thou sustain our strength, and we shall obtain the victory over hell, the world, and our own evil thoughts.

During the remainder of the Canon.

O my God, I know not how to give Thee thanks for the favor Thou hast bestowed upon me in feeding me with the body and blood of Thy divine Son; but I find in the sacred Victim which has been immolated on this altar where-withal to repay Thee for so great a benefit. I have offered it to obtain the grace of receiving Thee worthily; I now offer it to testify to Thee my gratitude for the Communion which I have had the happiness to make. I have presented Thee this spotless Lamb as a victim of expiation, a victim of sanctification; I now present it to Thee as a victim of thanksgiving; receive it, O my God, and let the entire sacrifice which Jesus Christ makes to thee of His adorable person, be the model of that sacrifice which I make to Thee of my whole self at the foot of Thy altar.

Since I have the happiness of possessing Thee, O Jesus, permit me to open my heart to Thee, and to enjoy Thee as my soul desires ; so that Thou mayest make me to hear Thy voice, and I may speak to Thee in secret, as friend converses with friend. Thou art within me, O Lord, and hast admitted me into the interior of Thy heart ; keep me united to Thee eternally. Thou art my beloved, chosen from among a thousand ; in Thy heart my soul desires to dwell forever : what blessing, what consolation shall I never fail to find in Thee ! Make me to taste the unspeakable sweetness of Thy love. That which most delights the heart of the children of Adam in this world can never more be pleasing to me ; I desire to love nothing more on earth but for the love of Thee ; I desire only Thee, O unchangeable Beauty ; to possess Thee is to enjoy the purest, the most heavenly delights. In Thee alone, O Jesus, I find a solid peace, a life exempt from troubles and disquietudes. He who possesses Thee enters into the joy of the Lord: he has no longer any thing to fear; he can want nothing, so long as he remains united with the Supreme Good, which contains all goods.

At the Pater.

How sweet is it, O my God, to give Thee the name of Father! Thou reignest in the heavens, and Thou hast descended into my heart. Let my life be employed in glorifying Thy name; let all my thoughts and all my affections be henceforth subject to Thy will, and referred to Thy glory. This is the desire, O Lord, which most affects my heart, to come often to this same table, to the foot of this same altar, to nourish myself with the bread of angels. O my Father, this is the bread of Thy beloved children, suffer me never to render myself unworthy of it. Sustain me so powerfully by Thy grace, that I may often have the happiness of receiving Thee. O my Jesus, immolated for the love of me, had I but as great desire to unite myself to Thee, as Thou hast to unite Thyself to me, I should not be deprived of this happiness any day of my life ; increase, then, in me this holy desire : strengthen me against the assaults of the enemy of my salvation, who flatters me in order to destroy me, who tempts me in order to corrupt me, who draws me to himself that he may cast me down to hell ; make me to burn with the same love for Thee that Thou burnest with for me.

At the Agnus Dei.

Lamb of God, adorable Victim, who wast immolated for the expiation of my sins, blot out the slightest stains of sin in a soul which possesses Thee, and wishes to be wholly Thine. Thou hast taught me how thou lovest sweetness and humility ; destroy, by Thy presence, every thing that could henceforth .

trouble the peace of my soul, and deprive me of Thy love.

At the Communion.

THOU art going to leave me, O my Saviour; Thy body and Thy blood will soon cease to reside within me; say to me, as Thou saidst to Thy Apostles, that Thou leavest Thy peace with me; give it to me in pledge of the graces and succors of which I shall have need, that I may never lose the fruit of the Communion which I have had the happiness of making.

May this Communion deliver me from the tyranny of my bad thoughts, break off the yoke of my evil habits, and dispose me always to the practice of Thy holy commandments. Let nothing henceforth separate me from Thee, O Jesus; not the attractions of the world, nor the illusions of sense, nor the wanderings of my imagination, nor the evil passions of my heart.

At the Post-Communion.

Intercede once more for me, O Mother of my God, my advocate, my tender Mother; ye Angels of the Most High, watch over me; and ye, O elect of God, whom the Church hath given me for protectors, employ your powerful influence, that the Communion which I have made this day may consecrate forever to the Lord my mind, my heart, and my whole being.

At the Benediction.

May the blessing of the priest, O most Holy Trinity, be to me the pledge that Thou wilt be faithful to Thy promises; and since Thou blessest, from the height of Thy glory, those whom Thy ministers bless on earth, may Thy blessing descend upon me, accompany and follow me, so that ever bearing in mind Thy benefits, I may occupy myself only with testifying to Thee the gratitude I owe Thee.

At the last Gospel.

O Word divine, Light of men, who shinest through the darkness of our understanding, banish forever from my heart the fatal shades of sin; bid the Sun of justice rise upon me, and it will enlighten me. Say, Let there be light, and nothing shall obscure it. Alas, the world which Thou createdst, and which Thou camest to redeem, knew Thee not! and I, who have now the happiness of possessing Thee, what will it profit me to be enlightened by Thy light, if I follow not the way it leads? What fruit shall I draw from that treasure of graces which Thou hast brought me, if I dissipate and waste it? Shall I forget in one day the exceeding love which Thou hast lavished upon me? O Jesus, who art full of grace and truth, impress upon my mind the truth that enlightens, establish in my heart the grace that sanctifies, and make me find, in the unchangeableness of the one, and in the continual succor of the other, a restraint upon my inconstancy, and a support to my weakness.

After Mass.

O my God, I am about to return to my ordinary occupations, but I return to them with a spirit and a heart altogether new. Henceforth I will seek only to please Thee ; Thou shalt be the beginning and the end of all my actions. I will endeavor to show that it is no longer I that live, but Thou that livest and movest in me.

Prayers at Mass for the Dead.

A PRAYER BEFORE MASS.

A large, ornate initial letter 'O' is decorated with intricate scrollwork and floral patterns. Within the 'O', there is a small illustration of an angel with wings, holding a staff or scepter.

GOD of all mercy ! I come to offer Thee the blood of the spotless Lamb, on behalf of those souls who, though condemned to most severe torments, are yet the cherished objects of Thy love, and whose only desire is to see and glorify Thee in heaven. Open to them, O Lord, this day, the immense treasures of the merits of Thy divine Son ; apply to them the fruits of His passion and death, and through the infinite virtue of this adorable sacrifice, grant them a full release from the debt due to Thy sovereign justice.

While the Priest is at the foot of the Altar.

I confess my sins, O my God ! in humility and sorrow of heart, and I acknowledge that in Thy sight no one living can be justified. Woe to me, if Thou judge me according to the claims of Thy justice, and not according to the suggestions of Thy mercy ! To appease Thy anger, O Lord ! I recur to the unbloody sacrifice of Him Who once was nailed to the Cross for our salvation, and Who ceases not to mediate for us in heaven. O God of all clemency ! forgive me my sins, I entreat Thee, and forgive also the faults committed by our deceased brethren, in the days of their mortal pilgrimage ! Oh, let Thy mercy now prevail over Thy justice, and let the voice of the blood of Jesus plead more loudly for pardon, than the voice of our iniquities cries for vengeance !

THE INTROIT.

Grant them, O Lord, eternal rest, and let perpetual light shine on them. A hymn becometh Thee, O God, in Sion, and a vow shall be paid to Thee in Jerusalem. Hear my prayer. All flesh shall come to Thee. Grant them, O Lord, eternal rest, and let perpetual light shine on them.

AT THE KYRIE.

O Jesus, show that Thou art the God of mercy; and take pity on the suffering souls who sigh and weep for the day of their deliverance. Oh, admit them without delay into Thy bosom!

AT THE COLLECT.

O God! Whose property it is always to have mercy and to spare, we humbly present our prayers to Thee in behalf of the souls of Thy servants (N. N.), whom Thou hast summoned from this world, beseeching Thee not to deliver them into the hands of the enemy, nor to forget them forever; but command them to be received by the holy Angels, and carried into paradise, that as they believed and hoped in Thee, they may be delivered from the pains of hell, and inherit everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

AT THE EPISTLE.

Instead of grieving immoderately for the loss of those who were so dear to me, I will arouse my faith in Thy word, O Lord, and I will not be "sorrowful, even as others who have no hope."—(1 Thess. iv.) I believe that eternal life is the immediate portion of those souls who are so happy as to quit this world in Thy grace, and free from the least debt to Thy sovereign justice. O consoling truth!

I believe that those who depart this life indebted to Thy justice, are relieved by the oblation of the holy sacrifice; and as "it has ever been the constant practice of the Church to make a particular commemoration of those who die in the communion of the body and blood of Jesus Christ," so now, O Lord, I offer this sacrifice unto Thee by the hands of Thy priest. Thus, O my God, dost Thou faithfully fulfil Thy promise, not to abandon forever the souls of Thy servants. Thou inspirest me to aid the departed faithful by my prayers and alms-deeds, and above all by applying to them the fruits of this most precious sacrifice. O Lord! I desire to correspond with Thy merciful views, by presenting Thee to-day my most earnest supplications on behalf of my departed brethren.

AT THE GRADUAL.

"The sorrows of death have compassed me, and the perils of hell have found me. Tribulation and sorrow have overwhelmed me, and I called on the name of the Lord. O Lord, deliver my soul. The Lord is merciful and righteous, and our God is full of compassion. I humbled myself, and He delivered me." Eternal rest grant them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine on them.

AT THE GOSPEL.

NLIGHTEN me, O Lord, and teach me what I must do to avoid the dreadful fate which one day awaits those who here below close their eyes to the light of Thy Gospel. O merciful Jesus! deign to cast on me a look of compassion, and to say to my heart the consoling words, "Thy sins are forgiven thee." Deign to receive my petition on behalf of the suffering souls in Purgatory, and to cheer them with the consoling announcement, "This day you shall be with Me in paradise." O Lord! I know that Thy inexorable justice must be satisfied; that our bodies must return to the dust whence they were taken, and that our souls must be purified by avenging flames, before they can enjoy Thy presence. But, O Lord!

remember that Thy mercies are above all Thy works, surpassing even our sins. My lot is in Thy hands; oh! receive my submission to Thy will, as an acceptable sacrifice to Thy sovereign dominion.

THE OFFERTORY.

Lord Jesus Christ, King of glory, deliver the souls of all the faithful departed from the flames of hell, and from the deep pit. Deliver them from the lion's mouth, lest hell swallow them, lest they fall into darkness: and let the standard-bearer, St. Michael, bring them into the holy light, which Thou promisedst of old to Abraham and his posterity. We offer Thee, O Lord, a sacrifice of praise and prayers; accept them in behalf of the souls we commemorate this day, and let them pass from death to life, which Thou promisedst of old to Abraham and his posterity.

O Judge of the living and the dead! I will descend in spirit into that region of torment where Thy well-beloved children, the heirs of eternal happiness, are overwhelmed by the rigors of Thy terrible justice. Then I will sigh, and weep, and unite my petitions with the sacrifice of Thy Son, to obtain that Thou wouldst mercifully abridge their pains, and transform their sufferings into unspeakable bliss, their humiliation into never-ending glory. "Remember, O Lord, Thy compassion, and Thy tender mercies, which are from the beginning." For myself also I pray:—"One favor I have asked of Thee, and this I will seek; that I may dwell in Thy house all the days of my life. That I may see Thy beauty, and dwell forever in Thy holy temple."

AT THE SECRET.

Have mercy, we beseech Thee, O Lord, on the souls of Thy servants (N. N.), for whom we offer this Victim of praise, humbly beseeching Thy Majesty, that by this sacrifice they may arrive at eternal rest, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

AT THE PREFACE.

It is truly just, and reasonable, and salutary, to return Thee thanks at all times, and in all places, O Almighty Father, eternal God, through Jesus Christ our Lord, through Whose merits we hope for a glorious resurrection; so that if the sentence of death alarms and dejects, the promise of immortality consoles and animates us; for, to Thy faithful servants, death is only the passage from this life to a better,—the exchange of an earthly habitation for the everlasting tabernacle. Therefore we unite with all the blessed citizens of the heavenly country in singing a hymn to Thy glory, and saying without ceasing, Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord God of Sabaoth: the heavens and the earth are full of His glory. Blessed is He who cometh in the name of the Lord ; His blood pleads for pardon, and His voice rises even to the throne of mercy on behalf of His miserable creatures.

AT THE CANON.

O Almighty Father, Whose tender providence extends to all creation, cast an eye of pity on those souls who ardently love Thee, and whose greatest suffering is their separation from Thee. Remember, O Lord, that they are the work of Thy hands, and that they have been purchased at no less a price than the death and infinite merits of Thy only Son, Jesus Christ. Oh, will not the sound of that sweet name of salvation move Thee to pity and forgive them ? I offer, on their behalf, the precious blood which streamed from the sacred body of my dying Redeemer on the Cross ; I offer Thee the powerful intercession of the most holy Mother of Jesus, the Mother of sorrows and Queen of martyrs ; I offer Thee the prayers of St. Joseph, St. Peter, St. Paul, and all the saints, together with the earnest supplications of Thy Church on earth ; and I beseech Thee, through this acceptable oblation, to take pity on the souls Thou lovest tenderly, even amidst Thy anger ; to manifest to them Thy glory, to receive them to Thy heart, and to inundate them with that torrent of bliss, of which Thou art the inexhaustible fountain.

AT THE ELEVATION.

ACRED Host ! Victim of man's salvation ! be propitious to us, and hear our prayers. Precious blood of Jesus ! shed to wash away the sins of the world, sanctify our souls, and plead for mercy for the faithful departed.

AFTER THE ELEVATION.

O Jesus ! Who didst descend into Limbo, to liberate the souls of the patriarchs and prophets, who there sighed for Thy coming visit, we beseech Thee, for the souls of Thy servants in the place of expiation, to which Divine justice has condemned them for a time. Temper by the dew of Thy grace, the activity of the flames which consume them. Thou hast declared, that whatever we do for the least of our brethren, Thou wouldst consider as done for Thyself; I may then hope, that my anxious desire to relieve the suffering souls in purgatory is as pleasing to Thee, as if I sought to relieve Thyself. O my God! mayest Thou be appeased by the intercession of her, who is deservedly styled the comfortress of the afflicted, as well as by the prayers of all the saints. Grant eternal rest to the faithful departed, particularly those souls for whose happiness I am at this moment most interested.

AT THE PATER NOSTER.

O Jesus! at Whose name every knee bends in heaven, on earth, and in hell! sovereign Judge of the living and the dead! may Thy name be honored by the deliverance of the souls for whom we pray. May the gates of heaven be open to receive them, and may thy will, which desires the salvation of all men, be this day perfectly accomplished in their regard. Grant that, after having been fed on the bread of sorrow, they may be replenished with the living bread of heaven in the possession of Thyself. We implore the remission of the sins of our parents, friends, and benefactors, particularly of the sins to which we may have been unhappily accessory in them. Preserve us from those avenging flames, which we have but too well merited by our continued abuse of grace, our tepidity in Thy service, and our negligence in resisting temptation. Deliver us from sin, the greatest of all evils, and enable us to feel and understand that it is "a dreadful thing to fall into the hands of the living God."

AT THE AGNUS DEI.

O Jesus ! how incomprehensible was the love which induced Thee to offer Thyself as a victim of expiation for the sins of this world ! How great, again, the charity which prompts Thee to become a security for our debts, even after death ! O what should be our gratitude for such favors !

Lamb of God ! Who by Thy death didst trample on the lion about to seize his helpless prey, have mercy on the souls of the faithful departed.

Lamb of God ! Who wast offered as a sacrifice of expiation, that by Thy death we might be rescued from the slavery of sin, have mercy on the souls of the faithful departed.

Lamb of God ! Who wast immolated for love of us, that we might pass from the region of malediction to the true land of promise ; Thou Who hast declared, "I am the resurrection and the life ; he that believes in Me, even though he be dead, shall live ;" grant to the souls of the faithful departed, the plenitude of that spiritual life, of which they have received the germ in the holy sacraments ; grant them the bliss of which they have so often possessed the pledge in the most adorable eucharist. I desire to participate spiritually in Thy precious body and blood, and by applying to them Thy merits, to procure for them, as far as it is in my power, a place among Thy elect. I offer for all, especially for (N. N.), my prayers and good works of this day, united to Thy prayers and divine actions. Despise not, O my Redeemer, my unworthy supplications ; console me Thyself for the loss I have sustained, by receiving into Thy bosom the soul so dear to me.

THE COMMUNION.

May eternal light shine on them, O Lord, together with Thy saints forever, for Thou art merciful. Grant them, O Lord, eternal rest, and let perpetual light shine on them.

AT THE POST-COMMUNION.

O God, Who willest that while I pray for the souls in purgatory, I should at the same time remember the most essential of my duties,—my obligations towards my own immortal spirit,—grant me, through Thy infinite merits, and unbounded charity, the pardon of my past negligence and tepidity. May the view of that justice which condemns Thy friends to consuming flames, for faults I commit so frequently, inspire me with a generous resolution to enter on the practice of penance, to expiate my past sins, and to guard vigilantly against future transgressions. I will not defer the all-important duty of penance, lest it may soon be too late to discharge my debts to Thee. I will fervently and perseveringly pray for the souls in purgatory; and apply to them also the fruits of my alms-deeds and exercises of mortification. O my God! bless these resolutions, and strengthen me to observe them faithfully.

AT THE LAST GOSPEL.

“I believe that my Redeemer liveth, and that on the last day I shall rise from the earth, and that in my flesh I shall see my God and Saviour, whom I myself shall see, and my eyes shall behold. This my hope is laid up in my bosom.” After having sat in darkness, and dwelt amidst the shades of death, I shall rise to the contemplation of eternal glory, and repose forever amidst the brightness of everlasting day! In Thee, O Lord, have I hoped, let me never be confounded!

Litany of the Most Holy Trinity.

LORD, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Blessed Trinity, hear us.

*Adorable Unity, graciously hear
us.*

God, the Father of heaven,

God, the Son, Redeemer of the world,

God, the Holy Ghost,

Holy Trinity, one God,

Father, from whom are all things,

Son, through whom are all things,

Holy Ghost, in whom are all things,

Have mercy on us.

Holy and undivided Trinity,
 Father everlasting,
 Only-begotten Son of the Father,
 Spirit, who proceedest from the Father and the Son,
 Co-eternal Majesty of Three Divine Persons,
 Father the Creator,
 Son the Redeemer,
 Holy Ghost the Comforter,
 Holy, holy, holy Lord God of hosts,
 Who art, who wast, and who art
 to come,
 God, Most High, who inhabitest
 eternity,
 To whom alone are due all honor
 and glory,
 Who alone doest great wonders,
 Power infinite,
 Wisdom incomprehensible,
 Love unspeakable,
 Be merciful.

Spare us, O Holy Trinity.

Be merciful.

Graciously hear us, O Holy Trinity.

Have mercy on us.

From all evil,
 From all sin,
 From all pride,
 From all love of riches,
 From all uncleanness,
 From all sloth,
 From all inordinate affection,
 From all envy and malice,
 From all anger and impatience,
 From every thought, word, and deed, contrary to thy holy law,
 From thy everlasting malediction,
 Through thy almighty power,
 Through thy plenteous loving kindness,
 Through the exceeding treasures
 of thy goodness and love,
 Through the depths of thy wisdom and knowledge,
 Through all thy unspeakable per-
 fections,

Deliver us, O Holy Trinity.

We sinners,
Beseech thee, hear us.

That we may ever serve thee alone,
 That we may worship thee in spirit and in truth,

We beseech thee, &c.

That we may love thee with all our heart, with all our soul, and with all our strength,
 That, for thy sake, we may love
 our neighbor as ourselves,
 That we may faithfully keep thy holy commandments,
 That we may never defile our bodies and our souls with sin,
 That we may go from grace to grace, and from virtue to virtue,
 That we may finally enjoy the sight of thee in glory,
 That thou wouldst vouchsafe to hear us,

We beseech thee, hear us.

O blessed Trinity,
We beseech thee, deliver us.

O blessed Trinity,
We beseech thee, save us.

O blessed Trinity,
Have mercy on us.

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

V. Blessed art thou, O Lord, in the firmament of heaven.

R. And worthy to be praised, and glorious, and highly exalted forever.

Let us Pray.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hast given to thy servants, in the confession of the true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the Eternal Trinity, and in the power of Majesty to adore the Unity; grant, we beseech thee, that, by steadfastness in this faith, we may ever be defended from all adversities. Through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Litany of the Holy Ghost.

fidelity,
Spirit of modesty, continence, and chastity,
Spirit of adoption of the sons of God,
Holy Ghost, the Comforter,
Holy Ghost, the Sanctifier,
Who in the beginning didst move over the waters,
By whose inspiration spake the holy men of God,
Who didst overshadow Mary,
Who didst co-operate in the miraculous conception of the Son of God,
Who didst descend upon Him at his baptism,
Who, on the day of Pentecost, didst appear in fiery tongues upon the disciples of the Lord,
By whom we also are born again,
Who dwellest in us,

Have mercy on us

Who governest the Church, Have mercy on us.

Who fillest the whole world, Have mercy on us.

Holy Ghost, We beseech thee, hear us

That thou wouldst renew the face of the earth,

That thou wouldst shed abroad thy light in our hearts,

That thou wouldst write thy law in our hearts,

That thou wouldst inflame them
with the fire of thy love,

That thou wouldst open to us the treasures of thy grace,

That thou wouldst teach us to ask for them according to thy will,

That thou wouldst enlighten us with thy heavenly inspirations,

That thou wouldst keep us to thyself by thy powerful attractions,

That thou wouldst grant to us the knowledge alone necessary,

That thou wouldst help us to love and bear with each other,

We beseech thee, hear us.

That thou wouldst lead us in the way of thy commandments,
 That thou wouldst make us obedient to thy inspirations,
 That thou wouldst teach us to pray,
 and thyself pray within us,
 That thou wouldst clothe us with love and compassion towards our brethren,
 That thou wouldst inspire us with a horror of evil,
 That thou wouldst direct us in the practice of good,
 That thou wouldst give us the grace of all virtues,
 That thou wouldst cause us to persevere in justice,
 That thou wouldst be thyself our everlasting reward,

We beseech thee, hear us.

Lamb of God, who takest away the
 sins of the world,

Grant us thy Spirit.

Lamb of God, who takest away the
 sins of the world,

Pour down thy Holy Spirit upon us.

Lamb of God, who takest away the
sins of the world,

Give unto us the Spirit of peace.

Holy Ghost, hear us.

Holy Ghost, graciously hear us.

Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

V. Create in us a clean heart, O God.

R. And renew a right spirit within us.

Let us pray.

RANT, O merciful Father, that thy divine Spirit may enlighten,
in flame, and cleanse our hearts;
that he may penetrate us with his heavenly dew, and make us fruitful in good works. Through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Litany of the Passion.

LORD, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Christ, graciously hear us.

God the Father of heaven,
God the Son, Redeemer of the
world,

God the Holy Ghost,
Holy Trinity, one God,
Jesus, the Eternal Wisdom,
Jesus, conversing with men,
Jesus, hated by the world,
Jesus, sold for thirty pieces of silver,

Jesus, prostrate on the ground in
prayer,

Jesus, strengthened by an angel,
Jesus, in thine agony, bathed in a bloody sweat,

Have mercy on us.

Jesus, betrayed by Judas with a kiss,
Jesus, bound by the soldiers,
Jesus, forsaken by thy disciples,
Jesus, brought before Annas and Caiphas,
Jesus, struck by a servant on the face,
Jesus, accused by false witnesses,
Jesus, declared worthy of death,
Jesus, spit upon in the face,
Jesus, blindfolded,
Jesus, smitten on the cheek,
Jesus, thrice denied by Peter,
Jesus, delivered up to Pilate,
Jesus, despised and mocked by Herod,
Jesus, clothed in a white garment,
Jesus, rejected for Barabbas,
Jesus, torn with scourges,
Jesus, bruised for our sins,
Jesus, esteemed as a leper,
Jesus, covered with a purple robe,
Jesus, crowned with thorns,
Jesus, struck with a reed upon the head,

Have mercy on us.

Jesus, demanded for crucifixion
 by the Jews,
 Jesus, condemned to an ignominious death,
 Jesus, given up to the will of thine
 enemies,
 Jesus, loaded with the heavy weight of the cross,
 Jesus, led like a sheep to the slaughter,
 Jesus, stripped of thy garments,
 Jesus, fastened with nails to the cross,
 Jesus, wounded for our iniquities, Jesus, praying to thy Father for thy murderers,
 Jesus, reputed with the wicked,
 Jesus, blasphemed and scoffed at
 on the cross,
 Jesus, reviled by the malefactor, Jesus, promising Paradise to the penitent thief,
 Jesus, commending St. John to thy Mother as her son, Jesus, declaring thyself forsaken by thy Father,

Have mercy on us.

Jesus, in thy thirst given gall and vinegar to drink,
Jesus, testifying that all things written concerning thee were accomplished,
Jesus, commending thy spirit into the hands of thy Father, Jesus, obedient even to the death of the cross,
Jesus, pierced with a lance,
Jesus, made a propitiation for us,
Jesus, taken down from the cross,
Jesus, laid in the sepulchre,
Jesus, rising gloriously from the dead,
Jesus, ascending into heaven,
Jesus, our Advocate with the Father,
Jesus, sending down on thy disciples the Holy Ghost, the Para-clete,
Jesus, exalting thy Mother above
the choirs of Angels,
Jesus, who shalt come to judge
the living and the dead,
Be merciful.

Have mercy on us.

Spare us, O Lord.

Be merciful.

Graciously hear us, O Lord.

From all evil,

From all sin,

From anger, hatred, and every evil will,

From war, famine, and pestilence,

From all dangers of mind and body,

From everlasting death,

Through thy most pure Conception,

Through thy miraculous Nativity,

Through thy humble Circumcision,

Through thy Baptism and holy

Through thy Labors and Watchings,

Through thy cruel Scourging and Crowning,

Through thy Thirst, and Tears, and Nakedness,

Through thy precious Death and

Cross,

Through thy glorious Resurrection and Ascension,

Through thy sending forth the Holy Ghost, the Paraclete,

Lord Jesus, deliver us.

In the day of Judgment, Lord Jesus, deliver us.

We sinners,
Beseech thee, hear us.

That thou wouldst spare us,
That thou wouldst pardon us,
That thou wouldst vouchsafe to bring us to true penance,

That thou wouldst vouchsafe mercifully to pour into our hearts the grace of the Holy Spirit,

That thou wouldst vouchsafe to defend and propagate thy Holy Church,

That thou wouldst vouchsafe to preserve and increase all societies assembled in thy Holy Name,

That thou wouldst vouchsafe to bestow upon us true peace, humility, and charity,

That thou wouldst vouchsafe to give us perseverance in grace and in thy holy service,

That thou wouldst vouchsafe to deliver us from unclean thoughts,

We beseech thee, hear us.

Let us pray.

LMIGHTY, everlasting God, who in the counsel of thy ineffable goodness, hast appointed to all the faithful, from their mother's womb, a special Angel-guardian of their body and soul; grant that I may so love and honor him whom thou hast so mercifully given me, that, protected by the bounty of thy grace, and by his assistance, I may merit to behold, with him, and all the angelic host, the glory of thy countenance in the heavenly country. Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

Invocation of St. Ignatius.

300 days' Indulgence each time it is said with contrite heart ; and seven years and seven quarantines, for saying it after Communion ; and a Plenary Indulgence once a month, to all who say it once a day, to be gained on that day, when, after Confession and Communion, they shall visit some Church, and pray there for some time, according to the mind of his Holiness.

Soul of Christ, be my sanctification,
Body of Christ, be my salvation.
Blood of Christ, fill all my veins,
Water of Christ's side, wash out my stains.
Passion of Christ, my comfort be,
O good Jesus, listen to me.
In thy wounds I fain would hide,
Ne'er to be parted from thy side.
Guard me, should the foe assail me,
Call me when my life shall fail me.
Bid me come to thee above,
With thy saints to sing thy love.
World without end. Amen.

Epistles and Gospels.

FOR THE SUNDAYS AND HOLY DAYS THROUGHOUT THE YEAR.

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT.

EPISTLE.

Romans xiii. 11-14.

Brethren, Knowing that it is now the hour for us to rise from sleep. For now our salvation is nearer than when we believed. The night is passed and the day is at hand. Let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light; let us walk honestly as in the day; not in rioting or drunkenness, not in chambering and impurities, not in contention and envy: but put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ.

GOSPEL.

Luke xxi. 25-33.

At that time Jesus said to his disciples: There shall be signs in the sun and in the moon, and in the stars: and upon the earth distress of nations, by reason of the confusion of the roaring of the sea and of the waves, men withering away for fear, and expectation of what shall come upon the whole world. For the powers of heaven shall be moved: and then they shall see the Son of man coming in a cloud with great power and majesty. But when these things begin to come to pass, look up and lift up your heads: because your redemption is at hand. And he spoke to them a similitude. See the fig-tree and all the trees: when they now shoot forth their fruit, you know that summer is nigh ; so you also when you shall see these things come to pass, know that the kingdom of God is at hand. Amen I say to you, this generation shall not pass away, till all things be fulfilled. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT.

EPISTLE.

Romans xv. 4-13.

Brethren, what things soever were written, were written for our learning : that through patience and the comfort of the Scriptures, we might have hope. Now the God of patience and of comfort grant you to be of one mind one towards another, according to Jesus Christ : that with one mind, and with one mouth, you may glorify God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive one another, as Christ also hath received you unto the honor of God. For I say that Christ Jesus was minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers. But that the gentiles are to glorify God for his mercy, as it was written : " Therefore will I confer to thee, O Lord, among the gentiles, and will sing to thy name." And again he saith : " Rejoice, ye gentiles, with his people." And again : " Praise the Lord, all ye gentiles ; and magnify him, all ye people." And again Isaias saith : " There shall be a root of Jesse ; and he that shall rise up to rule the gentiles, in him the gentiles shall hope." Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing ; that you may abound in hope, and in the power of the Holy Ghost.

GOSPEL.

Matt. xi. 2-10.

At that time: When John had heard in prison the works of Christ, sending two of his disciples he said to him: Art thou he that art to come, or look we for another? And Jesus making answer said to them: Go and relate to John what you have heard and seen. The blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, and the dead rise again, the poor have the Gospel preached to them. And blessed is he that shall not be scandalized in me. And when they went their way, Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning John: What went you out into the desert to see? a reed shaken with the wind? But what went you out to see? a man clothed in soft garments? Behold they that are clothed in soft garments, are in the houses of kings. But what went you out to see? a prophet? yea, I tell you, and more than a prophet. For this is he of whom it is written: "Behold I send my Angel before thy face, who shall prepare thy way before thee."

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT.

EPISTLE.

Phil. iv. 4-7.

Rejoice in the Lord always; again, I say, rejoice. Let your modesty be known to all men: the Lord is nigh. Be nothing solicitous, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgivings, let your petitions be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasseth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL.

John i. 19-28.

At that time: The Jews sent from Jerusalem Priests and Levites to John to ask him: Who art thou? And he confessed and did not deny: and he confessed: I am not the Christ. And they asked him: What then? Art thou Elias? And he said: I am not. Art thou the prophet? And he answered: No. They said therefore unto him: Who art thou, that we may give an answer to them that sent us? what sayest thou of thyself? He said: "I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord," as said the prophet Isaias. And they that were sent, were of the Pharisees. And they asked him, and said to him: Why then dost thou baptize, if thou be not Christ, nor Elias, nor the prophet? John answered them, saying: I baptize with water; but there hath stood one in the midst of you, whom you know not. The same is he that shall come after me, who is preferred before me; the latchet of whose shoe I am not worthy to loose. These things were done in Bethania beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT.

EPISTLE.

1 Cor. iv. 1-5.

Brethren: Let a man so account of us as of the ministers of Christ, and the dispensers of the mysteries of God. Here now it is required among the dispensers, that a man be found faithful. But to me it is a very small thing to be judged by you, or by man's day: but neither do I judge my own self. For I am not conscious to myself of anything, yet am I not hereby justified : but he that judgeth me, is the Lord. Therefore judge not before the time : until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts : and then shall every man have praise from God.

GOSPEL.

Luke iii. 1-6.

Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cæsar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and Philip his brother tetrarch of Iturea and the country of Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilina, under the high-priests Annas, and Caiphas : the word of the Lord was made unto John the son of Zachary, in the desert. And he came into all the country about the Jordan, preaching the baptism of penance for the remission of sins : as it was written in the book of the sayings of Isaias the prophet : “ A voice of one crying in the wilderness : Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight his paths. Every valley shall be filled ; and every mountain and hill shall be brought low : and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways plain. And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.”

Christmas Day.

MIDNIGHT MASS.

EPISTLE.

Titus ii. 11-15.

Dearly beloved : The grace of God our Saviour hath appeared to all men, instructing us that, denying ungodliness and worldly desires, we should live soberly, and justly, and godly in this world, looking for the blessed hope and coming of the glory of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and might cleanse to himself a people acceptable, a pursuer of good works. These things speak, and exhort, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL.

Luke ii. 1-14.

At that time : There went out a decree from Cæsar Augustus; that the whole world should be enrolled. This enrolling was first made by Cyrinus the governor of Syria. And all went to be enrolled, every one into his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee out of the city of Nazareth into Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem : because he was of the house and family of David, to be enrolled with Mary his espoused wife who was with child. And it came to pass, that when they were there, her days were accomplished, that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her first-born son and wrapped him up in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger ; because there was no room for them in the inn. And there were in the same country shepherds watching, and keeping the night-watches over their flock. And behold an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the brightness of God shone round about them, and they feared with a great fear. And the angel said to them : Fear not ; for behold I bring you tidings of great joy, that shall be to all the people : for this day is born to you a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord, in the city of David. And this shall be a sign unto you. You shall find the infant wrapped in swaddling clothes, and laid in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly army, praising God, and saying: Glory to God in the highest: and on earth peace to men of good will.

THE MASS AT DAYBREAK.

EPISTLE.

Titus iii. 4-7.

Dear beloved: The goodness and kindness of God our Saviour appeared; not by the works of justice, which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the laver of regeneration, and renovation of the Holy Ghost, whom he hath poured forth upon us abundantly, through Jesus Christ our Saviour: that being justified by his grace, we may be heirs, according to hope of life everlasting, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL.

Luke ii. 15-20.

At that time: The shepherds said one to another: Let us go over to Bethlehem, and let us see this word that is come to pass, which the Lord hath showed to us. And they came with haste; and they found Mary and Joseph, and the infant lying in a manger. And seeing, they understood of the word that had been spoken to them concerning this child. And all that heard wondered: and at those things that were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these words, pondering them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God, for all the things they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

THE MASS OF THE DAY.

EPISTLE.

Heb. i. 1-12.

God, who at sundry times, and in divers manners spoke, in times past to the fathers by the prophets, last of all, in these days, hath spoken to us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he hath made the world: who being the brightness of his glory, and the figure of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, making purgation of his sins, sitteth on the right hand of the majesty on high; being made so much better than the angels, as he hath inherited a more excellent name than they. For to which of the angels hath he said at any time, "Thou art my son, to-day have I begotten thee?" And again, "I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?" And again, when he bringeth in the first-begotten into the world he saith: "And let all the angels of God adore him." And to the angels indeed he saith: "He that maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire." But to the Son: "Thy throne, O God, is forever and ever: a sceptre of justice is the sceptre of thy kingdom. Thou hast loved justice, and hated iniquity: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows." And: "Thou in the beginning, O Lord, didst found the earth: and the works of thy hands are the heavens. They shall perish, but thou shalt continue: and they shall all grow old as a garment. And as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed: but thou art the self-same, and thy years shall not fail." [Gospel, John i. 1-14, as at the end of Mass.]

SUNDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF CHRISTMAS.

EPISTLE.

Gal. i. 4-7.

Brethren : As long as the heir is a child, he differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all : but is under tutors and governors until the time appointed by the father : so we also, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world. But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent his Son, made of a woman, made under the law : that he might redeem them who were under the law ; that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because you are sons, God hath sent the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying : Abba, Father. Therefore now he is not a servant, but a son. And if a son, an heir also through God.

GOSPEL.

Luke ii. 33-40.

At that time : Joseph, and Mary, the mother of Jesus, were wondering at these things, which were spoken concerning him. And Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary his mother : Behold this child is set for the fall, and for the resurrection of many in Israel, and for a sign which shall be contradicted. And thy own soul a sword shall pierce, that out of many hearts thoughts may be revealed. And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser ; she was far advanced in years, and had lived with her husband seven years from her virginity. And she was a widow until fourscore and four years ; who departed not from the temple, by fastings and prayers serving night and day. Now she at the same hour coming in, confessed to the Lord; and spoke of him to all that looked for the redemption of Israel. And after they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, into their city Nazareth. And the child grew, and waxed strong, full of wisdom: and the grace of God was in him.

THE CIRCUMCISION OF OUR LORD.

GOSPEL.

Luke ii. 21.

At that time: After eight days were accomplished that the child should be circumcised: his name was called JESUS, which was called by the Angel, before he was conceived in the womb.

THE EPIPHANY.

EPISTLE.

Isaias lx. 1-6.

Arise, be enlightened, O Jerusalem: for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee. For behold darkness shall cover the earth, and a mist the people: but the Lord shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee. And the gentiles shall walk in thy light, and kings in the brightness of thy rising. Lift up thy eyes round about, and see: all these are gathered together, they are come to thee: thy sons shall come from afar, and thy daughters shall rise up at thy side. Then shalt thou see and abound, and thy heart shall wonder and be enlarged, when the multitude of the sea shall be converted to thee, the strength of the gentiles shall come to thee. The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Madian and Ephraim: all they from Saba shall come, bringing gold and frankincense: and showing forth praise to the Lord.

GOSPEL.

Matt. ii. 1-12.

When Jesus, therefore, was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of king Herod, behold, there came wise men from the East to Jerusalem, saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? For we have seen his star in the East, and are come to adore him. And king Herod hearing this, was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him: and assembling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where Christ should be born. But they said to him, In Bethlehem, of Juda: for so it is written by the prophet: "And thou Bethlehem, the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come forth the captain that shall rule my people Israel." Then Herod, privately calling the wise men, learned diligently of them the time of the star which appeared to them; and sending them into Bethlehem, said: Go and diligently inquire after the child, and when you have found him, bring me word again, that I also may come and adore him. Who having heard the king, went their way: and behold, the star which they had seen in the East, went before them, until it came and stood over where the child was. And seeing the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. And entering into the house, they found the child with Mary his mother, and falling down, they adored him; and opening their treasures, they offered him gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

And having received an answer in sleep that they should not return to Herod, they went back another way into their country.

FIRST SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY.

EPISTLE.

Rom. xii. 1-5.

Brethren: I beseech you, by the mercy of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, pleasing unto God, your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be reformed in the newness of your mind, that you may prove what is the good, and the acceptable, and the perfect will of God. For I say, through the grace that is given me, to all that are among you, not to be more wise than it becometh to be wise, but to be wise unto sobriety, and according as God hath divided to every one the measure of faith. For as in one body we have many members, but all the members have not the same office: so we being many are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL.

Luke ii. 42-52.

When Jesus: was twelve years old, they going up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast, and having fulfilled the days, when they returned, the child Jesus remained in Jerusalem; and his parents knew it not. And thinking that he was in the company, they came a day's journey, and sought him among their kinsfolks and acquaintance. And not finding him, they returned into Jerusalem, seeking him. And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple sitting in the midst of the doctors, hearing them and asking them questions. And all that heard him were astonished at his wisdom and his answers. And seeing him, they wondered. And his mother said to him: Son, why hast thou done so to us? behold thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing. And he said to them: How is it that you sought me? did you not know that I must be about my Father's business? And they understood not the word that he spoke unto them. And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth: and was subject to them. And his mother kept all these words in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age, and grace with God and men.

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY.

EPISTLE.

Acts iv. 8-12.

In those days: Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said to them: Ye princes of the people and ancients, hear: If we this day are examined concerning the good deed done to the infirm man, by what means he hath been made whole, be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God hath raised from the dead, even by him this man standeth here before you whole. This is "the stone which was rejected by you the builders; which is become the head of the corner." Neither is there salvation in any other. For there is no other name under heaven given to men, whereby we must be saved.

GOSPEL OF THE FEAST.

Luke ii. 21, page 12.

GOSPEL OF THE SUNDAY.

John ii. 1-11.

Said at the end of Mass.

At that time : There was a marriage in Cana of Galilee : and the mother of Jesus was there. And Jesus also was invited, and his disciples, to the marriage. And the wine failing, the mother of Jesus saith to him : They have no wine. And Jesus saith to her : Woman, what is it to me and to thee ? my hour is not yet come. His mother saith to the waiters : Whatsoever he shall say to you, do ye. Now there were set there six water-pots of stone, according to the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three measures a-piece. Jesus saith to them : Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. And Jesus saith to them : Draw out now and carry to the chief steward of the feast. And they carried it. And when the chief steward had tasted the water made wine, and knew not whence it was, but the waiters knew who had drawn the water ; the chief steward calleth the bridegroom, and saith to him : Every man at first setteth forth good wine, and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse : but thou hast kept the good wine until now. This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and he manifested his glory, and his disciples believed in him.

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY.

EPISTLE.

Rom. xii. 16-21.

Brethren : Be not wise in your own conceits. To no man rendering evil for evil. Providing good things not only in the sight of God, but also in the sight of all men. If it be possible, as much as is in you, having peace with all men. Not revenging yourselves, my dearly beloved ; but give place unto wrath, for it is written : " Revenge to me : I will repay, saith the Lord." But if thy enemy be hungry, give him to eat ; if he thirst, give him to drink ; for doing this thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head. Be not overcome by evil, but overcome evil by good.

GOSPEL.

Matt. viii. 1-13.

At that time : When Jesus was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him ; and behold a leper came and adored him, saying : Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And Jesus, stretching forth his hand, touched him, saying : I will, be thou made clean. And forthwith his leprosy was cleansed. And Jesus saith to him : See thou tell no man ; but go show thyself to the Priest, and offer the gift which Moses commanded for a testimony unto them. And when he had entered into Capharnaum, there came to him a centurion, beseeching him, and saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, and is grievously tormented. And Jesus saith to him : I will come and heal him. And the centurion, making answer, said : Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter under my roof ; but only say the word, and my servant shall be healed. For I also am a man subject to authority, having under me soldiers; and I say to this, Go, and he goeth, and to another, Come, and he cometh, and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. And Jesus, hearing this, marvelled; and said to them that followed him: Amen I say to you, I have not found so great faith in Israel. And I say to you that many shall come from the east and the west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven: but the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into the exterior darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. And Jesus said to the centurion: Go, and as thou hast believed, so be it done to thee. And the servant was healed at the same hour.

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY.

EPISTLE.

Rom. xiii. 8-10.

Brethren: Owe no man any thing, but to love one another. For he that loveth his neighbor, hath fulfilled the law. For "Thou shalt not commit adultery. Thou shalt not kill. Thou shalt not steal. Thou shalt not bear false witness. Thou shalt not covet." And if there be any other commandment, it is comprised in this word: "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." The love of our neighbor worketh no evil. Love therefore is the fulfilling of the law.

GOSPEL.

Matt. viii. 23-27.

At that time: When Jesus entered into the boat, his disciples followed him: and behold a great tempest arose in the sea, so that the boat was covered with waves, but he was asleep. And his disciples came to him, and awaked him, saying : Lord, save us, we perish. And Jesus saith to them : Why are you fearful, O ye of little faith ? Then rising up he commanded the winds and the sea, and there came a great calm. But the men wondered, saying : What manner of man is this, for the winds and the sea obey him ?

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY.

EPISTLE.

Coloss. iii. 12-17.

Brethren : Put ye on therefore, as the elect of God, holy, and beloved, the bowels of mercy, benignity, humility, modesty, patience : bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if any have a complaint against another : even as the Lord hath forgiven you, so do you also. But above all these things have charity, which is the bond of perfection : and let the peace of Christ rejoice in your hearts, wherein also you are called in one body ; and be ye thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you abundantly, in all wisdom : teaching and admonishing one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual canticles, singing in grace in your hearts to God. All whatsoever you do in word or in work, all things do ye in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, giving thanks to God and the Father by Jesus Christ our Lord.

GOSPEL.

Matt. xiii. 24-30.

At that time : Jesus spoke this parable to the multitude, saying : The kingdom of heaven is likened to a man that sowed good seed in his field. But while men were asleep, his enemy came and oversowed cockle among the wheat and went his way. And when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared also the cockle. Then the servants of the good man of the house came and said to him: Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? whence then hath it cockle? And he said to them: An enemy hath done this. And the servants said to him: Wilt thou that we go and gather it up? And he said: No, lest perhaps gathering up the cockle, you root up the wheat also together with it. Suffer both to grow until the harvest, and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers: Gather up first the cockle, and bind it in bundles to burn; but the wheat gather ye into my barn.

SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY.

EPISTLE.

1 Thess. i. 2-10.

Brethren: We give thanks to God always for you all: making a remembrance of you in our prayers without ceasing, being mindful of the work of your faith, and labor, and charity, and of the enduring of the hope of our Lord Jesus Christ before God and our Father: Knowing, brethren beloved of God, your election: for our gospel hath not been unto you in word only, but in power also, and in the Holy Ghost and in much fulness, as you know what manner of men we have been among you for your sakes. And you became followers of us, and of the Lord: receiving the word in much tribulation, with joy of the Holy Ghost: so that you were made a pattern to all who believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you were spread abroad the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place, your faith which is towards God, is gone forth, so that we need not to speak any thing. For they themselves relate of us, what manner of entering in we had unto you; and how you turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God. And to wait for his Son from heaven (whom he raised up from the dead), Jesus who hath delivered us from the wrath to come.

GOSPEL.

Matt. xiii. 31-35.

At that time: Jesus spoke to the multitudes this parable: The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took and sowed in his field. Which is the least indeed of all seeds; but when it is grown up, it is greater than all herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and dwell in the branches thereof. Another parable he spoke to them. The kingdom of heaven is like to leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, until the whole was leavened. All these things Jesus spoke in parables to the multitudes: and without parables he did not speak to them. That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying: "I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world."

SEPTUAGESIMA SUNDAY.

EPISTLE.

1 Cor. ix. 24; x. 5.

Brethren: Know you not that they that run in the race, all run indeed, but one receiveth the prize? So run that you may obtain.

And every one that striveth for the mastery refraineth himself from all things : and they indeed that they may receive a corruptible crown : but we an incorruptible one. I therefore so run, not as at an uncertainty : I so fight, not as one beating the air : but I chastise my body, and bring it into subjection : lest perhaps, when I have preached to others, I myself should become a cast-away. For I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea. And all in Moses were baptized, in the cloud, and in the sea : and did all eat the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink : (and they drank of the spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ). But with the most of them God was not well pleased.

GOSPEL.

Matt. xx. 1-15.

At that time : Jesus said to his disciples this parable : The kingdom of heaven is like to a householder, who went early in the morning to hire laborers into his vineyard. And having agreed with the laborers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And going out about the third hour, he saw others standing in the market-place idle. And he said to them : Go you also into my vineyard, and I will give you what shall be just. And they went their way. And again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did in like manner. But about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing, and he saith to them : Why stand you there all the day idle ? They say to him : Because no man hath hired us. He saith to them : Go you also into my vineyard. And when evening was come, the lord of the vineyard saith to his steward : Call the laborers and pay them their hire, beginning from the last even to the first. When therefore they were come, that came about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny. But when the first also came, they thought that they should receive more: and they also received every man a penny. And receiving it, they murmured against the master of the house, saying: These last have worked but one hour, and thou hast made them equal to us, that have borne the burden of the day and the heats. But he answering one of them, said: Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst thou not agree with me for a penny? Take what is thine and go thy way: I will also give to this last even as to thee. Or, is it not lawful for me to do what I will? is thy eye evil because I am good? So shall the last be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few chosen.

SEXAGESIMA SUNDAY.

EPISTLE.

2 Cor. xi. 19; xii. 9.

Brethren: You gladly suffer the foolish: whereas yourselves are wise. For you suffer if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take from you, if a man be lifted up, if a man strike you on the face. I speak according to dishonor, as if we had been weak in this part. Wherein any man dares (I speak foolishly) I dare also. They are Hebrews: so am I. They are Israelites: so am I. They are the seed of Abraham: so am I. They are the ministers of Christ (I speak as one less wise), I am more: in many more labors, in prisons more frequently, in stripes above measure, in deaths often. Of the Jews five times did I receive forty stripes, save one. Thrice was I beaten with rods, once I was stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck; a night and a day

I was in the depth of the sea : in journeying often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils from my own nation, in perils from the gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils from false brethren : in labor and painfulness, in many watchings, in hunger and thirst, in many fastings, in cold and nakedness. Besides those things which are without : my daily instance, the solicitude for all the churches. Who is weak, and I am not weak ? Who is scandalized, and I am not on fire ? If I must needs glory : I will glory of the things that concern my infirmity. The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is blessed forever, knoweth that I lie not. At Damascus the governor of the nation under Aretas the king, guarded the city of the Damascenes to apprehend me. And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and so escaped his hands. If I must glory (it is not expedient indeed) : but I will come to the visions and revelations of the Lord. I know a man in Christ above fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I know not, or out of the body, I know not, God knoweth), such an one rapt even to the third heaven. And I know such a man; whether in the body, or out of the body, I know not : God knoweth : that he was caught up into paradise ; and heard secret words which it is not granted to man to utter. For such an one I will glory : but for myself I will glory in nothing, but in my infirmities. For even if I should have a mind to glory, I shall not be foolish : for I will say the truth. But I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth in me, or anything he heareth from me. And lest the greatness of the revelations should lift me up, there was given me a sting of my flesh, an angel of Satan, to buffet me. For which thing thrice I besought the Lord, that it might depart from me : and he said to me : My grace is sufficient for thee ;

for power is made perfect in infirmity. Gladly therefore will I glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

GOSPEL.

Luke viii. 4-15.

At that time: When a very great multitude was gathered together and hastened out of the cities unto him, he spoke by a similitude. The sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some fell by the wayside, and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it. And other some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it had no moisture. And other some fell among thorns, and the thorns growing up with it, choked it. And other some fell upon good ground; and being sprung up, yielded fruit a hundred fold. Saying these things, he cried out: He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. And his disciples asked him what the parable might be. To whom he said: To you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but to the rest in parables, that seeing they may not see, and hearing may not understand. Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. And they by the wayside, are they that hear: then the devil cometh, and taketh the word out of their heart, lest believing they should be saved. Now they upon the rock, are they who when they hear, receive the word with joy: and these have no roots; who believe for a while, and in time of temptation, fall away. And that which fell among thorns, are they who have heard, and going their way, are choked, with the cares, and riches, and pleasures of this life, and yield no fruit. But that on the good ground, are they who in a good and perfect heart, hearing the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit in patience.

QUINQUAGESIMA SUNDAY.

EPISTLE.

1 Cor. xiii. 1-13.

Brethren : If I speak with the tongues of men, and of angels, and have no charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal. And if I should have prophecy, and should know all mysteries, and all knowledge, and if I should have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. And if I should distribute all my goods to feed the poor, and if I should deliver my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing. Charity is patient, is kind : charity envieth not, deal-eth not perversely, is not puffed up, is not ambitious, seeketh not her own, is not provoked to anger, thinketh no evil, rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth with the truth : beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Charity never falleth away : whether prophecies shall be made void, or tongues shall cease, or knowledge shall be destroyed. For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. But when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part shall be done away. When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child. But when I became a man, I put away the things of a child. We see now through a glass in a dark manner : but then face to face. Now I know in part : but then I shall know even as I am known. And now there remain, faith, hope, charity, these three : but the greater of these is charity.

GOSPEL.

Luke xviii. 31-43.

At that time : Jesus took unto him the twelve, and said to them : Behold we go up to Jerusalem, and all things shall be accomplished which were written by the prophets concerning the Son of man. For he shall be delivered to the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and scourged, and spit upon: and after they have scourged him, they will put him to death, and the third day he shall rise again. And they understood none of these things, and this word was hid from them, and they understood not the things that were said. Now it came to pass when he drew nigh to Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the wayside, begging. And when he heard the multitude passing by, he asked what this meant. And they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. And he cried out, saying: Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me. And they that went before, rebuked him, that he should hold his peace. But he cried out much more: Son of David, have mercy on me. And Jesus standing commanded him to be brought unto him. And when he was come near, he asked him saying: What wilt thou that I do to thee? But he said: Lord, that I may see. And Jesus said to him: Receive thy sight: thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he saw, and followed him, glorifying God. And all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

ASH WEDNESDAY.

EPISTLE.

Joel ii. 12-19.

Thus saith the Lord: Be converted to me with all your heart, in fasting, and in weeping, and in mourning. And rend your hearts, and not your garments, and turn to the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, patient and rich in mercy, and ready to repent of the evil. Who knoweth but he will return, and forgive, and leave a blessing behind him, sacrifice and libation to the Lord your God? Blow the trumpet in Sion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly. Gather together the people, sanctify the church, assemble the ancients, gather together the little ones, and them that suck at the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth from his bed, and the bride out of her bride-chamber. Between the porch and the altar the priests the Lord's ministers shall weep, and shall say: Spare, O Lord, spare thy people: and give not thy inheritance to reproach, that the heathens should rule over them. Why should they say among the nations: Where is their God? The Lord hath been zealous for his land, and hath spared his people. And the Lord answered and said to his people: Behold I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and you shall be filled with them: and I will no more make you a reproach among the nations, saith the Lord Almighty.

GOSPEL.

Matt. vi. 16-21.

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples: When you fast, be not as the hypocrites, sad. For they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Amen I say to you, they have received their reward. But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thy head, and wash thy face. That thou appear not to men to fast, but to thy Father who is in secret: and thy Father who seeth in secret, will repay thee. Lay not up to yourselves treasures on earth: where the rust and moth consume, and where thieves break through and steal. But lay up to yourselves treasures in heaven: where neither rust nor moth doth consume, and where thieves do not break through, nor steal. For where thy treasure is, there is thy heart also.

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT.

EPISTLE.

2 Cor. vi. 1-10.

Brethren : We do exhort you that you receive not the grace of God in vain. For he saith : " In an accepted time have I heard thee : and in the day of salvation have I helped thee." Behold now is the acceptable time : behold now is the day of salvation. Giving no offence to any man, that our ministry be not blamed : but in all things let us exhibit ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in tribulation, in necessities, in distresses, in stripes, in prisons, in seditions, in labors, in watchings, in fastings, in chastity, in knowledge, in long-suffering, in sweetness, in the Holy Ghost, in charity unfeigned, in the word of truth, in the power of God : by the armor of justice on the right hand and on the left, by honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report : as deceivers and yet true : as unknown, and yet known : as dying, and behold we live : as chastised, and not killed : as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing : as needy, yet enriching many : as having nothing, and possessing all things.

GOSPEL.

Matt. iv. 1-11.

At that time : Jesus was led by the spirit into the desert, to be tempted by the devil. And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, afterwards he was hungry. And the tempter coming, said to him : If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. Who answered and said : It is written, " Not in bread alone doth man live, but in every word that proceedeth from the mouth of God." Then the devil took him up into the holy city, and set him upon the pinnacle of the temple, and said to him : If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down, for it is written: "That he hath given his Angels charge over thee, and in their hands shall they bear thee up, lest perhaps thou dash thy foot against a stone." Jesus said to him: It is written again: "Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God." Again the devil took him up into a very high mountain: and showed him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them. And he said to him: All these will I give thee, if falling down thou wilt adore me. Then Jesus saith to him: Begone, Satan: for it is written, "The Lord thy God shalt thou adore, and him only shalt thou serve." Then the devil left him: and behold Angels came and ministered to him.

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT.

EPISTLE.

1 Thess. iv. 1-7.

Brethren: We pray and beseech you in the Lord Jesus, that as you have received of us, how you ought to walk, and to please God, so also you would walk, that you may abound the more. For you know what precepts I have given to you by the Lord Jesus. For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you should abstain from fornication. That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honor: not in the passion of lust, like the gentiles that know not God: and that no man overreach, nor circumvent his brother in business: because the Lord is the avenger of all these things, as we have told you before, and have testified. For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto sanctification in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL.

Matt. xvii. 1-9.

At that time: Jesus taketh unto him Peter and James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart. And he was transfigured before them. And his face did shine as the sun: and his garments became white as snow. And behold there appeared to them Moses and Elias talking with him. And Peter answering, said to Jesus: Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias. And as he was yet speaking, behold a bright cloud overshadowed them. And lo a voice out of the cloud, saying: This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased: hear ye him. And the disciples hearing, fell upon their face, and were very much afraid. And Jesus came and touched them: and said to them: Arise and fear not. And they lifting up their eyes saw no one, but only Jesus. And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying: Tell the vision to no man, till the Son of man be risen from the dead.

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT.

EPISTLE.

Eph. v. 1-5.

Brethren: Be ye the followers of God, as most dear children. And walk in love as Christ also hath loved us, and hath delivered himself for us, an oblation and a sacrifice to God for an odor of sweetness. But fornication and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not so much as be named among you, as becometh saints: or obscenity, or foolish talking, or scurrility, which is to no purpose : but rather giving of thanks. For know ye this, and understand that no fornicator, nor unclean, nor covetous person (which is a serving of idols), hath inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. Let no man deceive you with vain words. For because of these things cometh the anger of God upon the children of unbelief. Be ye not therefore partakers with them. For you were heretofore darkness, but now light in the Lord. Walk ye as children of the light : for the fruit of the light is in all goodness, and justice, and truth.

GOSPEL.

Luke xi. 14-28.

At that time : Jesus was casting out a devil, and the same was dumb ; and when he had cast out the devil, the dumb spoke ; and the multitude were in admiration at it : but some of them said : He casteth out devils by Beelzebub, the prince of devils. And others tempting, asked of him a sign from heaven. But he, seeing their thoughts, said to them : Every kingdom divided against itself shall be brought to desolation, and house upon house shall fall. And if Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand ? because you say, that through Beelzebub I cast out devils. Now if I cast out devils by Beelzebub : by whom do your children cast them out ? Therefore they shall be your judges. But if I, by the finger of God, cast out devils : doubtless the kingdom of God is come upon you. When a strong man armed keepeth his court : those things are in peace which he possesseth. But if a stronger than he come upon him and overcome him : he will take away all his armor wherein he trusted, and will distribute his spoils. He that is not with me, is against me : and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth. When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through places without water, seeking rest: and not finding, he saith: I will return into my house whence I came out. And when he is come, he findeth it swept and garnished. Then he goeth and taketh with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and entering in they dwell there. And the last state of that man becometh worse than the first. And it came to pass: as he spoke these things, a certain woman from the crowd lifting up her voice said to him: Blessed is the womb that bore thee, and the paps that gave thee suck. But he said: Yea, rather, blessed are they who hear the word of God and keep it.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT.

EPISTLE.

Gal. iv. 22-31.

Brethren: It is written that Abraham had two sons: the one by a bond-woman, and the other by a free-woman: but he who was of the bond-woman, was born according to the flesh: but he of the free-woman, was by promise. Which things are said by an allegory: for these are the two testaments; the one from Mount Sina engendering unto bondage; which is Agar: for Sina is a mountain in Arabia, which hath affinity to that Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children. But that Jerusalem which is above, is free: which is our mother. For it is written: "Rejoice, thou barren, that bearest not: break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for many are the children of the desolate, more than of her that hath a husband:" now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. But as then he that was born according to the flesh, persecuted him that was after the spirit: so also it is now. But what saith the Scripture? "Cast out the bond-woman and her son; for the son of the bond-woman shall not be heir with the son of the free-woman." So then, brethren, we are not the children of the bond-woman, but of the free: by the freedom wherewith Christ has made us free.

GOSPEL.

John vi. 1-15.

At that time: Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is that of Tiberias: and a great multitude followed him, because they saw the miracles which he did on them that were diseased. Jesus therefore went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples. Now the pasch, the festival day of the Jews, was near at hand. When Jesus therefore had lifted up his eyes, and seen that a very great multitude cometh to him, he said to Philip: Whence shall we buy bread that these may eat? And this he said to try him, for he himself knew what he would do. Philip answered him: Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one may take a little. One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, saith to him: There is a boy here that hath five barley loaves, and two fishes; but what are these among so many? Then Jesus said: Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. The men therefore sat down, in number about five thousand. And Jesus took the loaves: and when he had given thanks, he distributed to them that were sat down. In like manner also of the fishes as much as they would. And when they were filled, he said to his disciples:

Gather up the fragments that remain, lest they be lost. They gathered up therefore, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above to them that had eaten. So those men, when they had seen what a miracle Jesus had done, said: This is of a truth the prophet that is to come into the world. Jesus therefore when he knew that they would come to take him by force and make him king, fled again into the mountain himself alone.

PASSION SUNDAY.

EPISTLE.

Heb. ix. 11-15.

Brethren: Christ being come an high-priest of the good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle not made with hands, that is, not of this creation: neither by the blood of goats, nor of calves, but by his own blood, entered once into the Holies, having obtained eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and of oxen, and the ashes of an heifer being sprinkled, sanctify such as are defiled, to the cleansing of the flesh: how much more shall the blood of Christ, who by the Holy Ghost offered himself unspotted unto God, cleanse our conscience from dead works, to serve the living God? And therefore he is the mediator of the new testament: that by means of his death, for the redemption of those transgressions, which were under the former testament, they that are called may receive the promise of eternal inheritance in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL.

John viii. 46-59.

At that time: Jesus said to the multitude of the Jews: Which of you shall convince me of sin? If I say the truth to you, why do you not believe me? He that is of God, heareth the words of God. Therefore you hear them not, because you are not of God. The Jews therefore answered and said to him: Do not we say well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil? Jesus answered: I have not a devil; but I honor my Father, and you have dishonored me. But I seek not my own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth. Amen, amen, I say to you: If any man keep my word, he shall not see death forever. The Jews therefore said: Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest: If any man keep my word, he shall not taste death forever. Art thou greater than our father Abraham, who is dead? And the prophets are dead. Whom dost thou make thyself? Jesus answered: If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father that glorifieth me, of whom you say that he is your God. And you have not known him, but I know him. And if I shall say that I know him not, I shall be like to you, a liar. But I do know him, and do keep his word. Abraham your father rejoiced that he might see my day: he saw it, and was glad. The Jews therefore said to him: Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? Jesus said to them: Amen, amen, I say to you, before Abraham was made, I am. They took up stones therefore to cast at him. But Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple.

PALM SUNDAY.

EPISTLE.

Phil. ii. 5-11.

Brethren: Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus; who being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but debased himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men, and in habit found as a man. He humbled himself, becoming obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. For which cause God also hath exalted him, and hath given him a name which is above every name, that in the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those that are in heaven, on earth, and under the earth. And that every tongue should confess that the Lord Jesus Christ is in the glory of God the Father.

THE PASSION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST.

GOSPEL.

Matt. xxvi. and xxvii.

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples: You know that after two days shall be the pasch, and the Son of man shall be delivered up to be crucified. Then were gathered together the chief priests and ancients of the people into the court of the high-priest, who was called Caiphas: and they consulted together, that by subtilty they might apprehend Jesus, and put him to death. But they said: Not on the festival day, lest perhaps there should be a tumult among the people. And when Jesus was in Bethania, in the house of Simon the leper, there came to him a woman having an alabaster box of precious ointment, and poured it on his head as he was at table. And the disciples seeing it, had indignation, saying: To what purpose is this waste? for this might have been sold for much, and given to the poor. And Jesus knowing it, said to them: Why do you trouble this woman? For she hath wrought a good work upon me. For the poor you have always with you: but me you have not always. For she in pouring this ointment upon my body, hath done it for my burial. Amen, I say to you, wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, that also which she hath done, shall be told for a memory of her. Then went one of the twelve who was called Judas Iscariot, to the chief priests. And said to them: What will you give me, and I will deliver him unto you? But they appointed him thirty pieces of silver. And from thenceforth he sought opportunity to betray him.

And on the first day of the Azymes the disciples came to Jesus, saying: Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the pasch? But Jesus said: Go ye into the city to a certain man, and say to him: The master saith, My time is near at hand, with thee I make the pasch with my disciples. And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed to them, and they prepared the pasch. But when it was evening, he sat down with his twelve disciples. And whilst they were eating, he said: Amen I say to you, that one of you is about to betray me. And they being very much troubled, began every one to say, Is it I, Lord? But he answering said: He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, he shall betray me. The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man, by whom the Son of man shall be betrayed: It were better for him, if that man had not been born. And Judas that betrayed him, answering said: Is it I, Rabbi? He saith to him: Thou hast said it. And whilst they were at supper, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and broke; and gave to his disciples, and said: Take ye, and eat: this is my body. And taking the chalice he gave thanks; and gave to them, saying: Drink ye all of this. For this is my blood of the new testament, which shall be shed for many unto remission of sins. And I say to you I will not drink from thenceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I shall drink it with you new in the kingdom of my Father. And a hymn being said, they went out into Mount Olivet. Then Jesus saith to them: All you shall be scandalized in me this night. For it is written: "I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be dispersed." But after I shall be risen again I will go before you into Galilee. And Peter answering, said to him: Although all shall be scandalized in thee, I will never be scandalized. Jesus said to him: Amen I say to thee, that in this night before the cock crow, thou wilt deny me thrice. Peter saith to him: Yea, though I should die with thee, I will not deny thee. And in like manner said all the disciples. Then Jesus came with them into a country place which is called Gethsemani: and he said to his disciples: Sit you here, till I go yonder and pray. And taking with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, he began to grow sorrowful and to be sad. Then he saith to them: My soul is sorrowful even unto death: stay you here and watch with me. And going a little further, he fell upon his face, praying, and saying: My Father, if it be possible, let this chalice pass from me. Nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt. And he cometh to his disciples: and findeth them asleep, and he saith to Peter: What? could you not watch one hour with me? Watch ye, and pray that ye enter not into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh weak. Again the second time, he went and prayed, saying: My Father, if this chalice may not pass away, but I must drink it, thy will be done. And he cometh again, and findeth them sleeping: for their eyes were heavy. And leaving them, he went again: and he prayed the third time, saying the self-same word. Then he cometh to his disciples and saith to them: Sleep ye now and take your rest : behold the hour is at hand, and the Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise, let us go : behold he is at hand that will betray me. As he yet spoke, behold Judas one of the twelve came, and with him a great multitude with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests and the ancients of the people. And he that betrayed him, gave them a sign, saying : Whomsoever I shall kiss, that is he, hold him fast. And forthwith coming to Jesus, he said : Hail, Rabbi. And he kissed him. And Jesus said to him : Friend, whereto art thou come ? Then they came up, and laid hands on Jesus, and held him. And behold one of them, that were with Jesus, stretching forth his hand, drew out his sword : and striking the servant of the high-priest, cut off his ear. Then Jesus saith to him : Put up again thy sword into its place : for all that take the sword shall perish with the sword. Thinkest thou that I cannot ask my Father, and he will give me presently more than twelve legions of angels ? How then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that so it must be done ? In that same hour Jesus said to the multitudes : You are come out as it were to a robber with swords and clubs to apprehend me. I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and you laid not hands on me. Now all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then the disciples all leaving him, fled. But they holding Jesus led him to Caiphas the high-priest, where the scribes and ancients were assembled. And Peter followed him afar off, even to the court of the high-priest. And going in, he sat with the servants, that he might see the end. And the chief-priests and the whole council sought false witness against Jesus, that they might put him to death : and they found not, whereas many false witnesses had come in. And last of all there came two false witnesses : and they said : This man said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and after three days to rebuild it. And the high-priest rising up, said to him : Answerest thou nothing to the things which these witness against thee? But Jesus held his peace. And the high-priest said to him : I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us if thou be the Christ the Son of God. Jesus saith to him, Thou hast said it. Nevertheless I say to you, hereafter you shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of the power of God, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Then the high-priest rent his garments, saying : He hath blasphemed : what further need have we of witnesses? Behold, now you have heard the blasphemy ; what think you ? But they answering said : He is guilty of death. Then did they spit in his face, and buffet him, and others struck his face with the palms of their hands, saying : Prophecy unto us, O Christ ; who is he that struck thee ? But Peter sat without in the court : and there came to him a servant maid, saying : Thou also wast with Jesus the Galilean. But he denied before them all, saying : I know not what thou sayest. And as he went out of the gate, another maid saw him, and she saith to them that were there : This man also was with Jesus of Nazareth. And again he denied with an oath : That I know not the man. And after a little while they came that stood by and said to Peter : Surely thou also art one of them : for even thy speech doth discover thee. Then he began to curse and to swear that he knew not the man. And immediately the cock crew. And Peter remembered the word of Jesus which he had said : Before the cock crow, thou wilt deny me thrice. And going forth he wept bitterly. And when morning was come, all the chief priests and ancients of the people took counsel against Jesus, that they might put him to death. And they brought him bound, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor. Then Judas who betrayed him, seeing that he was condemned : repenting himself, brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and ancients, saying : I have sinned in betraying innocent blood. But they said : What is that to us ? look thou to it. And casting down the pieces of silver in the temple he departed : and went and hanged himself with a halter. But the chief priests having taken the pieces of silver, said : It is not lawful to put them into the corbona, because it is the price of blood. And after they had consulted together, they bought with them the potter's field, to be a burying-place for strangers. For this cause that field was called Haceldama, that is, the field of blood, even to this day. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremias the prophet, saying : " And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was prized, whom they prized of the children of Israel. And they gave them unto the potter's field, as the Lord appointed to me." And Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor asked him, saying : Art thou the king of the Jews ? Jesus saith to him : Thou sayest it. And when he was accused by the chief priests and ancients, he answered nothing. Then Pilate saith to him : Dost not thou hear how great testimonies they allege against thee ? And he answered him not to any word : so that the governor wondered exceedingly. Now upon the solemn day the governor was accustomed to release to the people one prisoner whom they would. And he had then a notorious prisoner, that was called Barabbas. They therefore being gathered together, Pilate said : Whom will you that I release to you, Barabbas, or Jesus that is called Christ ? For he knew that for envy they had delivered him. And as he was sitting on the judgment-seat his wife sent to him, saying: Have thou nothing to do with that just man. For I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him. But the chief priests and ancients persuaded the people, that they should ask Barabbas, and make Jesus away. And the governor answering, said to them: Whether will you of the two to be released unto you? But they said, Barabbas. Pilate saith to them: What shall I do then with Jesus that is called Christ? They say all: Let him be crucified. The governor said to them: Why what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying: Let him be crucified. And Pilate seeing that he prevailed nothing: but rather a tumult was made: taking water, washed his hands before the people, saying: I am innocent of the blood of this just man: look you to it. And the whole people answering, said: His blood be upon us and upon our children. Then he released to them Barabbas, and having scourged Jesus, delivered him unto them to be crucified. Then the soldiers of the governor taking Jesus into the hall, gathered together unto him the whole band: and stripping him, they put a scarlet cloak about him, and plating a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand. And bowing the knee before him, they mocked him, saying: Hail, king of the Jews. And spitting upon him, they took the reed, and struck his head. And after they had mocked him, they took off the cloak from him and put on him his own garments, and led him away to crucify him. And going out they found a man of Cyrene, named Simon: him they forced to take up his cross. And they came to the place that is called Golgotha, which is the place of Calvary. And they gave him wine to drink mingled with gall. And when he had tasted, he would not drink. And after they had crucified him, they divided his garments ; casting lots : that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying : "They divided my garments among them ; and upon my vesture they cast lots." And they sat and watched him. And they put over his head his cause, written : "THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS." Then were crucified with him two thieves : one on the right hand, and one on the left. And they that passed by blasphemed him, wagging their heads, and saying : Vah, thou that destroyest the temple of God, and in three days dost rebuild it : save thy own self ; if thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross. In like manner also the chief priests with the scribes and ancients mocking, said : He saved others : himself he cannot save : if he be the king of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him. He trusted in God : let him now deliver him if he will have him : For he said : I am the Son of God. And the self-same thing the thieves also, that were crucified with him, reproached him with. Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over the whole earth, until the ninth hour. And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying : Eli, Eli, lamma sabacthani ? that is, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me ? And some that stood there and heard, said : This man calleth Elias. And immediately one of them running took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar ; and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink. And the others said : Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to deliver him. And Jesus again crying with a loud voice, YIELDED UP THE GHOST.* And behold the veil of the temple was rent in two from the top even to the bottom, and the earth

quaked, and the rocks were rent. And the graves were opened : and many bodies of the saints that had slept, arose, and coming out of the tombs after his resurrection, came into the holy city, and appeared unto many. Now the centurion, and they that were with him watching Jesus, having seen the earthquake and the things that were done, were sore afraid, saying : Indeed this was the Son of God. And there were there many women afar off, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him : among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee. And when it was evening, there came a certain rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was a disciple of Jesus. He went to Pilate and asked the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded that the body should be delivered. And Joseph taking the body, wrapped it up in a clean linen cloth, and laid it in his own new monument, which he had hewed out in a rock. And he rolled a great stone to the door of the monument, and went his way. And there was there Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary sitting over against the sepulchre.* And the next day, which followed the day of preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees came together to Pilate, saying : Sir, we have remembered, that that seducer said, while he was yet alive : After three days I will rise again. Command therefore the sepulchre to be guarded until the third day : lest perhaps his disciples come and steal him away, and say to the people, He is risen from the dead : and the last error shall be worse than the first. Pilate said to them : You have a guard ; go, guard it as you know. And they departing, made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting guards.

* Here the priest goes to the middle of the altar, and says the prayer Munda, &c., as in the Ordinary of the Mass.

EASTER SUNDAY.

EPISTLE.

1 Cor. v. 7-8.

Brethren : Purge out the old leaven, that you may be a new paste, as you are unleavened. For Christ, our pasch, is sacrificed. Therefore let us feast, not with the old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

GOSPEL.

Mark xvi. 1-7.

At that time : Mary Magdalen and Mary the mother of James and Salome bought sweet spices, that coming they might anoint Jesus. And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they come to the sepulchre, the sun being now risen. And they said one to another : Who shall roll us back the stone from the door of the sepulchre ? And looking, they saw the stone rolled back : for it was very great. And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed with a white robe : and they were astonished. Who saith to them : Be not affrighted ; ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified : he is risen, he is not here, behold the place where they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee : there you shall see him, as he told you.

LOW SUNDAY, OR SUNDAY IN WHITE.

EPISTLE.

1 John v. 4-10.

Dearlly beloved : Whatsoever is born of God, overcometh the world : and this is the victory which overcometh the world, our faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? This is he that came by water and blood, Jesus Christ: not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit which testifieth, that Christ is the truth. For there are three who give testimony in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost. And these three are one. And there are three that give testimony on earth: the spirit, and the water, and the blood, and these three are one. If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater. For this is the testimony of God, which is greater, because he hath testified of his Son. He that believeth in the Son of God, hath the testimony of God in himself.

GOSPEL.

John xx. 19-31.

At that time: When it was late that same day, the first of the week, and the doors were shut, where the disciples were gathered together for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them: Peace be to you. And when he had said this, he showed them his hands, and his side. The disciples therefore were glad, when they saw the Lord. He said therefore to them again: Peace be to you. As the Father hath sent me, I also send you. When he had said this, he breathed on them; and he said to them: Receive ye the Holy Ghost. Whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven them: and whose sins you shall retain, they are retained. Now Thomas, one of the twelve, who is called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. The other disciples therefore said to him: We have seen the Lord. But he said to them: Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the place of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe. And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Jesus cometh, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said: Peace be to you. Then he saith to Thomas: Put in thy finger hither, and see my hands; and bring hither thy hand, and put it into my side; and be not faithless but believing. Thomas answered, and said to him: My Lord, and my God. Jesus saith to him: Because thou hast seen me, Thomas, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and have believed. Many other signs also did Jesus in the sight of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ the Son of God: and that believing you may have life in his name.

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EASTER.

EPISTLE.

1 Peter ii. 21-25.

Dearly beloved: Christ suffered for us, leaving you an example that you should follow his steps. "Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth." Who, when he was reviled, did not revile: when he suffered, he threatened not: but delivered himself to him that judged him unjustly. Who his own self bore our sins in his body upon the tree: that we being dead to sins, should live to justice: by whose stripes you were healed. For you were as sheep going astray: but you are now converted to the shepherd and bishop of your souls.

GOSPEL.

John x. 11-16.

At that time Jesus said to the Pharisees: I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd giveth his life for his sheep. But the hireling and he that is not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming and leaveth the sheep, and flieth: and the wolf catcheth and scattereth the sheep: and the hireling flieth because he is a hireling: and he hath no care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd: and I know mine, and mine know me. As the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for my sheep. And other sheep I have, that are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice, and there shall be one fold and one shepherd.

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EASTER.

EPISTLE.

Gen. xlix. 22-26.

Joseph is a growing son, a growing son and comely to behold; the daughters run to and fro upon the wall. But they that held darts provoked him, and quarrelled with him, and envied him. His bow rested upon the strong, and the bands of his hands and his arms were loosed, by the hands of the mighty one of Jacob: thence he came forth a pastor, the stone of Israel. The God of thy father shall be thy helper, and the Almighty shall bless thee with the blessings of heaven above, with the blessings of the deep that lieth beneath, with the blessings of the breasts and of the womb. The blessings of thy father are strengthened with the blessings of his fathers: until the desire of the everlasting hills should come; may they be upon the head of Joseph, and upon the crown of the Nazarene among his brethren.

GOSPEL OF THE FEAST.

Luke iii. 21-23.

At that time : It came to pass, when all the people was baptized, that Jesus also being baptized and praying, heaven was opened, and the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape as a dove upon him ; and a voice came from heaven : Thou art my beloved Son : in thee I am well pleased. And Jesus himself was beginning about the age of thirty years, being, as it was supposed, the son of Joseph.

GOSPEL OF THE SUNDAY.

John xvi. 16-22.

Said at the end of Mass.

At that time Jesus said to his disciples : A little while, and now you shall not see me : and again a little while, and you shall see me : because I go to the Father. Then some of his disciples said one to another : What is this that he saith to us : A little while and you shall not see me : and again a little while and you shall see me, and because I go to the Father ? They said therefore : What is this that he saith, a little while ? We know not what he speaketh. And Jesus knew that they had a mind to ask him ; and he said to them : Of this do you inquire among yourselves, because I said : A little while, and you shall not see me : and again a little while, and you shall see me ? Amen, amen, I say to you, that you shall lament and weep, but the world shall rejoice : and you shall be made sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman, when she is in labor, hath sorrow, because her hour is come : but when she hath brought forth the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. So also you now indeed have sorrow, but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice: and your joy no man shall take from you.

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EASTER.

EPISTLE.

James i. 17-21.

Dearlly beloved: Every best gift, and every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no change, nor shadow of alteration. For of his own will hath he begotten us by the word of truth, that we might be some beginning of his creatures. You know, my dearest brethren: and let every man be swift to hear, but slow to speak, and slow to anger. For the anger of man worketh not the justice of God. Wherefore casting away all uncleanness, and abundance of naughtiness, with meekness receive the ingrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

GOSPEL.

John xvi. 5-14.

At that time Jesus said to his disciples: I go to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me: Whither goest thou? But because I have spoken these things to you, sorrow hath filled your heart. But I tell you the truth: it is expedient to you that I go: for if I go not, the Paraclete will not come to you: but if I go I will send him to you. And when he is come, he will convince the world of sin, and of justice, and of judgment. Of sin: because they believed not in me. And of justice : because I go to the Father ; and you shall see me no longer. And of judgment : because the prince of this world is already judged. I have yet many things to say to you : but you cannot bear them now. But when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will teach you all truth. For he shall not speak of himself : but what things soever he shall hear, he shall speak, and the things that are to come he shall shew you. He shall glorify me ; because he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it to you.

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER EASTER.

EPISTLE.

James i. 22-27.

Dearly beloved : Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if a man be a hearer of the word and not a doer, he shall be compared to a man beholding his natural countenance in a glass. For he beheld himself, and went his way, and presently forgot what manner of man he was. But he that hath looked into the perfect law of liberty, and hath continued therein, not becoming a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work ; this man shall be blessed in his deed. And if any man think himself to be religious, not bridling his tongue, but deceiving his own heart, this man's religion is vain. Religion clean and undefiled before God and the Father, is this : to visit the fatherless and widows in their tribulation ; and to keep one's self unspotted from this world.

GOSPEL.

John xvi. 23-30.

At that time, Jesus said to his disciples : Amen, amen, I say to you, if you ask the Father any thing in my name, he will give it you. Hitherto you have not asked any thing in my name. Ask, and you shall receive: that your joy may be full. These things I have spoken to you in proverbs. The hour cometh when I will no more speak to you in proverbs, but will show you plainly of the Father. In that day you shall ask in my name: and I say not to you, that I will ask the Father for you. For the Father himself loveth you, because you have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God. I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again I leave the world, and I go to the Father. His disciples say to him: Behold now thou speakest plainly, and speakest no proverb. Now we know that thou knowest all things, and thou needest not that any man should ask thee. By this we believe that thou comest forth from God.

THE ASCENSION OF OUR LORD.

EPISTLE.

Acts i. 1-11.

The former treatise I made, O Theophilus, of all things which Jesus began to do and to teach, until the day on which, giving commandments by the Holy Ghost to the apostles whom he had chosen, he was taken up. To whom also he showed himself alive after his passion, by many proofs, for forty days appearing to them, and speaking of the kingdom of God. And eating together with them, he commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but should wait for the promise of the Father, which you have heard, saith he, by my mouth: for John, indeed, baptized with water, but you shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence. They therefore who were come together asked him, saying : Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel ? But he said to them : It is not for you to know the times or moments which the Father hath put in his own power. But you shall receive the power of the Holy Ghost coming upon you, and you shall be witnesses unto me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and Samaria, and even to the uttermost part of the earth. And when he had said these things, while they looked on, he was raised up : and a cloud received him out of their sight. And while they were beholding him going up to heaven, behold two men stood by them in white garments, who also said : Ye men of Galilee, why stand you looking up to heaven ? This Jesus who is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come as you have seen him going into heaven.

GOSPEL.

Mark xiv. 14-20.

At that time : As the eleven were at table, Jesus appeared to them, and upbraided them with their incredulity and hardness of heart, because they did not believe them who had seen him after he was risen again. And he said to them : Go ye into the whole world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized, shall be saved : but he that believeth not shall be condemned. And these signs shall follow them that believe : in my name they shall cast out devils : they shall speak with new tongues : they shall take up serpents : and if they shall drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them : they shall lay their hands upon the sick, and they shall recover. And the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God. But they going forth preached everywhere : the Lord working withal, and confirming the word with signs that followed.

SUNDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF THE ASCENSION.

EPISTLE.

1 Peter iv. 7-11.

Dearly beloved : Be prudent, and watch in prayers. But before all things have a constant mutual charity among yourselves : for charity covereth a multitude of sins. Using hospitality one towards another without murmuring. As every man hath received grace, ministering the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If any man speak, let him speak as the words of God. If any man minister, let him do it as of the power which God administereth : that in all things God may be honored through Jesus Christ our Lord.

GOSPEL.

John xv. 26, 27 ; xvi. 1-4.

At that time, Jesus said to his disciples : When the Paraclete cometh whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceedeth from the Father, he shall give testimony of me. And you shall give testimony, because you are with me from the beginning. These things have I spoken to you, that you may not be scandalized. They will put you out of the synagogues : yea, the hour cometh that whosoever killeth you, will think that he doeth a service to God. And these things will they do to you, because they have not known the Father, nor me. But these things I have told you, that when the hour of them shall come, you may remember that I told you.

FEAST OF THE PENTECOST, OR WHITSUNDAY.

EPISTLE.

Acts ii. 1-11.

When the days of the Pentecost were accomplished, they were all together in one place: and suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a mighty wind coming, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. And there appeared to them parted tongues as it were of fire, and it sat upon every one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they began to speak with divers tongues, according as the Holy Ghost gave them to speak. Now there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men out of every nation under heaven. And when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded in mind, because that every man heard them speak in his own tongue. And they were all amazed and wondered, saying: Behold, are not all these that speak Galileans? And how have we heard every man our own tongue wherein we were born? Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea, and Cappadocia, Pontus, and Asia, Phrygia, and Pamphilia, Egypt, and the parts of Lybia about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome; Jews also, and proselytes, Cretes, and Arabians: we have heard them speak in our own tongues the wonderful works of God.

GOSPEL.

John xiv. 23-31.

At that time, Jesus said to his disciples : If any man love me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him, and will make our abode with him. He that loveth me not, keepeth not my words. And the word which you have heard is not mine, but the Father's who sent me. These things have I spoken to you, abiding with you. But the Paraclete, the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring all things to your mind, whatsoever I shall have said to you. Peace I leave with you ; my peace I give to you : not as the world giveth, do I give unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor let it be afraid. You have heard that I have said to you : I go away, and come again to you. If you loved me, you would indeed be glad, because I go to the Father : for the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it come to pass : that when it shall come to pass, you may believe. I will not now speak many things with you. For the prince of this world cometh, and in me he hath not any thing. But that the world may know that I love the Father : and as the Father hath given me commandment, so do I.

 TRINITY SUNDAY.

GOSPEL OF FIRST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

Luke vi. 36-42.

At that time, Jesus said to his disciples : Be ye merciful, as your Father also is merciful. Judge not, and you shall not be judged. Condemn not, and you shall not be condemned. Forgive, and you shall be forgiven. Give, and it shall be given to you: good measure and pressed down and shaken together and running over shall they give into your bosom. For with the same measure that you shall mete withal, it shall be measured to you again. And he spoke also to them a similitude: Can the blind lead the blind? do they not both fall into the ditch? The disciple is not above his master: but every one shall be perfect, if he be as his master. And why seest thou the mote in thy brother's eye: but the beam that is in thy own eye thou considerest not! Or how canst thou say to thy brother: Brother, let me pull the mote out of thy eye: when thou thyself seest not the beam in thy own eye? Hypocrite, cast first the beam out of thy own eye: and then shalt thou see clearly to take out the mote from thy brother's eye.

FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI.

EPISTLE.

1 Cor. xi. 23-29.

Brethren: For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you: that the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread, and giving thanks, broke and said: Take ye and eat, this is my body which shall be delivered for you: this do for the commemoration of me. In like manner the chalice also, after he had supped, saying: This chalice is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as often as you shall drink, for the commemoration of me. For as often as you shall eat this bread, and drink the chalice, you shall show the death of the Lord until he come. Therefore whosoever shall eat this bread, or drink the chalice of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and of the blood of the Lord. But let a man prove himself: and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of the chalice. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh judgment to himself, not discerning the body of the Lord.

GOSPEL.

John vi. 56-59.

At that time, Jesus said to the multitudes of the Jews: My flesh is meat indeed: and my blood is drink indeed: he that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, abideth in me, and I in him. As the living Father hath sent me and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, the same also shall live by me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Not as your fathers did eat manna and are dead. He that eateth this bread shall live forever.

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

1 John iii. 13-18.

Dearly beloved: Wonder not, if the world hate you. We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not, abideth in death. Whosoever hateth his brother, is a murderer. And you know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in himself. In this we have known the charity of God, because he hath laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. He that hath the substance of this world, and shall see his brother in need, and shall put up his bowels from him: how doth the charity of God abide in him? My little children, let us not love in word, nor in tongue, but in deed and in truth.

GOSPEL.

Luke xiv. 16-24.

At that time: Jesus spoke to the Pharisees this parable: A certain man made a great supper, and invited many. And he sent his servant at the hour of supper to say to them that were invited, that they should come, for now all things are ready. And they began all at once to make excuse. The first said to him: I have bought a farm, and I must needs go out and see it; I pray thee, hold me excused. And another said: I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to try them; I pray thee, hold me excused. And another said: I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. And the servant returning told these things to his lord. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant: Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor and the feeble, and the blind and the lame. And the servant said: Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room. And the lord said to the servant: Go out into the highways and hedges; and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. But I say unto you that none of those men that were invited shall taste of my supper.

FEAST OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS.

EPISTLE.

Isaias xii. 1-6.

I will give thanks to thee, O Lord, for thou wast angry with me: thy wrath is turned away, and thou hast comforted me. Behold, God is my Saviour. I will deal confidently, and will not fear: because the Lord is my strength, and my praise, and he has become my salvation. You shall draw waters with joy out of the Saviour's fountains: and you shall say in that day: Praise ye the Lord, and call upon his name: make his works known among the people: remember that his name is high. Sing ye to the Lord, for he hath done great things: show this forth in all the earth. Rejoice, and praise, O thou habitation of Sion: for great is he that is in the midst of thee, the holy One of Israel.

GOSPEL.

John xix. 31-35.

At that time, the Jews (because it was the parasceve), that the bodies might not remain upon the cross on the sabbath-day (for that was a great sabbath-day), besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. The soldiers therefore came: and they broke the legs of the first, and of the other that was crucified with him. But after they were come to Jesus, when they saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. But one of the soldiers with a spear opened his side, and immediately there came out blood and water. And he that saw it hath given testimony: and his testimony is true.

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

1 Peter v. 6.-ii.

Dearly beloved: Be you humbled under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in the time of visitation. Casting all your care upon him, for he hath care of you. Be sober and watch : because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, goeth about seeking whom he may devour. Whom resist ye, strong in faith : knowing that the same affliction befalls your brethren who are in the world. But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory in Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a little, will himself perfect you, and confirm you, and establish you. To him be glory and empire forever and ever.

GOSPEL.

Luke xv. 1-10.

At that time, the publicans and sinners drew near unto Jesus to hear him. And the Pharisees and the Scribes murmured, saying : This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them. And he spoke to them this parable, saying : What man is there of you that hath an hundred sheep : and if he shall lose one of them, doth he not leave the ninety-nine in the desert, and go after that which was lost until he find it ? And when he hath found it, lay it upon his shoulders rejoicing : and coming home call together his friends and neighbors, saying to them : Rejoice with me, because I have found my sheep that was lost ? I say to you, that even so there shall be joy in heaven upon one sinner that doth penance, more than upon ninety-nine just who need not penance. Or what woman having ten groats, if she lose one groat, doth not light a candle and sweep the house and seek diligently, until she find it ? And when she hath found it, call together her friends and neighbors, saying : Rejoice with me, because I have found the groat which I had lost ? So I say to you, there shall be joy before the angels of God upon one sinner doing penance.

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

Rom. viii. 18-23.

Brethren : I reckon, that the sufferings of this time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come, that shall be revealed in us. For the expectation of the creature waiteth for the revelation of the sons of God. For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him that made it subject, in hope : because the creature also itself shall be delivered from the servitude of corruption, into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. For we know that every creature groaneth, and is in labor even till now. And not only it, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption of the sons of God, the redemption of our body, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL.

Luke v. 1-11.

At that time : When the multitudes pressed upon Jesus to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Genesareth. And he saw two ships standing by the lake : but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets. And going into one of the ships that was Simon's, he desired him to draw back a little from the land. And sitting, he taught the multitudes out of the ship. Now when he had ceased to speak, he said to Simon : Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. And Simon answering said to him : Master, we have labored all the night, and have taken nothing : but at thy word I will let down the net. And when they had done this, they enclosed a very great multitude of fishes, and their net broke. And they beckoned to their partners that were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they were almost sinking; which, when Simon Peter saw, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying: Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord. For he was wholly astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken. And so were also James and John the sons of Zebedee, who were Simon's partners. And Jesus saith to Simon: Fear not: from henceforth thou shalt catch men. And having brought their ships to land, leaving all things, they followed him.

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

1 Peter iii. 8-15.

Dearly beloved: Be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, being lovers of the brotherhood, merciful, modest, humble: not rendering evil for evil, nor railing for railing, but contrariwise, blessing: for unto this are you called, that you may inherit a blessing. "For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile. Let him decline from evil, and do good: let him seek after peace, and pursue it: because the eyes of the Lord are upon the just, and his ears unto their prayers: but the countenance of the Lord upon them that do evil things." And who is he that can hurt you, if you be zealous of good? But if also you suffer anything for justice sake, blessed are ye. And be not afraid of their fear, and be not troubled; but sanctify the Lord Christ in your hearts.

GOSPEL.

Matt. v. 20-24.

At that time, Jesus said to his disciples: Amen I tell you, unless your justice abound more than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. You have heard that it was said to them of old: Thou shalt not kill. And whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment. But I say to you, that whosoever is angry with his brother, shall be in danger of the judgment. And whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council. And whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire. If therefore thou offer thy gift at the altar, and there thou remember that thy brother hath anything against thee, leave there thy gift before the altar, and go first to be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

Rom. vi. 3-11.

Brethren: We all, who are baptized in Christ Jesus, are baptized in his death. For we are buried together with him by baptism unto death: that as Christ is risen from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also may walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection. Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin may be destroyed, and that we may serve sin no longer. For he that is dead is justified from sin. Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall live also together with Christ; knowing that Christ rising again from the dead, dieth now no more, death shall no more have dominion over him. For in that he died to sin, he died once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. So do you also reckon that you are dead indeed to sin, but alive unto God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL.

Mark viii. 1-9.

At that time: When there was a great multitude with Jesus, and they had nothing to eat, calling his disciples together, he saith to them: I have compassion on the multitude, for behold they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat. And if I shall send them away fasting to their home, they will faint in the way, for some of them came from afar off. And his disciples answered him: From whence can any one fill them here with bread in the wilderness? And he asked them: How many loaves have ye? who said: Seven. And taking the seven loaves, giving thanks, he broke, and gave to his disciples to set before them, and they set them before the people. And they had a few little fishes, and he blessed them, and commanded them to be set before them. And they did eat and were filled, and they took up that which was left of the fragments, seven baskets. And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

Rom. vi. 19-23.

Brethren: I speak a human thing, because of the infirmity of your flesh. For as you have yielded your members to serve uncleanness and iniquity, unto iniquity; so now yield your members to serve justice, unto sanctification. For when you were the servants of sin, you were free from justice. What fruit therefore had you then in those things, of which you are now ashamed? For the end of them is death. But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, you have your fruit unto sanctification, and the end life everlasting. For the wages of sin is death; but the grace of God, life everlasting in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOSPEL.

Matt. vii. 15-2

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples: Beware of false prophets, who come to you in the clothing of sheep, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. By their fruits you shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, and the evil tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can an evil tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, shall be cut down, and shall be cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits you shall know them. Not every man that saith to me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven: but he that doth the will of my Father who is in heaven, he shall enter into the kingdom of heaven.

EIGHTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

Rom. viii. 12-17.

Brethren: We are debtors not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh, you shall die. But if by the spirit you mortify the deeds of the flesh, you shall live. For whosoever are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For you have not received the spirit of bondage again in fear : but you have received the spirit of adoption of sons, whereby we cry, Abba (Father). For the Spirit himself giveth testimony to our spirit, that we are the sons of God. And if sons, heirs also ; heirs indeed of God, and joint heirs with Christ.

GOSPEL.

Luke xvi. 1-9.

At that time, Jesus spoke to his disciples this parable : There was a certain rich man who had a steward : and the same was accused unto him, that he had wasted his goods. And he called him, and said to him : How is it that I hear this of thee ? give an account of thy stewardship : for now thou canst be steward no longer. And the steward said within himself : What shall I do, because my lord taketh away from me the stewardship ? To dig I am not able, to beg I am ashamed. I know what I will do, that when I shall be removed from the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. Therefore calling together every one of his lord's debtors, he said to the first : How much dost thou owe my lord ? But he said : An hundred barrels of oil. And he said to him : Take thy bill and sit down quickly, and write fifty. Then he said to another : And how much dost thou owe ? Who said : An hundred quarters of wheat. He said to him : Take thy bill, and write eighty. And the lord commended the unjust steward, forasmuch as he had done wisely : for the children of this world are wiser in their generation than the children of light. And I say to you : Make unto you friends of the mammon of iniquity, that when you shall fail they may receive you into everlasting dwellings.

NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

1 Cor. x. 6-13.

Brethren : We should not covet evil things, as they also coveted. Neither become ye idolaters, as some of them : as it is written : "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play." Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed fornication, and there fell in one day three and twenty thousand. Neither let us tempt Christ : as some of them tempted, and perished by the serpents. Neither do you murmur : as some of them murmured, and were destroyed by the destroyer. Now all these things happened to them in figure : and they are written for our correction, upon whom the ends of the world are come. Wherefore he that thinketh himself to stand, let him take heed lest he fall. Let no temptation take hold on you, but such as is human. And God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that which you are able : but will make also with temptation issue, that you may be able to bear it.

GOSPEL.

Luke xix. 41-47.

At that time : When Jesus drew near Jerusalem, seeing the city, he wept over it, saying : If thou also hadst known, and that in this thy day, the things that are to thy peace ; but now they are hidden from thy eyes. For the days shall come upon thee : and thy enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and straiten thee on every side, and beat thee flat to the ground, and thy children who are in thee; and they shall not leave in thee a stone upon a stone: because thou hast not known the time of thy visitation. And entering into the temple, he began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought, saying to them: It is written: "My house is the house of prayer;" but you have made it a den of thieves. And he was teaching daily in the temple.

TENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

1 Cor. xii. 2-11.

Brethren: You know that when you were heathens, you went to dumb idols, according as you were led. Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man, speaking by the Spirit of God, saith, Anathema to Jesus. And no man can say, The Lord Jesus, but by the Holy Ghost. Now there are diversities of graces, but the same spirit: and there are diversities of ministries, but the same Lord. And there are diversities of operations, but the same God, who worketh all in all. And the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man unto profit. To one, indeed, by the Spirit, is given the word of wisdom: to another, the word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit: to another, faith in the same Spirit: to another, the grace of healing, in one Spirit: to another, the working of miracles: to another, prophecy: to another, the discerning of spirits: to another, divers kinds of tongues: to another, interpretation of speeches: but all these things one and the same Spirit worketh, dividing to every one according as he will.

GOSPEL.

Luke xviii. 9-14.

About that time: To some who trusted in themselves as just, and despised others, Jesus spoke this parable: Two men went up into the temple to pray: the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The Pharisee, standing, prayed thus with himself: O God! I give thee thanks that I am not as the rest of men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, as also is this publican. I fast twice in a week: I give tithes of all that I possess. And the publican, standing afar off, would not so much as lift up his eyes towards heaven; but struck his breast, saying: O God! be merciful to me a sinner! I say to you, this man went down into his house justified rather than the other; because every one that exalteth himself, shall be humbled: and he that humbleth himself, shall be exalted.

ELEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

1 Cor. xv. 1-10.

Brethren: I make known unto you the gospel which I preached to you, which also you have received, and wherein you stand: by which also you are saved, if you hold fast after what manner I preached unto you, unless you have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all, which I also received: how that Christ died for our sins, according to the Scriptures: and that he was buried, and that he arose again the third day, according to the Scriptures: and that he was seen by Cephas, and after that by the eleven. Then was he seen by more than five hundred brethren at once, of whom many remain until this present, and some are fallen asleep. After that, he was seen by James, then by all the apostles. And last of all, he was seen also by me, as by one born out of due time. For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am; and his grace in me hath not been void.

GOSPEL.

Mark vii. 31-37.

At that time : Jesus going out of the coasts of Tyre, came by Sidon to the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis. And they bring to him one deaf and dumb: and they besought him that he would lay his hand upon him. And taking him from the multitude apart, he put his fingers into his ears, and spitting, he touched his tongue: and looking up to heaven, he groaned, and said to him: Ephpheta, which is, Be thou opened. And immediately his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spoke right. And he charged them that they should tell no man. But the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal did they publish it. And so much the more did they wonder, saying: He hath done all things well; he hath made both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

 TWELFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

2 Cor. iii. 4-9.

Brethren : Such confidence we have, through Christ towards God. Not that we are sufficient to think any thing of ourselves as of ourselves ; but our sufficiency is from God. Who also hath made us fit ministers of the new testament, not in the letter, but in the Spirit. For the letter killeth : but the Spirit quickeneth. Now if the ministration of death, engraven with letters upon stones, was glorious ; so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses, for the glory of his countenance, which is made void : How shall not the ministration of the Spirit be rather in glory ? For if the ministration of condemnation be glory ; much more the ministration of justice aboundeth in glory.

GOSPEL.

Luke x. 23-37.

At that time : Jesus said to his disciples : Blessed are the eyes that see the things which you see. For I say to you that many prophets and kings have desired to see the things that you see, and have not seen them : and to hear the things that you hear, and have not heard them. And behold a certain lawyer stood up, tempting him, and saying : Master, what must I do to possess eternal life ? But he said to him : What is written in the law ? how readest thou ? He answering, said : "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart, and with thy whole soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind : and thy neighbor as thyself." And he said to him : Thou hast answered right : this do, and thou shalt live. But he, willing to justify himself, said to Jesus : And who is my neighbor ? And Jesus answering, said : A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among robbers, who also stripped him, and, having wounded him, went away, leaving him half dead. And it chanced that a certain priest went down the same way ; and seeing him, passed by. In like manner also a levite, when he was near the place and saw him, passed by. But a certain Samaritan being on his journey, came near him; and seeing him, was moved with compassion. And going up to him, bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine: and sitting him upon his own beast, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And the next day he took out two pence, and gave to the host, and said: Take care of him: and whatsoever thou shalt spend over and above, I at my return will repay thee. Which of these three in thy opinion was neighbor to him that fell among the robbers? But he said: He that showed mercy to him. And Jesus said to him: Go and do thou in like manner.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

Gal. iii. 16-22.

Brethren: To Abraham were the promises made, and to his seed. He saith not, "And to his seeds," as of many: but as of one, "And to thy seed," which is Christ. Now this I say, that the testament which was confirmed by God, the law which was made after four hundred and thirty years, doth not disannul, to make the promise of no effect. For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise. But God gave it to Abraham by promise. Why then was the law? It was set because of transgressions, until the seed should come, to whom he made the promise, being ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator. Now a mediator is not of one: but God is one. Was the law then against the promises of God? God forbid. For if there had been a law given which could give life, verily justice should have been by the law. But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by the faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

GOSPEL

Luke xvii. 11-19.

At that time: As Jesus was going to Jerusalem, he passed through the midst of Samaria in Galilee. And as he entered into a certain town, there met him ten men that were lepers, who stood afar off; and lifted up their voice, saying: Jesus, master, have mercy on us. Whom when he saw, he said: Go, show yourselves to the priests. And it came to pass, as they went, they were made clean. And one of them, when he saw that he was made clean, went back, with a loud voice glorifying God; and he fell on his face, before his feet, giving thanks: and this was a Samaritan. And Jesus answering, said: Were not ten made clean? and where are the nine? There is no one found to return and give glory to God, but this stranger. And he said to him: Arise, go thy way, for thy faith hath made thee whole

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

Gal. v. 16-24.

Brethren: I say then walk in the spirit, and you shall not fulfil the lusts of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the spirit; and the spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary one to another: so that you do not the things that you would. But if you are led by the spirit, you are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are, fornication, uncleanness, immodesty, luxury, idolatry, witchcrafts, enmities, contentions, emulations, wraths, quarrels, dissensions, sects, envies, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like. Of the which I foretell you, as I have foretold to you, that they who do such things, shall not obtain the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the spirit is, charity, joy, peace, patience, benignity, goodness, longanimity, mildness, faith, modesty, continency, chastity. Against such there is no law. And they that are Christ's, have crucified their flesh, with the vices and concupiscences.

GOSPEL.

Matt. vi. 24-33.

At that time : Jesus said to his disciples: No man can serve two masters. For either he will hate the one, and love the other: or he will sustain the one, and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon. Therefore I say to you, be not solicitous for your life, what you shall eat, nor for your body, what you shall put on. Is not the life more than the meat, and the body more than the raiment? Behold the birds of the air, for they neither sow, nor do they reap, nor gather into barns: and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not you of much more value than they? And which of you by taking thought can add to his stature one cubit? And for raiment why are you solicitous? Consider the lilies of the field how they grow: they labor not, neither do they spin. But I say to you, that not even Solomon in all his glory was arrayed as one of these. And if the grass of the field, which is to-day, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, God doth so clothe: how much more you, O ye of little faith? Be not solicitous therefore, saying: What shall we eat, or what shall we drink, or wherewith shall we be clothed? For after all these things do the heathens seek. For your Father knoweth that you have need of all these things. Seek ye therefore first the kingdom of God and his justice, and all these things shall be added unto you.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

Gal. v. 25, 26; vi. 1-10.

Brethren: If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. Let us not be made desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another. And if a man be overtaken in any fault, you, who are spiritual, instruct such a one in the spirit of meekness, considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's burdens: and so you shall fulfil the law of Christ. For if any man think himself to be something, whereas he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. But let every one prove his own work, and so he shall have glory in himself only, and not in another. For every one shall bear his own burden. And let him that is instructed in the word communicate to him that instructeth him, in all good things. Be not deceived, God is not mocked. For what things a man shall sow, those also shall he reap. For he that soweth in his flesh, of the flesh also shall reap corruption. But he that soweth in the spirit, of the spirit shall reap life everlasting. And in doing good, let us not fail. For in due time we shall reap, not failing. Therefore, whilst we have time, let us work good to all men, but especially to those who are of the household of the faith.

GOSPEL.

Luke vii. 11-16.

At that time : Jesus went into a city that is called Naim ; and there went with him his disciples, and a great multitude. And when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold a dead man was carried out, the only son of his mother ; and she was a widow : and a great multitude of the city was with her. Whom when the Lord had seen, being moved with mercy towards her, he said to her : Weep not. And he came near and touched the bier. And they that carried it stood still. And he said : Young man, I say to thee, Arise. And he that was dead sat up and began to speak. And he gave him to his mother. And there came a fear on them all ; and they glorified God, saying : A great prophet is risen up among us : and God hath visited his people.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

Eph. iii. 13-21.

Brethren : I pray you not to faint at my tribulations for you, which is your glory. For this cause I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom all paternity in heaven and earth is named, that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened by his Spirit with might unto the inward man. That Christ may dwell by faith in your hearts : that being rooted and founded in charity, you may be able to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth, and length, and height, and depth. To know also the charity of Christ, which surpasseth all knowledge, that you may be filled unto all the fulness of God. Now to him who is able to do all things more abundantly than we desire or understand, according to the power that worketh in us: to him be glory in the church, and in Christ Jesus, unto all generations, world without end. Amen.

GOSPEL.

Luke xiv. 1-11.

At that time: When Jesus went into the house of one of the chief of the Pharisees, on the sabbath day, to eat bread, they watched him. And behold there was a certain man before him that had the dropsy. And Jesus answering, spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying: Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? But they held their peace. But he, taking him, healed him, and sent him away. And answering them, he said: Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fall into a pit, and will not immediately draw him out on the sabbath day? And they could not answer him to these things. And he spoke a parable also to them that were invited, marking how they chose the first seats at the table, saying to them: When thou art invited to a wedding, sit not down in the first place, lest perhaps one more honorable than thou be invited by him: and he that invited thee and him, come and say to thee, Give this man place: and then thou begin with shame to take the lowest place. But when thou art invited, go; sit down in the lowest place: that when he who invited thee cometh, he may say to thee: Friend, go up higher. Then shalt thou have glory before them that sit at table with thee. Because every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled : and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

Eph. iv. 1-6.

Brethren : As a prisoner in the Lord, I beseech you that you walk worthy of the vocation in which you are called, with all humility and mildness, with patience, supporting one another in charity, careful to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. One body and one Spirit : as you are called in one hope of your calling. One Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and one Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in us all, who is blessed for ever and ever.

GOSPEL.

Matt. xxii. 35-46.

At that time, the Pharisees came nigh to Jesus : and one of them, a doctor of the law, asked him, tempting him : Master, which is the great commandment in the law ? Jesus said to him : Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart, and with thy whole soul, and with thy whole mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. And the second is like to this : Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments dependeth the whole law and the prophets. And the Pharisees being gathered together, Jesus asked them, saying : What think you of Christ ? Whose son is he ? They say to him : David's. He saith to them : How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying : "The Lord said to my Lord : Sit on my right hand, until I make thy enemies thy footstool ?" If David then call him Lord, how is he his son ? And no man was able to answer him a word : neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

1 Cor. i. 4-8.

Brethren : I give thanks to my God always for you, for the grace of God that is given you in Christ Jesus, that in all things you are made rich in him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge ; as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you : so that nothing is wanting to you in any grace, waiting for the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ, who also will confirm you unto the end without crime in the day of the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

GOSPEL.

Matt. ix. 1-8.

At that time : Jesus entering into a boat, passed over the water and came into his own city. And behold they brought to him one sick of the palsy lying in a bed. And Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the man sick of the palsy : Be of good heart, son, thy sins are forgiven thee. And behold some of the scribes said within themselves : He blasphemeth. And Jesus seeing their thoughts, said : Why do you think evil in your hearts ? Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins are forgiven thee : or to say, Arise and walk ? But that you may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins (then saith he to the man sick of the palsy), Arise ; take up thy bed and go into thy house. And he arose, and went into his house. And the multitude seeing it, feared, and glorified God that gave such power to men.

NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

Eph. iv. 23-28.

Brethren : Be renewed in the spirit of your mind : and put on the new man, who, according to God, is created in justice, and holiness of truth. Wherefore, putting away lying, speak ye the truth every man with his neighbor : for we are members one of another. Be angry, and sin not. Let not the sun go down upon your anger. Give not place to the devil. He that stole, let him now steal no more, but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have something to give to him that suffereth need.

GOSPEL.

Matt. xxii. 2-14.

At that time : Jesus spoke to the chief priests and Pharisees in parables, saying : The kingdom of heaven is likened to a king, who made a marriage for his son. And he sent his servants to call them that were invited to the marriage : and they would not come. Again he sent other servants, saying : Tell them that were invited : Behold, I have prepared my dinner ; my beeves and fatlings are killed, and all things are ready : come ye to the marriage. But they neglected, and went their ways, one to his farm, and another to his merchandise. And the rest laid hands on his servants, and, having treated them contumeliously, put them to death. But when the king had heard of it, he was angry, and, sending his armies, he destroyed those murderers, and burnt their city. Then he said to his servants: The marriage indeed is ready: but they that were invited were not worthy. Go ye therefore into the highways; and as many as you shall find, call to the marriage. And his servants going forth into the ways, gathered together all that they found, both bad and good: and the marriage was filled with guests. And the king went in to see the guests: and he saw there a man who had not on a wedding garment. And he saith to him: Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? But he was silent. Then the king said to the waiters: Bind his hands and feet, and cast him into the exterior darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. For many are called, but few are chosen.

TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

Eph. v. 15-21.

See, brethren, how you walk circumspectly: not as unwise, but as wise: redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Wherefore become not unwise, but understanding what is the will of God. And be not drunk with wine, wherein is luxury, but be ye filled with the Holy Spirit. Speaking to yourselves in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual canticles, singing and making melody in your hearts to the Lord: giving thanks always for all things, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to God and the Father: being subject one to another in the fear of Christ.

GOSPEL.

John iv. 46-53.

At that time: There was a certain ruler whose son was sick at Capharnaum. He having heard that Jesus was come from Judea into Galilee, went to him, and prayed him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. Jesus therefore said to him: Unless you see signs and wonders, you believe not. The ruler saith to him: Lord, come down before that my son die. Jesus saith to him: Go thy way, thy son liveth. The man believed the word which Jesus said to him, and went his way. And as he was going down, his servants met him: and they brought word, saying that his son lived. He asked therefore of them the hour wherein he grew better. And they said to him: Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. The father therefore knew that it was at the same hour that Jesus said to him, Thy son liveth; and himself believed, and his whole house.

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

Eph. vi. 10-17.

Brethren: Be strengthened in the Lord, and in the might of his power. Put you on the armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the deceits of the devil. For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers, against the rulers of the world of this darkness, against the spirits of wickedness in the high places. Therefore take unto you the armor of God, that you may be able to resist in the evil day, and to stand in all things perfect. Stand, therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breast-plate of justice: and your feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of peace: in all things taking the shield of faith, wherewith you may be able to extinguish all the fiery darts of the most wicked one. And take unto you the helmet of salvation; and the sword of the Spirit (which is the word of God).

GOSPEL.

Matt. xviii. 23-35.

At that time: Jesus spoke to his disciples this parable: The kingdom of heaven is likened to a king who would take an account of his servants. And when he had begun to take the account, one was brought to him that owed him ten thousand talents. And as he had not wherewith to pay it, his lord commanded that he should be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. But the servant, falling down, besought him, saying: Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And the lord of that servant, being moved with pity, let him go, and forgave him the debt. But when that servant was gone out, he found one of his fellow-servants that owed him a hundred pence; and laying hold of him, he throttled him, saying: Pay what thou owest. And his fellow-servant, falling down, besought him, saying: Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt. Now his fellow-servants, seeing what was done, were very much grieved, and they came and told their lord all that was done. Then his lord called him, and said to him: Thou wicked servant! I forgave thee all the debt, because thou besoughtest me: shouldst not thou then have had compassion also on thy fellow-servant, even as I had compassion on thee? And his lord being angry, delivered him to the tortures until he should pay all the debt. So also shall my heavenly Father do to you, if you forgive not every one his brother from your hearts.

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

Phil. i. 6-11.

Brethren: We are confident of this very thing, that he, who hath begun a good work in you, will perfect it unto the day of Christ Jesus. As it is meet for me to think this for you all: for that I have you in my heart; and that in my bonds, and in the defence, and confirmation of the Gospel, you are all partakers of my joy. For God is my witness, how I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ. And this I pray, that your charity may more and more abound in knowledge, and in all understanding: that you may approve the better things, that you may be sincere and without offence unto the day of Christ. Filled with the fruit of justice through Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

GOSPEL.

Matt. xxii. 15-21.

At that time: The Pharisees going, consulted among themselves how to ensnare Jesus in his speech. And they sent to him their disciples with the Herodians, saying: Master, we know that thou art a true speaker, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou dost not regard the person of men. Tell us therefore what dost thou think, is it lawful to give tribute to Cæsar, or not? But Jesus, knowing their wickedness, said: Why do you tempt me, ye hypocrites? Show me the coin of the tribute. And they offered him a penny. And Jesus saith to them: Whose image and inscription is this? They say to him: Cæsar's. Then he saith to them: Render therefore to Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and to God the things that are God's.

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

Phil. iii. 17-21; iv. 1-3.

Be followers of me, brethren, and observe them who walk so as you have our model. For many walk, of whom I have told you often (and now tell you weeping) that they are enemies of the cross of Christ; whose end is destruction: whose God is their belly: and whose glory is their shame: who mind earthly things. But our conversation is in heaven: from whence also we look for the Saviour, our Lord Jesus Christ, who will reform the body of our lowliness, made like to the body of his glory, according to the operation whereby also he is able to subdue all things unto himself. Therefore, my dearly beloved brethren, and most desired, my joy and my crown: so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved. I beg of Euodia, and I beseech Syntyche to be of one mind in the Lord. And

I entreat thee also, my sincere companion, help those women that have labored with me in the gospel with Clement and the rest of my fellow-laborers, whose names are in the book of life.

GOSPEL.

Matt. ix. 18-26.

At that time: As Jesus was speaking these things unto them, behold a certain ruler came up, and adored him, saying: Lord, my daughter is even now dead: but come, lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live. And Jesus rising up, followed him with his disciples. And behold a woman who was troubled with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment. For she said within herself: If I shall touch only his garment, I shall be healed. But Jesus turning and seeing her, said: Be of good heart, daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour. And when Jesus was come into the house of the ruler, and saw the minstrels and the multitude making a rout, he said: Give place, for the girl is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn. And when the multitude was put forth, he went in and took her by the hand. And the maid arose. And the fame hereof went abroad into all the country.

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST.

EPISTLE.

Col. i. 9-14.

Brethren: We cease not to pray for you, and to beg that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom, and spiritual understanding: that you may walk worthy of God, in all things pleasing : being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God : strengthened with all might according to the power of his glory, in all patience and long-suffering with joy, giving thanks to God the Father, who hath made us worthy to be partakers of the lot of the saints in light : who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of the Son of his love : in whom we have redemption through his blood, the remission of sins.

GOSPEL.

Matt. xxiv. 15-35.

At that time, Jesus said to his disciples : When you shall see “the abomination of desolation,” which was spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place : he that readeth, let him understand. Then they that are in Judea, let them flee to the mountains. And he that is on the house-top, let him not come down to take anything out of his house : and he that is in the field, let him not go back to take his coat. And woe to them that are with child, and that give suck in those days. But pray that your flight be not in the winter, or on the sabbath. For there shall be then great tribulation, such as hath not been from the beginning of the world until now, neither shall be. And unless those days had been shortened, no flesh should be saved : but for the sake of the elect those days shall be shortened. Then if any man shall say to you : Lo here is Christ, or there, do not believe him. For there shall arise false Christs and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders, insomuch as to deceive (if possible) even the elect. Behold I have told it to you beforehand. If therefore they shall say to you : Behold he is in the desert ; go ye not out : Behold he is in the closets ; believe it not. For as lightning cometh out of the east, and appeareth even unto the west: so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. Wheresoever the body shall be, there shall the eagles also be gathered together. And immediately after the tribulation of those days, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be moved. And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn; and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with much power and majesty. And he shall send his angels with a trumpet, and a great voice: and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the farthest parts of the heavens to the utmost bounds of them. And from the fig-tree learn a parable: when the branch thereof is now tender, and the leaves come forth, you know that summer is nigh. So you also, when you shall see all these things, know ye that it is nigh, even at the doors. Amen I say to you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my word shall not pass away.

Festivals of the Year

NOT DEPENDING ON LENT OR ADVENT.

PURIFICATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN.

EPISTLE.

Mal. iii. 1-4.

Thus saith the Lord: Behold I send my angel, and he shall prepare the way before thy face. And presently the Lord, whom you seek, and the angel of the testament, whom you desire, shall come to his temple. Behold he cometh, saith the Lord of hosts : and who shall be able to think of the day of his coming ? and who shall stand to see him ? for he is like a refining fire, and like the fuller's herb : and he shall sit refining and cleansing the silver, and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and shall refine them as gold and as silver, and they shall offer sacrifices to the Lord in justice. And the sacrifice of Juda and of Jerusalem shall please the Lord, as in the days of old, and in the ancient years, saith the Lord Almighty.

GOSPEL.

Luke ii. 22-32.

At that time : After the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they carried him to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord. As it is written in the law of the Lord : " Every male opening the womb shall be called holy to the Lord." And to offer a sacrifice according as it is written in the law of the Lord, a pair of turtle doves, or two young pigeons. And behold there was a man in Jerusalem named Simeon, and this man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel : and the Holy Ghost was in him. And he had received an answer from the Holy Ghost, that he should not see death before he had seen the Christ of the Lord. And he came by the Spirit into the temple. And when his parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him according to the custom of the law, he also took him into his arms, and blessed God, and said : Now thou dost dismiss thy servant, O Lord, according to thy word, in peace : because my eyes have seen thy salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of all peoples : a light to the revelation of the gentiles and the glory of thy people Israel.

ANNUNCIATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN.

EPISTLE.

Isaias vii. 10-15.

In those days: The Lord spoke to Achaz, saying : Ask thee a sign of the Lord thy God, either unto the depth of hell, or unto the height above. And Achaz said : I will not ask, and I will not tempt the Lord. And he said : Hear ye therefore, O house of David : Is it a small thing for you to be grievous to men, that you are grievous to my God also ? Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign. Behold a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and his name shall be called Emmanuel. He shall eat butter and honey, that he may know to refuse the evil, and to choose the good.

GOSPEL.

Luke i. 26-38.

And in the sixth month, the Angel Gabriel was sent from God into a city of Galilee, called Nazareth, to a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David : and the virgin's name was Mary. And the angel being come in, said unto her : Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with thee : blessed art thou among women. Who, having heard, was troubled at his saying, and thought with herself what manner of salutation this should be. And the angel said to her : Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found grace with God. Behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and shalt bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of David his father, and he shall reign in the house of Jacob, his father, forever, and of his kingdom there shall be no end. And Mary said to the angel : How shall this be done, because I know not man ? And the angel answering, said to her : The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Most High shall overshadow thee. And therefore also the Holy which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. And behold thy cousin Elizabeth, she also hath conceived a son in her old age ; and this is the sixth month with her that is called barren ; because no word shall be impossible with God. And Mary said : Behold the handmaid of the Lord, be it done to me according to thy word.

VISITATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN.

EPISTLE.

Cant. ii. 8-14.

The voice of my beloved, behold he cometh leaping upon the mountains, skipping over the hills. My beloved is like a roe or a young hart. Behold he standeth behind our wall, looking through the windows, looking through the lattices. Behold my beloved speaketh to me : Arise, make haste, my love, my dove, my beautiful one, and come. For winter is now past, the rain is over and gone. The flowers have appeared in our land, the time of pruning is come : the voice of the turtle is heard in our land : the fig-tree hath but forth her green figs : the vines in flower yield their sweet smell. Arise, my love, my beautiful one, and come. My dove in the cliffs of the rock, in the hollow places of the wall, show me thy face, let thy voice sound in my ears: for thy voice is sweet, and thy face comely.

GOSPEL.

Luke i. 39-47.

And Mary rising up in those days, went into the hill-country with haste, into a city of Juda. And she entered into the house of Zachary, and saluted Elizabeth. And it came to pass, that when Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the infant leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost: and she cried out with a loud voice, and said: Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For behold, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy. And blessed art thou that hast believed, because those things shall be accomplished that were spoken to thee by the Lord. And Mary said: My soul doth magnify the Lord: and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN.

EPISTLE.

Eccles. xxiv. 11-20.

In all these things I sought rest, and I shall abide in the inheritance of the Lord. Then the Creator of all things commanded, and said to me: and he that made me rested in my tabernacle. And he said to me: Let thy dwelling be in Jacob, and thy inheritance in Israel, and take root in my elect. From the beginning and before the world I was created, and unto the world to come I shall not cease to be, and in the holy dwelling-place I have ministered before him. And so was I established in Sion, and in the holy city likewise I rested, and my power was in Jerusalem. And I took root in an honorable people, and in the portion of my God, his inheritance, and my abode is in the full assembly of saints. I was exalted like a cedar in Libanus, and as a cypress-tree on Mount Sion. I was exalted like a palm-tree in Cades, and as a rose-plant in Jericho : as a fair olive-tree in the plains, and as a plane-tree by the water in the streets was I exalted. I gave a sweet smell like cinnamon and aromatic balm : I yielded a sweet odor like the best myrrh.

Luke x. 38-42.

At that time: Jesus entered into a certain town ; and a certain woman, named Martha, received him into her house. And she had a sister called Mary, who, sitting also at the Lord's feet, heard his word. But Martha was busy about much serving : who stood and said : Lord, hast thou no care that my sister hath left me alone to serve ? speak to her, therefore, that she help me. And the Lord answering, said to her : Martha, Martha, thou art careful, and thou art troubled about many things. But one thing is necessary. Mary hath chosen the best part, which shall not be taken away from her.

Apoc. vii. 2-12.

In those days: Behold I John saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, having the sign of the living God ; and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, saying : Hurt not the earth, nor the sea, nor the trees, till we sign the servants of our God in their foreheads. And I heard the number of them that were signed, an hundred forty-four thousand were signed, of every tribe of the children of Israel. Of the tribe of Juda, were twelve thousand signed. Of the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand signed. Of the tribe of Gad, twelve thousand signed. Of the tribe of Aser, twelve thousand signed. Of the tribe of Nephthali, twelve thousand signed. Of the tribe of Manasses, twelve thousand signed. Of the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand signed. Of the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand signed. Of the tribe of Issachar, twelve thousand signed. Of the tribe of Zabulon, twelve thousand signed. Of the tribe of Joseph, twelve thousand signed. Of the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand signed. After this, I saw a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and tribes, and peoples, and tongues : standing before the throne, and in sight of the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands : and they cried with a loud voice, saying : Salvation to our God, who sitteth upon the throne, and to the Lamb. And all the angels stood round about the throne, and the ancients, and the four living creatures ; and they fell down before the throne upon their faces, and adored God, saying : Amen. Benediction, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, honor, and power, and strength to our God forever and ever. Amen.

Matt. v. 1-12.

At that time : Jesus seeing the multitudes, went up into a mountain, and when he was sat down, his disciples came unto him. And opening his mouth, he taught them saying : Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are the meek : for they shall possess the land. Blessed are they that mourn : for they shall be comforted. Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after justice : for they shall have their fill. Blessed are the merciful : for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the clean of heart : for they shall see God. Blessed are the peace-makers : for they shall be called the children of God. Blessed are they that suffer persecution for justice' sake : for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye when they shall revile you, and persecute you, and speak all that is evil against you, untruly, for my sake : be glad and rejoice, for your reward is very great in heaven.

1 Cor. xv. 51-57.

Brethren : Behold I tell you a mystery. We shall all indeed rise again : but we shall not all be changed. In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet : for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall rise again incorruptible : and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption : and this mortal must put on immortality. And when this mortal hath put on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written : " Death is swallowed up in victory." Oh death, where is thy victory. O death, where is thy sting ? Now the sting of death is sin : and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who hath given us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

John v. 25-29.

At that time : Jesus said to the multitude of the Jews : Amen, amen, I say unto you that the hour cometh, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God, and they that hear shall live. For as the Father hath life in himself : so he hath given to the Son also to have life in himself : and he hath given him power to do judgment, because he is the Son of man. Wonder not at this, for the hour cometh wherein all that are in the graves shall hear the voice of the Son of God. And they that have done good things, shall come forth unto the resurrection of life ; but they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of judgment.

Prov. viii. 22-35.

The Lord possessed me in the beginning of his ways, before he made anything from the beginning. I was set up from eternity, and of old before the earth was made. The depths were not as yet, and I was already conceived, neither had the fountains of waters as yet sprung out : the mountains with their huge bulk had not as yet been established : before the hills I was brought forth : he had not yet made the earth nor the rivers nor the poles of the world. When he prepared the heavens I was present ; when with a certain law and compass he enclosed the depths ; when he established the sky above, and poised the fountains of water ; when he compassed the sea with its bounds, and set a law to the waters that they should not pass their limits : when he balanced the foundations of the earth, I was with him forming all things ; and was delighted every day, playing before him at all times : playing in the world, and my delights were to be with the children of men. Now therefore, ye children, hear me : Blessed are they that keep my ways. Hear instruction and be wise, and refuse it not. Blessed is the man that heareth me, and that watcheth daily at my gates, and waiteth at the posts of my doors. He that shall find me shall find life, and shall have salvation from the Lord.
